U. S. OFFICIALS ARE FEARING FOR SAFETY OF CONSUL SILLIMAN

No News Received From American Reported Released From Saltillo Prison More Than One Week Ago

BRYAN CONSIDERS SENDING MESSENGER AFTER HIM

South American Mediators Will Open Peace Negotiation at Niagara Falls, Ont., Wednesday Afternoon

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Anxiety among officials here over inability to get definite word from American Vice Consul John R. Silliman, who was reported released from prison at Saltillo more than a week ago, aroused the state department to renewed activity today in the missing American's behalf.

Evidencing his own apprehension, Secretary of State Bryan telegraphed to American Consul Hanna at Monterey, asking if it would be feasible to send a messenger to Saltillo to determine if Silliman ever had been released.

Secretary Bryan's directions to Consul Hanna made it plain that he was to use his discretion in prosecuting his inquiries.

So persistent has been the silence for the last few days of the Mexican foreign office with regard to the American requests for information regarding Silliman that anxiety in many minds has turned to apprehension that Silliman, despite previous assurances of his safety from Huerta's agents, may again have been held in custody. Some officials fear he may have been killed.

Captain Percy Willis, of the coast artillery at Key West, notified Secretary of War Garrison today that he had obtained an affidavit from A. W. Bland, lately arrived from Vera Cruz, declaring Samuel Parks, the American soldier who wandered from the American lines at Vera Cruz, had been executed.

According to Captain Willis, Bland talked with an acquaintance in Vera Cruz who saw the body of Parks and who declared the young American orderly was shot by Mexican soldiers and that his body later was destroyed.

MEDIATORS MET TODAY.

With stage set for the opening of mediation conference late today at Niagara Falls, Ontario, officials in administrative and diplomatic circles here turned their attention to proceedings in the Canadian border town. President Wilson was to keep in close touch with the progress of negotiations by means of a special wire set up between the White House and the headquarters of the American mission.

Justice Lamar and former Solicitor General Lehmann will submit all important questions before them for decision on the proposals of the South American envoys.

While conditions appeared propitious for the beginning of the conference, government officials still awaited word of the flight of Samuel Parks, the American infantryman who escaped the Mexican lines outside Vera Cruz and was reported to have been executed. Vigorous representations have been made to Huerta who had promised to investigate.

Some anxiety was expressed over John Silliman, American consul at Saltillo, who had been held by federal officials at Saltillo. Definite report of his movements is still awaited here today, the state department also awaited the result of representations made to the Mexican foreign office over the reported detention of ten members of the Smith family at Tonala, Chiapas.

SITUATION IS RELIEVED.

Reports that practically all the federals defeated at Tampico had left that territory without attempting to damage oil wells and news that the constitutionalists had refrained from further attempting to levy loans at their first seaport, relieved a menacing situation.

Continued reports from Mexico City that an effort soon will be made to unseat Huerta, renewed interest here in developments at the federal capital. Greatest concern in Mexico City, declare refugees arriving in Vera Cruz, is not that the plot against Huerta will be executed but that a delay may occur before the entrance of the Zapata forces which might precipitate more serious trouble.

That the constitutionalists had renewed their active campaign south of Torreon was indicated in reports of desperate fighting before Saltillo. Villa's near approach to the capital of the state movement were lacking but one report stated the constitutionalists military chief had defeated the federals at Paredon and captured large quantities of arms and ammunition.

Stage Is All Set for Mediation Conference

(By Associated Press.)

NIAGARA FALLS, Ontario, May 20.—Everything was ready today for the opening of the mediation conference which, under the auspices of Argentina, Brazil, Chile, is attempting to compose the differences between the United States and Mexico. The Mexican peace commissioners arrived early today from New York while the American delegates reached here shortly before midnight. Minister Suarez was the last of the three South American mediators to reach the scene.

To welcome the visitors to Canadian territory, the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, delegated Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, and Senator Loughead, conservative leader, to come here from Ottawa. Their duties included visits of greeting to the mediators and to the American and Mexican delegates.

The formal opening of the conference was set for 3 p. m. today. The program included nothing except the formal introductions, exchanges of courtesies and adoption of plans for the conduct of the proceedings, such as are customary to the opening of an international gathering of this character.

Justice Lamar of the United States supreme court, and Frederick W. Lehmann, former solicitor general in the department of justice, the American delegates, with S. Parcival Dodge, their secretarial adviser, are making their headquarters at a hotel in Niagara Falls, N. Y., on the American side.

MILLIONS PAID OUT IN AWED SILENCE AT MORGAN'S COMMAND

Former President Mellen Continues Remarkable Story of How Financier Dominated New Haven

EXPLAINS TRANSACTION WITH BOSTON HERALD

Intimates There Was Some Inducement for Loan of $300,000 Which Was Made to Owner Haskell

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The remarkable story of the disappearance of millions of dollars from the treasury of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, through acquisition, at extravagant prices, of subsidiary properties, was resumed before the interstate commerce commission today by Charles B. Mellen, former New Haven president.

The chamber in which the hearings are in progress was thronged with eager spectators. Unusual interest had been aroused by the description given by Mr. Mellen on the stand yesterday of how the late J. Pierpont Morgan absolutely dominated the New Haven's affairs, and how millions of dollars were spent in awed and ignorant silence at the master financier's command.

Mr. Mellen arrived early, accompanied by his counsel, J. W. H. Crim. He showed no signs of fatigue from his prolonged efforts of yesterday.

Mr. Mellen finally took the stand at 10:25 o'clock after a conference with his counsel. Commissioners McChord and Daniels were at the commission table.

"When was a loan of $300,000 made to Haskell, of the Boston Herald?" began Mr. Folk.

"Two years or more before notes of Haskell were sold to Mr. Billard," Mr. Mellen replied.

EXPLAINS TRANSACTION.

Asked to explain the transaction, he said:

"I had known Mr. Haskell some years and I laid the case before the finance committee and they agreed to the loan."

"Was the fact that he was owner of the Boston Herald an inducement?" Mr. Folk asked. "It was certainly not a bad inducement."

"What was pending in the Massachusetts legislature at the time of the loan to Haskell?" "There was always something pending in the Massachusetts legislature."

"At what time was the bill incorporating the Boston Railroad Holding company before the legislature?" "About June, 1909."

"Were there any other loans made by the New Haven or New England Navigation company to anybody besides Mr. Haskell and Mr. Rand?" "I presume some others were made. Perhaps loans of $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 were made to the New York Central and to the Pennsylvania railway. They all were arranged through the finance committee of the board of directors. I had nothing to do with the Billard company."

"What were Haskell's notes worth?" "At the time of the loan I think, and some time after, they were worth their face value."

"Are they worth that now?" "I do not think so."

"Did you have anything to do with the reorganization of the Boston Herald?" "At the request of Mr. Rand, my friend, I attended a meeting at which the reorganization of the Herald was considered. I paid no special attention to the matter. I was there as an observer."

SALE WAS DISCREDITED.

Questioned concerning the Boston Railroad Holding company bill passed by the Massachusetts legislature while Mr. S. Draper was governor, Mr. Mellen said it was Governor Draper's desire to bring the stock of Boston and Maine outside of the state under a company controlled by the state of Massachusetts. The witness said he was not particularly impressed with the holding company idea, but thought it better than the situation that existed following the sale of the Boston and Maine stock to Billard, which, he said, had been discredited in several quarters and caused annoyance to the New Haven.

Mr. Mellen testified further that consideration of the bill had been sent to him before its passage.

"Did you retain Mr. Choate to draft the bill?" "Mr. Choate about this time was our registered legislative agent. There were other attorneys employed, too, but Mr. Choate was one."

"Did you spend $400,000 in enlightening public sentiment-?" "I know nothing of that kind."

Mr. Mellen said he knew little of the details of the work of Vice President Byrnes.

"Did he spend money to influence legislation?" asked Mr. Folk. "I am sure not," said the witness.

"Do you recall the 'Prayer from the Hills'?" "Yes, in general, but I know little about it."

PAY FOR ALL PRAYERS.

"Did you pay for it?" "I fancy I have to pay for all prayers in my behalf."

"Were a large number of newspapers carried on the pay roll of the New Haven?" "I never heard of a large number of newspapers being on our pay roll."

Mr. Folk read the minutes of a meeting of the directors of the New Haven, held in October, 1909, at which a report of the contract with John L. Billard regarding the transaction in 109,000 shares of Boston and Maine was ordered approved. Mr. Billard, in previous testimony was said to have made $2,750,000 out of the transaction.

Mr. Mellen said that a part of the minutes, which made it appear that the New Haven had made a profit of $1,649,220, was incorrect, but that a clause to the effect that Billard was only to get a commission was correct.

"What authority did you have to make a contract with Mr. Billard involving payment by the New Haven of a tremendous profit on a stock transaction?"

"I had absolute authority. I am quite certain the report which we are discussing is erroneous—an error made perhaps by the secretary."

EVANS AND WEBER ENTER THE FOURTH ROUND IN TOURNEY

Only Two of Ten Americans Left in English Amateur Golf Championship Herreshoff Eliminated—Ball Defeated

AMERICA PINS ALL HOPE NOW ON "CHICK" EVANS

Francis Ouimet Loses to "Young" Tubbs, an English Lad Practically Unknown Before Today, Two Down

(By Associated Press.)

SANDWICH, England, May 20.—Only two of the ten American competitors remained in the tournament for the British amateur golf championship after the conclusion of the third round today. These were Charles W. Evans, Jr., of Chicago, and Harold Weber, of Toledo. Several of the most prominent English golfers were still in the competition, including Harold H. Hilton, the titleholder.

Evans' victory gives the Americans two places in fourth round. Victories on the next two rounds will place Evans and Weber in the semi-finals of the British amateur championship.

OUIMET ELIMINATED.

Harold Weber, of Toledo, was successful in the third round, defeating A. Marriott by 2 up.

John Ball, eight times British amateur champion, was eliminated in the third round by Captain Hambro, of the Royal St. George's club, after playing an extra hole.

Francis Ouimet, open golf champion of United States, was eliminated as a contender for the British amateur championship today. He was defeated with apparent ease by "Young" Tubbs, a boy player from a nearby course at Littlestone-On-Sea.

A large crowd was on hand for the Ouimet-Tubbs match, including a large delegation of Americans. The enthusiasm of the American party soon was sharply cooled by the way in which Tubbs handled their favorite. Ouimet got into difficulties on the fourth hole, taking seven strokes, while Tubbs made in a clean four. The Englishman never was in danger thereafter, although Ouimet made a sensational three to his five on the eighth hole and fought desperately all the way in. At the turn Ouimet was one down and Tubbs finished the round with two up.

Out, Ouimet, 5S4,744,535-42
Tubbs 554, 442, 555-40.

In, Ouimet, 554, 455, 355-41-83.
Tubbs, 453, 545, 464-40-80.

The defeat of Ouimet cast gloom over the American contingent but the cloud partially was dispersed shortly afterward by the brilliant victories of Frederick Herreshoff, New York, and Harold Weber, Toledo. Herreshoff beat H. B. Platt, of the Royal North Devon club by 4 up and 2 to play.

Harold Weber beat J. B. Carlisle, of Sunningdale, by 4 up and 5 to play.

LOCKWOOD OUT; HILTON WINS.

Arthur G. Lockwood, of Massachusetts, was beaten by 2 up and 1 to play in the third round by Mr. Hayward, of Ealing.

Harold H. Hilton, holder of the British amateur championship, beat Robert Harris, of Acton, England, by 2 up and 1 to play in the third round. Hilton was the runner-up to Hilton last year.

Charles W. Evans, Jr., of Chicago, won his match in the third round, defeating H. W. Scott by 3 up and 2 to play.

The defeat of the young American open champion proved a great a sensation as had been that of Jerome D. Travers, American amateur champion. I had been thought that Ouimet would have no difficulty in disposing of the comparatively unknown and youthful Tubbs, who never before had succeeded in reaching anything like championship form.

WEAK ON PUTTING.

Ouimet's weakness on the green proved his undoing.

The Englishman started badly but led at the turn by one.

The first hole Tubbs Ouimet was able to secure only one and halve two and at the fourteenth wa three down with four to play. He halved the fifteenth, won the sixteenth and at the seventeenth was on the green in two, lipped the hole for four and went down in two. Tubbs was nervous and could not do better than six.

With the chance of making all square at the seventeenth hole Ouimet was one and at the fourteenth wa three down with four to play. He halved the fifteenth, won the sixteenth and at the seventeenth was on the green in two, lipped the hole for four and went down in two. Tubbs was nervous and could not do better than six.

With the chance of making all square at the seventeenth hole Ouimet was able to secure only one and halve two

CAPT. RICHARD WINSLOW IS KILLED ACCIDENTALLY

Coast Artillery Corps Officer, of Jackson, Miss., Meets Death in Brownsville, Tex.

