Caught With the Goods in Colorado, W. L. Tipton, Formerly of Fannin County, Confesses to Counterfeiting

SLEUTH ONCE CHASED HIM FROM THIS STATE

J. M. Wright Trailed Man Across Continent, and Caught Him, but Ga. Jury Held He Was Not Guilty

Arrested on a coutnerfeiting charge in Georgia eleven years ago, escaped to Colorado, brought back and freed by jury trial six years ago, W. L. Tipton, formerly of Fannin county, Georgia, has confessed to his crime and, caught red-handed, will be tried on a new charge of counterfeiting near Greely, Col.

News of his confession has been received at the United States secret service offices here by J. M. Wright, the same sleuth who tracked Tipton in the Fannin hills in 1903 and had him arrested.

Wright searched his premises at that time and found counterfeiting moulds. Before he got his man, Tipton fled to Colorado, where he is said to have taken up the public profession of preaching and truck farming and the private one of poker playing and manufacturing fake half dollars.

Wright trailed his man across the continent and in 1908, following Tipton's indictment in Atlanta on the counterfeiting charge he was arrested in Greely and brought back to Georgia. The jury that tried him turned in a "not guilty" verdict and Tipton went back to Colorado.

REVIVES OLD MEMORIES.

Agent Wright had almost forgotten the old case, until it came back to him, a vivid reminder Tuesday morning, in the form of a newspaper clipping from the Greely Republican of March 2, telling of Tipton's arrest and confession.

According to the clipping, Secret Service Agent Rowland K. Goddard raided Tipton's little cabin near Greeley and surprised the counterfeiter as he was drying a plaster of paris mould which Goddard drew from the kitchen stove. A search of the cabin revealed two Bibles and a number of manuscript sermons that Tipton was wont to deliver in his itinerant rambles; an excellent coin mould; poker chips concealed beneath a pile of religious tracts, and some stolen steel traps beneath a lot of old beer bottles.

An examination of Greeley's mould and his counterfeit coins says the clipping, revealed the fact that he was an expert at the work. Secret service men say he is one of the best in the country.

With Tipton was arrested his son-in-law, "Blackie" Haynes. The latter denies the ocunterfeiting charge but Tipton admits all. He will be tried in Colorado.

LEADERS WANT TRUST BILLS TO BE HASTENED

To Work Nights to Complete Draft of Bill to Create Interstate Trade Body

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—"Hasten the trust bills," is the unofficial message actuating congressional committees in charge of the administration program. Contending that preliminary consideration of proposed laws to further regulate monopoly has been delayed, administration leaders are urging that comittees speed up their work.

The senate commerce subcommittee has decided to work nights to complete the draft of the bill to create an interstate trade commission. House committees also have been urged to get the final program into shape. Chairman Clayton, of the judiciary comittee, after his conference with President Wilson yesterday on tentative measures to supplement the Sherman law, had a subcommittee working today revising measures to which so many objections have been made on the ground that they might limit rather than extend operation of the existing act. It now is planned to have the trade commission bill ready for discussion in the house by April.

LONGER SCHOOL DAYS FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Educational Paper Says Moral and Scholastic Delinquency Would Be Eliminated

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, March 10.—Longer school days with sessions throughout the summer months are urged in an article in the current number of the School Review, issued today at the University of Chicago.

Moral and scholastic delinquency would be prevented and economic waste in school management would be eliminated under such a plan according to the article.

"City children are becoming more and more helpless as the result of the idleness imposed upon them by city life," says the article. "The boys, at least, are exposed through their long evenings and holidays to the various influences of the street." The article urges the employment of vocational teachers the year round.

WOMEN ARE BALLOTING IN ILLINOIS PRIMARIES

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 10.—Women in hundreds of villages and small cities throughout Illinois today participated for the first time in selection of nominees for municipal offices in local primaries. In more than a hundred municipalities the local option question is to be voted on at the regular village election April 21 and in these places there was noticeable activity among the women.

ATLANTIAN IS VICTIM IN FIRE THAT BURNED BIG CLUB IN ST. LOUIS

Ed P. Williams, Tech 1900, Brother of James T. Williams, Also of This City, Lost Life as Missouri Athletic Club Burned

Ed P. Williams, a 1900 graduate of the Georgia School of Technology, and a brother of James T. Williams, 322 West Peachtree street, was burned to death in the fire which destroyed the building of the Missouri Athletic club in St. Louis Monday morning.

James T. Williams received a letter from his brother dated March 4, New York, in which he stated that he was leaving for St. Louis on a business trip. He usually stops at the Jefferson hotel there and Mr. Williams did not have an idea that he might be a fire victim until Tuesday morning when he received a telegram from another brother, Church C. Williams, of Chicago, saying that the brother's body had been recovered.

Besides James T. Williams, who is a member of the Williams-Hartsock company, Ed P. Williams has a sister in Atlanta, Miss Mary Williams, a pupil of Miss Woodbury's school. His father resides in north Georgia and there is still another brother in Birmingham.

Ten Bodies Recovered From Fire in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Firemen today entered the ruins of the Missouri Athletic club, which was destroyed by fire Sunday night, and recovered three bodies. This brings the total number of bodies recovered to ten. Of these six have been identified. Twenty-two, or possibly twenty-three, bodies still are believed to be in the ruins.

The body in the morgue identified yesterday as that of Allen R. Hancock was identified today as that of L. P. Ruff, department manager for the Simmons Hardware company, St. Louis.

One of the bodies taken out today was identified by two employes of the club as that of Marshall Bier, head of Marshall Bier & Co., fur dealers of St. Louis.

Another body was identified as that of William J. Kinser, treasurer of the Kinser Construction company, St. Louis.

UNEMPLOYED ARMY DRIVEN OUT BY FORCE

Leaders in Jail; Men Are in Dire Straits in Camp Guarded by Deputies

(By Associated Press.)

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 10.—Beaten and badly disorganized, its leaders in Sacramento jails and provided with scanty food and shelter, the "unemployed army" driven from Sacramento is encamped today across the river in Yolo county, a dejected lot of men. Deputies are guarding the bridges and will not permit any to return to the city, while Yolo county officers, heavily armed, are keeping the men within the new camp established yesterday after the "army" was forced beyond the city limits.

With no spokesman and no leaders, the band of 1,000 has put aside temporarily its projected trip to Washington, D. C., and turned its attention to the graver subject of subsistence.

The city and county governments have sent enough money to provision two meals. Yolo county, which last Friday paid the army's transportation from Davis to Sacramento, has as yet taken no action to further disperse the men.

Applications will be made, it was stated today, for writs of habeas corpus in behalf of "General" Kelley and "Major" Thorne and other leaders now in jail. The authorities said that if the writs were sustained the men would be rearrested as often as they were released until the possibility of reorganization was passed.

TRAVERS AND HERRSCHOFF WILL SAIL FOR ENGLAND

Crack Golfers Will Probably Play Practice Matches on British Courses

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 10.—Fred Herrschoff, of Garden City, twice runner up in the national amateur golf championship and formerly holder of the metropolitan title, will sail next Thursday for England in company with Jerome D. Travers, the holder of the national title.

Travers and Herrschoff will visit Sandwich together and are likely to play practice matches over various British courses. After the British amateur tournament in May they will go to France for the French event and will return to England in time for the open tournament at Prestwick.

They will sail for America about July 1.

FISHING FLEET TO GET MORE SHIPS

Danes Planning to Ship Dried Fish Direct Here From Iceland

GLOUCESTER, Mass., March 10.—The free fish clause of the new tariff bill has so increased the salt fish business of this port, one of the largest centers of the industry in the world, that the fishing fleet will be enlarged this summer, according to a statement today by Benjamin A. Smith, manager of one of the principal fish companies. Mr. Smith said that the indications were that this port would be the receiving center of the country for fish from New Foundland, Norway and Iceland. Fish receipts from the Danish fleet last fall totalled 1,000,000 pounds, he added, and the Danes are planning to ship dried fish direct from Iceland.

VERNOY'S FRIENDS PLANNING A COUP IN POLICE BOARD

Determine to Keep Him in Chairmanship Race, Figuring Fain's Votes Will Finally Come to Him

DEADLOCK IS LOOKED FOR AS VERY LIKELY

Board May Fail to Elect Tuesday Night and Adjourn to Wednesday Night to Try Again—How Board Lines Up

The race for the chairmanship of the board of police commissioners took a sudden turn Tuesday when friends of W. A. Vernoy, one of the candidates, determined that he shall stay in the race to the finish.

They believe if Mr. Vernoy stays long enough he can finally be elected, as they figure that the votes of W. P. Fain, who will be the leading candidate on the first ballot, but fall short of a majority, will never go to Robert T. Pace, the third candidate, but will, as a last resort, be willing to go to Vernoy.

This decision on the part of Mr. Vernoy's friends was reached at a conference held at noon Tuesday. Previous to that time it was generally believed in city political circles that Mr. Vernoy, going into the election with fewer votes than either Fain or Pace, would conclude after a few ballots that he could not be elected and would then change to one of the other candidates.

Mr. Vernoy himself was figuring on this possibility early Tuesday morning and intimated that in such an event he probably would throw his strength to Pace, which would elect Pace should all the Vernoy votes switch together.

The election takes place Tuesday night at police station, where the police board holds its meetings. Mayor Woodward will preside in the election of a chairman.

VOTE ON FIRST BALLOT.

The vote on the first ballot will probably stand five for Fain, four for Pace and three for Vernoy, as follows:

For Fain—Baskin, Fain, Smith, King, Dixon.

For Pace—Pace, Clark, Colcord, Mayor Woodward.

For Vernoy—Vernoy, Garner, Johnson.

As the rules of the police board require the chairman to be elected by a majority of the twelve members, the winner must have seven votes to elect.

It is by no means improbable that the board will be deadlocked on every ballot taken Tuesday night and will adjourn until Wednesday night to try again.

The Vernoy supporters believe if this should happen it would help his chances to be elected. They figure if the Vernoy votes threaten to change to Pace, then the Fain votes, rather than see Pace elected, will change to Vernoy.

Mr. Pace was put in the race for chairmanship by Mayor Woodward and the Woodward forces generally are exerting their influence in Mr. Pace's behalf.

The anti-Woodward forces are divided between Fain on the one hand and Vernoy on the other and this division is the thing that has complicated the situation and rendered the result so doubtful as to keep the politicians guessing.

MRS. JOHN Z. HOKE, JR., DIES SUDDENLY IN HOTEL

Heart Failure Fatal to Former Atlanta Girl on Visit to This City

Mrs. John Z. Hoke, Jr., of Athens, who was Miss Harrie Stockdell until her marriage a few months ago, died suddenly Tuesday morning at the Ansley hotel. Death was due to heart failure and was quite unexpected.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoke came to Atlanta to attend the theater and Mrs. Hoke seemed well. Tuesday morning shortly before noon she became ill and died within a short while.

The news of her death will grieve many in Atlanta. She is prominently connected and is well known in the city, having lived here for years.

Her marriage a short while ago was a social event of interest and her unexpected death following so soon thereafter is doubly sad.

She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Harry Stockdell, of Athens; by her brother, Clarence Stockdell, of Richmond, and by her sister, Mrs. Hugh Foreman, of New York.

She will probably be buried in Atlanta, but no funeral arrangements have been made as the arrival of her brother and sister is awaited.

CHARGES AGAINST JUSTICE WRIGHT ARE DISMISSED

House Judiciary Committee Decides Bankers' Charges Are "Uncorroborated"

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Charges by W. H. Cooper, a local banker, against Justice D. T. Wright, of the District supreme court, asking for his impeachment, were dismissed today by the house judiciary committee as "uncorroborated."

Justice Wright attracted national attention when he sentenced Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison and John Mitchell to jail for contempt of court in the Bucks Stove and Range case. Although Cooper's petition charges the justice with various acts of misconduct on the bench and in private life, his action in the labor case was one of the articles on which his impeachment was asked.

Justice Wright maintained that Cooper's charges were actuated by animus growing out of private litigation between them.

WOMEN SET RECORD IN COLLECTING FUND FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Wesley Memorial Committees Report $3,075.05 Pledged Tuesday at Noon — Total Amount Subscribed to Date Is $12,945.40

Over their mark of $3,000 went the ladies of the Wesley Memorial campaign Tuesday. Here is the summary:

Reported Tuesday at noon	$ 3,075.05
Already reported	9,870.35
Total to date	$12,945.40

Enthusiasm broke into applause at the meeting of the central committee at the Hotel Winecoff when this result became known.

The day's biggest report, and the biggest report for any day so far, came from the Park Street church committee, of which Mrs. R. H. White is chairman. Mrs. White reported $1,081.50, including the first $1,000 subscription to come in. This generous subscriber is Mrs. W. D. Brown, a member of Park Street Methodist church.

The next biggest report of the day came from St. Mark's committee, Mrs. Elizabeth Winship Bates, chairman, $695.

Other committees reported as follows: Grace church, $482.50; Inman Park, $187; First church, $156.50; St. Paul's, $129; Payne Memorial, $94.05; Central committee, $100; Wesleyan Memorial, $46; Trinity, $40; Committee at large, $25; East Point, $17.50; St. John, $11.

MISTAKE IN REPORT.

By mistake in Monday's report, $100 subscribed by Dr. J. L. Campbell was credited to Druid Hills committee. This should have gone to Inman Park committee. The change does not affect the total.

Enthused by their success since Monday noon, the ladies of the campaign returned to their work Tuesday afternoon with renewed determination to complete before the end of this week the $25,000 which they must raise to meet Asa G. Candler's offer of $75,000 additional.

Several of the ladies are concentrating their energies on subscribers who may wish to give enough for memorial rooms in the new hospital. To name a memorial room a $1,000 contribution is necessary. From the revenue of each room, wherein pay patients will be cared for, one charity patient can be supported.

Following are the reports in detail:

Park street committee, Mrs. R. H. White, chairman: Mrs. D. M. Braswell, $2.50; Dr. C. B. Mott, $5; John W. Walker, $5; J. M. Beasley, $5; Dr. E. E. Bragg, $5; Ruth, Imogene and Robert Hill, $3; Mrs. S. J. West, $2; Mrs. C. W. Russell, $2; Mrs. W. R. Story, $1; Mrs. E. T. Booth, $10; C. D. Tillman, $6; J. H. Fussell, $2; T. J. Hightower, Jr., $10; R. I. Barge, $5; cash, $1; George K. Christian, $2; R. J. Lee, $5; J. G. Sherrer, $5; C. T. Roddey, $5; H. L. Culberson, $10; Mrs. W. D. Brown, $1,000. Total, $1,091.50.

St. Mark's committee, Mrs. Elizabeth W. Bates, chairman: George B. Pendleton, $10; H. V. Reynolds, $10; William Niller, $10; Albert Pritchard, $10; John C. Wheatley, $10; J. S. Josey, Jr., $10; a friend, $200; H. Y. McCord, $100; Miss Emma Scott, $5; L. D. Scott, $10; Dr. J. W. Ellis, $100; Zed B. George, $5; Henry W. Davis, $25; F. C. Fenn, $10; Thomas D. Stewart, $25; Miss Nellie Stewart, $25; Mrs. M. T. Hancock, $5; Herbert E. Choate, $10; Mrs. M. C. Alexander, $5; Mrs. Henry B. Troutman, $5; Henry B. Troutman, $5; Mrs. J. H. Roberts, $5; Mrs. W. A. Foote, $20; Walter A. Simms, $10; Mrs.

LET'S BE GENEROUS AND FINISH THIS WEEK THAT WESLEY MEMORIAL FUND

There are two phases in the work that Wesley Memorial hospital has been doing.

One is charitable, and the other is commercial.

"From the opening of the hospital, August 16, 1905, until November 1, 1913, there were treated 6,150 patients, of whom 3,456 were unable to pay for their treatment. Those able to pay numbered 2,694.

"Over and above all Christmas collections received by the hospital, there has been an average annual expenditure of $5,314.04 for the relief of charity patients."

"The institution is neither local nor sectarian in its ministrations. Patients came last year from 103 counties in Georgia alone, and from other states. Members of fourteen denominations were found among them. The work of the hospital is general in extent and generous in spirit. Its benefits go beyond both sectarian and geographical lines."

The report shows 880 patients from Georgia, 20 from Alabama, 19 from South Carolina, 16 from Florida, 7 from Tennessee, 3 from Massachusetts, 2 each from Ohio and Texas, and 1 each from Illinois, Kentucky, Michigan, North Carolina, New York and Virginia.

Anything that tends to make Atlanta a gathering point redounds to the commercial benefit of the city. Surgery has given world-wide fame to Rochester, Minn. Thousands go to Baltimore each year, to be treated in Johns Hopkins or to visit patients there.

Why can't Atlanta make a southern Johns Hopkins of Wesley Memorial hospital?

Atlanta can. On one hand is the appeal of charity. On the other is commercial incentive. Inspired by one or the other, Atlanta will found the greater Wesley Memorial hospital.

This week the women's campaign to raise $25,000 is on among us. Asa G. Candler has agreed to give $75,000 if they put $25,000 in bank. That will make $100,000 for the start of a great southern hospital.

We must capitulate Atlanta. The women are determined, and they've got all the argument on their side.

Let's give in quickly. Let's be generous about it.

Let's help 'em finish the work this week.

LOUISVILLE STORES BURN; LOSS AGGREGATES $20,000

Fire Starts in Store of R. L. Bostick—Entire Building Destroyed

LOUISVILLE, Ga., March 10.—Fire of unknown origin broke out this morning in the rear of R. L. Bostick's general merchandise store on Broad street, completely destroying the building, including the Louisville Drug company store. The loss to these two firms will aggregate $20,000, with about $10,000 insurance. Although right in the business section of the town, the fire was confined to one building. Considerable damage was done from water.

The losers were B. P. Ramsay, dry goods and notions, $5,000; C. V. & W. J. Clark, general merchandise, $2,500; J. R. Williams company, grocery and hardware store, $1,000; Reagan & Clark, fancy grocery, $500. The Louisville Drug company and R. L. Bostick suffered a total loss.

The alarm was given about 3 o'clock, but when discovered had gained such headway that it was impossible to save the building.

RESIGNATION OF ITALIAN CABINET IS ANNOUNCED

ROME, March 10.—The resignation of the Italian cabinet was officially announced today by Premier Giovanni Giolitti in the chamber of deputies and the senate.

UNDERWOOD ASSUMES WASHINGTON POSITION

Is Sworn In as Assistant Attorney General—Department to Be Reorganized

BY RALPH SMITH.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Marvin Underwood, of Atlanta, was sworn in yesterday as assistant attorney general of the United States, vice W. T. Denison, who has been appointed a member of the Philippine commission.

Mr. Underwood assumed the duties of his office this morning and for the present will serve in a confidential capacity as adviser to Attorney General McReynolds with reference to important litigation in which the government is interested.

It is understood that the attorney general plans a reorganization of department of justice, and when this plan has been worked out, Assistant Attorney General Underwood probably will be assigned to definite and specific work.

The above dispatch will be of interest to Atlantians who are already familiar through a previous announcement with Mr. Underwood's nomination and confirmation as assistant attorney general.

Mr. Underwood severed his local connection with the firm of King & Spalding & Underwood soon after the senate confirmed his nomination. His family will join him in Washington in the summer.

STARTLING EVIDENCE REPORTED IN HANDS OF FRANK'S COUNSEL

SILENCE OF ATTORNEYS GIVES COLOR TO REPORT

Other Affidavits Containing Sensational Statements Are Prepared for Use in Motion for New Trial, It Is Said

Attorneys for Leo M. Frank refuse to discuss the report that another witness for the state, equally important, if not more important, to the prosecution's case than Albert McKnight and George Epps, has repudiated his testimony at the trial.

The rumor is persistent that the defense has in its possession several affidavits which have not been made public, but which will be used in the extraordinary motion for a new trial which will be brought before Judge Ben H. Hill, of the criminal division of the superior court, some time before the date set for the execution of Frank.

The report is current that in the unpublished affidavits is sensational testimony as valuable as the recently developed point which tends to show that the murder notes were written in the basement instead of in the office, as Conley contends. The reticence of the attorneys for Frank has naturally given color to the reports.

Attorney Herbert J. Haas, associated with the Frank defense since the factory superintendent was first arrested, has returned from New York, after an absence of about ten days. It is said that while there he conferred with Nina Formby and with William S. Osborne, the handwriting expert, and with other figures in the case.

BURKE SILENT ON TRIP.

C. W. Burke, a special investigator in the employ of the defense, has also returned to the city after a trip to Florida in the interest of the defendant. Burke refuses to state the object of the result of his trip.

To all appearances Frank is greatly encouraged by the recent developments in his case. The defendant is closely following every move in the case, and spends much of his time studying the value and effect of the various new points in the case.

Frank in his tower cell receives many visitors every day, and when callers are not in front of his cell, he is busy studying his case or with his rather voluminous correspondence. Besides representatives from the Atlanta papers, Frank recently has discussed his case freely and at length with representatives of New York and other eastern papers.

Within hailing distance of Frank's cell are the quarters of Jim Conley, his negro accuser, who is still waiting the hearing of his motion for a new trial. The date for the hearing has been set for March 15. In the event the motion is denied an appeal to the supreme court will be taken for the negro by his attorney and there is little probability of Conley's commencing service of his twelve months' sentence on the changang for four or five months longer.

JIM CONLEY INTERVIEWED.

Monday evening the negro was interviewed by the first newspaper man admitted to his cell since immediately after his trial. The newspaperman, a representative of the New York Times, went to the negro's cell with Conley's attorney, William M. Smith, the interview having been requested for him by Solicitor Dorsey.

Jim recounted his story to the New York man, who is making an exhaustive investigation of the case. During the course of the interview Conley brought the fact that he was short of funds to the attention of his interviewer. Two crisp dollar bills were handed through the bars to the outstretched fingers of the negro.

"That is more money than Jim has had since he came to the jail nearly a year ago," remarked Attorney Smith.

"It shore is," said the negro.

"Well, Jim, what are you going to do with the money?" asked the interviewer.

"Well, boss," came the smiling reply, "I am going to eat all day tomorrow."

Conley is still said to entertain the idea that he was very badly treated by the courts, when, following his trial, he

Information for all Lung Sufferers

Would you like to know more about a remedy for Lung Trouble which has brought about many complete recoveries? The makers of Eckman's Alterative are in receipt of many really wonderful reports, and will be pleased to forward to you copies of original letters and also booklet on diet and proper care needed in recovering health. Investigate this case:—

1619 Susquehanna Ave., Phila., Pa.

"My Dear Sir: For two years I was afflicted with hemorrhages of the lungs, and in February of 1902 I was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia. When I recovered sufficiently to walk about the house I was left with a frightful hacking cough, which no medicine I had taken could alleviate. It was at this time, March, 1902, that I started taking Eckman's Alterative. In a short time my cough was gone and I was pronounced well. I cannot speak too highly for the good it has done."

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by 'many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Sold by all Jacobs' Drug Stores and leading druggists. Write the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for booklet telling of recoveries and additional evidence.—(Advt.)

Rheumatic Cripple Cured

Mr. Frank H. Rogers, of Momence, Ill., writes:

"I take pleasure in highly recommending Dr. Jones' Liniment. A year ago I was obliged to use crutches, having been crippled with rheumatism. Doctors failed to help me. Various remedies did no good. I used several bottles of Dr. Jones' Liniment and recovered so fully that I went back to my old job of firing a locomotive. Dr. Jones' Liniment is also excellent for neuralgia."

Here is a man who suffered great pain, and was unable to work, which would discourage most anybody. How many men and women are there, who finding no relief after trying two or three remedies give up in despair, and make life unpleasant for themselves and those around them? Such was not the case with Mr. Rogers. He kept on trying until he finally got the right medicine and was cured.

Dr. Jones' Liniment will do the same for you.

QUIT MEAT IF YOUR KIDNEYS ACT BADLY

Take tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

G. W. VANDERBILT'S ESTATE GOES TO CORNELIUS

Henry C. Frick, Who Resides There, Recently Built $3,000,000 Residence on Site

NEW YORK, March 10.—The death of George W. Vanderbilt in Washington last Friday, without male heirs, causes the Vanderbilt mansion at Fifty-first and Fifth avenue, the art works collected by the late William H. Vanderbilt, the sum of $1,000,000 outright and other property to descend to Cornelius Vanderbilt under the will of his grandfather, William H. Vanderbilt, who died in 1885.

William H. Vanderbilt left all this property to his widow during her lifetime; then to his youngest son, George W. Vanderbilt, during his lifetime. It was provided that George W. Vanderbilt should name one of his sons to inherit after him. In case George W. Vanderbilt died without sons it was provided that the property should go to William H. Vanderbilt, grandson of the testator and son of Cornelius Vanderbilt. Farther than that, it was provided that if William H. Vanderbilt died before his time to inherit, the property should go to his younger brother Cornelius.

George W. Vanderbilt died without a son. William H. Vanderbilt, the grandson, died in 1892 when he was a junior at Yale.

It is several years since a "male descendant bearing the name of Vanderbilt" lived in the Vanderbilt mansion. Nine years ago Henry C. Frick, who now lives there, obtained a ten-year lease from George W. Vanderbilt. What the intentions of Cornelius Vanderbilt are for the disposition of the residence when the lease expires are not known. Mr. Frick has built a $3,000,000 residence for himself on the site of the old Lenox library on Fifth avenue.

The body of George W. Vanderbilt was laid at rest today in the family mausoleum in the Moravian cemetery at New Dorp, Staten Island, near the old Vanderbilt residence, where he was born fifty-two years ago. The Right Rev. David H. Greer, Episcopal bishop of New York, conducted a brief service at the tombs. A small company of relatives and friends who came from Washington last night after the funeral services in that city, was at the cemetery.

DORSEY PLANS FIGHT.

Numerous conferences have been held by the solicitor general the past few days with the city detectives who worked up the cast against Leo M. Frank, and the solicitor is already preparing to fight the extraordinary motion for a new trial, which will be filed during the next thirty days by the defense.

Solicitor Dorsey is engaged practically every morning in the trial of the routine cases in the criminal division of the superior court, but his afternoons, it is said, are devoted to the Frank case, and through the detectives he is familiarizing himself with each new development.

Slicitor Dorsey refused to discuss with newspapermen the value of the new evidence which has recntly been developed by the Frank defense, but men close to the oslicitor say re does not consider that the aspect of the case has been changed in the slightest degree by the new evidence.

A feature of the case is the expected arrival of William J. Burns, who has been employed by Dr. B. Wildauer and Milton Klein, friends of Frank, to make a study of the case in an effort to develop any material evidence, which has been overlooked by the city detectives or by the numerous investigators who have been at work for the defendant.

CHARGES COAL TRUST DOMINATES SOUTHERN

Senator Tillman Asks Probe of Alleged Alliance on Coal Movement

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Charging that the Southern railway is dominated by men not financially interested in coal mines in its own territory, but in mines elsewhere, and that for this reason the Southern is not allowed to move coal through the port of Charleston, S. C., Senator Tillman today introduced a resolution for a special investigation by the naval affairs committee into advantages of Charleston as a permanent point for coal distribution as compared with Norfolk and other Chesapeake bay ports.

The committee would be directed to investigate the character and proximity of the coal supply; rates obtainable on coal from fields near Charleston and Norfolk; relations between railroads leading into Charleston and other South Atlantic ports, and between these railroads and owners of bituminous fields in Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Tennessee and Kentucky; and conditions of ownership of wharfage property in Charleston and Norfolk.

Senator Tillman set forth that "it appears from numerous complaints before the interstate commerce commission, as wel las from other sources, that the power and influence of the so-called coal trust is being persistently used through the management of the railroads reaching Charleston to prevent the free movement of coal not belonging to the coal trust, practically all of such roads being actually dominated by the same financial outlet chiefly through New York harbor, Philadelphia and the Chesapeake bay ports."

DISCUSS IRISH HOME RULE QUESTION AGAIN

Unions Dissatisfied With the Method of Voting on the Exclusion of Ulster

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, March 10.—The possibility of a settlement of the Irish home rule controversy was again today in the forefront of popular interest. The opinions of the various parties as to the effect of the concessions offered in the house of commons yesterday by Premier Asquith differed widely. The Unionists are dissatisfied with the suggested method of voting by counties on the exclusion of Ulster, or portions of it, on the question of home rule.

Nationalists declared the cabinet had gone to the limit toward conciliation. The independent opinion of the country seems inclined to the feeling that the concession offers an opportunity for conciliation, and this feeling is strengthened by Sir Edward Carson's counter offer on behalf of the Ulster conference providing the limitation on the exclusion of the northern counties to a period of six years be struck out.

It is pointed out here in parliamentary circles that the recognition by the cabinet and the Nationalists of the principle of the exclusion of the counties of Ulster, if they vote in favor of it, even if the exclusion be only temporary, is a great step in advance from last year's policy of "full steam ahead."

This attitude of the cabinet and the Irish Nationalists, it is argued, allows for negotiations during the three weeks for which the debate on the home rule bill has been adjourned.

The stumbling blocks in the way of a settlement of the Irish question are the Unionists, who want a general election at any cost, in the hope of defeating the government; and also the Nationalists, who follow William O'Brien and are opposed to any kind of exclusion being granted to Ulster.

TWO ARE CHARGED WITH KIDNAPING GIRL OF FIVE

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 10.—Following the disappearance of Bettie Edna Cole, aged five, the daughter of E. C. Cole, a prominent farmer, officers today arrested Tom Tinsley, Walter Tinsley and Bessie Reynolds, charged with aiding and abetting in kidnaping the child. It was stated that warrants have been issued for Bettie Huchison and Carrie Tinsley, the former being the aunt of the little girl. The two women are alleged to have left here with the child.

THIS NEW MEDICINE SAVES YOU MONEY

We are druggists right here in your town and make a living out of the drug business, but it is because people have to have drugs and not because we like to see people suffer—we don't. Our duty is to render the best service we can, and when someone is ailing, we are interested in seeing them take the best medicine there is for their particular trouble. We don't recommend "cure-alls," as we don't believe there are such things. We don't want you to spend more than you have to. Some of you get small wages, and when you're sick, none at all, and you should get the most you can for your money.

We recently came across a new remedy for increasing strength and building up people who are run-down and emaciated. We know that a slight trouble sometimes grows into a serious one, and to stop it in the beginning, will save you money in the end. This new compound is called Rexall Olive Oil Emulsion. It is the best remedy, when you are run-down, tired out, nervous—no matter what the cause. It doesn't merely stimulate you and make you feel good for a few hours, but takes hold of the weakness and builds you up to a healthy, normal condition. It is a real nerve-food tonic and builder of good blood, strong muscle, good digestion. It contains Hypophosphites, which tone the nerves, and pure Olive Oil, which nourishes the nerves, the blood and the entire system. Pleasant to take. Contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs. We promise that if you are not perfectly satisfied with it, we'll give back your money as soon as you tell us. Sold only at the 7,000 Rexall Stores, and in this town only by us. $1.00 Elkin Drug Co.—(Advt.)

PHYSICIANS KNOW

And that's the trouble. Constipation should never be neglected. Why?

All food eaten has some indigestible waste which the liver clears away day by day. An over-supply or a change in your habits sometimes causes the liver to neglect a few particles, which remain in the stomach and make it more difficult the next day for the liver to do its cleansing work. So this waste accumulates and clogs the intestinal canal and causes constipation. That is not all. If the waste is not eliminated it ferments and generates uric acid, a poisonous substance which gets into the blood stream and is carried along through the system to poison it. Self-poisoning or autotoxemia, this is termed medically.

When uric acid is deposited in the joints and muscles you have rheumatism when it touches the nerves, neuralgia, paralysis, nervous prostration, and poisonous irritation of the delicate linings of the nose, throat or stomach; it causes catarrh. These are but the more common uric acid diseases; as the poison accumulates more serious difficulties develop. And constipation and a torpid liver was at the beginning.

Many purgatives taken for a bilious attack, such as calomel, work up the bile, force the liver and bowels to compulsory action and leave them weakened. JACOBS' LIVER SALT is different. It immediately dissolves the uric acid that has accumulated and passes it off in the urine; it flushes and cleanses the intestinal canal, relieving the liver from the pressure of clogged fermentation, and the liver of itself resumes its normal activity. There is no nausea, vomiting or griping, because the action is natural, not forced. It acts quickly, but mildly, and it cures.

Take a glass of EFFERVESCENT WATER, JACOBS' LIVER SALT, before breakfast! It is a good habit. The drink is effervescent and pleasant, and simply wonderful in its stimulant effect upon the liver. Try it. One-half pound jar, 25c (by mail, postpaid). Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta.—(Advt.)

EAT MORE SALMON AND CUT COST OF LIVING

Federal Commissioner of Fisheries Shows How It Is Much Cheaper Than Meats

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—"To reduce the cost of living, eat more salmon, especially of the cheaper grades, and less meat," this is the advice of Dr. Hugh M. Smith, federal commissioner of fisheries, in a statement today enumerating the important factors in favor of salmon as an article of food as compared with meats. He asserts that not only is salmon cheaper than meats, but will keep indefinitely if unopened, while the latter spoil quickly. To prove his assertion that salmon is cheaper than meats, Dr. Smith compares the average retail prices of these products in Washington February 10, last. One pound of canned salmon of the best quality will cost about 16 cents, he says, while the same quantity of bone, muscle, blood and brain-building material and body fuel in other foods would cost: Eggs, strictly fresh (at 34 cents per dozen), 36 cents; steak, sirloin (at 27 1-2 cents per pound), 33 cents; mutton, leg (at 19 cents per pound), 32 cents; chicken, average (at 25 cents per pound), 21 1-2 cents; ham, smoked (at 18 1-2 cents per pound), 13 1-2 cents, and pink salmon, canned (at 9 cents per can), 12 1-2 cents.

"The best grades of canned salmon," says the statement, "are richer than meats in body-building materials and contain about the same amount of fats. Pink salmon, which is a cheaper grade, is better than meats for making flesh and bone, but has less fat. Either is as digestible as the best sirloin steak, there is no waste and nothing has to be thrown away, except the can."

Can't Help But Admire Babies

A woman's heart responds to the sweetness of a pretty child, and more so to-day than ever before since the advent of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful external help to the muscles and tendons. It penetrates the tissues, makes them readily yield to nature's demand for expansion, so there is no period of pain, discomfort, straining, nausea or other symptoms so often distressing during the anxious weeks of expectancy.

Mother's Friend thoroughly lubricates every nerve, tendon and muscle involved and is a sure preventive for caking of the breasts.

And particularly to young mothers is this famous remedy of inestimable value. It enables them to preserve their health and strength, and they remain pretty by having avoided all the suffering and danger that would otherwise accompany such an occasion.

You will find this splendid remedy on sale at all drug stores at $1.00 a bottle.

NEW DISCOVERY QUICKLY ENDS KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

Chronic Sufferers Find Relief After Few Doses Are Taken

If you are bothered with backache—or rheumatism, have disagreeable, annoying bladder or urinary disorders to contend with—or suffer with any other of the many miseries that come from weak kidneys, here is a guaranteed remedy you can depend upon, no matter what else may have failed to cure you.

It is a positive fact that the new discovery, Croxone, promptly overcomes such diseases. It is the most wonderful remedy ever made for ridding the system of uric acid, removing the cause and curing the troubles.

It soaks right in and cleans out the stopped up kidneys and makes them filter and sift out all the poisonous waste matter from the blood. It neutralizes and dissolves the uric acid that lodges in the joints and muscles, causing rheumatism; soothes and heals the delicate linings of the bladder; and puts the kidneys and urinary organs in a clean, strong, healthy condition.

More than a few doses of Croxine are seldom required to relieve even the obstinate long standing cases, while it cures the most annoying forms of kidney, bladder trouble, and rheumatism in a surprisingly short time.

You will find Croxone entirely different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It is so prepared that it is pratcically impossible to take it into the human system without results. An original package costs but a trifle at any first class drug store. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.—(Advt.)

CUMMINS WILL APPEAL FOR EXECUTIVE CLEMENCY

Term in Sing Sing for Larceny Faces Former Head of Carnegie Trust

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 10.—William J. Cummins, one time head of the defunct Carnegie Trust company, who was convicted nearly three years ago of the larceny of $140,000, was taken to Sing Sing prison from the Tombs today to serve a sentence of not less than four years and not more than eight years and eight months.

By appeals and other methods, counsel for Cummins kept him out of Sing Sing nearly 900 days after his conviction. He will now appeal to Governor Glynn for a pardon, on the ground that he rendered assistance to the state in the hearings regarding the trust company.

EJECTED FROM "MOVIES;" WANTS $2,500 DAMAGES

Twenty-five hundred dollars would repay him for the mental anguish he suffered as he was forcibly ejected from a "movie" amid the jeers of the audience, which forgot the film to laugh at his humiliation, H. H. Sikes, a youth, declares in a suit filed Monday against S. B. Johnston, manager of the American theater.

Sikes, who brings his suit through his father as next friend, declares that he went to the American theater on March 5, bought his ticket and quietly took his seat.

He acted in a perfectly orderly manner, he asserts, and his interest was focused in the film until suddenly an attendant appeared at his side and told him to leave the theater.

Sikes declares that he refused to move, and soon thereafter S. B. Johnston, the manager appeared, and forcibly ejected him. He was greatly humiliated and embarrassed, he asserts, and asks that the court award him $2,500 damages from Johnston.

Predicts Early Marriages With Women, Who Will Continue at Their Trade or Profession, Gives Women Independence

"Early marriages, made possible by the fact that the woman will continue to work in her business, trade or profession after marriage as before, will be one of the excellent natural results of the modern economic independence of women," said Mrs. Frank H. Neely, 633 Piedmont avenue, an ardent suffragist and feminist.

Mrs. Neely, chairman of the publicity committee of the fashionable Eighth Ward Suffrage league, is doing much to insure the success of the big suffrage rally in the Atlanta theater Wednesday night.

"The average age of marriage is getting to be later every year. Modern conditions, the high cost of living, practically force the average man and woman to wait until the best years of their youth—between twenty and thirty—are passed before marrying.

"In large communities like New York, and generally in the north and east, where there is a vast army of women working absolutely independent of men, supporting themselves and sometimes, often, in fact, the bread winner for the family, early marriages are becoming almost unknown.

"There are many reasons for this. The women, many of them supporting themselves alone much better than some young man, who is perhaps working for almost the same salary as a stenographer or clerk, could support them, do not feel as if they can surrender this independence and comfort to become a household drudge, even if they love the man.

"Yet women receive smaller salaries than men equally competent, because the woman, in the past, generally stops her work for good and all as soon as she gets married, thus making the firm that employed her break in a new and inexperienced woman for her place.

"Men of thee same ability draw larger salaries because they are expected, and rightly so, to continue to try to advance themselves permanently with the firm or company.

"There is no reason why the average working years of a modern business woman, now said to be about two or three, should not be very largely increased. This average increase would mean more pay for all of the women. And it would mean more happiness for men and women. For it will be accomplished by early marriage, during the first years of which the man and the woman will both be breadwinners for the family.

"The man, with the incentive of a home and a wife to work for, and with poverty and hardship stayed off by the joint earnings of himself and wife, should be able, during the first years of married life, to advance himself infinitely more in his business or profession than if he had remained single. Then, after two or three years, when children come, the woman could devote herself entirely to the home, with the man then able to care adequately for his small family.

"As woman becomes increasingly independent, marriages of this sort will inevitably become more numerous. The present idea that a man should provide everything for the woman, when the woman is able to provide for herself, is preventing many happy unions between young people. But this idea will pass away. Of course the change will come sooner in the eastern and northern communities than in the south. Some day in the future, marriages between really young, happy, working men and women will become universal. And it will mean more happiness for both of them than under the present system, where the woman has to take up outside activities and has to seek outside, unlucrative work with which to occupy the time she has left over after caring for her home and husband and children."

LACY EVIDENCE IS USED IN TRIAL OF J. G. OAKLEY

Deposit Slips and Checks Admissible, Rules Judge

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 10.—When the second day's session of the trial of James G. Oakley, president of the state board of convict inspectors for two years, who is charged in fourteen indictments with embezzling state funds, was begun Tuesday, Judge Armstead ruled that all deposit slips and checks used in the trial of Theo Lacy, former chief clerk, could be offered in evidence in an effort to show that Oakley had a guilty knowledge of Lacy's transactions.

The defense objected to the documentary evidence on the ground that it could not show a connection with Oakley and the embezzlement of $2,207.02, on which charge he is being tried now. Judge Purifoy, chief clerk of the state treasury, testified that neither Oakley nor Lacy ever made a deposit of $2,207.02 in cash with the treasury. Charles L. Harold, president of the Montgomery Savings bank, identified deposit slips and checks he said were placed in his bank by Theo Lacy.

POLICEMAN BREAKS HAND SMASHING NEGRO'S HEAD

County Policeman Walters is nursing a broken hand because the member came in contact with the head of Henry Johnson, colored participant in a crap game.

Policeman Walters, with Officer Swords, raided a game at Inman yards Sunday, and the seven negroes engaged in the gentle pastime made a dash for liberty.

Five of the seven negroes, including Johnson, were captured, and fined $50 and costs in the city criminal court.

FIRE IN TERRE HAUTE DOES $250,000 DAMAGES

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., March 10.—Fire early today damaged four buildings in the heart of the business district, entailing a loss estimated at $250,000. The blaze, discovered in the building occupied by E. H. Bindley & Co., wholesale druggists, spread to a store occupied by a large clothing company, a hardware establishment and another drug house.

DESCRIBES HOW STRIKERS WERE INCITED TO RIOTING

Witness for Federation of Miners Testifies Before Congress Committee

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, March 10.—Henry Batters, testifying today on behalf of the Western Federation of Miners before the congressional committee investigating the Michigan copper strike, said he was one of the forty-five men escorted to the strike district in October. He said that while they were on their way they were told by "Captain" White, in charge of the party, that he hoped "these boys will learn the ropes so that the mine companies would need to hire more mine guards."

Batters said these instructions were taken to mean that "the boys" were to incite the strikers to acts of violence.

"What did you do personally to provoke violence?" asked Congressman Howell.

"Personally, nothing," said the witness.

Batters said many acts calculated to provoke the strikers were committed by other men. He said that a guard named Curry fired into the boarding house of Mrs. Benson at Mohawk with the idea that the company would decide that the house should be guarded, and that it would be a "soft beat" for Curry.

Batters said that Robert Allen, a guard, beat three men who had been arrested by other private detectives, and that on each ocasion a strikers' parade was stopped by "gunmen."

"Do you admit you belong to an organization engaged in such business?" asked Congressman Switzer.

"Yes," replied the witness.

C. A. and W. P. Gray Convicted of Holding Up Chauffeur at Point of Gun

C. A. Gray aged nineteen and W. P. Gray, aged seventeen, were found guilty in superior court Tuesday of robbery by force, following the testimony of A. C. Hodge, chauffeur for the J. J. A. Gwinn Taxicab agency, that the two boys hired him on the night of February 15 and held him up at the point of a pistol at the corner of Neal and Ashby streets.

The defense claimed that Hodge had been drinking and told the Gray boys they could go for a ride. Hodge testified that he was forcibly made to hand over the automobile to them.

An indictment charging C. A. Gray with carrying a pistol without a license was nolle prossed. W. P. Gray pleaded guilty to the same charge. Two indictments, charging each with pointing a pistol, were nolle prossed.

FREED FROM CHARGE OF LASSOING WOMAN

Strong Alibi Presented for Negro Who Was Charged With Assault

Roscoe Thompson, a negro, charged with a criminal assault upon a young white woman, was freed after a trial before Judge Ben H. Hill, of the criminal division of the superior court on Tuesday. Thompson was placed on trial Monday morning, and the principal witness against him was the young woman, who told how, as she was walking along East Fair street, a negro tossed a rope around her neck and, dragging her into an alley, assaulted her. She identified Thompson as her assailant, but Attorney Burton Smith, who represented the negro, argued to the jury that in her excitement she might have been mistaken.

In addition a strong alibi for the negro was presented, and the jury, after deliberating a short time, gave him his liberty.

MISSIONARY INSTITUTE MEETS AT FORT VALLEY

FORT VALLEY, Ga., March 10.—The southwestern division of the Georgia W. B. M. U. will open its annual session this evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Fort Valley Baptist church. Mrs. Charles F. Cater, the division president, will preside, and the first evening's program will be conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Witchoft, of Fort Valley. After the church service, a reception will be given the delegates and visitors at the home of Mrs. W. A. Woodhill by the Ladies' Aid society of the Fort Valley Baptist church.

Sessions morning, afternoon and evening will follow throughout Thursday evening. About a hundred delegates will be present.

WATER CRAFT TO BE SUBJECT TO TAX

"Vessels and other water craft are personal property, and are taxable like all other such property within the jurisdiction of a municipality wherein the situs for taxation is located," rules the state supreme court in deciding the case of the St. Simons Transit company vs. the Mayor and Council of Brunswick.

This decision was handed down Monday morning by the supreme court and means that municipalities along the seacoast may tax vessels and water craft as personal property, provided the owners reside in the municipality or corporations owning them have their headquarters there.

Handsome Loving Cup Will Be Presented to C. H. Mason, by Police

Members of the Atlanta police and detective departments have purchased a handsome silver loving cup which they will present to Carlos H. Mason, whose term both as chairman and member of the police commission ends Tuesday evening.

Mr. Mason is held in high esteem by the officers and members of the department and wishing to attest their regard for him they decided upon a loving cup.

For five years Mr. Mason has been chairman of the police board. He was elected on the board from the First ward in March, 1908, and a year later was chosen chairman. Each successive year he has been re-elected chairman.

The city ordinances were amended in order that Mr. Mason might be elected to the board for a third term, and his friends would have advocated another amendment to allow him a fourth term had he desired it. He will be succeeded on the board by Dr. A. H. Baskin.

SAYS HE WAS BEATEN IN HALLWAY, BY NEGRO

J. A. Rosier Appeared in Court With One Eye Gone as Result of Attack

His face scarred almost beyond recognition, and one eye completely gone as the result of being beaten into insensibility and robbed in a dark alleyway off Decatur street last December, J. A. Rosier took the stand in the criminal division of the superior court Tuesday morning and told of the happenings of the night accusing Tom Bowen, a negro cab driver, of the crime.