(By Associated Press.)

JACKSON, Miss., May 20.—Captain Richard Winslow, of the coast artillery corps, at Brownsville, Tex., was accidentally killed today, according to information received by his family here. No details were given.

Captain Winslow was the son of Mrs. S. P. Winslow, of Jackson, and was thirty-six years of age. He is survived by a widow and two children.

Captain Winslow's first active military service was as a non-commissioned officer of the First Tennessee regiment of volunteers during the Spanish-American war. After the war he became captain of the Capital Light Guards, a volunteer organization of this city. Resident Middleton has entered him a lieutenant in the regular army.

Physician Says Winslow Was Mentally Deranged

BROWNSVILLE, Tex., May 20.—Captain Richard P. Winslow, of the Ninety-first coast artillery corps, died here early today from the effects of a shot from an army automatic pistol. The bullet entered the right side of the head and passed through the brain, after which Winslow lived twenty-five minutes. An army physician said he was temporarily mentally deranged.

No one was present when the shot was fired. Captain Winslow came to Brownsville from Fort Morgan, Ala., in the recent troop movement.

TAX COMMISSIONERS HAVE TROUBLE WITH OIL KING

Rockefeller Has So Far Failed to List Property in Cuyahoga County

CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 20.—Unless John D. Rockefeller lists his property for taxation in Cuyahoga county within the next day or two it will be placed on the duplicate by the deputy state tax commissioners for this county, William Agnew, of the tax commission, declared last night.

"A few days ago the commission sent a note to Virgil P. Kline, Mr. Rockefeller's Cleveland attorney, and told him that unless Mr. Rockefeller's property was listed voluntarily for taxation in this county, it would be placed on the duplicate by the commission without further notice," said Mr. Agnew.

"As to the amount at which the property will be assessed I cannot say. The commission has been gathering information for several months concerning the value of Mr. Rockefeller's property. We do not intend to make ourselves ridiculous by making any haphazard guess at the value of the property to be assessed."

SMITH-LEVER MEASURE READY FOR COMMITTEE

Sub-Committee Completes Work on Bill to Regulate Cotton Futures Trading

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Smith-Lever bill to regulate cotton futures trading has been agreed on by the house agriculture subcommittee and the full committee may consider it tomorrow. It provides there shall be no tax on legitimate contracts for cotton, but imposes a prohibitive tax on what may be officially determined to be illegitimate contracts for cotton.

It provides that cotton dealt in on the exchanges shall be within the standardized grades and creates a board of appeals to consider disputes as to quality, grade or length of staple. Publicity of all transactions relating to futures is prescribed. Provisions of various kinds regarding the settlement of contracts also are included in the measure.

H. W. ROUNTREE HIGHLY PRAISES "ATLANTA SPIRIT"

Says Regional Bank Appointments Bring Closer Relationship Between Here and Richmond

The establishment of closer and more friendly business relations between Richmond and Atlanta because both cities were successful in getting regional banks under the new United States currency measure, was predicted by Henry W. Rountree, of Richmond and Atlanta, in a speech at the semi-monthly luncheon of the Atlanta Rotary club Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Rountree paid a glowing tribute to the Atlanta spirit. He said that it was the spirit which by one name or another was absolutely essential to the growth and prosperity of any community or any organization.

"Boost the city in which you live," he said, "or you can't boost, move."

The meeting was presided over by President Hubert W. Anderson.

H. G. Hastings delivered the principal address. His subject related to the mail order business and to Atlanta as the logical business center and distributing point for the entire southeast.

CONFESSION WILL NOT HELP EX-LIEUT. BECKER

Statement Made by "Dago Frank" Before He Died Will Not Be Admitted in Trial

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 20.—The confession that "Dago Frank" Cirofici made an hour before he went to the electric chair will not help Charles Becker in his fight to prove his innocence of the murder of Herman Rosenthal. The supreme court before which Becker is on trial for the second time, refused today to admit the confession. "Dago Frank," before he died, swore he had never heard the name of Becker mentioned until Rosenthal had been killed.

The court held that evidence pertaining to the confession was not admissible, because it was an incident that occurred after the murder.

In an effort to establish an alibi for Becker, charged with having instigated the murder of Herman Rosenthal, counsel for the defense were prepared today to call several witnesses to support the testimony of Frederick Hawley, former newspaper reporter, whose direct examination concluded with the adjournment of court yesterday. Hawley testified under direct examination that Becker answered his telephone on the morning of the murder, soon after the shooting of Rosenthal, and could not have been near the scene as has been previously charged by witnesses for the state.

A conference last night attended by Becker, his wife, brother and counsel failed to determine whether the defendant would be called to the stand.

Other witnesses, said to be held in reserve by the defense, include Warden Clancy, Father Cashin and Principal Keeper McInerney, of the Sing Sing prison, who heard the statement made by "Dago Frank" Cirofici, one of the four gunmen, just before he was executed for his part in the murder of Rosenthal.

Cirofici is reported to have told Father Cashin and the prison officials that he never heard Becker's name mentioned in connection with the murder.

Pedestrians Waylaid And Forced to Drill For Duty in Mexico

Man Believed Insane Has Fine Time Corraling Recruits for "Army of Invasion"

(By Associated Press.)

SAN RAFAEL, Cal., May 20.—Organization of a company of eight "soldiers" for the purpose, it is said, of marching on Mexico, landed Henry Klopp, caretaker of a large estate near here, in jail today. Klopp shouldered a rifle, went to the county highway and began to execute military evolutions.

He halted men on the road until he had accumulated an "army" of eight. For an hour he drilled them up and down the dusty highway. He made them march and counter march, march slowly and on the double quick, single file, double and four abreast. Word reached the sheriff's office that the men were being held prisoners and a deputy slipped up behind Klopp and with the butt of his gun knocked him down.

Klopp's gun was empty. He will be examined as to his sanity.

ORDER GUARANTEE LABEL REMOVED FROM GOODS

8,000 Manufacturers Notified to Comply With Pure Food and Drugs Regulations

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The department of agriculture today began notifying more than 8,000 manufacturers throughout the country that on May 1, 1915, their guarantees filed under the pure food and drugs regulations would be stricken from the files and that thereafter the serial numbers previously assigned them must not be used on the label or package of any food or drug. This action is in accordance with the regulations adopted recently which abolished the use of the guarantee legend and serial number on foods and drugs.

In notifying the manufacturers of the new regulations the departemnt advises that the guarantee should be incorporated in or attached to the bill of sale, invoice, bill of lading or other schedule giving the names and quantities of the articles. The guarantee may be printed or stamped on the invoice, and if it is signed in accordance with the new regulations and refers specially to the goods listed in the invoice of document it covers, it need not contain a detailed description or schedule of the articles.

DANDRUFFY HEADS BECOME HAIRLESS

Scalp Dries—Chokes out the Hair And Prevents Its Growth

If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four *more applications will completely dis*solve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, fluffy, lustrous, soft and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—(Advt.)

PENROSE, PINCHOT AND PALMER WIN IN PENNA.

Get Nominations for U. S. Senators—McCormick in Race for Governor

(By Associated Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—Boies Penrose, Republican; A. Mitchell Palmer, Democrat, and Gifford Pinchot, Progressive, will make the fight for United States senator from Pennsylvania in the November election. These three men won their respective party nominations yesterday in the first state-wide primary held in Pennsylvania under the federal constitutional amendment providing for the election of United States senators by popular vote.

Penrose won a sweeping victory over J. Benjamin Dimmick, former mayor of Scranton; Palmer defeated Henry Budd, of Philadelphia, in a bitter fight, and Pinchot was unopposed. At Republican state headquarters it was announced that Penrose had about 175,00 majority over Dimmick and that Brumbaugh's vote had run from 35,000 to 50,000 over that of Penrose.

The Democratic nomination for governor is claimed for Vance C. McCormick, former mayor of Harrisburg, while Martin G. Brumbaugh, superintendent of the public schools of Philadelphia, won the Republican nomination. The Washington (Progressive) candidate will be William Draper Lewis, dean of the University of Pennsylvania Law school.

AMERICAN RANCHER IS CAPTURED BY BANDITS

(By Associated Press.)

JUAREZ, May 20.—The fate of James Skousen, an American rancher at Colonia, Juarez, who was captured Sunday by bandits supposed to belong to Rodrigo Quevedo's band, still is unknown. Skousen was carried into the mountains by the bandits. No demand has been made for ransom. It is feared he may have been executed.

CRUSTY RINGWORM ALL OVER FACE

Suffered Terribly with Itching, Pimples in Patches, Formed Crust. Scalp Attacked, Hair Fell Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

R. F. D. No. 14, Corapeake, N. C.—"Some years ago I was troubled with what is called ringworm all over my face. I suffered terribly with itching and a crusty scale over my face which looked awfully. Is would break out in fine pimples in patches about the size of a nickel and itched so that I would scratch them until they would form a crust. After a while the scalp was attacked with an itching which caused my hair to fall out. My head would itch so badly at night and in damp weather I could hardly rest. The ringworms were more annoying to me in the summer than in winter. Perspiration would get into the irritated places and cause me to scratch more than usual.

"I was asked to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I sent for a trial which helped me considerably. I ordered some and it did not take but a cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment to cure me. I have not had a trace of trouble." (Signed) Miss L. M. Riddick, Sept. 4, 1913.

The itching, burning, suffering and loss of sleep of eczemas, rashes, and irritations of the skin and scalp are at once relieved and permanent skin health restored in most cases by warm baths with Cuticura Soap followed by gentle applications of Cuticura Ointment when all else fails. Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold everywhere. A single set is often sufficient. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

NATURAL GAS ASSN. OF AMERICA IN SESSION

Discuss Necessity of Increasing Rates, Decrease in Supply and Piping Expense

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—The necessity of increasing the rates for natural gas throughout the United States was discussed at the annual convention of the Natural Gas Association of America in session here today. The decrease in the supply and the expense of piping from foreign fields was the argument advanced.

More than 600 delegates were in attendance. Cincinnati has been chosen for the 1915 convention.

For Years a Sufferer--- Now Perfectly Healthy

Mr. J. S. Calicutt, of 55 Wyman street, Atlanta, Ga., has suffered for years with the worst form of stomach trouble, bloating, belching and constipation. While in search of relief Mr. Calicutt has taken many different treatments, all to no avail. For weeks at times he was unable to work. Mr. Calicutt says he has not been able to undergo the slightest exertion for at least six weeks. At that time he called at Coursey & Munn's drug store and was advised to purchase one bottle of Quaker Extract. Now, after seven days, Mr. Calicutt reports that he feels better than he has in years, and last week he returned to work. He is loud, and justly so, in his praises and declares Quaker is the best medicine in the world. It should be known by all that the Quaker Remedies are not cure-alls. If you suffer with lung or throat troubles, fever, private or contagious diseases, the attention of your family physician or specialist is necessary. Such cases will not be cured by Quaker Remedies. Catarrh in any form, kidney, liver, stomach or bladder trouble, indigestion, constipation, try Quaker Extract at once, today. You will be most surprised at the astonishingly quick results. A great number of local people have already been cured and every day more and more cures are reported.

Now, there is a few more good reports of the good the Quaker Remedies are doing. Why will you wait and suffer when you see your neighbors being cured all around you? If you suffer with any of the above diseases call today at Coursey & Munn's Drug Store, 39 Marietta street, and obtain Quaker Extract, $1.00 or 3 for $2.50. Oil of Balm 25c or 5 for $1.00. We prepay all express charges on all orders of $3.00 or over. (Advt.)

AGNES SCOTT COLLEGE TO HOLD CELEBRATION

Quarto-Centennial and Commencement Exercises to Be Attended by Men of Note

The commencement exercises at Agnes Scott, which will be the occasion of the celebration of the quarto-centennial of the founding of the college, will bring together in Atlanta next week the most notable gathering of prominent educators, and prominent men interested in educational progress that has been seen in the south in recent years.

Every college of note in the United States will send a representative to the celebration, beside which there will be a number of patrons of educational movements who are prominent not only in educational circles, but who are prominent politically and are men of affairs in the nation.

The United States government has set its sanction on the meeting at Agnes Scott, and will be represented by P. P. Claxton, United States commissioner of education.

Perhaps the most prominent man in attendance upon the celebration will be the vice president of the United States. Mr. Marshall has accepted the invitation tendered him, and will speak at the commencement exercises. Mrs. Marshall will accompany him to Atlanta, and preparations have been made for a number of social functions in her honor.

P. P. Claxton, commissioner of education, will speak Tuesday, May 26, and will remain throughout the commencement exercises. His presence at the celebration is not without significance of the recognition which has been gained by the college in the years which it has struggled to attain the title of a standard southern college.