Bowen is only on trial for robbery at this time and will not face the charge of assault until later. Rosier testified that Bowen had driven him from a club some time about 1 o'clock in the morning and that, in search of whiskey he went to certain addresses on Gilmer street in the neighborhood of Decatur street. He said one drink from the bottle doped him, and that he knew nothing more after being beaten.

The case is expected to take all of Tuesday afternoon before being finished.

PROBES VIOLATIONS OF STATE PURE FOOD LAW

Commissioner of Agriculture Begins Hearing at Office in Capitol Tuesday Morning

An exhaustive investigation of alleged violations of the state's pure food laws by dealers and manufacturers in various parts of Georgia was begun Tuesday morning by Agricultural Commissioner J. D. Price, assisted by Attorney General Thomas S. Felder.

Pure Food Inspector P. A. Methvin had cited a number of individuals and firms to appear and show cause why they should not be prosecuted for violating the law. Only three of these cited put in their appearance, and the inquiry into several other cases was postponed because those against whom complaint is directed had not received their subpoenas in time to get here.

Commissioner Price says he does not wsh to be unduly hard on anyone, but that any person found guilty of maliciously violating the law or violating it after his attention has been called to it will be prosecuted in the state courts.

SAYS HUSBAND ELOPED WITH ANOTHER WOMAN

Mrs. Shumate Wants Divorce, Asserting She Was Abandoned Several Times

Suit for divorce against William Forrest Shumate, formerly an actor, later an attache of the Metropolitan club in Atlanta, was filed in superior court Monday afternoon by Mrs. May Fear Shumate. She alleges habitual drunkenness, abandonment and elopement with another.

Mrs. Shumate is a daughter of Henry J. Fear, treasurer of the Atlanta Compress Co. Shumate was found guilty Tuesday morning in Judge Calhoun's court under a warrant charging abandonment of his minor children. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 or serve 12 months in the chainggang. On that warrant he was brought back from Mobile last Friday by Deputy Sheriff Haygood. A writ of ne exeat, issued by Judge Pendleton, held him under bond of $300 from leaving the state, regardless of the outcome of the abandonement trial.

In her suit for divorce Mrs. Shumate recites that they were married in Atlanta on January 3, 1906. Thereafter her husband deserted her several times, she alleges, and each time she forgave him and took him back. Once he went to San Francisco, where she located him after five years and whither she went to join him. Her father had to send her money to get back home on, she says. Then Shumate followed her to Atlanta, she alleges, but left again on December 6, 1913, going to Alabama with a woman whom the petition names as Mrs. Grace Bergman. On February 27 he came back, but left again, and then she swore out the warrant charging abandonment.

OFFICIALS IN QUANDARY DUE TO LITERACY TEST

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Whether to leave the literacy test in the immigration bill and risk the president's veto, or to strike it out and insure preserving the rest of the legislation, much of it considered very important, was discussed at length today by the senate immigration committee without a decision. Another meeting will be held Thursday.

President Wilson's attitude as now understood by several members as that while he does not favor a literacy test, he would not be disposed to veto a bill for that reason. Senators who favor the test realize, however, that great pressure for a veto would be brought.

The protest of the Italian government against American health inspectors on immigrant vessels has been considered, but the provision is still in the bill.

COTTON CRUSHERS TO MEET IN NEW ORLEANS

(By Associated Press.)

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 10.—Announcement was made here today by M. E. Singleton, of St. Louis, president of the Interstate Cotton Crushers' association, that New Orleans has been selected by the executive committee as the next meeting place of the association. May 18, 19 and 20 were named as the dates for the convention. Richmond, Memphis and Galveston also contested.

Offered Game Birds For Sale to Wrong Man; Is Now Out $50

The next time R. L. Bowen, a farmer, residing near Alpharetta, feels disposed to take a chance with the game laws and sell birds he will be careful to ascertain whether his prospetcive customer is deputy game warden.

Bowen, who peddles chickens, eggs and other farm produce in Atlanta, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Andy Calhoun in the criminal division of the city court Monday afternoon.

He was prosecuted by A. E. Binder, of Edgewood, a deputy game warden, who testified that Bowen had brought a bag of dead birds to his home and told Bowen that he would take a half dozen of the birds, but for him to first sell the others and then come back to his home.

According to Binder Bowen later returned with the six birds and told him that he had disposed of thirteen others. Then Binder made a case against him in the city court.

In assessing the fine on Bowen Judge Calhoun delivered him a severe lecture for violating the game law.

VALUABLE OIL LEASES TO BE TAXED IN OKLA.

Supreme Court Upholds Former Decision of the State Board on Subject

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., March 10. Oil and gas leases in Oklahoma estimated to be worth from $200,000,000 to $500,000,000 were rendered subject to assessment and taxation by the decision of the state supreme court here today upholding the state board of equalization's valuation of the Indian Territory Illuminating Oil company's property for the year 1911.

ENTRY FEES ARE FIXED FOR COUNTY CANDIDATES

Sub-Committee Appointed by Chairman Eugene D. Thomas Plans for Primary

Eugene D. Thomas, chairman of the Fulton county Democratic executive committee, has appointed the following subcommittees to handle the details of the county primary:

Albert D. Thompson, chairman; J. O. Cochran, secretary; Albert Howell, Jr., George M. Hope and Frank West.

It will be retalled that the executive committee at a meeting last Saturday fixed May 5 as the date of the primary, fixed April 11 as the date for closing the candidates' entry list, and fixed April 1 as the date for closing the registration books. The committee then turned the details of holding the primary over to a subcommittee, to be named by Chairman Thomas, and adjourned until May 6, the day after the primary, to consolidate the returns and declare the result.

The subcommittee has met and fixed the entry fees for the various candidates as follows:

For candidates for sheriff, tax collector, tax receiver and clerk of superior court, $150 each.

For candidates for coroner, county commissioner and county treasurer, $50 each.

J. O. Cochran, the secretary of the subcommittee, who has in this capacity had charge of the working details of the county primary for several years past, says the entry fees are smaller this year than they were two years ago, and assures the candidates that the subcommittee reduced expenses as far as it could without hampering the convenience of the voters.

CONGRESSMEN PREDICT AN EARLY ADJOURNMENT

Rapid Disposition of Appropriation Measures Cited as an Indication

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The rapidity with which congress is disposing of the annual appropriation measures was cited today by smiling members as an indication of early adjournment. While admitting it was too early to forecast the time with any degree of certainty, they declared the speed record of the present session promised encouraging results.

The agricultural supply measure was debated in the house today and probably will be disposed of this week. The rivers and harbors and the naval appropriation bills are to follow and leaves only four of the supply measures to be considered. These are the $4,000,000 diplomatic and consular bill which is waiting consideration; the legislative, executive and judicial bill carrying approximately $40,000,000; the sundry civil bill estimated at $116,000,000 and the $170,000,000 pension bill.

Senators Are Absolutely Eating Their Way to the Grave, Declares Tillman

Senator Discourses Learnedly on Evil of Too Much Eating, Drinking and Smoking, for Edification of His Fellows

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senators today were discussing with unusual interest Senator Tillman's declaration in his address on his non-smoking resolution, that he believed he could lengthen the life of every man in the chamber "if I could only get them to believe what I tell them and follow my advice." The South Carolina senator asserted his colleagues ate too much. "Since I was paralyzed four years ago and read my own obituary," he said, "twenty-one senators, including Vice President Sherman, most of them younger than I, have died."

A fitting epitaph, he said, for senators who have died in service would be "He lived not wisely, but too well, and killed himself eating."

"There is no doubt to my mind that this great mortality among us is due to the way we live in Washington," declared Mr. Tillman. "There is a continuous succession of banquets, dinners and receptions. Automobiles and street cars are used by senators instead of walking, and pure air and sunshine are things of which we get too little."

FROM CELLAR TO GARRET.

Continuing, Senator Tillman said:

"Tobacco, I have been told by physicians, is a narcotic or sedative, while whiskey is a stimulant, as every one knows. Many men use both, and are constantly on the journey from the garret to the cellar and back, being whipsawed and their nerves racked by the constant conflict going on in their system, while the stimulant and the sedative contend for mastery. It is the abuse, not the use of whiskey and tobacco that is so dangerous to health, for in moderation they are both harmless, I think.

"Since my illness four years ago I have learned more about the human body than during all the balance of my life put together, and I am sure I discovered some of the secrets of nature and laws of health of which most men know nothing whatever. The pity of it is that I had to ruin my health before I discovered these things and learned how to live rationally. Had I lived ten years ago as I am doing now, my health never would have broken down at all.

"I owe what degree of recovery I have made—and I am constantly being told I look a great deal better, and I know it is so—to will power and self-control in eating—the will power to exercise my muscles and nerves sufficiently to give them tone, and keep the rust out of the joints. But the greatest help to my health arises from the self-control, which enables me to keep from eating things I ought not to."

Senator Tillman's resolution, unanimously adopted, forbids smoking during executive sessions. He said he had been forced to leave the chamber and the caucus room during secret sessions because he could not endure the fumes of tobacco.

Kyle Bill Signed

JACKSON, Miss., March 10.—Governor Brewer last night signed the Kyle banking bill which carries a deposit guarantee clause. This clause becomes effective May 1, 1915. The bill also makes bank examiners elective.

DR. JOHN C. PICKARD'S HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

The home of Dr. John C. Pickard, at 340 Courtland street, was damaged by fire to the extent of several thousand dollars at noon Monday.

The blaze is thought to have caught in an upstairs room. It had been burning for some time when discovered and was not safely under control by firemen, who hurried to the scene, until it had burned the roof away and endangered property on either side.

The Major William F. Slaton home, next door to Dr. Pickard's, was scorched by the flames, but suffered no serious damage.

Dr. Pickard is one of the owners of the Pickard-Dean Drug company, that suffered severely in the McKenzie building fire two weeks ago.

BUSINESS MEN DISCUSS MARKING OF BATTLEFIELD

Plans for marking the battlefield of Atlanta will be discussed Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at a meeting of Atlanta business men in the offices of the chamber of commerce. The meeting was called by Mell R. Wilkinson, president of the chamber.

A bill is before congress to appropriate a sum sufficient for the erection of markers on the Atlanta battlefield. The passage of that measure is anticipated.

A celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of those battles as a semi-centennial of peace, perhaps with a big reunion in Atlanta of Confederate and Federal veterans, has been suggested by the chamber of commerce as an appropriate program for the marking of the historic fields.

Spring Unfolds Her Fairest Fashions

Paquin Stages Her New Styles at the Ritz-Carlton in New York

AT New York's most fashionable hotel—the Ritz-Carlton—Paquin, the great Paris dressmaker, has made the most notable exhibit of Paris fashions ever shown in America.

Mannequins from Paris were used to stage the performance, all of them garbed in Paquin costumes. Many of these costumes by reason of their beauty and smart lines, will set the fashions for spring.

Mrs. L. Davenport Now in Charge of Our Dressmaking Salon Attended these Paquin performances. Having taken copious notes and purchased materials similar to these Paquin costumes, Mrs. Davenport is now ready to reproduce or adapt them for Atlanta women.

In addition, Mrs. Davenport saw the models of Poiret, Drecoll, Cheruit, Callot, etc., from which she gathered ideas to help her in designing Spring wraps, suits and gowns. Exclusive materials specially purchased insure each customer an individual selection, not to be duplicated.

Curtains Have Been Withdrawn The Spring Style Show Is On

New, new, NEW! Women's and Misses' outer apparel and millinery in a galaxy of charming styles. What are they? Come and see; no poor words of ours can convey their wondrous beauty.

Only by seeing the new fashions, by trying on a new coat, suit or hat can you perceive how suitable to you are the present styles.

A five minutes' actual acquaintance with the new styles will tell you more about them than any page word-picture ever penned. Welcome.

Before You Try on Your New Spring Suit or Gown, Have

Miss Jackson Fit You with a Bon Ton Corset

Two Opening Specials In Hats at $10 & $12.50

—Though our Opening Displays of fine New York and Paris hats, together with our own exclusive creations, have evoked the highest admiration, we would not have you think that we sell high priced hats alone.

—To demonstrate our leadership in other styles, therefore, we have arranged this special sale of hats at $10 and $12.50.

—Styles as illustrated are the newest—the high trim; the small, close-fitting hats; the large hats with flat crown; the trimmed bandeau. Milan hemps are used chiefly, with trimmings or ribbons, flowers and feathers. Black and the leading spring shades. $10 and $12.50.

$1 Silk Stockings at 49c

—The manufacturer says these stockings are "seconds," that is, they show a dropped thread or slight mar which never do any real harm. For these tiny "hurts," the half price makes ample amends.

—Stockings are pure thread silk; full fashioned with high spliced silk heel. Lisle feet and tops. Black, with a sprinkling of white, tan and colors.

Children's Hose: Half Price

—A splendid spring stocking for boys and girls. Mercerized lisle ribbed with double woven heels and toes. All sizes 6 to 9 in black or tan. This is a perfect 25c stocking; choose tomorrow at 15c a pair, or two pairs for 25c.

(Main Floor, Right.)

$1 Braid Pins 79c

—Tango Braid pins—because of their scarcity some stores have been selling them at $1.25. Shell, amber or Demi-blonde with 3 rows of sparkling rhinestones (60 in all) at top. Just one hundred and twenty pins in all—this notice should sell 'em in a day.

(Main Floor, Center.)

35c to 60c Ribbons 27c

—Ribbons for girls' sashes; ribbons for hats; ribbons for dress trimmings—ribbons of almost every kind and description, are piled helter-skelter on one big table:

—There are plain satins and taffetas in black and taffetas in black and colors; pretty plaids and Persians; fanciful floral designs; rich Roman stripes; light and dark warp prints and others. 5 to 8 inches wide; values 35c to 60c, choice 27c.

25c to 50c Pleatings 19c

—Rufflings, ruchings, pleatings—a whole family of frilly, fluffy neckfixings. Oddments, but all fresh and attractive.

—Nets, shadow laces and malines are used alone and occasionally combined. White, ecru and black; and white and colored malines. Various widths.

Easter Is Near; Suits and Dresses Must Be Planned

Here Are the New Woolens

To Make Choosing a Pleasure to Taste and Purse

——Materials precede the styles, and here are the woolens that bestadpat themselves to the fashions prescribed by Paris. Novelties are $1 to $3.50
English Suitings $1 to $3
Bedford Cords $1 and $1.50

When You Buy Silk Taffeta Here you Don't Pay for Tin

—Some of the silk manufacturers replaced this weight with bichloride of tin, zinc or even lead by means of baths Often the fabric contained more metal than silk —Naturally these silks soon split. Because they wouldn't wear, taffeta silks went out of fashion.

—Silk taffetas are back in fashion. We and the reputable silk manufacturers intend to keep them in, by barring out from our silks all metal.

—Chiffon taffetas here of PUREST SILK, soft and pliant in solid colors, changeable, stripe and floral patterns at $1.50. All 36 inches wide.

—When buttons sell down to a dozen of this or a half dozen of that, it's good business to group them in a clear way. All fancy buttons, they vary in size and shape from a pea to a half dollar. All good styles; they simply happen to be oddments. Find them on cards—a fourth dozen, a half dozen, a dozen to card. The higher priced they are, the fewer to the card. Values 25c, 50c, 75c, $1 and $1.25 a dozen; choice the card 10c.

Rose Beads The Choicest Necklace In Nature's Realm

Imagine a necklace of natural roses—each rose in perfect bloom with its real odor but no bigger than a bead. The beads are a revival of a lost art. Crushed rose leaves are molded into rose-shaped beads. Hard and unbreakable, they retain the odor of the rose or other flower odors. Remarkably fetching. Some have pearls or gold linked beads set between each bead. Colors are green, violet, old rose, pink, light blue and black. $1.

Mother Steals Her Child And Escapes in Wild Ride

Society Leader Tells How Love for Daughter Inspired Desperate Dash in Auto Through Dark Everglades in Florida

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DAYTONA, Fla., March 10.—"Yes, I stole my own baby girl, and I would do it again, because I had fought for her in the courts until I was desperate, and my mother's love was so great that I could bear to be separated from her no longer," said the beautiful Mrs. Newton C. Fassett, society leader and wife of a wealthy Spokane, Wash., manufacturing chemist. Fassett is the son of former Congressman J. Sloat Fassett, of New York.

"I divorced Edward McCallie, of Chattanooga, Tenn., two years ago, after the former Cornell football star had failed to support me. At that time I was granted the custody of my baby boy, while McCallie was given the custody of Katherine, who was then but three years old.

"I was desperate, for, oh! I DID WANT MY LITTLE GIRL so badly, so I resolved to take the law into my own hands and steal my baby. I went to Orlando, Fla., and, entering my former father-in-law's house, I took little Katherine and smuggled her into a huge racing auto.

"The McCallies raised the countryside, and sheriff's posses were sent in pursuit, and police officers in every large town in the south were notified of the abduction. But I went across half of the entire state to Daytona, thereby throwing the pursuers off my trail.

"It was a wild midnight ride through the Florida everglades, a hundred-mile race through dark jungles and over forest roads. But I had one of the most daring drivers in America at the wheel.

"Katherine was legally given to me by a Spokane judge after the kind-hearted man had learned the full details of the case.

"I am so happy, and the terror of that night when I fled through the dark Florida everglades and cane brakes is all forgotten in the joy of having my babies with me."

NEW JAIL FOR SEPARATION OF PRISONERS TO BE BUILT

NEW YORK, March 10.—To comply with the provisions of a new law for the separation of men and women prisoners, the city will build a special jail of the modern office building type, fourteen stories high. The jail will be the tallest building of its kind in the world. The building will have besides the jail, court rooms, a detention department and offices for direction of the city's correctional work among women. The board of estimate appropriated $450,000 for construction of the building.

AMERICAN EXHIBIT TO BE ESTABLISHED IN CHILI

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—A valuable method of advertising American products abroad was pointed out today by A. Hamilton West, until recently vice consul for the United States at Valparaiso, Chili, who said that thousands of dollars' worth of American-made furniture has been sold in the South American country as a result of equipping the American consulate with goods from this country.

Mr. West's enthusiasm to see American trade with South America increase and his belief that a fertile field is awaiting cultivation in Chili has led him to undertake the organization of a permanent American exhibit at Santiago, capital of the west coast country. It is planned to open this exhibit on September next, on the occasion of Secretary Bryan's proposed visit to Chili to attend the opening of the fifth Pan-American conference, at which representatives of all the twenty-one American republics will be present.

(By Associated Press.)

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 10.—Notice was given today by Commissioner Jackson, of the department of labor and industry, that cigarmakers must stop placing tips of cigars in their mouths during manufacture.

"The practice of licking or wetting the end of the cigar seems to be a more or less prevalent practice and one which is not only unsafe to the operatives, but certainly undesirable for the smoker," said Dr. Jackson.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED ON MR. HUNERKOPFF'S DEATH

At a recent meeting of the officers and directors of the Atlanta Builders' exchange, resolutions of sympathy for the family of the late L. P. Hunerkopff were passed and copies of the resolutions were sent to the family. The resolutions read:

"Our hearts go out in tender sympathy to the family of Mr. L. P. Hunerkopff, whose death occurred on February 27, 1914, at his home in Atlanta, Georgia.

"Mr. Hunerkopff was an honored member of the Atlanta Builders' exchange and was held in the highest esteem by our members and by all who knew him. He was a straightforward and honorable man, kindhearted and sincere in all his dealings, always ready to lend a helping hand to any worthy cause."

A Human Churn

WHEN the food reaches the stomach it is subjected to a peculiar churning movement by the muscular walls of the stomach"—(See Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, page 45). In the liver, kidneys and skin, the blood is purified of its waste materials—these organs act as human filters, leaving the blood pure and clear—unless liver, digestive tract and kidneys are clogged.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a stomach, liver and kidney tonic—by assisting the stomach to assimilate, the liver to filter, the kidneys to act—the poisons are removed, the red blood corpuscles are increased and one feels light, fresh and active instead of logy, dull and heavy. The "Discovery" stimulates the stomach, increases action of heart and arteries and is a most satisfactory alterative in blood-taint of any character. The refreshing influence of this extract of native medicinal plants has been favorably known for over forty years. Everywhere some neighbor can tell you of the good it has done.

Sold by all medicine dealers in liquid or tablet form; or send 50 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and a trial box will be mailed you.

DENIES SUICIDE STORY

SAYS HUSBAND DASHED THE ACID IN HER FACE

Mrs. Rosa Knight Tells Startling Story—Husband Held at Station

A police investigation, based on charges of Mrs. Rosa Knight that her husband threw carbolic acid in her face in her room at the Hotel Piedmont last night and then said she tried to commit suicide, is being conducted today.

Mrs. Knight is painfully injured at the Grady hospital and Knight is held at police headquarters. He declares this is the second time his wife has tried suicide and says that each time she accused him of attempt to murder her.

Mrs. Knight declared Tuesday morning that her husband's act was premeditated. She said both of them were in a moving picture show in Macon, their home, Monday. At that time, she said, she accused Knight of being unfaithful to her and told him she was going to Atlanta.

"I'll believe you when I see you buy your ticket," Mrs. Knight says he told her. While they were in the picture show Mrs. Knight says her husband excused himself and went to a nearby drug store. It was then, she says, he bought the carbolic acid.

According to her story, she then went to the station and boarded a train for Atlanta, Knight trailing her. She says she came to the Piedmont and registered as Mrs. W. K. Harding in order to keep Knight from giving her trouble.

FORCED DOOR OPEN.

About 8 o'clock he knocked at her door. Mrs. Knight says she turned out the light and tried to hold the door against him, but that he forced it open. She turned on the light again, she says, and her husband said:

"Well, I've found you!"

"All right." Mrs. Knight says she replied. "What are you going to do about it? Take me to a movie?"

Knight turned and walked to the washstand, she says, where he asked her if she wanted a drink. She says she watched him take a small phial from his pocket and pour its contents into a glass.

Then she screamed, she declares, as her husband seized her round the neck, kissed her and dashed the acid into her face.

Mrs. Knight says that all her husband's charges against her are false, especially those that characterize her as a woman of bad character.

Knight's story differs essentially from Mrs. Knight's. According to him, she left their home at 2108 Broadway, Macon, last Thursday and went to the Hotel Lanier in Macon, where she lived in an immoral manner.

Knight says he trailed her to Atlanta, recognized her signature despite the assumed name and walked to her room just in time to prevent her swallowing the carbolic acid. Whichever story is correct, both were painfully injured and were taken to the Grady. Mrs. Knight may lose both her eyes, while Knight is terribly burned on the arms and hands.

HOW TROUBLE STARTED.

The whole trouble, according to information at police headquarters, came from Mrs. Knight's desire to see her little ten-year-old daughter, Thelma, who is said to be here in the Home for the Friendless. As Mrs. Knight was taken from the hotel to the hospital she continued to moan, "My little child! I want to see my little child again!"

The story Knight told detectives Monday night was that he married in September, 1912, and that he was Mrs. Knight's third husband. The little girl, he says, is the child of Mrs. Knight's first husband, Henry McClain, now dead.

Mrs. Knight was originally a Miss Rosa White, of Norfolk, he says, marrying Henry McClain eleven years ago. When McClain died she is said to have married William Diggs, of Portsmouth, Va., and to have obtained a divorce from him.

Knight charges the woman tried to hang herself once before in Baltimore and when unsuccessful accused him of attempted murder. He says she later confessed to the police it was attempt at suicide.

He charges further that she deserted him and the child soon after their marriage and went to Baltimore. He says they were reconciled and came to live at 29 East Harris street, where he says Mrs. Knight accused him of trying to kidnap the child, following which the little girl was sent to the home here by order of Judge W. W. Tindall, of the juvenile court.

They are said to have become reconciled again and moved to Macon.

Knight sayh he came to Atlanta Sunday in search of his wife, but could not find her and went back to Macon. At the Piedmont it was stated Mrs. Knight registered there Monday morning under the name of Mrs. W. K. Harding.

Knight came back to Atlanta late Monday afternoon, and, certain that his wife was in the city, began a canvass of registry books in the hotels. The Piedmont was one of the first he tried. He at once recognized his wife's signature, despite the assumed name.

Mrs. Knight Secretly Left Macon Home, Say Relatives

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

MACON, Ga., March 10.—Mrs. D. W. Knight, who is said to have swallowed poison in the Piedmont hotel in Atlanta last night, is said to have secretly left her home here last Thursday and her relatives here did not konw her whereabouts until this morning. She left the city while her husband, who is a flagman for the Georgia Southern and Florida railroad, was out on his run, and he did not know she was missing until his return Friday. Since that time he had been hunting her. Mr. and Mrs. Knight lived at 1912 Third street. She has a daughter, ten years old, now said to be an inmate in a Catholic orphanage in Atlanta.

She married about two years ago in Jacksonville, where they lived before she moved to Macon. Her father and a sister now reside in Baltimore, according to relatives of her husband.

According to Mrs. G. V. Knight, the sixty-five-year-old mother of the husband, her son left Macon in search of his wife last Friday morning immediately after he found she had left home. Just where he went she did not know and has not heard from him since he left. When told of Mrs. Knight's attempt to end her life, the aged mother-in-law sank into hysterics.

"My son worshipped his wife," she declared, "but she apparently had but little love for him. Oftentimes while he was out on the road she would leave home and nobody knew where she was for days at the time. She left Macon and went to Norfolk, Va., at one time and my son went there and brought her home."

VETERN LIFE-SAVER MADE COMMODORE

Habitues of the waters of Piedmont lake will learn with interest of the promotion of Past Captain Benjamin H. Schlomberg, to commodore of the Georgia department of the United States volunteer life saving corps. The oath was administered to the well known swimmer at the headquarters of the volunteer corps in New York City a few days ago.

Commodore Schlomberg has been a life guard for the past sixteen years and has, to his credit, the record of saving 115 persons from drownning. Upon his return to Georgia next summer, he will organize a state department of the corps, with the hope of receiving support from the state.

His wife, who was formerly Miss Melinda Bean, survives him, and three daughters, Miss Mamie Lewis Tysor, Mrs. Roy Collins and Mrs. Bertha Phillips.

The body will be brought to Atlanta for burial, and the funeral will be held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from Barclay & Brandon's chapel. Interment will be in Oakland.

MR. S. MARKS.

Mr. S. Marks, formerly a resident of Atlanta, died Monday at his home in Brunswick, Ga. He is survived by his wife; one son, Max Marks; three daughters, Mrs. E. A. Gershon and Mrs. B. A. Loveman, of Atlanta, and Mrs. J. J. Lissner, of Brunswick. The body will be brought to Atlanta for burial, and will arrive Wednesday morning. The funeral will be held at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. A. Gershon, Rabbi Marx officiating. Interment will be in West View cemetery.

GRAND OPERA TICKET SALE BREAKS RECORD

More Than $41,000 Taken in for Season Seats on Opening Day

That Atlanta is more devoted to grand opera than ever is indicated by the opening day's sale of season tickets at the stores of the Cable Piano company and Phillips & Crew. More than $41,000 in cash was received on the first day, a figure far ahead of any previous season.

One of the officers of the music festival association stated Tuesday that the sale was so far ahead of expectations that for a time he feared the auditorium's whole seating capacity would be absorbed in the season sale, leaving small opportunity to those who desired tickets for individual operas.

It is probable, however, that the great rush will be over within a few days, and the auditorium, seating more than 6,000, should leave ample space for those who do not care to hear every opera.

The season sale will continue through March 28, when tickets for single operas will be offered.

HOTEL 'BEATS' SUBJECT TO FINE OR IMPRISONMENT

The law passed by the Georgia general assembly in 1910, making it a misdemeanor for any person to take lodging at a hotel with intent to defraud said hotel, was Tuesday morning declared constitutional by the state supreme court in the case of Smith vs. the State, appealed from the city court of Tifton.

This case was first taken to the state court of appeals, and that tribunal certified the constitutional questions raised to the supreme court. According to the supreme court the law does not violate article I, section 1, paragraph 21, of the constitution, which prohibits imprisonment for debt, or does it violate any provision of the federal constitution.

The law, which was passed for the protection of hotels and lodging houses against "dead beats," provides a penalty of $200 fine, or three months' imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the judge.

Mr. Brinson Recovers

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 10.—Mr. George M. Brinson, the well known south Georgia railroad man who has been ill in Macon with an affection of the eyes which it was feared would result in the loss of his sight, has returned to Savannah much improved. It is now believed that all danger of the loss of his sight has gone and his friends are congratulating him upon his escape.

ERRORS ALLEGED IN CRAWFORD WILL CASE

Attorneys Say Plaintiffs Will Continue Fight Against Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford

Alleging errors in law and in fact in the findings of Auditor James L. Anderson in favor of Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford, Attorneys James S. James and Albert Kemper, who represent the plaintiffs in the Crawford will case, state that exceptions will be filed to the auditor's report, and that the fight will be carried to the United States courts if necessary.

"Mrs. Crawford need not suppose that the plaintiffs in this case will discontinue this fight against her illegal and unlawful possession of J. B. Crawford's property, without exhausting every legal right they may have to oust her out of that which does not belong to her, but in justice, equity and law belongs to them," state Attorneys James and Kemper.

The attorneys state that the auditor decided against the weight of evidence in not holding the marriage between Mrs. Mary Belle Sevage and J. B. Crawford void. They assert that Mrs. Mary Belle Crawford was never legally divorced, under the laws of Pennsylvania or Georgia, from her first husband, W. H. Bishop. They state that Bishop is living at the present time, and is married to a woman in West Virginia, in spite of the findings of the auditor that Bishop has not been heard of for seven years.

"J. B. Crawford's body was taken up and his stomach was analyzed and morphine and meconic acid were found in his stomach in sufficient quantities, so the expert testified, to have killed four persons, and these, too, after he had been dead for four years," the lawyers for the plaintiffs state.

DEMURRER FOR MELLEN IS SUSTAINED BY JUDGE

President of New Haven Railroad Charged With Manslaughter for Wreck

(By Associated Press.)

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., March 10.—The demurrer of counsel for former President Charles S. Mellen, of the New Haven railroad, charged with manslaughter as the result of a train wreck in October, 1912, was sustained by Judge Tuttle in the superior court here today.

The demurrer alleged that there was insufficiency of information in the complaint which charged Mr. Mellen with manslaughter. It set forth that the complaint did not show wherein Mr. Mellen was actually responsible for the wreck or that there was any connection between Mr. Mellen and the wreck.

Frank Should Have A New Trial

On April 26, 1913, in the City of Atlanta, in a building situated on one of the most crowded thoroughfares, a young girl just budding into womanhood was cruelly and brutally murdered. The crime was enveloped in deepest and most impenetrable mystery. Circumstances pointed vaguely to several individuals as being the possible murderer, but to no one convincingly. The city and indeed the whole country were horrified. The very brutality of the crime aroused public indignation to a degree of frenzy almost inconceivable. The criminal was demanded and the criminal must be found.

An irresponsible drunken negro charged Leo Frank with the crime. He related in minute and nauseating detail the horrible circumstances surrounding the murder. No other victim could be discovered, and in the absence of convincing evidence against anybody else, public fury gradually centered on Frank.

As time went on the mystery deepened. There was no satisfying circumstance indicating that Frank committed the crime and it required the negro's testimony to furnish even a basis for the accusation. The fact that this horrible crime had been committed and no other victim could be discovered was alone sufficient to cause the negro's testimony to be accepted by the public. He would not have been believed under other conditions, but an outraged public demanded a victim, and circumstances seemed in some slight degree to sustain the negro's testimony.

Frank was placed on trial last August. Public indignation was still at white heat. The trial was perhaps the longest and certainly the most sensational that ever occurred in the South. The jury found Frank guilty. A new trial was refused. The presiding judge stated in his refusal that he had been unable to make up his mind as to whether the man was guilty or innocent, but that the determination of that question was in the province of the jury, and the jury had declared him guilty. The Supreme Court was appealed to, and that Court decided that no error had been committed sufficient to justify setting aside the jury's verdict. Frank is under sentence of death. He is to be hanged on April 17th, unless execution of the sentence is delayed.

The Journal cares absolutely nothing for Frank, or for those who were engaged in his defense or prosecution. If Frank is found guilty after a fair trial, he ought to be hanged and his case should be made a horrible example to those who would destroy human life, for generations to come.

We recognize the justice of the rule that precludes the press from discussing, editorially at least, cases while pending in court. We have always respected both the necessity and the propriety of this rule. We do not wish to violate it now, but this case is so extraordinary in every phase and detail, so important in the consequences that may follow and so dangerous to the sanctity of the courts and the safety of the people themselves, that ordinary rules do not apply. Besides, so far as the record shows, this is a finished case. The prisoner has been sentenced to death, and nothing remains but to execute the mandate of the court. We do not therefore violate the proprieties of journalism nor offend against the peace, good order, and dignity of the State, when in simple justice and with profound respect for the courts and jury, as well as the lawyers on both sides of this remarkable case, we plead for a new trial for this unfortunate man.

The courts have their great responsibilities and their arduous duties to perform, and be it said to their everlasting credit, they discharge those duties to the best of human ability. But even juries are sometimes swayed by environment and the judicial ermine is not infallible. Infallibility is an attribute of omnipotence and omniscience only. Responsibility for the enforcement of the law and the punishment of crime rests largely but not exclusively upon the courts. The press also has its share of responsibility, and it seems to The Journal that the time has come for the press to speak. The Journal will do so now even though every other newspaper in Georgia remains silent.

It is our duty to help enforce the laws and punish crime, but it is a far more solemn duty to know with reasonable certainty at least that men accused of crime are guilty before they are punished. Error in the administration of the law must be corrected before its consequences are visited upon those not legally convicted; otherwise the law itself falls into disrepute and becomes the scorn of those who should uphold it.

In this respect the press is responsible no less than the courts. Its duties are not in conflict but in aid of the courts. It is the amicus curiae, the friend of the court, in such matters. It is in this spirit that we appeal for a new trial for Frank. Is Frank guilty of the murder of Mary Phagan? We do not know. He may be guilty or he may be innocent. He may be a fiend incarnate, or he may be the victim of a cruel conspiracy. Whether he is innocent or guilty is not now the question.

Leo Frank has not had a fair trial. He has not been fairly convicted and his death without a fair trial and legal conviction will amount to judicial murder.

We say this with a full understanding of the import of our words and the responsibility that rests upon us in making this appeal. We do so, not in disrespect for the court or the lawyers or the jury. They did the best they could with the lights before them. We honor them for faithfully performing a most unpleasant duty as they saw it.

But this we do say without qualification: it was not within the power of human judges and human lawyers and human jurymen to decide impartially and without fear the guilt or innocence of an accused man under the circumstances that surrounded this trial.

The very atmosphere of the court room was charged with an electric current of indignation which flashed and scintillated before the very eyes of the jury. The court-room and streets were filled with an angry, determined crowd, ready to seize the defendant if the jury had found him not guilty. Cheers for the prosecuting counsel were irrepressible in the court-room throughout the trial and on the streets unseemly demonstrations in condemnation of Frank were heard by the judge and jury. The judge was powerless to prevent these outbursts in the courtroom and the police were unable to control the crowd outside.

So great was the danger that the Fifth Regiment of the National Guard was kept under arms throughout a great part of the night, ready to rush on a moment's warning to the protection of the defendant. The press of the city united in an earnest request to the presiding judge to not permit the verdict of the jury to be received on Saturday as it was thought it would be, because it was known that a verdict of acquittal would cause a riot such as would shock the country and cause Atlanta's streets to run with innocent blood. Under such indescribable conditions as these, Frank was tried and convicted. Was a fair trial, under such circumstances, possible? Could a man be legally and fairly convicted while a threatening and uncontrollable mob was breathing vengeance in the very faces of the judge and jury?

Frank may be guilty. If so he should suffer the extreme penalty of the law by hanging, for surely no more horrible crime was ever committed; but in the name of Justice and in the name of the good people of the State of Georgia, who believe in fair play, who stand for the enforcement of law and the punishment of crime, after legal conviction, let this man be fairly tried. If he is guilty, he will be convicted again. The majesty of the law cannot be offended, justice cannot be defeated, the feelings of an outraged community cannot be further outraged, by according to this man a fair and impartial trial.

The evidence on which he was convicted is not clear. Suppose he is hanged and it should develop that the man was innocent as he claims? The people of this state would stand before the world convicted of murdering an innocent man by refusing to give him an impartial trial. Such a horrible thing is unthinkable. And yet it is possible; yea, an absolute certainty that we are going to do that very thing unless the courts interfere.

The Conning Tower

BY FRANKLIN P. ADAMS.

THE TIRED BUSINESS MAN'S SONG.

The day is done, and the darkness
Falls from the wings of Night,
As it did in the bygone evenings
When Longfellow used to write.

I lamp the lights of the city,
The scintillant signs of the town,
And a feeling of gladness comes o'er me
That simply will not down.

A feeling of gladness and longing
That is not akin to joy,
That resembles sorrow only
As Tanguay resembles Foy.

Come, sing to me some lyric,
Some sinful and stupid lay;
The sort that the Western buyers
Applaud at a cabaret.

Not from the grand old masters,
Not from the highbrow bunch,
Who make the music-lovers
Assert that they had the punch.

For, like strains of Debussy music,
They make me ready to drop
Into deep and endless slumber,
And to-night I long for slop.

Play from some ragtime lyrist,
Whose songs gush'd Heav'n knows whence,
As wilful and naughty children
Will write with chalk on a fence;

Who, down in Tin-Pan Alley,
Or elsewhere I may not hint,
"Composed" the commonplace "music,"
Or the words unfit for print.

Such songs have power to riot
The sluggish pulse of care,
From the Anaconda Wriggle
To the sin-sin Cinnamon Bear.

Then play from that aggregation
The rag with the utmost pep,
And lend to the tune of the lyrist
The grace of the newest step.

And the night shall be filled with ragtime,
And the songs of an elder day
Shall repose in the camphored storehouse
With "Forsaken" and "Nelly Gray."

In the snow-shovelling army there must be some foreigners who dreamed, say ten years ago, of coming to New York and picking up gold in the streets. And now shovelling snow at 20c. an hour, or one-third of what an ordinary billiard table earns.

The snow-shovelling profession is a dispiriting one, at best. What incentive is there for a man to excel at it? Who is the best snow-shoveller in the world?

A Communication to the Editor About the New Dances

Sir. I must acquaint you that very great abuses are crept into this intertainment. I was amazed to see my girl handled by, and handling, young fellows with so much familiarity. They very often made use of a most lascivious step, called "Setting," which I know not how to describe to you, but by telling you that it is the very reverse of "back to back." At last an impudent young dog bid the fiddlers play "MollyAtely," and after having made two or three capers, ran to his partner, locked his arm in hers, and whisked her around cleverly above ground in such a manner, that I, who sat upon one of the lowest benches, saw further above her shoe than I can think fit to acquaint you with. I could no longer endure these enormities; wherefore, just as my girl was going to be made a whirligig, I ran in, seized on the child, and carried her home.

That letter was not received yesterday, nor by us. No; it was sent to Mr. Richard Steele's "The Spectator," and appeared therein May 17, 1711. . . . Did you happen to see "Milestones"?

Understand Your Husband

By E. K. WOOLEY.
(Copyright, 1914, by E. K. Wooley.)

After a woman has been married ten years she isn't fit for much," said the gray-haired man.

He didn't say it unkindly. He's a man of broad mind, and he believes in equal suffrage—"no good reason why women shouldn't vote same as any other human being," in his opinion.

What he meant was that either the wear and tear of married life has worn out a woman in ten years' time, not a compliment to husbands, by the way, or that a woman, when she marries, considers her mark as made and slumps accordingly, so that at the end of ten years her brain is atrophied and she is literally good for nothing.

We have been speaking of the inability of so many wives to help themselves if sudden death or accident deprived them of support.

Even in cases where the woman had been self-supporting before marriage, she has found herself helpless after a number of years of wifehood—"out of the procession" and unable to get back.

"Honestly, I have been afraid to marry," confessed one business woman who has passed the thirty-year mark. "I have seen so many of the girls marry, give up their jobs, expect everything to be all right forever after and, after seven or eight years or so, come around with two or three little ones holding to their skirts—wanting work. They are hampered by the children, can't give the same attention to their work, and their brains don't seem to be as nimble as they ought to be. And they are hopelessly out-of-date. Most of them seem to stop just at the place they get married, like a clock that's had a bad tumble."

Women are leaning too much on the old idea of the sheltered wife and mother. They must get over the idea that a husband should do all the thinking and buffeting for the wife.

A woman must do more than keep her house in order and see that her children are properly brought up.

She must keep her mind open, and be as alert to opportunities as any business man.

I like to think of matrimony as a ship, with Father the captain and Mother the mate—a mate who is the captain's understudy and who can take the wheel and navigate the ship if anything happens to the captain.

If more wives would understudy their husbands, we should have fewer widows "all at sea."

Every woman should understand about her husband's investments, should know enough about business to handle his affairs should he be incapacitated. In order to protect his wife, a man should insist upon her knowing these things, and keep pegging away at her until she grasps them intelligently.

Too often it happens, through a wife's indifference or a husband's negligence or, sometimes, his secretiveness, that a man is actually a stranger to his wife in everything outside of their common dwelling place. She may unknowingly be living beyond his means. She may be skimping and going without actual necessaries when he is able to supply comforts. And both may be missing a delight in common interests by not getting together and cultivating an intelligent interest in each other's affairs.

The Journal's Letter Box

Marietta, Ga., March 9, 1914.

Editor The Journal:

I notice in The Journal of March 7, Mr. W. A. Brannon wants to know why we "sagacious, progressive Georgia farmers" raise cotton instead of corn, peas, hay, etc. We do so because we can make more money raising cotton. Using his language, I will say:

"Here is the proof":

One man can prepare, plant, cultivate and gather twenty acres in corn and peas, conservative estimate of yield and prices:

500 bushels corn at 70 cents	$350.00
3,000 bundles of fodder at $2	60.00
Peas, between rows, 20 bushels at $1.50	30.00
Total	$440.00

Seed to pay for picking.
Total	$1,050.00
Gross difference favor cotton	$ 610.00

Now, I do not know that I am any of the big names Mr. Brannon speaks of, but I am a farmer and his figures are dissected "some." He may be a better one; in fact, he may rank away up amongst those named in the last paragraph of his letter, but if the majority of farmers of Georgia try to follow his plan, the "wads" in their pocketbooks will be dissected about in the same way.

Very truly yours,

C. W. FOWLER.

Quips and Quiddities

Mrs. Franklin, who had recently returned from an extensive tour, was relating some of her experiences to her friend, Mrs. Newton, who had only recently acquired riches.

"Yes, while we were in Egypt we visited the pyramids. They were literally covered with hieroglyphics," said she.

"Ugh!" replied Mrs. Newton. "Wasn't you afraid some of 'em would get on you?"—Harper's Magazine.

"You've heard a lot of stories about the fool mistakes women make when they come to a bank," said a well known paying teller, "and some of them are true.

"I've seen 'em all—the woman who gets mad when we call her attention to an overdraft and then wants to write a check to make it up; the woman whose indorsements are weird—all of them.

"But the worst came in a few weeks ago. She shoved a check through the window without looking at me. I said:

"'Madam, you will have to get somebody to introduce you before I can cash this check for you.'

"'Sir!' she answered, haughtily, 'I am here on business and not making a social call. I do not care to know you!'"

AMERICAN CHAMBERS OF COMMERCE IN EUROPE
By Frederic J. Haskin

Among the most striking indications that the United States is shaking off its apathetic disregard for a share in international commerce and finance are the well organized, thoroughly aggressive chambers of commerce which have been established by American business men during the last twenty years in the principal distributing centers of Europe. In theory all Americans are agreed that a major slice of the world's trade should fall to the share of this country. However, surpluses of products and wealth are just beginning to make a division in foreign markets a necessity. The time when the employment and prosperity of this country's people will be contingent upon winning and maintaining an increasing share of foreign business is not far off. In the American commercial organizations of the continent, the home manufacturer will have valuable and trustworthy allies for the accomplishment of his new task.

Chief among the American foreign commercial chambers are the American Association of Commerce and Trade, for Germany, with offices in Berlin; the American Chamber of Commerce, for France, with offices at Paris; the American Chamber of Commerce of Italy, with offices in Naples; the American Chamber of Commerce for the Netherlands and Colonies, located in Amsterdam; the Russian-American Chamber of Commerce, in Moscow; the American Chamber of Commerce for the Levant, with offices in Constantinople and New York City, and the American-Belgian Chamber of Commerce of Brussels.

Of these the Paris and Berlin organizations are the strongest and, likely, the most important for the development of our foreign trade, as the two capitals in which they are situated are, barring London, coming to be the great central depots for the distribution of Merchandise to the millions of continental buyers. Most of the larger wholesale traders from whatever European country make up their orders from ideas received in the showrooms of Paris and Berlin. Displays in the agent's windows of these cities have built up a demand for the American style of shoe throughout the length and breadth of Europe.

The American Chamber of Commerce in Paris was organized in 1894. It was one of the first of this country's commercial organizations abroad, and upon its general plan many of the succeeding chambers have been formed. That Paris, which has always stood high in the appreciation of the American, should have had the first virile body was fitting. Since the memory of man the seductive Parisian merchant has garnered rich harvests of this land's dollars. In 1902 declared exports of goods to America at the Paris consulate amounted in value to more than $41,000,000. The declared exports now amount to about $70,000,000 a year. These figures do not include the vast quantity of costumes, furs, laces, millinery, lingerie, jewelry, antiquities, paintings and other articles of luxury, that visiting Americans purchase and take home with them year after year without the formality of declaring them at the consulate and having them invoiced. Probably, with the unknown element of America's expenditure in the French capital reckoned in, the annual harvest of American money is near to the $100,000,000 mark.

Many American import and export houses maintain branches in Paris through which they carry on business with all buying and selling centers of Europe. Some of the largest firms of this country are represented at the French capital by the best men in their employ. The greater part of the business men there are pioneers of American commerce abroad. The materials for an energetic, wide-awake, efficient chamber of commerce are, therefore, plentiful.