United States Senator Hoke Smith, who has represented the interests of education in Georgia many times in her legislative halls and who is well known as one of the leaders in educational advancement for the state, and for the south, will be another visitor to the commencement.

Chancellor Kirkland, of Vanderbilt university, will represent that institution in the occasional, and Chancellor David C. Barrow, of the University of Georgia, will represent that university. Chancellor Barrow will be on hand Tuesday, May 26, on behalf of the colleges of Georgia, in a speech of felicitation of Agnes Scott upon her quarto-centenary.

MUSICAL ASSOCIATION IS AFTER MORE MEMBERS

Plans for Campaign Will Be Discussed at Luncheon Thursday Afternoon

The Atlanta Musical association, of which Alfred Owen M. Slaton is the president, will have luncheon at the Ansley hotel at 12:30 Thursday and formulate plans for enlisting new members.

The association started its campaign several weeks ago, but held back on account of grand opera, the Shrine convention and other big events which have practically monopolized the public attention.

Now that these are past and Atlanta has resumed its normal habits, for awhile at least, the association proposes to lay its plans before the public and is confident of success.

Although it is comparatively young and has never been blessed with more money than it could find a use for, the Atlanta Musical association has grown to be an important factor in the musical life of the community. It supports the Philharmonic orchestra and annually brings to Atlanta a number of high class artists. It is in no sense a money-making enterprise. All of its receipts go into the fund to provide musical entertainments, and its prices are figured on a basis of actual cost.

REAL GEORGIA BARBECUE PLANNED FOR CANADIANS

Atlanta Ad Men May Pull Off This Stunt at Convention in Toronto

A Georgia barbecue in Canada, is one of the stunts which Atlanta Ad Men may pull off at the convention of Associated Advertising Clubs of America to be held in Toronto this summer.

Plans for the "On to Toronto" trip will be discussed at the Ad Men's luncheon at the Ansley at 1 o'clock Thursday. In addition to the barbecue, it is possible the Ad Men may take two carloads of Georgia peaches with them to Canada, each peach wrapped in a circular advertising Atlanta.

Besides the eighteen regular delegates allowed for Atlanta at the convention, Atlanta will send many other Ad Men. In preparation for the trip, funds will be raised, not by subscription, but by public entertainments and the like, the first of which will be a ball game on May 27.

At Thursday's luncheon, Illustrious Potentate Forrest Adair, of Yaarab temple, will tell the Ad Men about the Shrine convention and "How We Put It Over." Potentate Adair refused to take on "How I Put It Over" when invited to discuss that subject.

DOCTORS WILL DISCUSS PELLAGRA AND OTHER ILLS

The annual convention of the Georgia Eclectic Medical association will be held in Atlanta, May 28 and 29. At least 400 of the 540 members of the association are expected to attend. The sessions will be held in the Winecoff hotel. Dr. Jim Wells, of Griffin, will preside. The convention will discuss pellagra and the use of autogenous vaccine in treatment of tuberculosis, scarlet fever and lobar pneumonia.

REPRESENTATIVE OF AUTO CAMPAIGN VISITS ATLANTA

Walter A. Woods Here for Purpose of Increasing Service to Peerless Auto Owners

For the purpose of increasing service to Peerless automobile owners, present and future, in the southeast, Walter A. Woods, of Cleveland, arrived in Atlanta Wednesday morning to look over the situation in Georgia for the Peerless company.

"Just now I am engaged in studying the needs of the territory," said Mr. Woods. "Later the decision will be made between establishing a branch and establishing a direct representative in charge of a distributing agency. Our plan is to do things on larger lines in this territory henceforth, and enter into more direct touch with the owners of our cars. The procedure alone is left to be determined." The sale of big and high-priced cars is commencing to pick up noticeably, and this has impelled the company to enlarge the scope of its selling functions and to increase its service to owners."

Mr. Woods has been in his territory since the New York show, and has concluded arrangements for the new program in Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama. He came to Atlanta directly from Birmingham, and will be in the city several days, stopping at the Piedmont.

WEATHER MAN PREDICTS WARMTH FOR THURSDAY

The weather man seems bent on making May a record month for fair weather this year. He predicts that Thursday will be a fair fine day, with temperature slightly increased.

The forecaster says that the coolness which has persisted for several days is due to an area of high pressure which is moving down from the lake region; but that he thinks the weather will begin to get warmer Thursday.

There are still no signs of rain, although there have been showers in the country west of the Mississippi.

When the baby can't sleep

When you have undressed the baby, sponged his body, and put fresh things on him, he should sleep long and quietly. If he keeps waking up, there is something wrong and that something is just about always his food.

Your baby can't sleep when his little stomach is struggling under the weight of cow's milk that he can't digest. Your baby can't sleep when summer complaint and even consumption gets into his blood from the milk of such cows.

Your baby will have the sleep he needs, when he has the food his stomach can digest easily. Such a food is

Nestlé's Food

Mothers of three generations have found that their babies grow as healthy on NESTLÉ'S as they do on mother's breast milk, because NESTLÉ'S gives the babies the same body-building qualities as mother's milk. We could tell it to you in scientific terms—but it really is just this:

One cow in three has consumption, even in such a state as New York, and babies get consumption and summer complaint from the milk of such cows. But NESTLÉ'S is made from the clear, pure milk of healthy cows. And then to be absolutely safe and sanitary is sent to you in air-tight cans—free from germs and sickness.

EXPECT MELLEN TO MAKE MORE R. R. REVELATIONS

Former President of the New Haven Will Contine Story of Stock Deals

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—When the interstate commerce commission resumed today its investigation into the alleged exploitation of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad and the disappearance of millions of dollars from its treasury through the acquisition at extravagant prices of subsidiary properties, Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New Haven, was ready to take the witness stand and continue his remarkable story concerning these transactions. Interest in Mr. Mellen's testimony was heightened today because it generally was expected that he would make further revelations concerning the extraordinary deals which are alleged to have cost the stockholders of the New Haven fortunes.

When he left the stand yesterday after a day of questioning by Joseph W. Folk, counsel for the commission, Mr. Mellen had shown how the late J. Pierpont Morgan had dominated the New Haven's affairs and how millions of dollars had been spent in ignorant silence at Morgan's command. Officials of the commission and spectators listened to Mr. Mellen's dramatic story with unusual interest and at times with amazement. When Mr. Mellen had concluded his testimony for the day, however, he had barely touched upon some of the big features of his story, but these were expected to be brought out at today's hearing.

RELIGIOUS MEETING HELD IN OLD BIJOU THEATER

Three Hundred Men, Women and Children Attend Unusual Service Wednesday

The old Bijou theater rang Wednesday afternoon with hymns sung by the workers of the Baptist religious campaign, and the congregation which gathered from the street to the first of the downtown theater meetings.

Three hundred men, women and children, attracted by the unusual meeting there, gathered from the streets, and listened to Evangelist W. W. Ayer, of Oklahoma, delivered a fiery denunciation of the sins common to Atlanta and other cities, and a stirring appeal to forsake them for the paths of Christ.

Card playing, dancing and other amusements of the day were scored by the speaker, and the ministers who countenance them were denounced in no uncertain terms.

REPORTS ENCOURAGING.

From the meetings in the churches which have been held at night through the week encouraging reports were brought to the central meeting at the First Baptist church.

At East Atlanta church there have been seven additions to the church, at Gordon Street there have been six, at Western Heights ten professions of faith, and four reclamations; at Grant Park five additions, and a number of other reports to the same effect were made from other churches.

At Central Avenue Baptist church Tuesday night there was old-fashioned "shouting," and the meeting took on the aspect of a love feast between the members.

At First church a band of sixty personal workers pledged themselves to bring an equal number into the services, and, if possible, to bring them to Christ.

The meetings in the shops and factories continue, and have been marked by a great deal of interest among the audiences. With the inauguration of the theater meetings, a number of singers have been drawn from them to the theater, but their places have been filled by volunteers.

Dr. Dew, at the First Baptist church, spoke Wednesday morning in support of various Baptist doctrines, as opposed to those of other denominations. The subject of his sermon was the "Bible Mirrored."

In his sermon he denied that it was possible for one who had once been saved to Christ ever repudiate that salvation, and become a sinner again. As opposed to the doctrins of "Falling From Grace," preached by the Methodists, and other denominations, he declared that if the power of Jesus Christ should fail once a man had trusted himself to it, that it was altogether untrustworthy.

The services in all Baptist churches in the city will continue Wednesday night.

1. That the said act of 1912 is repugnant to article 3, section 7, paragraph 8, of the constitution, which provides that "no law or ordinance shall pass which refers to more than one subject-matter, or contains matter different from what is expressed in the title thereof"; because: in its title this act purports to amend only the paragraph of the constitution which provides that "there shall be in each militia district one justice of the peace," while in the act it is sought to change other parts of the constitution, i. e. article 6 section 2, paragraph 9, which defines the jurisdiction of the court of appeals as to writs of error; article 6, section 2, paragraph 5, which defines the jurisdiction of the supreme court as to writs of error; article 6, section 4, paragraph 5, which vests in the superior courts power to correct errors in inferior judicatories by writ of certiorari; article 6 section 4 paragraph 6 which confers on the superior and city courts power to grant new trials; article 6 section 9 paragraph 1. The last mentioned paragraph is referred to in the body of the act as follows: "Any court so established shall not be subject to the rules of uniformity laid down in paragraph 1 of section 9 of article 6 of the constitution of Georgia" while no reference either to this paragraph or to its subject-matter is made in the title of the act.

CORRECTION OF ERORS.

In the body of the act provision is made for "new trials and the correction of errors in and by said courts," and further provision is made "for the correction of errors by the superior court, or the court of appeals, or the supreme court, as the general assembly may from time to time in its discretion provide or authorize," while the title does not expressly refer to new trials, and that part of the title which refers to the correction of errors is in the following words: "the correction of errors in and by said courts, by the superior, or supreme court, or court of appeals."

Do these words of the title, as to correction of errors, include correction by the courts committing the errors, or do they refer only to correction by the superior court, or the supreme court, or the court of appeals?

Do the provisions as to correction of errors and other provisions of the act relate to more than one subject matter?

Does the word "ordinance," as used in article 3, section 7, paragraph 8, of the constitution, supra, refer to any other than an act amending the constitution?

ACT OF 1912.

2. Is the said act of 1912 repugnant to the provision of the constitution that "the amending or repealing act shall distinctly describe the law to be amended or repealed, as well as the alteration to be made?" Article 3, section 7, paragraph 17.

3. The said act of 1912 provides that "All persons voting at said election in favor of adopting the said proposed amendment to the constitution shall have written or printed on their ballots the words for ratification of amendment to article 6, section 7 of the constitution, authorizing the establishment of other courts in certain cities in lieu of justice courts." Have the people voting in this form voted for ratification of all the provisions of the act, or only for ratification of those provisions of the act which authorize the establishment of other courts in certain cities in lieu of justice courts?

GEORGIA AND HER POLITICS

FANNIN DEMOCRATS NAME NEW OFFICERS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BLUE RIDGE, Ga., May 20.—The Democrats of Fannin county met at the court house here Saturday in mass meeting and elected a new chairman, secretary and executive committee for the ensuing two years. J. F. Holden presided as temporary chairman and H. P. Mulkey as temporary secretary. Homer A. Legg was elected permanent chairman and A. S. Prince permanent secretary.

The following were elected as the executive committee for the different districts: Toccoa, W. B. Lovingood and D. M. Buchanan; Blue Ridge, Ed Bludworth, Wade Allen and J. P. Cole; Caldwell, M. B. Williamson and J. M. Hallum; Mobile, J. W. Dalton and L. W. Queen; Flint Hill, Pink Galloway and W. J. Mathews; Hot House, M. Harper and A. W. Dillard; Hemptown, H. P. Hyde and W. S. Mashburn; Fairplay, James N. Hyde and Jay Ware; Sheffield, D. A. Parker and D. M. Chastain; Monticello, J. T. Stephens and Obe Beaver; Stock Hill, John B. Rogers and Ed Johnson.

There was no opposition in any of the selections except over the chairmanship. The race for this position was between Homer Legg and Thomas R. Johnson. Legg was elected by a small majority. Complete harmony prevailed throughout the entire meeting.

HUGHES WANTS FEDERAL CENSOR MOVIE BOARD.

Moving picture film manufacturers throughout the United States are very much interested now in the bill introduced in congress by Congressman Dudley M. Hughes, of the Twelfth Georgia district, which, if enacted into law, will provide for a federal board to censor all moving picture films.

The bill was referred to the house committee on education, which recently held a public hearing on it. Representatives of many of the film companies opposed the bill, declaring that it would be injurious to the moving picture industry. They contended that the manufacturers were anxious to eliminate objectionable and improper pictures, as they drove away patrons and resulted in immense financial loss each year.