There are more than 300 members in the Paris chamber. The objects of their organization, as recited in their constitution, are the furtherance of the development of commerce between the United States and France, collection of information and examination of questions pertaining to these countries' commercial and industrial relationships, the encouragement and facilitation of the transaction of business between them, and especially the promotion of American interests. American citizens, firms and corporations are eligible to active membership; while foreign individuals, firms and corporations interested in the objects of the organization are eligible as associate members. The foreign membership is not permitted to exceed one-tenth of the active membership.

The chamber maintains close relations with the American consular officers in Europe, with the embassy at Paris, with the department of commerce in Washington, and with other foreign American commercial organizations. It is a member of the chamber of commerce of the United States, as is, also, the American Chamber of Commerce for the Levant, and it keeps in touch with the various home commercial organizations.

In pursuance of its avowed policy the chamber has devoted itself to the assistance of American manufacturers and business men in their efforts toward establishing themselves in French markets. It has welcomed inquiries concerning business conditions and opportunities from all quarters of the home country, and has answered such inquiries with comprehensive data and with the sound advice of shrewd men intimately acquainted with the situation. Information relating to markets in France, production, costs, government supervision of business, and other matters of interest to the American exporter has been carefully collected by the organization, studied and analyzed. It has represented the interests of American business before the French government in such matters as tariff making and has aided the officials of this government in industrial and commercial investigations.

The Paris chamber is the largest commercial organization of American citizens beyond the borders of the United States. It is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia. Among its honorary members are Henry White, Robert S. McCormick, General Horace Porter, Robert Bacon and Oscar S. Straus, all former American ambassadors; Captain Frank H. Mason and John K. Gowdy, former American consuls general at Paris; James Gordon Bennett, owner of the New York Herald, and more than fifty presidents of the chambers of commerce of leading American cities. The membership rolls further carry the names of such business men as John P. Branch, Jacob H. Schiff, John Hays Hammond, Mortimer L. Strasburger, F. H. Lambrecht, Henry Clay Frick and James Speyer.

The chamber issues certificates of origin required by American customs in certain cases. It participates in the international congresses of chambers of commerce. Such projects as the Panama-Pacific International exposition have received enthusiastic support of the body, and all Americans arriving in Paris on business are cheerfully given every reasonable aid. The chamber is well endowed and is planning the construction of its own building.

Other American chambers abroad work along lines similar to those of the Paris chamber. The American Association of Commerce and Trade in Berlin was organized in 1903. Its principal object is that of giving assistance in the introduction of American goods into Germany. It has nearly 250 members, though its proportion of foreign members is larger than in the Paris chamber. The important position which this organization maintains in the German business world may be inferred when considering that more than $333,000,000 worth of goods was exported by this country to Germany last year, while America's total trade with Germany exceeded half a billion dollars. Both the Berlin and Paris organizations issued regular bulletins. In the bulletins of the Berlin chamber is contained regularly a list of opportunities for American articles in that country.

When the American determination awakes to go out and commercially conquer Europe with the great number of articles which are manufactured with more progressive workmanship here than elsewhere, the continental American chambers of commerce may become for the home exporters powerful means for success.

Pavlowa's Finished Dancing Makes Modern 'Trots' Look Awkward, Cheap and Tame

Only a Few Moments Required to Fall Under Spell of Famous Artist, and Memory of It Is Something to Cherish Through Life

When Pavlowa, her breast throbbing from the wild, whirling climax of the Bacchanale, smiled for the last time upon her worshipers Monday night and the thousand filed out of the theater there was a new worry tugging at their thoughts. Perhaps these tangos and trots are vulgar and foolish, after all! Certainly they would seem cheap, commonplace, awkward, after such dancing as this!

Atlanta had seen Pavlowa before, but this is a new divinity of the dance, more wonderful than ever. Her company, too, is far superior. There are half a dozen stars in ner constellation who each would shine with brilliance were not Pavlowa there. It is true that Mordkin is missed, but Novikoff, even though he lack the incomparable physical perfection which made women rave of Mordkin, is an artist well worthy to share the stage with the Russian genius of the dance.

Do not fear, you who have not fallen under Pavlowa's spell, that this classic dancing of Russia is "hard to understand." If you could find beauty in a shattered rainbow dancing on sun-kissed waves you will "understand" the airy polonaise in the opening number. If you could watch with pleasure three happy children playing upon the lawn, you will cry for just another bit of the "Moment Musicale," when three Grecian maidens with Pipes o' Pan flit about like fickle moonbeams. If you have stood before a masterpiece of painting and wondered at the stately grace of some lady of quality in the minuet you will wait upon every step of Pavlowa and her partner in the gavotte and split your gloves in frantic effort to bring them back to the footlights. It does not require "understanding" to love Pavlowa's dancing. One needs only a love of music, a sense of rhythm and eyes that can see the beautiful.

TRULY ROYAL FEAST.

It is truly a royal feast given by the Russians this season. The "Soiree de Danse," which opens the program, is a succession of gorgeous, graceful figures, danced to the music of Chopin in a moonlit vista of shadowy poplars painted by a master. The "Orientale," the dance drama of the evening, is a revelation. It gives Atlanta her first glimpse of the work of Leon Bakst, the Russian painter whose mad color schemes and defiance of convention have set him beyond even the futurists. The settings are great splashes of gray and purple and yellow, the costumes strange fragments of every shape and shade, but all bold, flat colors, crude, barbaric.

The "Orientale" is perhaps the boldest conception ever given Atlanta, too, in its defiance of the tradition which makes the human body something to be suggested rather than revealed. Novikoff, the Tartar knight, is nude from waist to fingertip, except for the jeweled amulet which hangs across his breast, and even this is at last removed when he escapes the temptress' wiles and makes his exit from the court. There are women in filmy garments lolling on soft cushions, Oriental slaves, barelegged, standing guard; and on her dais, high above the throng, Pavlowa the Enchantress, swathed in silks of such cobweb texture that the seven veils of Salome are Arctic furs in comparison. The scene is voluptuous beyond expression, but in some strange way, under the spell of the weird music of Rimski-Karsakoff one does not think about this until afterward. One is too intent upon the pantomime, too busy watching the lithe movements of Pavlowa and the serpent-like writhings of the inscrutable figure upon the floor, Oukrainsky, whose arms are like darting cobras and whose body seems scarcely human. The ballet has been called the "optical opera." With such past masters of pantomime as these no word as needed.

A DAINTY COLUMBINE.

The third part shifts to a bare stage with a green-banked river in the background, and Pavlowa as Columbine dancing with Harlequin and poor Punch. It was here, to the lilting measures of a country dance that Pavlowa won her most hearty applause up to the time. The music was so infectious, her steps so airy and so merry that the audience fairly shouted its delight. There was a repetition of the number, and then the Polish dance by the company gave a glimpse of the "Russian dancing" attempted by so many companies traveling in the wake of the creators. Then the bewitching flitting of the three Greek maidens, and the "Gavotte Pavlowa," with the star and M. Berge. The Hungarian folk dance, with Liszt's throbbing Magyar music for its background, was a riot of swirling color. The "Autumn Bacchanale" followed, with Pavlowa and Novikoff flying over the meadow in pure joy at being alive! Then, the curtain, and the people standing at their seats and demanding still another glimpse and another smile.

It required more than one season for every-day Atlantians to learn to enjoy opera, but opera has become loved for its own sake. It will require but a few moments to fall under the spell of Pavlowa, and the memory is something to cherish all one's life. She will dance again Tuesday afternoon and yet again on Tuesday night, and she may never return. It's worth thinking over before you decide to forego this pleasure.

DUDLEY GLASS.

Forsyth Vaudeville Has Several Good Features.

There are three acts on the bill at the Forsyth this week which are entitled to be distinguished from the other vaudeville offerings by the term "features." They are: Ismed, the Turkish pianist; Laddie Cliff, the English boy comedian, and Harry Tighe's college skit, "Taking Things Easy."

And it is no unkind criticism of the several other acts to say that they are good "fillers in."

Ismed is a sensational pianist. His interpretation of the most intricate compositions of the famous masters captured his audience, and his playing of the sextette from Lucia, with his left hand was nothing short of wonderful. Ismed in action reminds one of a typewriter pounding the keys of the machine, but the exquisite tones which he coaxes from his piano impresses even the "low brows." He should, however, indulge his audience's demand for an encore.

Laddie Cliff, billed as "England's clever boy comedian," is indeed clever, both as an eccentric dancer and the singer of droll songs. His impersonations of a monocled English fop is very good and very funny. Despite the popular belief to the contrary the English do have a sense of humor; that is if Laddie is to be taken as an example.

Harry Tighe's college sketch, "Taking Things Easy," has many flashes of real comedy, but it could be vastly improved by a little pruning and polishing. Tighe himself is a natural comedian, of the spontaneous type.

The other acts on the bill, set down in the order of merit are: Alberta Moore and Myrtle Young, in songs and dances; Carl Ryal and Dora Early, comedy singers; Hill and Syviani, trick bicyclists, and Will Kemp's acrobatic oddities.

ATLANTA ALUMNI CHAPTER TO DINE

Regular Monthly Dinner to Be Held in Mahogany Room of Ansley

The regular monthly dinner of the Atlanta alumni chapter of the Delta Tau Delta fraternity will be held Wednesday night in the mahogany dining room of the Ansley hotel at 7:30 o'clock.

After the banquet the regular meeting will be held and a report will be heard from the two delegates who attended the joint conference of the southern and eastern divisions of the fraternity recently held in Washington. There were a great many in attendance at this conference.

Speaker Champ Clark acted as toastmaster, and with him on the list were members of congress, and other officials high in the service of Uncle Sam.

At the dinner Wednesday night all this and much more will be told, the recent legislation enacted at the conference will be disclosed, and every Delt in the city should make it a point to be on hand. The time has been changed from 8:30 to 7:30, so as to enable more to attend. A good crowd is expected, and another regular get-together will be had.

COW EATING JONQUILS IS ARRESTED BY COPS

Midnight Marauder Haled to Station Stable by Mounted Men on Citizen's Complaint

The strange spectacle of two embarrassed policemen ambling a la horseback in the wake of a placid bossy who mooed and chewed her cud alternately, greeted late pedestrians on Decatur street Monday night.

For five miles the cops had been driving bossy townward, just because a wrathful citizen on Farrington street—which is some distance off Capitol avenue—had telephoned headquarters and asked for relief from the Jersey cow that was eating the jonquils out of his front lawn.

Officers Cochran and Gannt answered the call, roped in the cow and brought her back to the station pound. Today Betsy is eating her head off in the station stables and some unidentified citizen is being charged a dollar a day "cow board" until he claims her.

ILLUSTRATED LECTURE ON VOICE PRODUCTION

Albert Gerard-Thiers will give an illustrated lecture on normal voice production Wednesday night at the Southern University of Music. All who are interested are invited to attend.

"MAKING THINGS HAPPEN," BY ARTHUR WILLIAMS

Arthur L. Williams, of Magnolia, Miss., author and lecturer, will deliver a lecture Wedensday night at the Central Baptist church on "Making Things Happen." No admission will be charged.

Mr. Williams delivered the same address Monday night at the College Park Baptist church, and will give it Tuesday night in Austell. Mr. Williams is crippled, but despite the fact that he has been handicapped since childhood, he has educated himself and has become the author of a volume of poems of merit.

WEALTH OF HAIR

Parisian Sage Makes Thin Lifeless Hair Soft and Abundant.

Beautiful hair, fluffy, lustrous, abundant and free from dandruff, is one of woman's greatest charms—it's her main delight—yet so many of the fair sex who would be most attractive but for their streaked, thin and lifeless hair, go on thinking there is no remedy. Quickly put aside such thoughts. Beautiful hair is largely a matter of a little care and attention. Parisian Sage rubbed into the scalp and applied to the hair with a sponge or cloth will work wonders. Do it daily for a week, then occasionally, and you will be surprised and delighted with the result—not only will the hair become abundant, soft, fluffy, radiant with life, but really doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage supplies hair and scalp needs. It surely removes dandruff with one application and cleanses the hair of all dirt and excesive oil. It is not sticky or greasy, is delicately perfumed, and contains nothing to injure the hair or scalp. Jacobs' Pharmacy and all drug and toilet counters sell it in fifty-cent bottles. Look for the trade-mark—"The Girl with the Auburn Hair."

Delighted users pronounce Parisian Sage the best, most pleasant and invigorating hair tonic made.—(Advt.)

RENEWED BULL SUPPORT CAUSED RISE IN COTTON

Market in New York Closed 4 to 20 Points Higher Than Previous Close

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 10.—There was a renewal of yesterday's late buying movemnt at the opening of the cotton market today. Liverpool failed to meet expectations based on the New York close of last night and first prices were 2 points higher on March, but generally 2 to 5 points lower under scattering liquidation or realizing. Offerings, however, were very readily absorbed around the opening figures and the active months sold 3 to 5 points net higher during the early trading on covering and bull support.

Realylzing checked the advance and caused reactions to about yesterday's closing figures, but the market showed a steady undertone shortly after midday.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

(By Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—Cotton opened steady, 2 to 5 points down in response to poor cables and higher temperatures in the cotton region. First prices were the lowest in the early trading as shorts bought covers freely. Half an hour after the opening prices were 1 to 2 points over yesterday's close.

Prices worked 4 to 5 points under yesterday's finals under moderate selling on the new crop outlook, out at noon the market was steady at a net advance of 1 to 2 points.

HAYWARD & CLARK COTTON LETTER

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 10.—Liverpool advanced 4 points on futures and spots with larger sales, total 10,000. Futures were due 6 to 7 higher, but if the adjustment of market relations is now in progress, as seems likely, Liverpool was good enough. New York cannot forever remain 130 points under Liverpool which is 50 points more than normal and conducive to loss of stock in New York.

The map shows cloudy weather over most of the belt with prospects of a rain storm for the northwestern quarter, unsettled elsewhere, followed by a cold wave that may extend way into south Texas and cause further delay.

Waco, Texas, reported a cotton fire. Details of loss not yet received. Our market opened slightly easier but soon steadied on the firmer tendency in New York. The sudden turn to pronounced strength yesterday afternoon was a reminder of the fact that there are two sides to the market and that opposition might be successful at this level. Selling is consequently more cautious, also on account of the weather prospects.

New York wired that there is considerable short interest in that market and disturbed over the bullish spot reports from the south. As May and July in New York are $7 to $10 under spots prices in the south, danger of New York losing stock is apparent. Spots here are reported very steady, with better grades higher to buy. The revision committee will meet tomorrow, the premium on medium and higher grades is likely to be increased.

COTTON REPORTS TO BE CHANGED BY BUREAU

Quantity of Linters in Total Production Not to Be Included Hereafter

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Future annual reports of the census bureau on the quantity of cotton ginned will not, as heretofore, include the quantity of linters in the total production of cotton for the crop but will relate only to lint cotton. This change in the method of publishing the statistics of cotton was announced today by Director Harris, of the census bureau, and will be effective beginning with the next report on March 20. Information as to the production of linters, however, the director states, will be given in a footnote so that comparative figures may be computed on the basis of reports in previous years. In explaining why he regards the change advisable Director Harris said:

"The annual reports on the quantity of cotton ginned have heretofore included the quantity of linters obtained by the oil mills. Formerly there was only a comparatively small quantity of linters obtained and they were of such a grade as could be used to some extent for the same purposes as were the lower grades of cotton. Many of the oil mills now have installed machinery for the closer delinting of the seed. This has resulted in a large increase in the total quantity of linters produced each year and at the same time in lowering the average quality of the fiber so that now only a small part, if any, is used as a substitute for lint cotton."

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET WAS STRONG AND HIGHER

Canadian Pacific, New Haven, Steel, Great Northern and Union Pacific Up

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 10.—Gains were the rule at the opening of today's stock market, which showed a moderately strong undertone. Canadian Pacific advanced 1⅝ and Chesapeake and Ohio, which was especially weak towards yesterday's close, rose a point. Lehigh Valley was again inclined to react.

Individual instances of short selling and liquidation were virtually ignored by the general list, though top figures were shaded slightly. Chesapeake and Ohio sagged 2 points to 50⅝, the lowest; Lehigh and Sugar also fell over a point. Industrials and specialties rose buoyantly. United States Express gained 5½, North American 4⅝ and Rubber, Ice and Utah Copper 1.

The market made some additional advance as a result of the large increase in United States steel tonnage figures and the heavy over-subscription to the Third Avenue bond issue. Chesapeake and Ohio rallied briskly on official assurances that current earnings were at the rate of 7 per cent annually.

Although the market exhibited weakness at various points during the morning its general action convinced the bulls that it had been thoroughly liquidated. Despite successive hear raids on Lehigh Valley, Chesapeake and Ohio, and Sugar, all of which fell sharply, buying orders came in steadily, giving the impression that the shorts were taking on stocks under cover of forced selling elsewhere.

European buying in steel and railroad shares indicated the abatement of foreign liquidation which has been a depressing influence for some time. The advance of various specialities continued. The spectacular rise of United States Express was carried further, the price touching 88½ compared with 54 a fortnight ago.

Bonds were steady.

Speculation was languid and traders were disinclined to follow the movement of special stocks. Prices were maintained above yesterday's close.

The general list became stronger, a number of stocks rising a point or so.

Closed strong.

LONDON, March 10.—The belief that Premier Asquith's offer has brought the settlement of the Ulster question nearer was mainly responsible for a sharp recovery on the stock exchange today.

American securities opened steady and about unchanged. Carry-over rates for the settlement were rather easier and prices advanced on fair buying during the forenoon. Later New York buying sustained values and made the closing steady.

AWED BY TROOPERS, STRIKERS RESUME WORK

ROME March 10.—Awed by the display of the soldiery and checked by several cavalry charges which frustrated attempts at disorder, the workmen of Rome who yesterday had declared a general strike, decided today to resume work.

Before this announcement was made at noon, a body of strikers trying to march to the ministry of the interior was dispersed by the police who fired several volleys into the air.

Weather Conditions

WEATHER CONDITIONS

Forecast till 7 p. m. Wednesday.

Atlanta and vicinity—Fair, warmer tonight; Wednesday rain and colder.

Georgia—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight.

Alabama—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; probably rain Wednesday; warmer tonight.

The appearance of a slight disturbance this morning over Texas and Oklahoma, with increasing cloudiness in that vicinity, indicates the approach of cloudy weather with probably light rain Wednesday afternoon or night. At present no precipitation accompanies the storm except on the northwest side, the weather being generally clear in the central and eastern portion of the country.

An area of high atmospheric pressure has appeared in the extreme northwest and the temperatures in that vicinity are decidedly lower, reaching 6 degrees below zero at Winnipeg and 6 degrees above at Duluth. In the eastern portion of the cotton belt the weather has become considerably warmer, reaching 42 degrees at Atlanta at 7 a. m., but light frosts were reported at Charleston, Tampa and Jacksonville.

Indications point to increasing cloudiness Wednesday, with probably rain late Wednesday afternoon or night, and warmer tonight, but the temperature will fall again Wednesday night.

COTTON GOSSIP

Times-Democrat says:

Yesterday's sharp reaction was simply a reminder of the peril which lurks in the huge discounts. It was fairly easy to sell May at 12.15 and July at 12.11, with middling quoted at 12.75 and the lower grades difficult to buy at the official differences in New Orleans, but in doing this sort of business, one must be sure that the breed of merchants is extinct, for the merchant can pass the stuff on the spinner on that basis and the spinner can convert the stuff into yarns with a fat profit. According to a private cable from Liverpool the board of trade puts British exports of cloth during February 2 at 583,000,000 yards as compared with 564,000,000 last year and the exports of yarns at 18,160,000 pounds, against 16,800,000 in that month of 1913.

It would thus seem that the prophesied collapse is still in the future. As "new crops" can be bought in almost unlimited quantities, at a discount of a cent, there is no reason why Lancashire should curtail its output for lack of raw material at a time when the underwriters who sell these distant months at a discount are doing a public service, whether they are doing themselves any good remains to be seen.

Map shows cloudy entire belt, no precipitation, indications are for generally unsettled, rainy weather in the belt, except in Florida, Georgia. Cold wave for north Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas. Rain storm formed in north Texas and west Texas, possibly moving eastward tomorrow.

Washington says: Directors of census bureau announced that linters will not be included in production figures of the crop and the totals of the report on March 2 will relate only to lint cotton and will not include linters. Information as to production of linters, however, will be given in a foot note. The agricultural commissioner of the Rock Island lines says that cotton seed is the worst he has ever known, and planting seed is not up to the standard was brought to the attention of officers of the association of commerce in this state.

Forecast:

Louisiana—Tonight unsettled and warmer in southeast portion; Wednesday unsettled, probably showers, colder except in southeast portion; light to moderate southerly winds on the coast.

Arkansas—Unsettled tonight and Wednesday, probably rain, colder tonight in west portion; colder Wednesday.

Oklahoma—Tonight fair and colder; cold wave temperature will be 26 to 30 degrees; Wednesday fair and colder in east portion.

East Texas—Unsettled tonight and Wednesday, probably rain in east portion, colder tonight in the interior, freezing in northwest portion, colder Wednesday; moderate to brisk southerly to westerly winds on the coast.

West Texas—Tonight fair and colder; cold wave in north portion with temperature 24 to 28 degrees, frost in south portion; Wednesday fair and colder in southeast portion.

Kentucky—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; probably rain.

Tennessee—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday, probably rain; warmer in east and central portions tonight; colder west portion Wednesday.

Mississippi—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; colder Wednesday.

Georgia—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday; warmer tonight.

Alabama—Cloudy tonight and Wednesday,b probably rain Wednesday.

Storm warning—Disturbance over Texas Panhandle will move eastward and give moderate to brisk southerly winds this afternoon and tonight.

Riordan good buyer, but crowd selling.

There is very little change in the situation, some good buying said to be by Shearsons brokers and Riordan with shorts covering because ring was caught short and has caused this rally, but I think it is temporary, will be limited. There has been a little cotton liquidated when May and July went around 50, but not enough to change the technical position. I rather look for more liquidation and lower prices before the ginners' report, but cotton the last decline was getting down to a basis where it could be conservatively bought even if it went lower. October and December around 11c is cheap. I am said May and July differences are an uncertain quantity. On liquidation we may have May go down below July, but with so little cotton here you may se May prove a spot option, just as March has been to attract cotton to this market. The long interest in May is very large. I have every reason to believe Philadelphia and other spot houses here heavily short of this option.—Tate.

11 a. m. bids in New York were as follows: March 12.32; May 11.73; July 11.64; October 11.32.

10 a. m. bids in New Orleans were: March 12.43; May 12.30; July 12.28; October 11.44.

South Texas sending unfavorable new crop advices, and prospects are for another cold wave. New crop matters delayed in early section, gives old crop additional merit.

Waco, Tex., says: "The Exporters and Traders' Warehouse and Compress company, in East Waco, was destroyed by fire, the loss includes the $100,000 plant, 5,000 bales of cotton in storage and on wharves."

New Orleans—The revision committee will meet tomorrow at 11 a. m.

Dow Jones' summary: United States Steel figures due at noon. Anti-trust bills to be rewritten. President believes interlocking directors bill goes too far. General Electric company secures big contract from Canadian Pacific. Twelve industrials $1.36 up .08; twenty active rails 103.40 up .14.

United States Steel tonnage increased 412,000 tons.