The Rev. Dr. William S. Chase, rector of Christ church, Brooklyn, and others appeared in support of the bill. Dr. Chase estimated that 900,000 children attend moving picture shows in the United States each week.

"If one child is ruined by the exhibition of an immoral picture," he argued, "it is a matter of concern for this government, and I am glad that the committee has taken up this question of censorship."

BEN T. BANKS NAMED FORSYTH ALDERMAN.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

FORSYTH, Ga., May 20.—In an election held here yesterday to fill the unexpired term of Alderman George R. Thweatt, who died recently, Ben T. Banks was chosen over A. L. Abernathy by a majority of 100 votes.

The newly elected alderman, who only holds until January 1, 1915, is a prominent and successful young business man and for several years has operated a cotton warehouse here under the firm name of Alexander & Banks. He was at one time, also, in the grocery business here and has farming interests in the county.

hardly be considered a delicacy. However, he said at about that time he was hardly well enough to eat anything.

JEFFERS TO MELLEN.

Colonel Roosevelt reverted to affairs in this country long enough to speak of the testimony in Washington yesterday of Charles S. Mellen, former president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad. He said when Mr. Mellen went to him to discuss the merging of the New Haven with the Boston and Maine, he told him he would have no objection provided the merger came within the law. He said he sent Mr. Mellen to Louis D. Brandeis, one of the interstate commerce commission for information on that point.

"But I told Mr. Mellen that if the merger could be accomplished and the law should be violated, he mustn't come back."

The colonel declared he felt as well as ever.

He said the return to a northern climate has caused him to have chills but they were not serious and that he was feeling entirely fit.

METHODISTS DISCUSS REPORT ON EPISCOPACY

Retirement of Bishop Wilson One of Recommendations Made by Committee

(By Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 20.—Upon reassembling today the pending question before the conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, was the discussion of the report of the committee on episcopacy. This matter was under consideration when the conference adjourned yesterday.

Limitation of the tenure of office of presiding elders, recommendations for the retirement of Bishop A. W. Wilson, of Baltimore, the senior bishop of the church, on account of age, and that leave of absence for a year be granted Bishop H. C. Morrison, because of ill health, were contained in a report of the committee on episcopacy.

BISHOP HENDRIX PRESIDES.

After the opening devotions conducted by Rev. J. J. Gamer, one of the church publishing agents, Bishop Wilson named E. R. Hendrix as presiding officer for the day.

It was announced that the committee on appeals has remanded the case of Rev. John O. Knott, former pastor at Warrenton, Va., to the Baltimore conference, by which he had been convicted on the charge of immorality. The committee held that Mr. Knott had not been given a fair and impartial trial. Rev. James Cannon, Jr., appeared as attorney for Knott.

An incident of the day was the presentation by Bishop Waterhouse, of Los Angeles, of a gavel and gavel plate of orange wood and ivory from Arizona, as a token from western Methodists.

An invitation to hold the next general conference in 1918 at Richmond, Va., also was read to the conference.

The commission of nine to investigate all charters of church boards and connectional bodies and take out new charters, if necessary, in any state, to properly protect the church's interests, was provided for in a report by the special committee named last week, which was adopted. The commission is composed of Bishop J. H. McCoy, W. F. McMurray, F. M. Boyles, T. D. Ellis, Judge E. C. Grier, W. W. Hughes, J. A. McCullough, E. C. Reeves and W. H. Thomas.

Southern Presbyterians Gather in Kansas City

(By Associated Press.)

KANSAS CITY, May 20.—The vanguard of the Presbyterian forces that meet in Kansas City tomorrow for the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States (the Southern Presbyterian), reached the city today.

The election of a moderator will be held tomorrow and an effort will be made to elect a layman to the office. Only three times has this been done. The question of uniting with the United Presbyterian church will be taken up.

Presbyterians to Meet In Oklahoma Thursday

(By Associated Press.)

WAGONER, Okla., May 20.—Delegates are arriving here today from all sections of the United States to attend the eighty-fourth general assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian church, which will convene tomorrow and remain in session until May 27.

Three hundred delegates are expected to be in attendance.

Rev. J. L. Goodnight, stated clerk of the assembly, has been in Wagoner several days making arrangements for the sessions of the assembly.

Reformed Presbyterian Synod at Cincinnati

(By Associated Press.)

CINCINNATI, Ohio, May 20.—Receptions to ministers and delegates to the annual general synod of the Reformed Presbyterian church opened the time of the committee having that matter in charge today.

The synod will open this evening when Dr. William Railey, of Philadelphia, will make the opening address. It will continue until Monday and will discuss reports of committees.

Episcopalians Open Convention at Richmond

RICHMOND, Va., May 20.—The diocesan convention of the Episcopal church of the diocese of Virginia was opened in St. James church here this morning. A coadjutor for Bishop Gibson is to be elected.

SUM OF $10,000 TO BE GIVEN TO FARMERS

Governor Slaton Wednesday morning received a letter from Secretary of Agriculture Houston informing him that $10,000 comprising Georgia's share of the $460,000 appropriation carried in the recently enacted agricultural extension bill, was now available.

Governor Slaton will write Secretary Houston accepting for Georgia and will designate the state agricultural college at Athens as the institution to administer the fund. This money must be applied to practical field demonstration and home economic work. It must be expended among the farmers and not at the college.

HOW THIN PEOPLE CAN PUT ON FLESH

A New Discovery

Thin men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you hardly get enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of thin folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your digestive and assimilative, are sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the foolish foods and funny saw-dust diets. Omit the flesh cereal rub-ons. Cut out everything but the meals you are eating now and eat with every one of those a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Five to eight good solid pounds of "stay there" fat should be the net result. Sargol charges your weak, stagnant blood with millions of fresh new red blood corpuscles—gives it the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material you eat to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food and prepares it for the blood in easily assimilated form. Thin people gain all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol, and the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a scientific combination of six of the best flesh-producing elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a package, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and Jacobs' Pharmacy and all other druggists in Atlanta and vicinity sell them subject to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back. METHODISTS DISCUSS REPORT ON EPISCOPACY

His "Creditors" Drive Dalton Negro to Beg For Refuge in Jail

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALTON, Ga., May 20.—Pursued (in his imagination) by a mob of his creditors who were clamoring for his life, Gren Spearman, a negro, yesterday rushed up to the county jail andasked Jailer Duckworth to lock him up.

The jailer tried to quiet him, but, finding it impossible and fearing he might become violent, he granted the unusual request. Spearman is now in jail in earnest, for his wife had a lunacy warrant issued, and his sanity will be tested in ordinary's court.

Spearman is the negro who, several months ago, attempted suicide by jumping into a well, and came near succeeding before he was finally hauled out.

NORTH GEORGIA PLANNING BIG GOOD ROADS MEETING

Celebration in Honor of Completion of Dalton-Chattanooga Highway

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALTON, Ga., May 20.—North Georgia's biggest good roads meeting will be held Tuesday, June 16, at Cherokee Springs, near the line between Whitfield and Catoosa counties, this date having been fixed yesterday by those promoting the meeting.

By that time the important stretch of road around the bend of the mountain, the only piece of bad roadway between here and Chattanooga, will be finished, and the good road will be brought on to the Whitfield county line, to join the convict pike leading through this county. The board of county commissioners of Catoosa has already appropriated money to take care of the expense of building this four-mile strip.

The completion of the last link in the Dalton-Chattanooga highway will mark the celebration at Cherokee Springs, at which plans for other good roads will be launched. Governor John M. Slaton and representatives from the state chamber of commerce, Dalton, Chattooga and Catoosa county, will be among the speakers. At noon a big picnic dinner will be served and an attendance of fully 1,000 is anticipated.

BAUKNIGHT FURNITURE CO. OPENS NEW STORE TODAY

Large Crowds Attend Formal Opening at Whitehall Street and Trinity Avenue

Crowds invaded the Bauknight Furniture company, corner of Whitehall street and Trinity avenue, at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon when the doors of the new store were formally opened to the public.

The store has been completely remodeled and decorated and is one of the finest of the new fronts that have appeared on the south side since Whitehall street was graded.

The formal opening lasts from 2:30 o'clock until 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The doors will again be opened to the public from 7:30 until 10 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Music will be furnished by the Fifth regiment band. Attractive souvenirs in the form of celluloid mirrors will be given thel adies.

POLICEMEN HOLD ANNUAL PICNIC AT CEDARTOWN

As many of Atlanta's three hundred policemen as could be spared from actual duty went to Cedartown on two special trains Wednesday morning with hundreds of friends for the annual picnic.

According to all reports the picnic has exceeded expectations, and is even a greater success than usual. Dancing, many field events and "stunts," followed by plenty of lunch and other refreshments were among the features of the day.

The crowds will return on trains leaving Cedartown at 6:30 and 7 o'clock in the evening.

DEFEAT EFFORT TO NAME DATE FOR TOLLS VOTE

WASHINGTON, May 20.—An attempt by Senator Kern, Democratic leader, to get unanimous consent for a vote May 27 on the Panama tolls repeal bill was defeated today when Senator McCumber objected. "The time has not yet come to fix a date for voting," the North Dakota senator insisted.

INDICTMENTS WILL BE CONSIDERED BY JURY

Bills Growing Out of Rehearing of Frank Case Will Be Discussed Friday

Bills of indictment growing out of the hearing on the extraordinary motion in behalf of Leo M. Frank for a new trial will be considered by the Fulton grand jury at its session beginning Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

This became known on good authority Wednesday following adjournment by the grand jury until that day and hour. Assistant Solicitor E. A. Stephens, who is to have charge of the matters before the grand jury, is engaged now in preparing a number of bills against individuals involved by developments in the extraordinary motion hearing. It is expected that about a dozen of these bills will be considered Friday. No witnesses have been subpaned yet.

Twenty-three true bills in routine cases were returned Wednesday by the grand jury. These included three indictments, for assault with intent to murder, carrying concealed weapons, and vagrancy against William Briggs, who on April 5 stabbed and wounded Policeman W. A. Garrett while the officer had him under arrest.

CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE FILE EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

Many Were in Ignorance of Law Which Requires Statement of Campaign Costs

Many of the candidates at the recent county primary were in ignorance of the law, which makes them liable for a misdemeanor on failure to return a sworn statement of campaign expenses within ten days after the primary.

As a result several of the candidates have filed expense bills since the expiration of the time limit.

Among them are L. O. Wright, candidate for sheriff, who spent $392 on his race; T. J. Hightower, Jr., candidate for the county commission, who says he spent $925.79; George B. Brindlay, whose unsuccessful race for the same position cost only $340.60; W. S. Wier, whose candidacy for the county commission cost only $194.30; Oscar Mills, successful candidate, whose race cost $1,585.05, and W. F. Wesley, candidate for tax receiver, who spent $1,-142.50 on his race.

NURSES OF GEORGIA IN SESSION AT WINECOFF

200 Graduate Nurses of State Assn. Discuss Important Topics

The eighth annual convention of the Georgia State association of Graduate Nurses opened Wednesday morning at the Winecoff hotel. The session will continue through Thursday.

About 200 nurses from all parts of the state are in the city for the convention, and an interesting program will be carried out.

The convention was opened at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning by Rev. W. W. Memminger, and addresses were delivered by Miss Frances Patton, president of the Atlanta Registered Nurses association, and Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin of the City Federation of Clubs.

CHAMBER HOUSE OF REPS. IN FIRST ANNUAL MEET

The house of representatives of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, composed of the executive committeemen heads and board of directors, held its first annual meeting in the new building at Auburn avenue and North Pryor street Wednesday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock and discussed plans for the "house warming" and reception that will mark the formal opening May 30.

Plans for an entertainment in honor of Vice President Thomas R. Marshall were also discussed.

This Lung Remedy Known Fifteen Years

Persons suffering from, or threatened with lung trouble, should investigate Eckman's Alterative. What it has done for others, it may do for you. Read this:—

145 E. 122nd St., New York.

"Gentlemen:—December, 1902, I took a sudden cold, which developed into Pneumonia. I had all he possibly could for me, but could not clear my lungs. One day I saw a testimonial telling of the good results someone had from taking Eckman's Alterative for a trouble of the lungs. I began taking it and soon felt good results. My lungs began to gain strength, and was soon well enough to take up my work again. I am a missionary worker for the New York Home for Homeless and Friendless Boys." (Abbreviated).

(Affidavit) ERNEST P. WILCOX

Eckman's Alterative is most efficacious in bronchial catarrh and severe throat and lung affections and upbuilding the system. Contains no harmful or habit-forming drugs. Accept no substitute. MRS. T. J. SIMMONS DIES IN HOSPITAL AT BALTIMORE

South Loses One of Its Most Distinguished and Lovable Women

Mrs. Lessie Muse Simmons, wife of Dr. T. J. Simmons, associate president of Brenau college, Gainesville, died Tuesday night in a hospital in Baltimore. The news will occasion sorrow to hundreds of friends who have known and loved Mrs. Simmons during the years of her successful career as a musician and teacher.