It is expected directors on Railway Steel Springs will meet in about ten days. It is not expected they will declare a common dividend on account of reduced earnings.

Great Northern earnings February gross decease 683,000, for eight months decreased 148,000.

GRAIN GOSSIP

Chicago Inter Ocean says: Wheat traders had it last night that values might work a little higher in view of the small reserves as shown by the government estimate of farm stocks, but that it would take increased export business or a crop scare to permanently maintain bulges. Sentiment in corn was more mixed last night, most traders favoring the bear side. It was the gossip of the oats trade that lower prices were to prevail unless considerable new buying power made its appearance.

Bartlett, Frazier & Co. say: Wheat—We can see nothing in the situation on which to put a bullish construction.

Corn—We continue to advise short sales on all hard sp

News of Women and Society

To Miss Garrison

Miss Margaret Burckhart will entertain at a box party at the Atlanta theater Thursday, March 19, in compliment to Miss Paula Garrison, the attractive guest of Miss Marian Perdue and Miss Tommie Perdue.

The invited guests are Miss Garrison, Miss Marian Perdue, Miss Tommie Perdue, Miss Mainer Lee Hardin and Miss Ruth Corrigan.

After the matinee the guests will be entertained at tea at Miss Burckhart's home on Spring street, where they will be joined by Miss Catherine Wyly and Miss Ethel Armstead.

Miss Burckhart will also give a bridge party, the date to be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell's Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Howell, Jr., entertained at a box party Monday evening at the Atlanta theater, in honor of Miss Marion Phinizy, of Augusta, the guests witnessing the appearance of Anna Pavlowa and her associate dancers.

Included in the party were Miss Phinizy, Miss Margaret Grant, Miss Marion Goldsmith, Miss Esther Smith, Miss Harriet Calhoun, Mr. Edward Barnett, Dr. Montague Boyd, Mr. Stanley Mathewson, Mr. Bowie Martin and Mr. D. C. Black.

Mrs. Campbell Entertains Mrs. Beam

Mrs. Bulow Campbell was hostess at luncheon Tuesday in compliment to Mrs. C. Beam, who has recently returned from St. Louis to make her home in the city.

Pink hyacinths and a graceful arrangement of fragrant purple lilacs formed the centerpiece of the beautifully appointed table; slender pink tapers burned under dresden shades, while ices and bonbons were in the form of pink roses. Mrs. Campbell's guests included ten friends.

Dinner to Mrs. Cooley

Mrs. Clayton Cooley, of Minneapolis, arrived Tuesday to be the guest for several weeks of her sister, Mrs. George Crandall, and will be the central figure at a delightful dinner party at which Mr. and Mrs. Crandall will entertain in her honor Saturday evening, at the Piedmont club.

Bridge Party to Visitor

Miss Pauline Randall entertained informally at bridge Tuesday morning, at her home on North Boulevard, in compliment to her guest, Miss Nellie Walsh, of New Orleans.

Pink hyacinths were used to decorate the drawing room, in which the game was played.

The honor guest was presented with a piece of handmade lingerie and the prize for top score was a silver hat pin and the consolation prize was silk stockings.

Those present were Miss Walsh, Miss Louise Parker, Miss Marie Cobbs, Miss Irene Bennet, Miss Annie Willie McCall, Miss Madge Pollock and her guests Miss Martha Green of Newnan and Miss Essie Schuessler of Knoxville, Tenn., Miss Louise Couper, Miss Justine Henderson, Miss Francis Daley, Miss Clarke, Miss Sapho Thrash, Miss Fay Dobbs, Miss May Reno, Miss Evelyn Green, Miss Myra Clarke Scott, Miss Jessie Thompson and Miss Ethel Olmstead.

Afternoon Tea for Visitor

Miss Marian Perdue and Miss Tommie Perdue entertained very delightfully at tea Tuesday afternoon, at their home on Edgewood avenue, in honor of Miss Paula Garrison, of Houston, Tex.

Many spring blossoms were used to adorn the handsome home. Bright yellow daffodils combined with purple violets made the drawing room attractive and here the guests were received. Miss Marian Perdue wore a graceful model of pink crepe de chine, and her sister, Miss Tommie Perdue, was gowned in white taffeta, while the pretty honor guest wore white brocaded charmeuse with tulle overdraperies.

Refreshing fruit nectar was served in the living room by Mrs. John Boykin and Mrs. George Yundt.

In the late afternoon the charming group of girls invited to meet Miss Garrison were joined by a number of young men.

Assisting in entertaining were Miss Margaret Burckhart, Miss Ruth Corrigan, Miss Catherine Wyly, Miss Mainer Lee Hardin and Miss Louise Johnson.

Brookhaven Hunt Club

The weather of the past week has proven ideal for hunting, and the last meet of the Brookhaven Hunt club proved a delightful event of Saturday afternoon. With the hounds at the close of the fifteen-mile run was J. Samuel Shorp, M. F. H.; Miss McKee, Miss May Atkinson, Dr. Willis Ragan and Mr. Lawrence M. Jordan, of Pittsburg, Pa.

The next meet will be at Wallace Hills on Saturday, March 14, at 2:30.

The season will close on April 4 with a handicap and running race for boys and girls and open classes for ladies and gentlemen at Piedmont park race track.

SMART SPRING MODEL

To Mrs. Futrelle

Mrs. Jacques Futrelle who recently arrived from New York, to spend several weeks with her mother, is being pleasantly entertained during her visit.

Monday afternoon Mrs. Futrelle was the honor guest at a prettily planned tea given by Miss Katherine Wootten, assisted by her mother, Mrs. Wootten.

Mrs. Martin Dunbar and Miss Frances Bradley assisted in entertaining the guests.

To Miss Tinsley

Mrs. J. Russell Porter has as her guest Miss Tinsley, of Richmond, Va. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Porter Langston entertained at a small luncheon in honor of the attractive visitor, and during the remainder of the week several informal affairs will be given in honor of Miss Tinsley.

A Happy Bald Headed Man

Well-Known Politician Nearly Bald Now Has Heavy Growth of Hair.

Tells How He Did It.

A western politician, well known on account of his baldness and ready wit, surprised his friends by appearing with a heavy growth of hair; many of his old friends did not know him and others thought he had a wig. On being asked how he did it, he made the following statement: "I attribute the remarkable growth of my hair to the use of the following simple recipe which any lady or gentleman can mix at home: To a half pint of water add 1 oz. of bay rum, a small box of Barbo Compound and 1-4 oz. of glycerine. Apply to the scalp two or three times a week with the finger tips. It not only promotes the growth of the hair but removes dandruff, scalp humors and prevents streaked, faded, gray hair and makes the hair soft and glossy. These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at very little cost and mixed at home."—(Advt.)

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo. — "I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Silks Now Assume a Position of First Importance

Silks for Spring. Silks for Easter. Silks for trousseaux. Silks for any and every occasion.

The Silk Section has taken on the bloom of spring. A bright and busy place it is, as lovely gowns are chosen and matched up with trimmings and all accessories for the modiste, by those who are irresistibly drawn here by the wealth of beauty of design and coloring and completeness of display.

A Great Advantage to You is that after you have chosen the fabric and color we have the design for making. The Frenchiest and smartest designs imaginable for all costumes. They show how to cleverly and beautifully combine the materials.

Among the smartest of new silks are these Roman Stripe and Plaid Failles for combining with wool materials for dresses; flared ruffles and tunics of these rich silks are seen on wool and silk dresses; they are $1 to $3 yard.

Printed Pongees are also among the very popular silks; wistarias, reseda, Copenhagen, tan and navy the favored colors.

Taffetas, plain and changeable, the latter in beautiful color-combinations which (chameleon-like) seem to take on a new color with every drape and fold. Taffetas at $1.25 to $2.50 yard.

New pompadour taffetas in beautiful patterns, pastel and darker shades; $1.00 yard.

New multi-colored foulards—delightfully soft, and fine in texture and in odd designs and pretty color tones; they are Cheney silks—shower-proof; 85c and $1.00 yard.

New moires, very fashionable for two and three-piece street or calling suits; wistaria, navy, Copenhagen, golden brown and white; 42 inches wide; $2.25 to $3.50 yard.

New Features in Cotton Dress Fabrics for Spring

Lovely beyond our power to describe them.

It is hard for one to get a true idea of the real beauty and charm of the dress fabrics we have assembled here. We are particularly proud of the showing, for in point of variety and attractiveness the display of truly delightful cottons exceeds that of any previous season.

Crepes: How shall we tell you of their soft, sheer, silky beauty? And the wonderful color tones—and the almost unlimited variety of kinds.

English-Club-Check Suitings. Black-and-white, new and very smart; 54 inches wide; $1 yard.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

By Thornton W. Burgess

"Had any more dreams, Peter?"

"Tell us about those tracks again."

"Better find out what's the matter with your eyes, Peter. They see too much!"

This was what Peter heard every time he met any of his friends. They all laughed at him, every one of them, and all because he had tried to tell them that there was a stranger deep in the Green Forest who made tracks ever and ever so much bigger than those of Bowser the Hound. No one ever had heard of such a thing in the Green Forest, and no one believed Peter. At first they thought he was joking, but when he grew indignant and they saw how very earnest he was they thought that he had been frightened and had imagined that the tracks were a great deal bigger than they really were. Of course they were made by Bowser the Hound, and timid Peter had just thought that they were bigger and different. That's what everybody thought.

So whenever they saw him they teased him until it got so that Peter wouldn't stick his head out of the dear Old Briar Patch until after dark. You see, he didn't like being teased and laughed at. No one does. Of course not. But it was great fun for the others. Once Jimmy Skunk came to the edge of the Old Briar Patch and pretended to be terribly excited.

"I've found some tracks, great big ones, down on the Green Meadows," he cried. "Come with me, Peter, and see if they are like the ones that you saw in the Green Forest."

Right away Peter was quite as excited as Jimmy seemed to be, and he hurried to follow Jimmy down across the Green Meadows, which, you know, were not green then at all, but all covered with snow. Peter was so excited he didn't know what to do. It seemed to him that Jimmy Skunk, who, you know, never hurries, moved slower than ever. "What did I tell you, Jimmy Skunk? Now, perhaps, you'll believe me the next time I tell you a thing," he whispered as they drew near the place where Jimmy said the tracks were.

When they got there, sure enough there were tracks, great big tracks, just as Jimmy had said. But, oh, such a disappointment! They were the tracks of Farmer Brown's boy. Then Bowser knew that Jimmy Skunk had played a joke on him, for, of course Jimmy had known all the time whose tracks they were.

"Ho, ho, ho! Ha, ha, ha!" laughed Jimmy Skunk. "There are your tracks of the Green Forest, Peter Rabbit. Look at them, so that next time you will know them. Ho, ho, ho! Ha, ha, ha!"

But Peter was too disappointed and too angry to say a word. He just turned his back on Jimmy Skunk and started back for the Old Briar Patch as fast as he could go. He knew that provoking.

"I don't care," Peter would say over and over to himself, when he was alone. "I did see those tracks and there is a stranger in the Green Forest, and he has got terrible great claws. I wouldn't go up there again for anything! No, sir, I wouldn't go up there again if I was starving and there was no food anywhere, but there. I—I do wish that somebody would believe me."

THE EVENING STORY

(Copyright, 1914, by W. Werner.)

THE ENEMY

Since 9 o'clock Joan Hall had been at work. With incalculable swiftness and efficiency she had turned from dictation pad to typewriter, from letter file to minute book. Her fingers flew, keeping time with her busy brain. At half-past 12 her employer (a stout, stern, elderly man with but one idea—to head off his competitors in the moneymaking game) remembered that he had had no lunch, and slamming on his hat and dragging on his overcoat rushed out to find the nearest restaurant. While he was gone Joan opened a pint bottle of milk and a box of graham crackers and proceeded to feast. Between bites and swallows she gazed out at the narrow, uninteresting street famed on two continents for the money, business and power it represented, and wondered whether she could hold out until release came at 5 o'clock.

It was not her first busy day. All day days were busy days. But she was not so well prepared as usual for this particular day. There was no chance for her to shirk. To Mr. Winslow she was a mere machine, a kind of typewriter attachment, which the moment it balked or showed signs of wear must be replaced. He paid for expert service and demanded it.

Now it was 5 o'clock and Joan was free. Almost dazed, she locked up her typewriter and rose. From the peg behind she took down her hat and coat and put them on. Mr. Winslow stood at his own desk with some papers in one hand and his watch in the other. He was divided in thought between the two. Joan said good-night to him, but he did not hear her. That was not strange, for he never spoke one word more to her than was necessary.

Joan went out of the office to the elevator. Throughout the great building the lights had been glowing all day. There was seldom a day when they did not glow, for the deep, narrow little street was as dim as a gulley.

When Joan stepped into the elevator her eyes met those of a man who was coming down from the floor above. He was about thirty years old and very handsome. Joan knew him because he frequently came into Mr. Winslow's office and always spoke to her. It had never occurred to Joan that he came in on her account, but she did wonder why he continued to come when he must see that his interruptions were annoying to Mr. Winslow. She knew nothing about him except what she had seen, yet she did not like him. However, she bowed and sat down and tried to forget that he was there.

He did not speak to her, but she felt that he was looking at her. When the ground floor was reached he followed her out. They almost kept step across the tessellated floor. Two or three men who had just entered the building passed them, dripping moisture. Then he spoke.

"Nasty weather we're having," he said.

"Oh, is it raining?" Joan cried out.

Outside the door, in the shelter of the great porch, she paused. Obviously it was raining in that dreary, gray, persistent way characteristic of city rain. Joan had no umbrella. She had not even a newspaper to hold over her head. The man beside her had no umbrella either, but he was not troubled on that account.

A taxicab on the lookout for fares purred slowly by and he held up his hand. As the cab paused he touched Joan's arm, looked smilingly down into her face. "Come," he urged, "let's get out of the weather."

Joan had taken one step forward. "Oh, no," she objected. "I can't let you send me home."

He laughed deep down in his throat. "Why home?" he murmured. "Why not Sherry's, and the Metropolitan afterward? Aren't you just dying for a little gayety after pounding old Winslow's typewriter all day?"

Joan stood still. She did not look at him. She looked at the waiting car, at the circumspect profile of the unobserving cabman. Sherry's! The Metropolitan! After a whole year in New York she had seen no more than the outside of either. The two names held magic for her. To see lights, gay people, to hear music, eat delicious food, to be in the midst of all that wonderful life she knew existed, to be a part of it even, to let her youth take its proper wings just once—ah, it did not appear so wicked! Everything that could allure and charm seemed to have her by one hand, and everything that was old, tired, lonely, hard, seemed to have her by the other. Both pulled, and between them Joan's soul felt a rending torture. She was so tired, so alone. In the boarding house and without there was nobody to talk to, to be young and gay with. She thought of two more years like the last and her heart sickened. She felt herself begin to yield.

"Come, my dear," the man.

She turned and looked at him. He was looking at her with a half amused, waiting, scornful smile under his little black mustache. Something in that smile scared her as she had never been scared in all her life before. She felt as if a great spider had suddenly crowled over her hand or a snake hissed in her very face. "No, no!" she gasped.

She eluded him and ran out into the rain. Her car was coming into the street. She made for it wildly, as if running from awful danger, regardless of taxis spinning recklessly along the slippery pavement. The motorman saw her and stopped and she pulled herself aboard, sank down and covered her face with her hands.

An hour later she stood in her room quiet and safe. She took off her hat and coat and hung them up to dry. Then she went up to her glass and looked into it. Thank God, she could yet meet her own eyes without disgust and aversion.

She stood a long time looking at herself in the glass. She was beautiful and she had the first of the many experiences beauty brings to a woman.

All at once she felt protected.

How much better if she was inconspicuous and plain! It was evident that if she remained in the city she must attract other men.

She was a country girl. She had been born and brought up in a village of thirty houses all told—a village where everybody was related either by real ties of blood or those other ties, scarcely less strong, which love and respect and understanding weave. She had never known any save kind and harmless people until she came to the city. She had not been afraid of the cit. It had amused her when her elders cried, "Beware!" Its dazzle and throb allured her and she reached out her hands for it just as children reach out for a glittering toy. She knew how to use a typewriter and she had had a correspondence course in stenography. She had wit and facility of memory and both subjects came easily to her mind. She had needed only a few weeks in a business school for finishing off, and then she was ready for a situation. Mr. Winslow had hired her. If he had treated her like a machine at least he had not disturbed her belief in her own ability to take care of herself.

Six months ago, she realized, she would not have hesitated one instant between right and wrong. Today she had hesitated. Why? She knew why. The fact thrust its awful face close to hers and grinned sardonically. She could not mistake it. She had hesitated to choose the right, not only because the wrong was more attractive, but because she was lonely.

She had not minded being lonely at first, there was so much that was untried, interesting and novel and to catch her glance, her hearing and her young pulses: the shop windows, as full of dazzling detail as a Gobelin tapestry; the streets, thronged with all kinds of humanity; the boarding house, with its string of transients. Then, too, work was new and money earning new. Her pay envelope offered a constantly recurring sensation of independence, ability, importance. The money it held was hers to use as she pleased. At home there never had been much money. Enough to eat, fire, warm clothing, yes, but none of the little things, the trimmings on life which girls love.

This pay envelope of hers could not do everything, it is true. She could starve herself and have small luxuries or she could feed well and wear her old clothes. But at least there was no careful old aunt to tell her what she should do. Now, after a year novelty was passed, there had ceased to be any illusions between her and her work, and the loneliness of this whole business of wage earning in a great city bore upon her with increasing power.

Loneliness, then, was her real enemy. The man with the red lips only waited until he considered that the enemy should have overcome her. He had evidently miscalculated; he had not waited long enough. But the time would come when he should have waited quite long enough. And then——

She could no longer bear the sight of her own face in the glass. She was turning away when she saw a letter lying upon the corner of the bureau. She took it up. The writing was her uncle's.

The letter itself was brief, but very tender. It said her aunt was ill. Wouldn't she come home for a little while? They wanted to see her very much, their little girl.

Joan stood looking at the letter. She began to smile. All at once she felt protected, sheltered, loved. The real blessedness of home revealed itself to her. Her enemy could not find her there.

The dinner bell was ringing at the foot of the stairs. She slipped the letter into her bosom and went down to tell her landlady that she was going home on the morrow.

NEW POLITICAL BODY TO BE FORMALLY ORGANIZED

The meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Cheap and Easily Made, But Ends a Cough Quickly

How to Make the Very Best Cough Remedy at Home. Fully Guaranteed.

This pint of cough syrup is easily made at home and saves you about $2.00 as compared with ordinary cough remedies. It relieves obstinate coughs—even whooping cough—quickly, and is splendid, too, for bronchial asthma, spasmodic croup and hoarseness.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. Tastes good.

Pinex, as perhaps you know, is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and the other natural healing pine elements.

No other preparation will do the work of Pinex in this mixture, although strained honey can be used instead of the sugar syrup, if desired.

Thousands of housewives in the United States and Canada now use this Pinex and Sugar Syrup remedy. This plan has often been imitated, but the old successful combination has never been equaled. Its low cost and quick results have made it immensely popular.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

This Simple Recipe Quickly Banishes Hairs

(Beauty Topics)

Here is a simple and inexpensive recipe or formula which is used with excellent results by many beauty specialists for removing hairy growths on the face, neck or arms: Mix a stiff paste with a little delatone and water and spread on hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rub off, wash the skin and it will be entirely free from hair or blemish. Care should be exercised to get the delatone in an original package, otherwise it may not be pure.

Hoosier
advertised in leading magazines

Here Are Three Questions You Must Consider Now:

1. Should I be glad to have the NEW HOOSIER in my home—knowing that I now take miles of unnecessary steps?
2. Shall I order now while a single dollar puts it in my kitchen?
3. Shall I wait—knowing that delay will surely lose me the opportunity to benefit by the liberal terms of the HOOSIER PLAN?

All the Best Kitchen Devices known to the 700,000 women who now own Hoosier Cabinets are combined in the new Hoosier. It is the most scientifically convenient cabinet ever built.

SEE IT IN OUR WINDOW Notice how you sit down in front of the table for work. NOTICE MRS. FREDERICK'S FOOD GUIDE—now part of the Hoosier equipment. Come and see how it answers the daily problem, "What shall we have for dinner?" This alone in a year's time is worth almost the price of the cabinet.

THE NEW SHAKER FLOUR SIFTER is another great Hoosier achievement. It cannot wear out. It cannot grind grit or dirt through. See it work. With forty such conveniences combined in the Hoosier you see why it saves you the eternal drudgery of kitchen walking that saps health and good looks.

1. $1 puts the Hoosier you select in your house.
2. $1 weekly quickly pays for it.
3. The Low Cash Price fixed by the factory prevails strictly.
4. No interest. No extra fees.
5. This sale is under direct supervision of the Hoosier Company.
6. Your money back if you are not delighted with your Hoosier.

AS WE STATED YESTERDAY the unusual terms of the Hoosier Plan must be limited to the present small allotment of cabinets. After that our regular terms must prevail.

TONIGHT SCORES OF WOMEN ARE ON THE VERGE OF DECIDING to buy Hoosiers now. Nearly all of them are reading this ad. Some will delay too long. Others will come tomorrow and decide. If enough come tomorrow, the sale will close. And your opportunity will be ended, unless you are one of those who come.

There can be no good reason for postponing decision. In five minutes you can make up your mind whether to buy now or later.

This is not merely a question of investing one small dollar for a few weeks. It is a question of your health and freedom from kitchen work. The only safe way to decide is to examine the cabinet in our store thoroughly tomorrow.

More Features

HOOSIER

the greatest labor-saving machine you could put into your kitchen.

We have described already—

1. The Housekeeper's Food Guide.
2. The Cook-Book Holder.
3. The Metal 50-lb. Flour Bin.
4. The Wonderful Shaker Sifter.
5. The Metal Linen Drawer.
6. The "Emergency" Shelf.
7. The New Bill File.
8. The Handy Money Tray.
9. Eight Crystal Glass Spice Jars.
10. The New Condiment Cupboard.
11. The Sanitary Table Top.
12. The Convenient Pan Pocket.

Now Notice these:—

Every feature listed and described has been thoroughly tested and proved practical in the Hoosier Experimental Room.

——Metal Meal Bin

(13) At the top and on the right-hand side of the Hoosier is a handy package cupboard that holds forty or more packages, such as cereals, gelatin, baked beans, canned soup and other miscellaneous articles needed in preparing meals. This shelf is within easy reach.

← Ant-Proof Casters

(14) Just below the package pantry is the dish cupboard, holding 70 or more dishes. It is easy to keep the necessary dishes for your regular meals here, thus saving time and steps and adding much to the scientific system of your housekeeping.

(15) The Patented Clock for want-list is praised daily by the hundreds of thousands of women who own Hoosiers. It has the names of all articles you ordinarily order for the household, arranged in circles with clock-hand indicators which can be set to point out the several needs. It is quickly manipulated and a great convenience.

If you will come into our Store and sit in front of a Hoosier you will appreciate these features to the fullest extent. Word descriptions cannot do them justice.

(16) The sanitary metal table top slides out 16 inches from the base, forming the handiest and most satisfactory base to work on known to any kitchen. Nothing sticks to its surface. It is cleaned with perfect ease.