Few women have exercised a broader or more beneficent influence than Mrs. Simmons, and there are hundreds of musicians and teachers who owe their inspiration and success to the admirable training given by her.

She came naturally by her brilliant gifts, having inherited them from prominent forebears. Her great-grandfather on the maternal side was Lord Robert Wynne, of Wales, a member of the house of lords and a man of much ability and brilliance. Her paternal great-grandfather was the son of Richard Southgate, bishop of London, a fellow student with John Wesley, and an assistant in his rescue work around Oxford.

Her father was James Southgate, a member of a distinguished Virginia family, and her mother was Delia Wynne Southgate, one of the most intellectual women of North Carolina.

HAD BROAD EDUCATION.

Mrs. Simmons was born in Louisburg, N. C., where her parents were then engaged in educational work at the head of the Louisburg Female college. From her earliest childhood she showed unusual gifts of mind, and in her favorite work—music—she made remarkable progress. No spains were spared in her education, and she studied in Virginia, New York and Europe, and even after she became a teacher she continued her studies. E. Delle Sedie, one of the most noted of modern teachers, considered her one of his ablest pupils and a teacher of great power.

She attained an enviable reputation for herself as a musician, artist, lecturer and teacher, and she was much admired and loved wherever she went. Her wisdom and womanly ways gaining many friends for her.

As a tribute of sorrow all school activities at Brenau will be suspended until after the funeral, and memorial exercises will be held in the chapel at the same hour of the funeral.

The funeral will be held Friday afternoon in Durham, N. C.

LODGER ON BOWERY IS FOUND TO BE WEALTHY

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 20.—Surgeons at Bellevue hospital while examining Carl Schmidt, who was taken there from a Bowery lodging house yesterday, discovered several packages in his tattered clothes containing a total of $3,380 and several bank books showing that he had $10,000 more on deposit. Schmidt is seventy-eight years old and had occupied a 15-cent a day room in the lodging house for fourteen years.

MAY PROSECUTE BURNS BEFORE THE RECORDER

Charge of Operating Without License May Be Made Against Detective

Detective W. J. Burns and the men associated with him in his recent investigation of the Mary Phagan murder case, will be prosecuted in the recorder's court of Atlanta for operating without a license, if in the opinion of the city attorney htey have violated the ordinance relating to detective agency licenses.

This was announced Wednesday morning by members of the committee of the police board appointed Tuesday night to find out the names of all the men who worked with Burns in the Phagan investigation without the approval of Police Chief Beavers.

The committee, which consists of Commissioners King and Vernoy and Councilman Colcord, will consult with City Attorney Mayson at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. If his opinion rendered to them is that failure by Burns to have himself or any of his operatives approved by the police chief constituted violation of the ordinance in question, then the committee will at once undertake to find out the names of all of Burns' operatives who worked in the case without the chief's approval.

The ordinance provides that any agency or any operative doing detective work in Atlanta without a license shall be subject to a $200 fine or thirty days' imprisonment or both, for each day's work.

WOMEN WANT ANOTHER HEARING ON SUFFRAGE

Delegation to Appeal for Another Discussion on Equal Franchise Question

WASHINGTON, May 20.—A suffrage delegation, representing the National Council of Women, planned to call on Chairman Henry of the house rules committee today to demand another hearing on the woman suffrage question.

The delegation endeavored to see Chairman Henry yesterday but failed to locate him. In the delegation were Mrs. Kent, Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Hayes, wives of representatives from California; Miss Louise Hardy, of Colorado; Mrs. Lucy Ewing; Mrs. Charles B. Burnside, of Chicago, and Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs.

A delegation representing the Just Government league of Maryland called on Chairman Henry on Monday when he informed them that since the Democratic caucus had not included the suffrage issue in the sessions program the committee could take no action.

DOUMERGUE LIKELY TO RESIGN FRENCH CABINET

PARIS, May 20.—It is reported that Gaston Doumergue intends to resign from the premiership before the opening of the session of the French parliament. It is understood he believes the ministry's task is accomplished and that the new situation calls for new men. The recent elections resulted in a considerable gain for the Socialists. The entire political situation turns on the three years military service which the Socialists oppose.

The cabinet could not easily abandon its attitude against this measure and thus it would be difficult for Premier Doumergue to carry on his administration if the Socialists became hostile.

WANT W. P. G. HARDING TO GOVERN REGIONAL BOARD

Senator and Representative of Alabama Make Suggestion to President Wilson

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Senator Bankhead and Representative Underwood, of Alabama, suggested to President Wilson today that he make W. P. G. Harding, of Birmingham, governor of the federal reserve board. Mr. Harding has been designated as a member of the board, but since Richard Olney, of Boston, declined the governorship the president has been carefully considering available men for the important place.

Representative Underwood said after leaving the White House that the president gave no definite reply, and that he had not yet determined upon the full membership of the board.

Mother and Son Are Burned to Death In Three-Story Building

(By Associated Press.)

ST. LOUIS, May 20.—Two persons are dead, a third is dying and several others are nursing severe burns as the result of a fire which early today destroyed a three-story frame building occupied by three families. The dead are:

Mrs. Rebecca Sults, twenty-four years old, and her three-year-old son, a daughter, four years old, is in a critical condition.

METHODISTS TO INSIST ON MAKING "LEGAL" TRANSFER

Adopt Amendment to Proposal to Turn Vanderbilt Back to Conferences

(By Associated Press.)

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 20.—A supplemental report of the majority report of the committee of fifteen in the Vanderbilt university case presented to the Methodist-Episcopal church, south, today was unanimously adopted by that body.

The vote first came up on the substitution of the minority report for that of the majority resulted in a yeas, 114; noes, 176.

The majority report then was adopted by a unanimous vote.

The majority report provided for the co-operation of the general board of education with the board of trust until the commission, created by the conference, shall have made a "complete transfer" of the church's right of control back to the patronizing conferences.

The minority report favors the same action but insists the transfer shall be a legal one and therefore insisted upon the word "legally" being inserted. The majority report objected to this, claiming that its report clearly indicated a legal transfer without the unnecessary use of the word "legal."

OWER CO. TO ANSWER CHARGE OF CONTEMPT

The Georgia Railway and Power com- ny must answer a charge of con- pt of court before Judge John T. ompkins on the petition of Mrs. M. T. ott, who charges that the company olated the court's injunction by blast- g near her house.

Mrs. Elliott's home, in West Atlanta, the Mayson and Turner's road, is a rock quarry owned by the power mpany. Some time ago she obtained a mporary injunction restraining the eration from blasting in the quarry, t the ground that the lives of the sidents were endangered.

This order has been violated, she as- rts, and she asks that the power com- ny be punished. Attorneys Howell & Whitman represent Mrs. El- ott.

Breaks Georgia Record

VICE PRESIDENT MARSHALL TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

Will Arrive in Atlanta With Mrs. Marshall on Tuesday to Attend College Exercises

GEO. E. BANKSTON.

This West Point young man won first prize in the 100-yard dash, time, 9 4-5 seconds, breaking all state records by 3-5 of a second. He won second place in the 220-yards dash, time, 26 1-4 seconds. He was second in the hurdle race, 16 1-4 seconds. He was second in running broad jump, 17 feet 11 inches.

In the literary contest he won first prize in the ready writer's essay contest. In all he scored 12 points more than other students in the Fourth Congressional High school contest held at Manchester.

George Bankston is a relative of Colonel W. Trox Bankston, editor of the News, at West Point.

Atlanta will entertain a vice president of the United States for the first time since the early nineties and Adlai Stevenson, vice president under Cleveland, when Thomas R. Marshall arrives in the city next Tuesday.

The vice president will be accompanied by Mrs. Marshall and will be lavishly entertained from the time his train reaches here at noon Tuesday until he leaves the city at 2:45 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

The features of his visit will be an address at the Atlanta theater Tuesday night and a reception open to the public at the Piedmont hotel Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Marshall and his wife will be met at the Terminal station by a reception committee and escorted to the Piedmont hotel. Senator Hoke Smith and Mrs. Smith are expected on the same train.

From the Piedmont the visiting party will go to the Piedmont Driving club, where Mr. Marshall will be the guest of honor at a luncheon tendered by the members of the chamber of commerce, and Mrs. Marshall the guest of Mrs. Frank Inman and other Atlanta society leaders. The luncheons are set for 1:30 o'clock.

Tuesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will take an automobile ride to points of interest around the city, returning to the Piedmont at 5:30 for a reception given to the general public by the Young Men's Democratic league of Atlanta. The various state house officials will attend in a body.

At 8 o'clock Tuesday night Mr. Marshall will deliver an address at the Atlanta theater. The occasion is the quarto-centennial celebration of the founding of Agnes Scott college. The student body and faculty of the college, in cap and gown, will occupy the lower floor of the theater. The gallery is open to the public, with admission by card. The ladies of the official party will occupy the boxes.

Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will attend the commencement exercises of Agnes Scott college at Decatur from 10 to 12 o'clock. An informal luncheon will be tendered them by the board of trustees of the college at the Piedmont at 1 o'clock and an escort will accompany them to the station when the train leaves at 2:45.

CONVICTS ESCAPE FROM FULTON COUNTY CAMPS

Three Negroes Serving Short Terms Pry Open Bars in Hospital and Get Away

Three convicts, serving short terms, escaped from the Fulton county convict camps during Wednesday morning.

All three of the men are negroes. Two of them, Charles Ellis, with a two years' term, and Ernest Wright, with twenty-four months' term, between midnight and 3 a. m. Wednesday, pried open the bars of one of the windows in the hospital at the Bellwood camp, where they were confined, and escaped.

The third man, Henry Johnson, ran away from the Miner camp at about 1:30 o'clock a. m. Wednesday just after he had arisen to assist in the preparation of breakfast for the men.

Johnson was a misdemeanor convict and the guards did not attempt to shoot him as he disappeared in the darkness.

They chased him several miles, but he is still at large.

Johnson was one of the trusties at the camp and his escape was made easier, guards say, by the fact that he was wearing a suit of gray instead of the usual stripes.

Atlanta Policemen Spend Joyous Day In Annual Picnic

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CEDARTOWN, Ga., May 20.—Cedartown was captured early this morning by the Atlanta police picnickers. Soon after 9 o'clock the first train rolled into the city over the Seaboard Air Line and in a few minutes many were on their way to the picnic grounds, where dinner was served. Not long after the arrival of the first train came the second, which greatly augmented the crowd of people coming for a day of rest from their labors.

From the looks of the people they saw a different kind of a town from what they expected. Asphalt streets and White Way lights greeted them, the same as if they were in their home city.

This is one of the largest picnic crowds that has ever come to this city.

Mayor S. P. Hollaway some time ago gave the invitation for them to come here and promised them good treatment.

THIEF TAKES CHICKENS, BUT LEAVES OLD HENS

A chicken thief with epicurean tastes invaded the back yard of Mrs. F. C. Weatherspoon's residence, 16 Holderness street, Tuesday night, and carried off sixty frying-size chickens. Old hens, pullets and roosters were left unmolested; only the fat frying-size chicks were taken.

J. W. Collins, of Fort McPherson, reported to the police the loss of seven chickens of indiscriminate size Tuesday night. The police are looking for both robbers.

TURNER LOSES 7 VOTES AND HIGHTOWER GAINS 2

Such Is Result of Re-Count From First Through the Seventh Ward

The recount of ballots for Charles G. Turner and T. J. Hightower, Jr., candidates for county commissioner, had progressed from the First through the Seventh ward when the sub-committee adjourned for lunch Wednesday.

The election managers' returns from these seven wards gave Mr. Turner a total of 2,663 votes. The recount gives him a total of 2,656 votes.

The election managers' returns from these seven wards gave Mr. Hightower a total of 2,760 votes. The recount gives him a total of 2,762 votes.

Thus Mr. Turner loses seven votes by the recount, while Mr. Hightower gains two votes.

The subcommittee will reconvene Wednesday afternoon and proceed with the recount. After the ballots of all the city wards have been counted, the subcommittee will take up the ballots of the country precincts.

Mr. Turner has filed several protests. One is a protest of votes of the entire Second ward, which went against him, because ballots of two different colors were used. The rules of the county executive committee expressly stipulate that the ballots shall be of uniform color ,texture, etc.

It probably will be Thursday night before the recount is finished.

Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company

ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

A Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. Sale of Embroideries

And, we might add, it will be all that the name implies.

However, the figures, the prices below, speak for themselves. You will know the intrinsic value of the embroideries, their genuine worth when you see the prices they bore in the Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Co. stocks. The importance and economy of buying now is emphasized by their new prices.

The remarkable part of it all is that such a sale should be launched right here in May time ---for of such embroideries are the prettiest summer dresses made.

The Russian tunic dress demands them, the lacy embroidery flounce dress, the pannier dress all call for just such flouncings and allovers as we are now offering at a small fraction of their worth---but here, let's to the fine details, a woman will know the uses of such embroideries---

$1.98 For $3.50 to $7.50 a Yard Flouncings For $3.00 to $5.00 a Yard Allovers

The flouncings are 27 inches by 45 inches wide.

They are crepes, voiles, batistes and neiges; all white, white with colored dots and sprays and flowers, and in light, summery colors.

Blind patterns, eyelet and French patterns and lacy combinations—we might say these are their specifications—an appreciation of their beauty remains for your eyes.

Exquisite things, fairy-like patterns—the great bulk were $5.00 and $6.00 a yard.

The allovers are 45-inch crepes, white, and white with colored embroidery over them—rich colors suggesting the Orient and pure, soft colors that are the charm of the season.

$10.00 For Embroidery Dress Patterns That Were $16.50 to $22.00 Each

Crepes, voiles and nets; yes, the nets of this instant's favor; white and cream embroidered in colors and all white. Here is one of white crepe with a delicate marigold dot embedded all over it, and a little border of marigold and green; another with pink, another with blue—a smart woman will be planning a dress with panniers and ruffles in an instant—for there is material enough, and the cost will be $10 instead of $16.50 to $22.

Specials in the Bazaar

Large mahogany Serving Tray with handles to match frame. Many pretty designs of cretonne under the glass bottoms. Lined underneath with felt. A regular $5.00 Tray at $2.50

Oval Serving Trays, 17 inches long, mahogany rim with cretonne bottom, lined with felt. Regular $2.50 value at..... $1.38

Mahogany Candlesticks, for dresser or mantelpiece; a really wonder value at, the pair $1.00

Novelties in Underwear

Of interest to all women who seek the new and dainty, and particularly to the young women about to graduate—chiffon and crepe de chine accordion plaited princess slips with camisole tops—neat and charming, detachable shoulder straps, open under the arm—$8.50 and $12.50.

New camisole corset covers—of all-over nets, crepes de chine and mulls, lace trimmed—89c to $5.00.

Net lace trimmed petticoats that set a new mark of daintiness, of crepe de chine at $3.50 and upwards, and of sheer aero cloth and batistes and nainsooks, at $2.98 and upwards.

The Graduation Dress of Today and Mother's Time---

There is something strikingly similiar between these new graduation day dresses that we have just received and those that the mothers of today's sweet graduates wore years ago.

The same dainty, immaculate organdies and mulls and the many ruffles and the wide crushed girdles. The styles are different, vastly different, but there is a wistful suggestion of that June day now long gone.

We are told they are the prettiest of the season.

They are priced at $15.00 to $25.00.

Mothers will like them.

Honoring Good Citizenship.

Subscriptions to the fund for presenting Forrest Adair with a testimonial of Atlanta's appreciation of his splendid work for the Shrine convention have closed with the total of more than twenty-five hundred dollars. That is a tribute to the community's spirit as well as to the citizen it honors. It shows how Atlantians value patriotic service, and how generously mindful they are of duty well done.

This recognition is the more noteworthy because of its broadly popular character. The amount of individual subscriptions was limited to ten dollars, and there were hundreds of five dollars and a dollar each. The public response was instant and continued up to the hour the lists were closed. The fund could as easily have been doubled, had its promoters seen fit to extend the invitation beyond Monday afternoon. It is not so much the sum subscribed, generous though it is, as the large number of contributors, that bespeaks the city's appreciation of what Mr. Adair has done.

This fund will be used in purchasing an appropriate gift which Mr. Adair can keep always as a token of his fellow Atlantians' esteem. It is such men as he and such service as his that have made this city progressive and renowned. And it is the spirit embodied in this testimonal fund—the spirit of the great rank and file of our people—that makes Atlanta worthy of the highest and most unselfish devotion of its citizens. This community has no place for laggards or whiners or miserly-minded men, but for the builder, the optimist, the man who leads or faithfully serves in efforts for the general good, its rewards are ever ready and its enthusiasm without limit.

Here's hoping the A. B. C. mediation will proceed on down the alphabet.

Macon's Jubilee Week.

As hostess this week to twenty thousand or more visitors from every quarter of the State, Macon is surpassing her own record for brilliant and bounteous hospitality. A conjunction of important events, among them being the first annual Georgia Jubilee, a good roads rally and the meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, has proved both a test and inspiration to the Central City's public spirit. The thoroughness and enthusiasm with which she is measuring up to the extraordinary demands of the occasion are a matter of pride to all Georgia.

The city has provided sparkling entertainment as well as substantial comfort for its thousands of guests. Having begun Tuesday, a round of merry-making will continue through Thursday evening. There will be industrial and military parades, historic pageants, featuring the attack on old Fort Hawkins and its stalwart defense, flower festivals by day and dances at night. The entire business district, says our correspondent, has been decorated with rich colors and electric illuminations; and the community has given itself over to three days of jollity and celebration.

Underlying the merriment, is the serious and constructive purpose of the Georgia Jubilee, which is designed to emphasize the State's prosperity and to point the way for future progress. The good roads rally, conducted under the auspices of the Georgia Chamber of Commerce, will accomplish much for the cause of better highways and, it is expected, will lead to definite and important enterprises.

Macon is always to be counted upon in any effort for the State's upbuilding. Her people are forward-looking. Her business leaders are broad-minded and alert. They are to be congratulated upon the generous part they are playing in Georgia's affairs, and particularly upon their present success in conducting the Jubilee.

The Georgia Jubilee edition of the Macon News of May the sixteenth, is an admirable piece of journalism. It reflects the prosperity of the State, the vigor of its home city, and an extraordinary amount of business and editorial talent in those who produced it. Special achievements spring from uniform excellence; steady-going merit makes possible unusual success. The News triumphed in its Jubilee edition largely because it is so worthy a paper the year around.

A quick way to get through a crowd is to go around it.

Atlanta a Convention Center.

Atlanta has won the rare distinction of being second among all the cities of the United States in the number of conventions it is to entertain during the next ninety days. In that period it will be the center of seventeen important gatherings. Indianapolis alone exceeds this record, and the Indiana city will have only one more convention than its Georgia rival. For the same three months, Atlantic City is credited with sixteen conventions, Chicago with fifteen, Boston and New York with thirteen each, Minneapolis with twelve, Detroit with ten and Baltimore with six. These figures are taken from Russell's Convention Dates, conceded to be the highest authority in its field of publications.

Atlanta's resources as the meeting point for business, education and fraternal associations are becoming more and more widely known. It has always possessed the natural advantages of a convention center. Its bland and healthful climate makes it peculiarly inviting to visitors the year around. Its numerous railway connections make it easily accessible from every quarter of the South and the nation. To these, have been added in recent years one of the greatest auditoriums in America, hotel facilities of unusual range and excellence, and generous provision for amusement and recreation.

It only remained to give due emphasis and publicity to those many advantages, and that task is now being admirably performed by the Atlanta Convention Bureau established a few seasons ago by the Chamber of Commerce. The seventeen conventions that are to be held here during the next ninety days and the numerous others that will follow in the course of the year were secured as a direct result of the Bureau's activity.

Atlanta is abundantly able to care for the largest conventions, as its splendid record in entertaining the Shriners attests. Its fame in this respect will steadily increase and the results for its business and civic welfare grow continually more pronounced.

The Mexican Land Problem.

Fairminded students of Mexico all agree that the underlying cause of the country's trouble is a feudal land holding system, which makes a small group of men enormously rich and leaves the mass of the people miserably poor and benighted.

Not until this condition is changed, not until the average Mexican has a fair chance to possess and cultivate a little piece of land all his own, can there be hope for anything like permanent peace and orderly government.

The present revolution, is directed against Huerta, the dictator who stole into power through treachery and assassination; but he is merely the figurehead in the conflict, merely the representative of a system of economic slavery and oppression. It is against the system itself that Villa and Carranza in the north and Zapata in the south are fighting.

Their warfare may be interwoven with selfish ambition, but its vital element, the element that rallies thousands of Mexicans to its standard, is its challenge to the unjust, tyrannous system of land holding.

The United States recognizes that this problem must be settled before its neighboring republic can have peace and government responsible. Accordingly, our representatives at the mediation conference which assembles today at Niagara Falls, will insist that any program which may be suggested take into account this all important question.

In the year 1354 Boccaccio prusented to his friend Petrarch a copy of St. Augustine's "Commentary on the Psalms." The poet thereupon sent to the author of the "Decameron" a letter written in Latin —part of which may be translated thus:

> You have overwhelmed me with joy by a present magnificent and rare. Henceforth I shall swim more surely on the sea of David. Into the midst of this troubled sea you have sent me a very sturdy ship and a clever pilot—Saint Augustine, whose genius is divine. I have received it with joy and astonishment, and have said to myself: "Laziness, get thee behind me; if ever a moment of leisure remain to me, this gift shall fill it. Here is an illustrious guest that must receive the best fare, and will not let me sleep a wink o' nights. In vain will ye pale and close, O eyes of mine; ye must watch and sleep not; in vain shall ye think of rest, for we must labor."

THE PERVERSE JINGO

BY SAVOYARD

The attitude of the jingoes in congress toward the Wilson administration is amusing in its ridiculosity and aggravating in its rancor. For months they *denounced the administration for its refusal to recog*nize Huerta, the Czolgocz. They lent moral support to that assassin, and he was fool enough to believe that they spoke for the great American people, and thus he was encouraged to act the bully. Our nation, transcendently powerful, and Mexico, miserably weak, the administration, with admirable patience, ignored the capers and shines of the de facto "government" down there.

But a time came when forbearance ceased to be a virtue. The bloody usurper went a step too far, and the administration resolved to let the old scoundrel know where he is at. The fleet was despatched to Mexican waters to make a demonstration and to force Huerta into good behavior. Then certain jingoes in congress—William Alden Smith, a senator from Michigan, and the Hon. Mondell, a representative, two fiery and untamed patriots in the larynx, discovered that the administration was as wrong in its rigor as it had been in its indulgence. They even strove to drop into sarcasm about it.

• • •

The great Patrick Henry once made a speech in which he delivered himself of his grand and patriotic declamation, "Give me liberty or give me death!" When I was a youth all us boys in Barren county, Kentucky, loved to declaim that Friday afternoons, when juvenile eloquence, written and spoken, was on tap at the country school house, and old Uncle Ford, our reverend old teacher, was good enough to say that some of the boys sometimes delivered "Give me liberty or give me death" capitally.

Henry's speech had a great run during the revolutionary period, when Washington, with his sword, and Jefferson, with his pen, and Henry himself, with his tongue, were fashioning our liberties; and a rather good job they made of it, too. Recruits for the patriot armies wore caps on which were sewed the motto, "Give me liberty or give me death." One young chap got cold feet and remonstrated with his sweetheart, who was sewing the motto on his cap, just as it was on all the others. She insisted, but he continued to protest.

"Well, what shall I sew on your cap?" she demanded, with scarlet indignation.

"You just put 'Give me liberty or damned badly crippled'—that's as far as I'll go," he answered, and stuck to it.

And that is as far as the jingoes in congress who are opposed to Wilson seem to be willing to agree to go.

• • •

Now, our jingoes in congress don't care a rap about Panama tolls; they care nothing about the British lion; they care naught about the Hay-Pauncefote treaty; they care nothing about ship subsidy. They are again Wilson. That's all. They cry out against England because the Irish vote hates England, though in a few weeks England will have granted Ireland home rule. Germany is as much dissatisfied with free tolls on our coastwise shipping as England; but never a whimper about Germany from an American jingo! Not he. He is willing to be crippled, but not killed, in the cause of liberty.

Washington, our first president, had two sets of jingoes on his hands—one strove to force him into war with England, and the other sought to engage our then weak republic in a war with France. The latter prevailed when John Adams succeeded Washington as president and we were at actual, though not declared, war with France.

• • •

It was during the war that grim old Tom Truxton, in the American ship Constellation, thirty-eight guns, fought and captured in the same action two French men-of-war, l'Vengence, thirty-eight guns, and Cayenne, twenty-eight guns. It was one of the most glorious exploits ever performed by American craft, and Truxton was made commodore, then the highest rank in the navy, for it. General Jackson named his favorite race horse Truxton, and he was as fortunate on the turf as the heroic old sailor had been on the sea.

War would have been declared as well as fought, but about that time Napoleon Bonaparte got back from Egypt, seized the government of France, and made peace with us. Not long afterward he sold us Louisiana, not that he wanted to part with that colony, not that he needed the money we paid him for it, but to keep it from falling into the hands of England. But for that purchase by Mr. Jefferson the English flag would be over New Orleans and St. Louis this blessed moment.