40 Special Features 17 Entirely New

You should settle this matter now one way or the other. Why risk losing the chance to SEE these features themselves? Come down tomorrow, and look over each cabinet carefully and decide which contains the most features you need. Looking doesn't obligate you at all and it surely will help you to determine this matter fairly to yourself.

OUR ASTROLOGER

HOROSCOPE FOR WEDNESDAY, MARCH 11, 1914.

On land this day abide;
Trust not Neptune as a guide.

According to astrology, this is not a fortunate day, for Neptune, Saturn and Mercury are all in evil aspect.

Neptune's influence is not so strong as that of the other two planets, but the rule is an unlucky one for shipping interests and for the many commercial activity over which Neptune is supposed to have a certain sway.

While this government prevails fraud and deception are said to be easier than at other times. The planetary vibrations tend toward confusion and perplexity, and may cause an inordinate desire for luxuries. Attractions to peculiar persons and a liking for fantastic colors or intense sounds and odors may develop.

Under this astral sway susceptibility to emotions of various sorts is increased, and for this reason astrologers warn men and women to be guarded in their manner toward strangers.

The adverse aspect of Mercury causes petty worries and needless anxieties, if the seers interpret right. It creates uncertainty, indecision and sensitiveness, which may lead to hasty speech and serious misunderstandngs. Persons born between Augut 24 and September 22 are supposed to be especally susceptible to the influenoes of Mercury.

There is a prophecy that after 1915 an increased interest in occult subjects will bring about scientific investigations, which will establish facts now generally doubted. The Panama-Pacific exposition will supply a forum for the world thoughts that are startling, astrologers predict.

Trouble in Japan is foreshadowed. The mikado's stars indicate a severe orisis, for the sun, forming an opposition to Saturn and in semi-square to Mercury, emphasizes the influences pressaged by the threatening aspect of Mars.

Persons whose birthdate it is have menacing stars in their horoscopes. They should guard against illness and domestic troubles.

Children born on this day may be inclined to be untruthful and self-indulgent. Boys should be strictly disciplined for business life. These subjects of Pisces have Neptune and Jupiter as their principal ruling planets.

Federal Clubs Announcing Team Rosters

Manager Larry Schlafly, of Buffalo, Claims 13 Players Who Have Seen Service in the Majors -- Indianapolis Has Nine Who Have Played in Big Leagues

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 10.—Manager Larry Schlafly, of the local Federal league club, has announced the line-up of his team. It includes thirteen players who have had major league experience and eight from the minors. The list includes:

Pitchers—Russell Ford, New York Americans; Earl Moore, Chicago Nationals; George Kahler, Cleveland Americans; Eugene Knapp, Cleveland Americans; Fred Anderson, Boston Red Sox; Edward Furroy, Robert Brown, Harry Moran and Joe Houser.

Catchers—Walter Blair, New York American league of 1911 and last season with Jersey City; Nick Allen, formerly of Chicago White Sox, and Arthur Lavigne, St. Louis Americans.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 10.—W. H. Watkins, business manager of the Indianapolis Federal league club, last night announced the 1914 roster of the players as follows:

Manager—William Phillips.

Pitchers—Fred Falkenberg, Cleveland Americans; George Mullin, Detroit Americans; Earl Moseley, Boston Red Sox; Fred Harter, Three-I, and George Kaiserling and Harry Billiard, Indianapolis Federals.

Second Base—Carl Vandergrift, Indianapolis Federals.

Shortstop—James E. S. Esmond, Cincinnati Nationals.

Outfielders—Everett Bees, Pittsburg Nationals; Ben Kauff, New York Americans; D. J. Rousch, Chicago Americans; Albert Shear, Brooklyn Nationals; Vincent Campbell, Pittsburg Nationals, two years ago, and Al Kiser, Indianapolis Federals.

Trainer—Charles Huber.

Fifth Regiment Begins Hand Ball Tournament

Wednesday night marks the beginning of the handball tournament at the Fifth regiment armory which is to be played between the members of the regiment for prizes which are to be awarded the best singles and doubles.

When the entry list was closed on Monday night it showed a total of 26, all of whom are experienced players, and the battle for supremacy will be a close one.

The games are scheduled to begin promptly at 8 o'clock and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Major Claude Smith and Lieutenant James Harrison will be the referees.

Warren Leads in Rifle Club Shoot

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The eleventh week of the interclub rifle shoot finds Warren still undefeated in class A, with the District of Columbia and Cleveland tied for second place. Warren was high gun for the week, making 987 out of a possible 1,000, within one point of the record. Other high scores were Birmingham and Cleveland, each with 995. In class B, King's mills holds the lead, with Stillwater, Minn., and Boston as runners up. Among class A scores was Warren, Pa., 997, vs. Birmingham, Ala., 995.

Champion Kilbane Calls Off Matches

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 10.—Johnny Kilbane, featherweight champion, last night decided to call off his matches with Johnny Dundee, of New York, at Milwaukee later in the month. He is suffering from the grippe.

Henry Collier Joins Pro. Ranks

Henry Collier, formerly star pitcher for the Yellowjackets, has decided to join professional ranks, and has signed a contract with Manager Clark Griffith, of the Washington Nationals. Collier leaves Tuesday night to join the Nationals' training camp at Charlottesville. Collier will make the second ex-Jacket with Griff's team, since Harry Holland is now working out in the Charlottesville camp. Incidentally, he will be the second Techite pitching in the big league, provided he manages to stick. Erskine Mayer is already a member of Charlie Dooin's Daisies.

Collier entered the University of Georgia last fall, and it was thought at the time that he would remain in Athens until he became eligible for a place on the Red and Black team, under the one-year residence rule. He states, however, that he has been made an offer that he can hardly afford to turn down, because of the fat stipend attached thereto, hence his decision to enter professional ranks.

Nelson Favored Over McMahan

Terry Nelson, the tough Greek lightweight, has been made a 10 to 8 favorite over Jack McMahon, of Chicago, in their ten-round bout at the Columbia theater tomorrow night. Nelson's great record around these parts has made him a choice over his opponent, but he will have his hands full besting the tough Chicagoan.

Nelson has fought such boys as Jake Abel, Frank Whitney, Jack White and Tommy Kilbane and is a tough nut for the best of them to crack.

Two other corking fights are also on the card, making twenty rounds of boxing in all. Kid Brown, the hard-hitting Greek bantam, is billed to tackle Young Goldman over the six-round route, while

Pittsburg Feds to Train at Lynchburg

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 10.—Manager H. H. Gessler, of the Pittsburg Federal league, after an inspection of facilities here, Monday decided to bring the Pittsburg team here for three weeks' training. The squad, which will be composed of about thirty players, will be ordered to report here Sunday to begin work next week. The diamond formerly used by the Virginia league will be utilized. Manager Gessler declared last night that it is his belief that the Federals are stronger financially today than the American league was three years after invading the east.

Rickey's Browns Will Play Cardinals

TAMPA, Fla., March 10.—The St. Louis American league baseball club left here last night for St. Augustine, where they will play a series of games with the St. Louis Nationals before continuing their trip back home. The team, according to Manager Rickey, is in excellent shape. They won three, lost two and tied one game with the Chicago Nationals.

The Philadelphia Athletics will come here Thursday for three games with the Chicago Nationals. Third Baseman Zimmerman is still out of the game with a wrenched knee.

Kid Herman Shades Eggers

NEW ORLEANS, March 10.—Kid Herman outpointed "Knockout" Eggers, of New York, in a ten-round bout here last night, the third of a series of elimination bantamweight fights to select an opponent for Champion Johnny Coulin here early in April. By winning last night's fight, Herman is practically assured of the bout with Coulon.

Lady Golfers In Great Match

Misses Rovenscraft and Shannon Turn in Score of 91 Over Course at Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C., March 10.—Clever golf by women experts yesterday attracted attention here. Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, of England, present holder of the American women's championship, with Miss Hazek Shannon, of Buffalo, as her partner, recorded a 1 up victory over Mrs. R. H. Barlow and Mrs. J. V. Hurd, both golfers of national reputation. The best ball score of the victors was a 91. Later yesterday Miss Ravenscroft and J. H. Clapp, of Chevy Chase, won a fitted foursome from Mrs. Barlow and Stuyvesant Leroy, of New York.

An interesting event yesterday was the team match in which eighteen pairs, led by H. C. Fownes, Oakmont, and C. L. Becker, Woodland, as captains, participated. Mr. Fownes' team won, 9 1-2 to 8 1-2. The leading team entertained their opponents last night at a banquet, at which Robert Hunter, Weeburn, was toastmaster.

The first round of men's singles matches in the annual spring lawn tennis tournament was played yesterday, the survivors being: R. H. Jeffery, Columbus; F. R. Stevens, Toronto; R. A. Balfe, Brooklyn; A. H. Chapin, Springfield, Mass.; R. H. Fortune, St. Catherine's, Canada, and H. P. Hotchkiss, New Haven. The tournament also will include women's singles, men's doubles and mixed doubles.

Levinsky Beat Coffey

Smith Signs Up Another Hurler

Manager Bill Smith has just made another addition to his bunch of ball tossers, who are counted on to maintain the supremacy of Atlanta on the diamond during the coming season. The latest acquisition is a hurler, Hamilton by name. Hamilton pitched in the Carolina league during the 1912 season and was drafted by Seattle that fall. He refused to report, however, and has now obtained his release from the Seattle club.

Bill found it necessary to take on an additional twirler, owing to the fact that he has heard nothing from Harry Hedgepeth, drafted from the Virginia league last fall. Hedgepeth has never even replied to any of the letters written him, and it is not known whether he intends to quit playing baseball, or whether he is holding up on the contract offered him. Also, Ed Sindler, the semi-pro. from Augusta, who wrote Smith that he had more stuff than any left-hander the local pilot had ever seen, has failed to put in an appearance. "Don't know what is wrong," remarked Billy. "Guess he must have suffered a chilly sensation in his pedals at the last moment."

With several exhibition games to be played within the next few weeks, Manager Smith wants a goodly number of twirlers on hand, in order to give all of his prospects full opportunity to appear at their best. The new man, Hamilton, won twelve games and lost six in the Carolina league, so he will be given full opportunity to show just what he carries in his repertoire.

Feds to Delay Injunction Suit

INDIANAPOLIS, March 10.—After a conference with Silas H. Strawn, attorney for the Chicago Federal league club, over the long distance telephone, E. E. Gates, attorney for the Federal league, announced last night that it would be several days before the injunction suit to prevent William Killifer from playing with the Philadelphia Nationals would be filed. The suit will be brought at Grand Rapids, Mich., as it is understood Killifer resides in the jurisdiction of that court.

Mr. Gates said a temporary restraining order to prevent Killifer's playing with the Philadelphia Nations would be asked and that the Federal league would give bond to reimburse Killifer if the suit for a permanent injunction fails.

Simpson Won Coast Golf Championship

GULFPORT, Miss., March 10.—George O. Simpson, Mobile Country club, won the Mississippi Coast Open Golf championship by a score of 158 for 36 holes as announced here Monday. Harry Turpie was second with 161; Freddie McLeod third with 163; Jack Daly, 165, and George Turpie 167. Hugh Jennings, manager of the Detroit Americans, at a dinner last night presented cups won by golfers during the past week.

Pitcher Lively Reports

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 10.—Pitcher Jack Lively, last year with Sacramento, Cal., claimed by various clubs in and out of the Southern league, reported to the Montgomery club last night ready for spring practice.

Ty Cobb Signs With Detroit At Top Salary

President Navin, of Tigers, Gets Document Covering Period of Two Years—Says Cobb's Salary Exceeds That Paid to Tris Speaker—Cobb Will Report Sunday

DETROIT, Mich., March 10.—When President Frank J. Navin, of the Detroit baseball club, returned home from New York last night he found awaiting him the signed contract of Ty Cobb. Navin had given Cobb the right to make it for one or two seasons and the champion batsman made it a two-year contract.

"The report that Tris Speaker's new contract calls for the highest salary paid in baseball is not true," said President Navin. "Cobb's contract calls for the biggest salary in the game." The figures were not made public, however.

Cobb wrote he would join the Detroit team at New Orleans Sunday.

Jennings Notified

GULFPORT, Miss., March 10.—Manager Hugh Jennings, of the Detroit Americans, received advices from Outfielder Ty Cobb yesterday to the effect that the latter would join the team at New Orleans next Sunday in time to participate in the game with the New Orleans club.

Three Teams to Play Off Tie

The first game of the series to determine the winner of the local prep basketball pennant will be played Thursday afternoon on the Atlanta Athletic club's court, Boys' High and Marist college being the two teams that will play.

These two teams have met twice and each has won a game. Boys' High won from Marist on the Marist court and Marist won from Boys' High on the Atlanta Athletic court, where the game Thursday will be staged.

At the drawing to decide which two teams would play first, Donald Fraser drew the blank and will play the winner of the above game, the date depending upon which team wins the struggle.

Just who will win the contest is hard to dope out, as dope on prep affairs is nearly always spilled by the two contesting teams and since Boys' High and Marist have each won one out of two games played.

However, it will be a great contest and some great basketball is sure to be uncorked when the two teams meet. The time is 2:45 and 25 cents will be charged as an admission price.

Molesworth Buys Pitcher Robertson

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 10.—"Dick" Robertson, premier pitcher of the South Atlantic league last season, who was sold to Cincinnati near the close of the season, only to be turned back this spring to the local club, was sold yesterday to Birmingham. The price paid for him by Birmingham was not announced.

Mgrs. Beware! Lookouts Begin Secret Practice

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 10.—Secret practice was begun at Andrews field by the Lookouts yesterday afternoon. With all the regulars, or intended regulars, upon the ground with the exception of Flick and the entire aggregation in fair physical condition, Manager McCormick decided to take up the work of signal drilling and inside ball somewhat earlier than usual. The public is excluded from the park all of this week, and McCormick is devoting much of the time during both the morning and afternoon sessions to nothing but the practice of signals, both on the offense and defense, and the discussion of the line of strategy to be followed during the regular campaign.

In spite of the fact that the weather locally has been unusually raw for this season of the year with the numerous snow flurries, the Lookouts are already in good condition physically. The hurlers, of course, are just beginning their heavier work, but the rank and file are already cavorting around at considerable speed. The encouraging physical condition is undoubtedly due to a great extent to the predominance of young blood. With the exception of Stine, Street and McCormick, there is hardly a veteran player on the squad, that is, from a point of years, and these three players are just entering upon their prime.

The real problem of the training season locally is that of getting enough hurlers into shape by the time the first exhibition game arrives. This would have been an easy task, perhaps, had Somers remained in the fold and had Isbell reported March 2, but with these two absent, Somers for good and Isbell until the middle of May, the task of securing a dependable staff and not overworking any of the members is one which will require both study and attention.

K. O. Eggers to Box Kid Young

Local club, which proposes to stage a series of firstclass boxing matches here within the next few months, has signed up two good featherweights to battle over a ten-round route, in Kid Young, the local mitt artist, and Knockout Eggers, of New York. This match will be pulled off Thursday night at the Orpheum theater, and practically all work has been completed toward putting the house in good shape for the bout.

These two boys are to come in at 124 pounds at 6 o'clock on the evening of the match. Eggers claims that he can fight under 120 pounds, and insists strongly that Young make the limit set. Accordingly both have posted forfeits to guarantee that they will make the limit. Before either boy is allowed to enter the ring, he will be rigidly examined by Dr. Louis Rouglin, and in case either is promised unfit for the match, he will not be allowed to enter the ring.

Young, who has been boxing a bit locally in the past few weeks, is training daily for the battle. He is tackling the toughest boy that he has met yet in Eggers, and he will have to be at his best if he wins the contest. Eggers has fought recently at Chattanooga, and New Orleans, and will come here from the latter city. He is expected to reach here in tiptop form, and may be expected to put up a lively battle all the way.

Aggies Hang Up Rifle Record

WASHINGTON, March 10—A new college record, regarded virtually as a world's record for rifle shooting in its class, was made by the Michigan Agricultural college with a score of 994 out of a possible 1,000, in the ninth week's match for the United States intercollegiate championship. The previous record was 988. The Michigan boys continue to lead class A, Washington State college led class B, and the University of Illinois is at the top in class C. Summaries include:

THE SPORTLIGHT
BY GRANTLAND RICE

AFTER INTERVIEWING THE TOURISTS.

They told us what happened in Tokio town
And the ways of the young Japanese;
They spieled about Pekin with more than a touch
Of chopsticks and laundries and fleas;

They told us of Melbourne and Sydney, et al.,
Of visiting ranches and such;
And eke of the Cairo-cooked roundup of food
That put Commy's stomach in Dutch.

They told us of Venice and Naples and Rome,
And the fanfest arranged wtih the pope;
Of wonderful paintings they lamp on the way,
Attached to the usual dope.

They told us of London, of gulping down tea,
Of royalty there without stint;
* * * * *
They told us what happened in Paris as well—
But I'm not goanna put it in print.

Deep sea divers will start to work along New York harbor early Monday morning groping for a number of bags of gold that were pushed into the Atlantic in the hectic scramble which greeted the Unsigned Five. The search for Spanish galleons sunk up and down foreign shores will be strictly Bush in comparison for the treasure hunt now on.

THE MAIN VISION.

J. Callahan was discoursing upon the wonderful visions which he managed to lamp in his 25,000 mile jaunt around the globe. He discoursed in eloquent terms of the mosques in Cairo, the carpets of Bagdad, the spirea bush of Australia and the works of Messrs. Angelo and Raphael in Rome and Naples. Likewise of the Mona Lisa in Paris and the abiding grandeur of Westminster Abbey in London.

"We saw the most wonderful stuff ever compiled by nature and man," he remarked in earnest tones.

"Taking everything together," we queried, "did you see anything that looked as good to you as Ed Walsh back in form with the bases full and the score tied and two out?"

"H—l," remarked the eminent Chicago leader, giving vent to an old one, "there ain't no such animal. I'm speaking of the earth now, not of heaven."

Mr. Callahan confessed that not even Paris, with all its boasted lamping power, had anything that looked as good as the Big Reel exuding the old-time pink, ready to choke off another impending rally.

THE J. THORPE STATUS.

McGraw believes that he was able to discover a fine ball player under alien skies. It isn't often that a manager can leave America and dig up a noted athlete on the other side of the universe, but the Giant believes he has turned the trick. The name is J. Thorpe, who left here as only a fair average player ,but who returns with a thick chaplet of laurel plastered upon his brow. Thorpe, they say, has taken up baseball with greater keenness than he ever put into any other sport, and, with his natural ability to back his frenzied enthusiasm up, the tip is furnished, that he will be one of the main stars of the 1914 parade.

THE TRIP'S HIGH SPOT.

We put the query to a number of athletes as to the one spot they esteemed above all others. The chorus was unanimous—i. e., "Paris." Not only, as they explained, because it was Paris, but, in addition thereto, because it rained out two games in that city with no chance to call for a return double-header date.

The two hopes of the tour were Ivy Wingo and Lee Magee. These athletes at one time were 12,000 miles from St. Louis, yet they started bravely back home even before they knew the Feds would be at dockside with counter overtures. The started back toward the Cardinals when they might have stuck in Odessa.

"What does I. W. W. stand for?" bespeaks a partly innocent bystander.

Quite simple—I Won't Work. We'd join the order, too, if we could get away with it.

Nick Altrock states that he was furnished $100,000 by Griff to beat the Feds to Germany Schaefer, but Germany finally agreed to sign for $14.75.

This must be the same $100,000 that Griff has been trying to pay for Ty Cobb.

We hold no brief, as the saying used to go for the Feds or any other league. But when Ban Johnson refers to them as "these pirates," in just what official status does that leave the American league, which drew its start in exactly the same way, only more so by several kidnaping degrees?

Ban is an eminent league president nd an important figure in baseball, but there are times when he is a greater comedian than anything else. Greater plus 7 2-3.

Ban says the Feds have lifted only ten American leaguers. Yet the American league lifted something like 80 or 90 from the N. L. in the old time raid. If seizing 10 athletes comprises a piratical venture, where does the lifting of 90 leave one? Answer—into another major league.

Not forgetting that J. Thorpe has arrived just in time to purchase us that $5 spring fedora as a result of being firmly convinced that Cornell would beat Carlisle last fall.

Featherweight Boxer Killed by a Stranger

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 10.—Johnny Albanese, 22, a former featherweight boxer, was shot and killed here early Sunday by a stranger, who escaped. According to William Caras, a Greek, held by the police as a witness, the stranger demanded money from Albanese and in an argument that ensued, drew a revolver and shot the former boxer, who died later in a hospital.

St. Johns Is Admitted To South Atlantic Assn.

(By Associated Press.)

LEXINGTON, Va., March 10.—St. Johns college, University of Maryland, has been admitted to the South Atlantic Intercollegiate association, becoming the ninth member of the association, according to the announcement of the mail vote made today by Dr. Pollard, of Washington and Lee university, president of the organization. St. Johns will compete at the next annual meet in Baltimore, May 1 and 2.

The Feds at least are not superstitious. If Frank Chance had known they were to open on the 13th he would have jumped to them.

Danny Murphy Joins the Feds

Veteran Captain of the Athletics Resents Move to Send Him to Baltimore – Joins Brooklyn

NORWICH, Conn., March 10.—Danny Murphy, captain of the Philadelphia Athletics last year, said at his home here last night that he had signed today at Brooklyn, N. Y., a three years' contract with the Brooklyn Federal league team. He declined to state the amount of the salary he is to receive.

Murphy is one of the real veterans of Connie Mack's Athletics, having seen more than ten years' service under the silent leader. He, together with Harry Davis, Chief Bender and Eddie Plank, are the only men who were members of the pennant-winning team of 1905 who have stuck to the present. Murphy resented Mack's actions in sending him to Baltimore in the International league, and cast his lot with the Federals rather than report to Manager Jack Dunn.

JOKE ON JACK.

BY FULLERTON.

Jack Lelivelt, of the Naps, started south to join the team. He was having an argument with the railroad agent, who promised certain things.

"I don't want to doubt your word," said Lelivelt, "but I'll never trust any one again."

"Why this cynicism, Jack?" asked a friend.

"It's on account of a game of ball," he said. "We advertised a game between Pittsburg and Chicago one fall after the season and most of the players left town, so we had to fill in. Leifield was carded to pitch and he was gone, so the Cubs wanted me to pitch left-handed and pose as Leifield. They promised to go easy and not hit hard."

Jack looked sad a moment.

"Well?" was asked.

"The first nine of them got base hits," he said, sadly. "Then I yelled for mercy and they made two home runs in succession. No, I'll never trust any one again."

Amateurs Begin Billiard Match

NEW YORK, March 10.—The first match for the amateur 18.2 balk line billiard championship of America, played here last night, brought together Dr. Walter E. Uffenheimer, of Philadelphia, and Joseph Mayer, of New York, present holder of the title. Uffenheimer won last night's game by 400 to 283.

There are twenty-one games to be contested and these will be played off two each afternoon and night contests. Poggenburg uito etaosihrdlu etl The players this afternoon will be J. Ferdinand Poggenburg, of the Lielerkrans society, the international champion, and Eugene L. Milburn, of Memphis, Tenn. Edward W. Gardner, of the Arion society, of New York, former national champion, and Joseph Mayer will meet in the night game.