• • •

The jingoes harried Jefferson and Madison. They denounced Lincoln for surrendering Mason and Slidell. They declared that Grover Cleveland was bullied by Great Britain when he refused to go to war about "bait" that was required by our fishermen and could only be obtained from Newfoundland.

And now they accuse Woodrow Wilson of cowardice, if not treason, for insisting that a repeal of the ship subsidy granted in free tolls to our coastwise ship monopoly, is necessary to preserve the national honor from smirch! And they say he did not go to war with Mexico the right way. You can't please folks who are resolved to be displeased.

A Pastoral

Along the lane beside the mead
Where cowslip-gold is in the grass,
I watched the milkmaid's easy speed,
A tall and springing country lass;
But though she had a merry plan
To shield her from my soft replies,
Love played at catch-me-if-you-can
In Mary's eyes.

A mile or twain from Varley Bridge
I plucked a dock-leaf for a fan,
And drove away the constant midge,
And cooled her forehead's strip of tan.
But though the maiden would not spare
My hand her pretty finger tips,
Love played at catch-me-if-you-can
On Mary's lips.

And now the village flashed in sight,
And closer came I to her side;
A flush ran down into the white,
The impulse of a pinky tide;
And though her face was turned away,
How much her heart confessed,
Love played at find-me-if-you-may
In Mary's breast.

—Norman Gale.

Quips and Quiddities

The little boy was carrying home an empty bowl that had contained his father's dinner, when a big bully appeared.

"Do you mind if I kick that bowl?" he asked.

"Not a bit," replied the small boy.

"You mean that you do mind if I kick that bowl."

"Not a bit."

"For the last time," persisted the bully, "do you mind if I kick that bowl?"

"No; I should like you to," said the small boy.

"Oh, would you?" exclaimed the bully. "Then watch me!" He shattered the bowl to atoms. "Now do you mind?" he asked.

"Not a bit," said the small boy, edging away. "My mother borrowed the bowl from your mother this morning. You will hear about it when you get home."—National Food Magazine.

"Don't Guess. Know You Know"

BY HERBERT COREY.

"Don't think you know," says H. M. Geiger. "Know you know."

Geiger's business in life is to find a corporation with the pip, the poll evil, whatever else corporations may all from, and restore that corporation to a state of bursting health. Some folks call him a business doctor, but he isn't that exactly. He's more of an abandoned farmer in the fields of commerce. Now and then he finds a rocky hillside and sets it to work raising apples and buckwheat. The point is that he doesn't work for a fee. He works for H. M. Geiger.

Geiger is the son of a professor in the University of Wittenberg, in Springfield, O., which is equivalent to announcing that he didn't cut his first tooth on a gold spoon. Eventually he found himself in business in a small way in Massillon, O. One day the town was stunned by the announcement that a large manufacturing establishment had blown up financially. It had been doing a great and presumably profitable business. No one could figure out what had caused the smash.

"I know," said Geiger to himself. "Too many wine suppers and not enough oatmeal breakfasts."

It gave him an idea. Nowadays he is often appealed to by the officials of great corporations which are rapidly disappearing through the waste pipe to find out what is the matter. If he thinks it worth while, he puts his own investigation department at work. He doesn't take anyone's word for anything.

"Not many people will lie to you in business," is one of Geiger's aphorisms," but lots of people will forget something you ought to know."

Once satisfied that the business outlook is promising, he begins to scout for moral and mental hazards. He has ordered out the president of a corporation because he is a liar, and insisted that a new board of directors be elected because the old board sits around the directors' table telling unpleasant stories. He had dropped a suave and dangerous secretary into outer darkness and promoted the sixty-dollar-a-month clerk who had been doing the secretary's work along with his own. Once he had almost completed the reorganization of a company's official force. He came to the treasurer.

"That young man," said Geiger, "must go. His accounts are all right, but I find that he has frequently borrowed large sums from the company's cash."

"But they have always been repaid," said the president of the company. "We will keep him, I think. He is my nephew."

"You will both go," said Geiger. "I can't afford to have as president a man who thinks that way any more than I can afford to have as treasurer a man who acts that way.

It often happens that the wabbly corporation is positively full of good morals, but is a few checks shy on the mental end. He has found corporations which do—for example—a million dollars' worth of business annually at a profit, but which lose money on every dollar over that sum. In spite of which the corporate heads have embarked upon a desperate selling campaign in the effort to recoup the losses occasioned by the past year's overselling. It not infrequently happens that every department of a great manufacturing business is economically conducted save one—and through that *spigot all the profits of the establish*ment run out. Sometimes the business is dying through certain profits and sure jobs. Before the heads know what has happened younger rivals have taken their business away.

"Don't be too sure of your job," says Geiger. "It slows your speed. Don't be too sure of your market. It cuts your sales. Don't be too sure of your profits. It runs up your costs. Don't be too sure of tomorrow. Today's a good day."

In twelve years he hasn't had a failure in his reconstructing processes. He now controls absolutely fifteen of the great manufacturing corporations of the country. He is a quiet, retiring man, who is hardly known except in the inner circles of corporate activity and on various large and lush golf links. He has no other amusement; but he plays golf as though it were a religion. He says he has to do it to keep in condition.

"A fat head," says Geiger, "thinks fat thoughts."

The Journal's Letter Box

Thomasville, Ga., May 11, 1914.

Editor Atlanta Journal:

Not long since you published an article on the present decreasing numbers of the Christian ministry. This article deplored the number who are forsaking the pulpit for secular occupations, and the increasingly smaller number who are entering the ministry, especially high-grade men. A remedy was also suggested that the church should use greater effort to lay its claims before young men.

May I suggest that this is a mistake the church has been making for centuries, ever since the wider diffusion of knowledge through the printing press? When the priest was the source of all knowledge in each community, such a course was necessarily effective. The hearers then believed what they were taught, and did what they were told. What the church needs now is to prove its authority. The reason the ministry is depleting is not the unattractiveness of the sacred calling, but widespread and deep-seated, if not talked-about, unbelief. Some are retiring from, and others are refusing to go into the ministry, especially high-grade men, because they do not believe the teachings of Christianity in general, to say nothing of the tenets of the various denominations in particular. What the church needs is less authority and better proof.

The preachers yet denounce unbelief as a sin. If so, let them prove it. It will not do to show that it is contrary to the teachings of Jesus, nor that the Bible condemns it. They must go further back, and prove the divine inspiration of the Scriptures, and thereby their authority. Let this be established beyond reasonable doubt, and it will fill both pulpits and pews to overflowing.

Those who do not believe the teachings of Christianity think they can give many good reasons why we should not. Ah they ask of Christianity is to give one good reason why they should—prove that the Bible is inspired.

At present they believe and think we can prove that its origin was human, and not divine. All this, they think they can prove to any impartial mind, but are ready to be convinced to the contrary.

Yours truly,

J. H. HERBENER.

Fire Insurance Rates Should Be Supervised by a Commission.

LaGrange, Ga., May 14, 1914.

Atlanta Journal:

When any business becomes a monopoly, then its rates should be supervised by some body of men representing the people to see that the charges are reasonable. The fire insurance business is such a monopoly. The rates are arbitrarily fixed by an association representing the insurance companies. The people who pay the price have no voice in fixing these rates. There is no competition to aid in keeping the charges reasonable. You must either accept the rate fixed by the representative of the insurance companies or not take the insurance.

Why doesn't some member of the legislature introduce a bill to place these rates under the supervision of the railroad commission or a commission created for that purpose? Let The Atlanta Journal take the matter up in its editorial columns and bring it to the attention of the legislature and agitate the question before the people. Everybody seems to concede it is a monopoly in the matter of fixing rates. Then let these rates be supervised by a commission representing the people.

I write hoping The Journal will take it up and agitate the question.

FRANK HARWELL.

THE BRITISH CRISIS

IX.— Parliamentary Practice.

BY FREDERIC J. HASKIN.

LONDON.—The people of the United States has heard much of the various dangers that from time to time have threatened the people as represented in the house of representatives at Washington. There was a time when Czar Reed was imposing his will upon the house, and issuing his ukases in its name; there was the time when "Cannonism" threatened to destroy the political freedom of the country; and then there were times when Grover Cleveland, Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson have been arraigned for assuming to dictate to the representatives of the people.

• • •

From time to time an orator or writer, bent on indicting some czar-like speaker or president, has referred to the well-known freedom of the more ancient parliaments, the British house of commons where the speaker has no power and the king dares not interfere, but where the democratic representatives of a democratic people meet to settle the affairs of state without let or hindrance.

• • •

They may have been fine, such speeches as are written pieces, but they were a trifle off as to fact. The most completely boss-ridden and hog-tied assemblage on record is this same British house of commons. It has the same freedom that the house of representatives has in this: At any moment a majority of its members may dethrone the "boss." That was the defense Mr. Cannon used to make when he was denounced as a "czar."

• • •

The truth is that both bodies, the commons of Westminster and the house at Washington, are governed by their committees. At Washington there are many committees of theoretical equality, and the mutual jealousies maintain a nice equilibrium. The executive, being entirely separated, has such power as his influence with the people generally gives him, plus the number of unfilled appointments up his sleeve.

• • •

But here the executive is itself a committee of the commons, and a committee so far above the legislative committee in rank and power that they are not considered trifles. The cabinet is all-powerful. It introduces all bills affecting the general movement, and permits a vote only on such measures as it desires. There is no appeal from its decision, except by a vote of censure that would destroy it. This practically shuts off any hope of appeal from a private member to the majority party, and, of course, a member of a minority has no rights in prospective legislation.

• • •

This results in the partisan spirit being applied to every piece of legislation, hour after hour, and day after day. There are, practically speaking, no truces such as are so common at Washington, when party lines disappear.

• • •

One reason why the individual member is so limited in his powers is the same as that which has a similar effect at Washington, and it is the same reason—pressure of business. The congress at Washington is now so greatly burdened by pressure of business caused by the growth of the country and the ever-expanding scope of the government that the powers of suppressing the individualist time-consumer have been granted by free consent of the members. The Reed rules, denounced in one congress, were adopted by the Democrats in the next, and the gag rule of Cannon's day is not unknown under the reign of Clark and Underwood.

• • •

But suppose congress, that can rarely find an hour for the discussion of the affairs of the city of Washington, had to take all the burdens of all the legislatures and most of the city councils. And then? No city in the three kingdoms may build a street railway or a gas plant without the permission of parliament. Every little thing is reserved to parliament, and so the machinery would not move at all were there no strong hand at the lever.

• • •

Here comes in another matter. Suppose a small town, in Ireland for example, desires to build an electric plant. It must come to parliament. Such a mere petition, or a bill introduced by the member, does not suffice. It must appear first before the local government board, which is a department of government. Its appearance there is not a mere call of a delegation, but it must appear by counsel, and the lawyer's fees are heavy and fixed by custom. If the local government board is impressed, it will send down an inspector, at the expense of the town. If his reports favorably, the town must then appear before a legislative committee of parliament. This appearance also must be by counsel, at heavy fees. And then the matter may drag from year to year. One town such as this waited five years, and finally got its permission at a cost of more than $20,000 in fees and expenses of counsel.

• • •

Such a bill, once through the committees, will be passed, however, as the legislative stage is purely formal.

• • •

The cabinet allows private members one day in each week for their measures. The time of all other days is reserved to the government, except the precious forty-five minutes every afternoon when the cabinet ministers must answer questions. That institution enables the private member on either side to "check up" the government, and it has a most salutary effect.

• • •

The questions show the enormous scope of the busy government. One afternoon they included, besides a torrent about Ulster, questions relating to British affairs in every quarter of the globe, New Zealand and New Foundland, Jamaica and the Transvaal; foreign affairs in many lands; the milk supply of the house restaurant, and the arrangements for giving Sunday afternoon outings to cooks employed at a hospital in East London. Every question was gravely answered, although some of the replies were not particularly illuminative.

• • •

The speaker of the house is a peculiar institution. He is a non-partisan, and, once elected, he is elected over again every year until he wishes to retire, when he is given a peerage and a seat in the house of lords. The present speaker, the Rt. Hon. J. W. Lowther, is a Conservative, but he has been re-elected by the Liberals every year since 1906. He gets a salary of $25,000 and a residence in the Westminster palace.

• • •

The speaker has no political power, but has parliamentary powers and authority in high degree. He may adjourn the house at any time if he thinks the considerations of good order deem it advisable. He may cut off debate in any circumstances when a member speaking introduces matter not germane to the subject. He may call members to order by name, and he does do it nearly every day.

• • •

He is by no means the figure-head so many Americans think him. It is true he has no political influence, but he has a power over the house that is very wide. When he thinks the informal debate following a question has gone far enough he stops it. The fact that the policy of every measure has been settled and determined before it reaches the open house makes it far easier to distinguish between the political and the purely parliamentary that would be in the American congress. Indeed, in the latter instance it would be well-nigh impossible. Here the fate of a measure often is determined by parliamentary status.