Grammar School League to Meet

The various representatives of the schools that will enter the Grammar school league this season will hold their final meeting Friday afternoon in the basement of the Carnegie library.

It is urged that all members of the league have a representative present at this meeting as the final plans will be made and the schedule adopted.

The schedule as agreed upon by the committee, provides for the league to open on March 17 and end on May 1. Two rounds of games will be played by both the leagues and a championship series will be held after the close of the season.

The time for the meeting Friday is 3:30 p. m., and all teams are urged to be represented.

HEART SONGS is not a mere collection of music and words! It is a book compiled directly by more than 20,000 people, who, in sending their favorite songs, told why they sent them.

From the lone cabin on the trackless prairie—from the snowy wastes of Alaska—from the mining camp amidst the pines of the lofty Sierras—from the coral strand of an island in the far Pacific, so remote that the ships come only once a year (if they do not forget)—from the garrets of London and Paris, with only the stars above—from the sandy deserts of the Orient—came these outpourings of the human heart—from the men and women who loved them—and the singing of which ofttimes saved their sanity.

Every song in this wonderful book has had some sacred memory—some touching experience—some sweet and hallowed association—connected with it in the hearts of thousands. It is their song of joy—of sorrow—of thanksgiving—of love—of bereavement—of home-coming—of re-union—of all the tender sentiments that lift the human heart in worship to its Maker. It is for this—by inspiration—that this unique volume is entitled "HEART SONGS."

Take Care of Your Little Chicks

I VISITED one place in Atlanta a few days ago where in a small back yard, with two incubators and four brooders and about fifty grown hens, one party has already hatched off, growing and doing well more than 300 little chicks. If these chicks are sold in four to six week now as broilers they will easily bring 50c to 60c each, or probably more, and this lady can convert these chicks as broilers into a lot more money in four weeks from now than she can possibly hope to get out of them if kept until they are grown. Often people make a mistake by trying to raise to maturity too many chicks, and in a small back yard where space is limited the best thing to do is to sell as soon as they become broiler size as many of the little chicks as possible. It is far better to do this and convert them into quick money rather than to take a chance on getting more for them later. If people would do this they would usually find themselves better off financially than to attempt to raise too many chickens to maturity on a limited space.

I have thought of this place several times and this party could easily convert what chickens she has now inside of the next four weeks into at least $200. Her old chickens had made a profit and paid their way through the entire year, and to sell two such lots of chickens as she now has for broilers, would easily give her $400 to $500 off of a few chickens kept in a small back yard in the city. What she has done others can do also if they will start right and work.

One of the greatest losses that comes to people who raise chickens is brought about by neglect. It is useless to work all the year and get off a nice lot of little chicks and neglect them even for one-half day. If you do you are sure to pay for it. Never allow them to stop growing, and if they are fed a variety of food, kept in clean quarters and not overcrowded it is no trouble whatever to raise a large per cent of every chick hatched, especially if they are from strong, vigorous parent stock. The same thing applies to little chicks raised with hens. They must be kept up and protected. If given their liberty the hen will run the little chicks, to death, will weaken their systems and a large per cent of them will die. A great many people have found this out and do not turn their hens out now as they use to before they learned better.

A big change has come about in the raising of little chicks and the care of old chickens. People have fast learned that certain things must be done if they succeed, and it is surprising how easy it is to succeed when a person makes up his mind to look after the little details and take care of them at all times, and never neglect any of these little details. A stitch in time certainly saves nir. in the poultry business, and the secret to all successful poultrymen is in looking after and providing the little necessary essential things before it is too late.

Never wait until your chickens become weak or want for anything, but give them all the necessary things to make them thrive ahead of time, and by so doing you will never have any trouble in getting results from your fowls.

With the bird law being so strictly enforced broilers and squabs will be in great demand all over the country this year, and the man who has a lot of good fat boilers will have no trouble in selling them.

The best thing to make your little chicks grow fast and to keep them from becoming weak is to feed the first thing in the morning, by the time they can see, and feed them at 7 o'clock and 11 o'clock at night. It really pays to do this. A little chick can only consume a small amount of food, it soon goes out of its system, and to let it go from 6 until 6 oclock in the morning without food causes many little chicks to become weak, and their systems cannot stand it. The more you can get them to eat and the more often they are fed that much faster will they grow and get out of danger. This feeding at night is one of the most important and most profitable things that can be done connected with the keeping of poultry.

Yours very truly,

Grigsby

QUESTIONS ASKED AND ANSWERED.

QUESTION.

Chattahoochee, Fla.

I have been reading in The Journal your advocating the planting of alfalfa. Now, I want to know the full directions, how to prepare a half-acre, what kind of soil, what kind of fertilizer and how much, and how much seed and where is the best place to get them, and also where to get the inoculin, and what will it cost me? I am very enthusiastic over this, and any information you can give me will be appreciated by a reader of The Journal.

I have some clay land and some sandy land. Now, which is best adapted to this plant, also when can I plant seed? What is your opinion of stable manure to put on the land where it is planted?

J. T. P.

ANSWER.

I am sending you a book on alfalfa. If you will follow these instructions you can not help but succeed. Alfalfa, like anything else, will grow fast on rich land. It will grow and thrive anywhere that pease will grow and do well. Many acres of alfalfa are growing successfully in your state, and when the necessary things are added to the soil there is no reason why you should fail. Alfalfa will usually succeed behind a pea crop, provided the pea stubble is not turned. From one to three tons of lime should be put broadcast per acre. One-half ton of acid phosphate, bone meal and potash should also be added per acre. Then when the land is worked to a fine seed bed, good seed treated with inoculin planted twenty to thirty pounds per acre, either in October or March in your section, you can not help but succeed.

It requires four things to succeed with alfalfa, namely: lime, inoculin, acid phosphate and a well settled, finely worked seed bed. Hundreds of people make a failure of alfalfa simply by planting it on a deep, fresh plowed piece of land before its settles. The moisture evaporates after deep plowing and if it germinates it will die before it gets a good start. It is hard to convince people of this fact, and hundreds of acres have failed this year just on this account. It is all right to properly plow the land two or three months before planting, but it must have time ot settle back together and fill with moisture, as alfalfa requires lots of water when just starting, and after the plants germinate a large per cent of them will die unless properly treated with inoculin, the necessary bacteria to make them thrive and grow.

Thousands of acres have been planted and are doing well over the south this year. It is the most profitable and the best crop that can possibly be produced, and when our people will make up their minds to do the necessary things to make a success of it anyone can grow it, but where they have ideas of their own and do some other way besides the right one, they can not succeed with it. It is sure sooner or later to be one of the staple crops of our country, and the more our people study and find out how to succeed with it and the more we have planted, that much quicker will we become independent and self-supporting for feed from the planting of this wonderful crop. The little booklet will tell you exactly how to succeed with alfalfa.

FOR SALE—REAL ESTATE

When five thousand dollar per foot retail frontage entirely surrounds a twelve hundred dollar per foot lot, and is already within 90 feet, it won't be long before the $1,200 lot will catch up in value with its higher priced neighbor.

SOUTH BROAD for years has been impossible as a retail shopping street, but the produce men have taken their onions and cabbage to other fields; the only hindrance to Broad street's prosperity is cleaned away; the difference is already apparent. J. M. High company have an entrance and display on Broad; Kress has an expanse of show windows and entrances on Broad. The new Linen Store at the corner of Alabama, and all between, other Whitehall merchants have only to open a Broad street entrance to make Broad street a retail shopping street. The department stores are ALREADY ON BROAD STREET. Just watch them all open entrances now to catch both street's trade.

Certainly two blocks on Whitehall cannot serve all the future growth of Atlanta. What more natural place for expansion of the shopping district can one imagine than Broad street.

We believe the 24x70-foot lot on South Broad street near Mitchell, at only $30,000, on easy terms, is the best purchase we have run across in months.

Just suppose you could pick up a lot like this on Whitehall, same location at this price. The same factors that made Whitehall's values are absolutely certain to exist on Broad street and that before very long.

Application for $50,000 Permit Made for Babbage Apartments in Ansley Park—Several Sales of Vacant Lots in Fernwood Are Announced—Peters Park, a New Subdivision Near Tech, Is Being Opened—Other Notes

Formal application was made Tuesday by R. M. Walker, the contractor, for a building permit for the erection of an apartment house for John D. Babbage, Jr., in Ansley Park. A. N. Canton is the architect.

The application specifies a cost of $50,000. The building will be three stories and on LaFayette drive, near the Piedmont Driving club. Details of the building were published in a previous announcement.

Work of construction has already been started and will be pushed rapidly, now that the weather shows a disposition to improve.

FERNWOOD SALES.

The Charles P. Glover Realty company, through E. J. Witt, its sales manager, anounces quite an assortment of sales of vacant lots at Fernwood, its subdivision at the Brookhaven Country club. The prices range from $250 to $1,500. Following are the lots recently sold:

PETERS PARK.

The Peters Land company has started the development of a tract of its property just north of the Georgia Tech. This will be a park subdivision to be known as Peters park.

The grading contract has been let to the Nichols Contracting company and this company is now getting ready to put its steam shovels in operation.

Peters park will be another addition to Atlanta's list of residential and recreation retreats. The ground is well adapted to park purposes, being shaped like an amphitheatre. On the hillsides overlooking the park will be lots for homes, and the driveways will be constructed so as to follow the contour of the hills.

The company has opened new streets and placed improvements on its properties on Williams, West Fifth, West Sixth, Spring, Cherry and Plum streets.

New houses are being built on its property on Penn avenue by Prof. W. F. Dykes, L. W. Hudson, Jr., and Ernest W. Timson, all recent purchasers of lots.

L. G. Neal will shortly begin the construction of a brick veneer apartment house at the northwest corner of North avenue and Myrtle street.

PERMITS AND TRANSFERS.

A fair assortment of building permits appears in Tuesday's list of building permits, as well as an unusually large number of property transfers. Several new warranty deeds and bonds for title appear in the list.

PLAN FOR RESCUE OF MRS. PANKHURST FAILS

Suffrage Leader Is Hurried Away to London After Arrest in Glasgow

(By Associated Press.)

GLASGOW, Scotland, March 10.—Bands of determined militant suffragettes waited at all the railway stations in Glasgow today in readiness to fight for the rescue of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst. The militant leader, however, who was arrested last night while speaking in St. Andrews hall, previously was removed from the station house to a suburb railway station in order to avoid the attentions of her supporters.

Mrs. Pankhurst was carried from the cell to a waiting automobile on a stretcher. The motor car then dashed off at high speed to a station on the main line of the railroad where she was carried on board the express train for London.

Many of the policemen who assisted in Mrs. Pankhurst's arrest last night suffered severe scratches from barbed wire which had been stretched across the platform from which she was speaking.

RELATIVES SECURED BODY OF VERGARA FROM GRAVE

Report Says Members of Family and Hired Mexicans Crossed Border

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Secretary Garrison received today from Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, commanding the American border forces, the following report on the Vergara case, by Captain H. P. Howard, of the Fourteenth United States cavalry:

"Investigation shows Vergara was taken from the Hidalgo cemetery Saturday night by relatives of Vergara and hired Mexicans. Captain Sanders states positively no Texas rangers crossed the border. He met the body at a landing opposite San Enrique with Undertaker Convery Sunday morning. Convery brought the body to Laredo at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. He states there were no signs of burns on the body. Found four bullet holes. Neck chafed, but not broken. Body decomposed, but pants match coat left at home by Vergara. Identification seems reliable. Recovery of body said to have cost S. T. Hill, brother-in-law of Vergara, $400. Body being held at request of Adjutant General Hutchings. No excitement."

FINDING OF BODY.

Secretary Bryan, upon entering the meeting of the cabinet today, said American Consul Garrett had reported that relatives of Clemente Vergara recovered his body on Sunday and that Texas rangers did not cross the border. Consul Garrett said he had been notified that if he would go to a place on the American side of the Rio Grande across from Hidalgo, Mexico, at 4 o'clock Sunday morning, he would find the body. He went there in company with Captain Sanders, of the Texas rangers, and the body was delivered by friends of Vergara. Mr. Garrett added that he was sending a full report by mail. Mr. Bryan said no new representations had been made to the Huerta government.

Will Investigate Story Of Vergara's Torture

AUSTIN, Tex., March 10.—No further information on the identity of the party who recovered Clemente Vergara's body from its Mexican grave was expected here today pending conclusion of the official investigations now in progress by both federal and state authorities. Governor O. B. Colquitt is out of the city on a two days' trip to Fort Worth.

Henry Hutchings, state adjutant general, has begun at Laredo an investigation ordered by Governor Colquitt who did not make public what specific instructions, if any, he gave Hutchings. It is known that the stories of torture based on the charred condition of one of Vergara's hands will receive close attention in this investigation.

There still was no intimation so far as known here, from Captain J. J. Sanders, of the Texas Rangers, as to the identity of the person or persons whom he has claimed informed him he would find the body on the American shore of the Rio Grande river at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning. Sanders' official reports the only word of any kind so far available from him, also are completely blank as to the identity of those who made the night trip into Mexico.

CARROLL VOTERS INDORSE ADAMSON FOR RE-ELECTION

Executive Committee Meets Saturday to Set Primary Date

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CARROLLTON, Ga., March 10.—At a mass meeting of the citizens of Carroll county held at the court house here yesterday, Judge James Beall was nominated temporary chairman and R. W. West, J. W. Warren and C. K. Henderson, Jr., and R. W. Adamson appointed to nominate the committee for the county.

W. J. Milligan introduced a resolution, unanimously passed, endorsing Congressman William C. Adamson for re-election.

The executive committee will meet Saturday to set a date for the primary.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 10.—With the primary on April 12 but six weeks off, general apathy still prevails in Democratic political circles. Although there are two or more candidates in the field for practically all the county offices, none is conducting a strenuous campaign.

The warmest race to all appearances will be that of sheriff. This will be the case in the regular election in August as well as in the primary. Four candidates are already in the field subject to the latter, these being W. B. Cleague, Fred Frawley, N. P. Bush and J. R. Henderson.

The Republicans have not yet announced whether they will hold a primary or a convention, but the latter is practically certain. They are not expected to take any action, however, until the identity of the Democratic nominees is known. At present the county is apparently Republican, although four of the five city commissioners are Democratic.

Coffee County Primary Will Be Held on April 15

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DOUGLAS, Ga., March 10.—The Coffee county executive committee today set April 15 for the date of the county primary. About thirty candidates are running.

CEARA, BRAZIL, UNDER FEDERAL MARTIAL LAW

Troops on Guard at Principal Points Owing to Outbreak of Strike

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, March 10.—Martial law was proclaimed today throughout the state of Cerea. Federal troops have been placed on guard at the principal commercial and private houses in Fort Aleza, the state capital, owing to the outbreak of a strike. Martial law was proclaimed in this city several days ago.

The commander of the troops at Fort Aleza telegraphed to the minister of war today that trade was at a standstill and the strikers were parading the streets threatening the populace and breaking into private dwellings.

The local authorities of the state of Ceara are powerless to enforce order and the federal commander reports that a force of rebels is encamped at about sixteen miles from Fort Aleza.

AEROPLANE FALLS; KILLS CAPTAIN OF INFANTRY

Sailing Over Military Aerdome, Flying Machine Falls With Fatal Result

(By Associated Press.)

SALISBURY, England, March 10.—Captain Cyril R. Downer, of the Northamptonshire infantry regiment, was killed today by a fall with his aeroplane while flying over the military aerodrome on Salisbury plain. He had only recently been detailed for service with the army flying corps.

AUTHORS' LEAGUE WILL OCCUPY FAMOUS HOUSE

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 10.—The Authors' League of America, of which Winston Churchill is president and Theodore Roosevelt vice president, will move this week into the house in which Washington Irving wrote his "Life of Oliver Goldsmith" and prepared the material for his "Life of Washington."

The house was owned at the time by Irving's uncle, and the author spent much time there. The league, which was organized in January, 1913, now has 650 members, and since its first annual dinner on February 14 many members from the south and west have been added. The league's principal object is to protect authors in their dealing with publishers in an effort to obtain more equitable copyright laws. It publishes a monthly bulletin.

HONOR IS PAID TO LAST OF THE MONITOR'S CREW

School Children Pay Tribute to William Durst and Are Told of Famous Battle

(By Associated Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—Marking the fifty-second anniversary of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimac, nearly 500 students gathered at a public school here yesterday and paid tribute to William Durst, sole survivor of the Monitor's crew. The veteran, who is seventy-five years old, was attired in the uniform he wore during the battle, and displayed to the children a number of medals awarded him for bravery in that and other naval engagements of the civil war.

Mr. Durst, who was assistant chief fireman on the Monitor, described the battle with the Merrimac and told how he rescued Lieutenant Worden, the commander, after the officer had been blinded by an exploding shell.

There are two survivors of the Merrimac, the Confederate ship—Benjamin Simms Herring and Elijah W. Flake, of Tallahassee, Fla., and Polkton, N. C., respectively.

The Roll of the Dead

MRS. ALICE D. BRUNSON.

WILMINGTON, N. C., March 10.—Mrs. Alice Doane Brunson, member of a prominent North Carolina family and wife of George W. Brunson, Jr., editor of the Greenville, S. C., News, for two years secretary and treasurer of the Southern Newspaper Publishers' association, ided at the home of her parents here yesterday, after a protracted illness, in the thirty-fifth year of her age. She is survived by her immediate family, husband and two little daughters, aged ten and five years respectively.

Our Daily Motion Pictures

They show the ebb and flow of trade. They reflect the prosperity of our people.

It means being better informed and being posted at all times as to the good things the market offers.

It is the kind of reading that is entirely to your profit.

If for any reason or lack of reason you have lightly passed over the advertisements begin today to read them critically. Journal advertisements are always interesting.

DOING NOTHING KEEPS A WOMAN AWFULLY BUSY.—By Goldberg.

WENT TO MANY CITIES FOR IMMORAL PURPOSES

Mrs. Stoe Said to Have Brought Mrs. Bond to Many Hotels

Mrs. Annie Stoe was placed on trial before Judge W. T. Newman in the United States court Tuesday morning on the charge of violating the Mann white slavery act, the same offense for which her husband was tried and convicted a few weeks since.

As chief witness against her appeared Mrs. Annie Bond, who alleged in a series of sensational statements similar to those that were instrumental in convicting Stoe, that Mrs. Stoe had taken her into Alabama for immoral purposes involving a commercial gain.

An indictment containing four counts was presented by District Attorney Hooper Alexander. Defending Mrs. Stoe were Attorneys Haralson and Kelly. The indictment names two separate occasions, in the fall of 1912 and in the winter of 1913, on which Mrs. Stoe and Mrs. Bond are said to have gone to Birmingham and other Alabama cities for immoral purposes.

Mrs. Bond, the first witness for the state, told how she first met Mrs. Stoe, how she was drugged by the woman's husband in a local rooming house and how both suggested to her the Birmingham trip.

In September, 1912, Mrs. Bond testified she went to Birmingham and stayed a week with Stoe in a hotel there. She testified that she then met Mrs. Stoe and that the two of them went to "most every hotel in Birmingham."

She declared that they also went to Tuscaloosa, Gadsden, Anniston, Montgomery and other towns, continuing the same methods at the hotels at which they stayed, returning to Atlanta after about two months of this life.

Mrs. Bond testified that she and Mrs. Stoe—this time without Stoe—made the same trip in February, 1913. The trip was made at Mrs. Stoe's request, testified the witness, and lasted a week. They went to Birmingham and Tuscaloosa—at the latter city being ejected from a hotel, testified Mrs. Bond. She said she separated from Mrs. Stoe on her return to Atlanta.

The Stowe case probably will last the remainder of the week. Scores of witnesses are being introduced and much documentary evidence, including the registry books of the hotels at which Mrs. Stowe and Mrs. Bond are said to have stayed.

PHYSICIAN'S CERTIFICATE DID NOT SAVE MRS. FAIN

Woman Whose Home Was Raided Sunday Compelled to Dress and Go to Court

J. V. Fain and his wife, whose home at 328 Simpson street was raided last Sunday by Officers Dorset and Roberts, who found 17 cases of whisky stored in a secret room, were both bound over to the state courts and also fined by the recorder Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Fain, who had not been placed under arrest, made a futile effort to escape trial by taking to her bed and securing an affidavit from a physician who stated that she was too ill to come to court.

Recorder Nash R. Broyles did not like the looks of the affidavit so he sent City Physician Martin to the Fain home to see the woman. Dr. Martin ordered her to dress and attend the court, and when she entered Judge Broyles quickly remarked to the woman, who is young and handsome,

A few minutes later he fined her $100 or thirty days in the stockade and bound her over to the criminal court under a $500 bond.

Fain was fined $200 and sentenced to thirty days in the stockade in addition to being bound over under a $500 bond.

MAN WHO CONFESSED TO MURDER MAY BE INSANE

MEADVILLE, Pa., March 10.—Indications are that instead of being brought to trial for the murder of his wife in 1889 to which he is alleged to have confessed to the Rev. J. B. Cook at Girard, Pa., John Turner, aged eighty-three, will be examined as to his sanity. Court officers from this county where the murder was committed, have returned from Girard where they interviewed Turner who is said to have told them "if Mr. Cook says I confessed to him I must have done so."

SENATE WILL INSIST ON ACTION ON RURAL CREDITS

Senator Fletcher's Appointment to Banking Committee Reveals Attitude

BY RALPH SMITH.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—That the senate has determined to press rural credits legislation developed yesterday when Senator Duncan U. Fletcher, of Florida, was chosen as a member of the senate banking and currency committee.

The senator is expected to take charge immediately of rural credits legislation and expedite the report of a bill to the senate. He is author of the administration measure, and as chairman of the joint commission that investigated rural credits in Europe last spring, it is believed he will render invaluable service to the banking committee.

PROBE OF COAL MINERS' STRIKE NEAR ITS CLOSE

Congress Committee Expects to Finish Work in Michigan and Colorado Today

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, March 10.—Members of the house subcommittee, who have been investigating the copper miners' strike in Michigan and the coal miners' strike in Colorado, expected to return to Washington tonight. It may be several weeks before their report can be completed and presented to the house.

The congressmen investigating the Michigan strike expected to conclude their inquiry today by hearing the testimony of Charles H. Moyer, president of the Western Federation of Miners, regarding his deportation from Hancock, Mich., last December. Members of the Michigan militia who were on strike duty in Michigan last summer appeared before the committee yesterday and answered charges of brutality made by the strikers.

The committeemen who investigated the Colorado strike arrived in Chicago yesterday and probably will return to Washington on the train with members of the Michigan committee.

Ranaway 5 Times. Returned 5 Times, Keep Police on Jump

Margaret McDaniell Wandered Away Five Times—Is Found Again by Patrolman

Little Margaret McDaniel, daughter of James W. McDaniel, of 277 Windsor street, has run away for the fifth time and for the fifth time has been brought back by police officers to her home. Night Chief Jett, who received the report of the fifth return Monday night, says he will order an investigation of the whys and wherefores of these many runaways.

The police were notified Tuesday night at 9:30 o'clock that a little girl was at 421 East Fair street and should be taken home. One of the two officers who went after her found she was Margaret McDaniel, whom he himself had taken home a runaway twice before and who had run away twice previous.