• • •

There is never a rollcall in the house of commons. The ayes and noes are determined by division lobbies. The speaker puts the question, and if it is not decided by the viva voce vote a division is ordered. The members voting in the affirmative then march into the lobby at the back of the government benches and those voting in the negative walk into the opposition lobby.

RECORD FUNDS GIVEN TO OGLETHORPE UNIVERSITY

Greenville, Miss., Gives $4,000 and Baton Rouge, La., Adds $4,235 to Fund

All records except those of Georgia for proportionate generosity toward the rebuilding of Oglethorpe university in Atlanta have been smashed by Greenville, Miss., and Baton Rouge, La., according to a telegram from Dr. Thornwell Jacobs, personal representative of the executive committee of the university.

Dr. Jacobs has wired to the committee that Greenville has added $4,000 to the university fund, and Baton Rouge has added $4,236.

"This is over $10 for every man, woman and child in the church in those cities," his wire concluded.

IN LOCAL THEATERS

Excellence of initial performances at the local theaters are written by members of The Journal staff. All other matter appearing in this column is furnished by the theater management.

"It is like seeing the original production again," said a visitor at the Lyric Tuesday night when the curtain went up on the squalid East Side home of the Joyce family in "The Escape." And when I saw James Marcus playing the leading character role I could hardly believe it was a stock production."

"Big Jim" Marcus, who has played many parts in the past twenty years, says he has done nothing he likes better than the role of Old Man Joyce. He staged the play for Paul Armstrong in New York and played the part last season, and when it was decided to present it in Atlanta Mr. Marcus was given full power to "put it on." He sent to New York for the same carefully chosen ragged garments he had worn there, rented the same worn carpets, the same dingy mottoes for the walls and practically all the "properties" used in the first company, which only recently closed its season. He directed the rehearsals, ordering every tiny bit of "business" and felt well repaid Monday night when "The Escape" was pronounced the very best work of the La-Verne company's six weeks' stay. "The Escape" will be given all this week, with matinees Thursday and Saturday, and a real comedy is billed for next week.

The funeral ceremonies held over the bodies of "The Heroes of Vera Cruz" at the Brooklyn navy yard are being shown in a special Pathe Weekly at the Grand today in addition to the big seven-reel war drama, 'Sealed Orders," that has made the biggest hit of any motion picture ever seen at this popular playhouse. Tomorrow as an extra feature will come "The Shriners' Parade" and all the important scenes of their convention here, caught by Pathe's man. It is possible he may have caught you or some of your friends. Come see! The Grand's ten-piece orchestra and a pretty girl who sings the latest songs between pictures are other features of the program. Four performances are given daily at 2, 3:30, 7:30 and 9 p. m.

POWER CO. PERMITTED TO EXECUTE NEW MORTGAGE

State R. R. Commission Gives Company Right to Secure $30,000,000 Bond Issue

Late Tuesday afternoon the state railroad commission issued an order wherein it granted the application of the Georgia Railway and Power company for authority to execute a new mortgage to secure the $30,000,000 bond issue created for it by the commission in 1912, and wherein it allowed the petition of the power company for authority to increase the first installment issue of bonds to be marketed from $12,400,000 to $12,917,000. The remaining $17,028,000 of the thirty million issue are to be held by the trustee, certified and undelivered pending future approval by the commission.

Among the expenditures which the power company cited as justifying its application for the additional $650,000 installment of bonds were several items, aggregating $28,469,002, which the commission held could not properly be charged to organization expenses and, therefore, should not be included in a bond issue. However, other expenses listed were, in the opinion of the commission, of sufficient value to justify the approval of the additional bonds for new construction.

The order of the commission, setting out all the facts, follows:

"Ordered—That so much of the order of this commission heretofore referred to, dated January 4, 1912, and no more, as approved the execution and delivery of the mortgage therein described and the creation of a total issue of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) of first mortgage gold bonds, and the immediate issuance of twelve million four hundred thousand dollars ($12,400,000) of said authorized issue for the specific purpose therein set out, be and the same is hereby revoked and rescinded, the remaining part of said order, especially approving and authorizing the issuance of certain capital stock of the petitioner, in the manner and form and for the purpose therein stated, to remain in full force and effect.

"Ordered, Further—That the Georgia Railway and Power company be and said company is now hereby authorized to create an issue of thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) first and refunding mortgage, 5 per cent forty (40) year, sinking fund gold bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent (5 per cent) per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of April and October in each year, said bonds to bear date April 1, 1914, and to become due on April 1, 1954, and said issue of bonds to be secured by a mortgage, a copy of which is on file in the record of this application and is hereby expressly referred to and made a part of this order, and for the specific purposes in said mortgage stated.

The Fidelity Trust company, as trustee, is ordered to certify and deliver to the Georgia Railway and Power company the following portions of the bond issue which shall be devoted to the following purposes:

Three hundred and fifty thousand dollars to reimburse the treasury of the company for expenditures made in the acquisition and construction of the Stone Mountain car line.

Eight million eight hundred and sixty-five thousand dollars for the cancellation of a $10,000,000 bond issue of the Georgia Power company secured by mortgage to the Central Trust company, of New York.

One million one hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars for the cancellation of a bond issue of the Blue Ridge Electric company of $1,370,000 secured by mortgage to the Knickerbocker Trust company, of New York.

One million three hundred and sixty-seven thousand dollars for the cancellation of a bond issue of the Atlanta Water and Electric company, secured by mortgage to the Knickerbocker Trust company, of New York.

Five hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the cancellation of bond issue of the Savannah River Power company, secured by mortgage to the Knickerbocker Trust company.

Six hundred and fifty thousand dollars for the reimbursement of the company's treasury for expenditures for construction of power plants and substations and the purchase of various sorts of equipment between January 4, 1912, and April 1, 1914.

In regard to the last named item of $650,000 for expenditures the commission has the following to say:

"The commission has carefully inquired into the character of these expenditures.

"In the opinion of the commission certain items in said statement included in details of the account styled 'Organization—Miscellaneous,' aggregating four hundred and sixteen and ninety one-hundredths ($416.90) dollars, and an item of twenty-five hundred ninety and ninety-five one-hundredths ($2,590.95) dollars to Forrest Adair for services in settlement with the city of Atlanta.

Also all items in the account styled 'Organization—Legal Expense, Etc.,' except the last two, to-wit: Four thousand $4,000) dollars for services by Old Colony Trust company as stock transfer agents, and thirty-one thousand, four hundred sixty-one and seventeen one-hundredths ($31,461.17) dollars to W. A. Bachr, for expenses in connection with inventory of Georgia Railway and Electric company properties, the two aggregating thirty-five thousand, four hundred and sixty-one and seventeen one-hundredths ($35,461.17) dollars, are not properly chargeable to 'organization' expense of the Georgia Railway and Power company, and not such expense as should be capitalized in a bond issue.

They are, therefore, not taken into consideration by the commission. After deducting these sums from the new construction account outside of Northern Contracting company's construction account, the commission is of the opinion that the remaining expenditures fairly represent value sufficient to justify the approval of the additional bonds prayed for for new construction.

WASHINGTON SEMINARY GIRLS RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

Thirty-Five Members of Senior Class Honored at Graduation Exercises in Theater

In the presence of one of the largest audiences that ever witnessed a school graduation in Atlanta, thirty-five members of the senior class of Washington seminary were presented with diplomas at the graduating exercises of the school at the Atlanta theater Wednesday night.

The address of the evening was by Dr. W. L. Pickard, of Savannah, his subject, "Deathless Kings and Fadeless Crowns." The St. Cecilia society rendered a musical program under the direction of Mrs. John W. Hurt.

The D. A. R. medal, offered by Mrs. Alice E. Chandler, for many years principal of the seminary, for the best essay written by a member of the senior class, was awarded to Miss Ellen Spiggle. Her subject was Deborah Sampson, a Revolutionary heroine.

Honorary mention and ribbon badges in the medal contest were awarded Miss Essie Jackson, Miss Mildred Duncan and Miss May Creighton.

The following were awarded diplomas by Prof. L. D. Scott, principal of the school:

SEVENTEENTH INFANTRY RECEIVES COMMENDATION

Advices from Eagle Pass., Tex., received in Atlanta tell of a set of highly complimentary resolutions drawn up by the residents of the border city, praising the Seventeenth infantry, formerly stationed at Fort McPherson, for services rendered to all citizens in the community. Especial mention is made of Colonel T. W. Griffith, the commanding officer, and Captain Henry M. Bankhead, adjutant of the regiment.

MRS. W. A. ANSLEY DEAD; HER FUNERAL AT FORSYTH

FORSYTH, Ga., May 20.—Mrs. W. A. Ansley, 79 years of age, and the wife of one of the most prominent men of the county, died at her home near Forsyth yesterday at 12:30 p. m. The funeral services were held this afternoon at the First Baptist church of Forsyth, the pastor, Rev. C. C. Heard, officiating and the interment was in Oakland cemetery here.

Mrs. Ansley is survived by her husband, who is eighty-three years of age, and two daughters, Miss Arlette Ansley and Mrs. R. L. Fort, both of Forsyth.

DRIES SKIN ERUPTIONS RIGHT UP

END ECZEMA WITH SULPHUR

USE LIKE COLD CREAM TO STOP ITCHING

The moment you apply bold-sulphur to an itching or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a renowned dermatologist.

This remarkable sulphur made into a thick cream effects such prompt relief, even in aggravated Eczema, that it is a never-ending source of amazement to physicians.

For many years bold-sulphur has occupied a secure position in the treatment of cutaneous eruptions by reason of its cooling, parasite-destroying properties and nothing has ever been found to take its place in relieving irritable and inflammatory affections of the skin. While not always establishing a permanent cure, yet, in every instance, it immediately subdues the itching irritation and heals the Eczema right up and it is often years later before any eruption again manifests itself.

Any good pharmacist will supply an ounce of bold-sulphur cream, which should be applied to the affected parts like the ordinary cold cream. It isn't unpleasant and the prompt relief afforded is very welcome, particularly when the Eczema is accompanied with torturous itching.

BUCHU FINE FOR WEAK KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Many Sweets, Which Clogs Kidneys, Then Back Hurts and Diabetes Catches You

Candy, sugar and sweets, eaten to excess have a bad effect on the kidneys and bladder, says a well known authority. The kidneys get clogged and sluggish and hurt. You experience scalding, dribbling, straining or too frequent passage of urine, forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; stitches and pains in the back; bone pains; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen, eyelids or ankles; leg cramps, unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and despondency, diabetes, Bright's disease. The moment you have any of the above symptoms or rheumatic twinges, get from any reliable druggist a good sized bottle of Stuart's Buchu and Juniper. Take a tablespoonful after meals. Drink plenty of fresh water and abstain from eating too much sugar, sweets or highly seasoned foods. Your kidneys and bladder will then act fine and natural. Stuart's Buchu and Juniper has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer hurts you to pass water. It is old folks' recipe for weak kidneys and bladder and strengthens these organs and cures diabetes.

Be sure you get Stuart's Buchu and Juniper as Stuart's is properly compounded for kidney and bladder troubles.—(Advt.)

Gives Life and Health To the Scalp

There's nothing gives the scalp such a clean, invigorating sensation—such a glow of health as

"IDEAL" Mange Oil For the Scalp

It removes all the dandruff, gets right down to the scalp, instantly stops the itching, opens the pores and stimulates the growth of the hair. It puts the scalp in condition to grow healthy hair. A trial at your barber's or hairdresser's will convince you of its merits.

When Skin Eruptions Make Sudden Appearance

Impurities May Lurk in the Small Spaces For Months, or Years Waiting Their Chance.

The sudden appearance of some form of skin eruption calls for the immediate use of S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. People will wonder why, when apparently in the best of health generally, the skin breaks out with unsightly eruptions. It is accounted for by the fact that deep in the interstices, the small lymphatic spaces, there are hidden away germs that have lain dormant for weeks, perhaps years. Through some cause such as a cold, the system is in a low state of resistance and the germs then jump at the opportunity and some form of blood trouble makes its appearance.

If the mucous membranes are involved we have colds, catarrh, bronchitis, pneumonia and so on. If the general process of nutrition is disturbed we have rheumatism, indigestion, headache and anemia. And when the skin breaks out it shows how impurities have affected the blood generally. Then is the time to attack disease vigorously with S. S. S.

The action of this splendid purifier is a sweeping aid to the natural tendency of the body to rid itself of all harmful germs. For if this were not true none of us would survive the second week of infancy. The course of S. S. S. leads through the vast network of lymphatic veins wherein germs are attacked and held down in the tiny glands of the lymphatic system. Then there is the complex and extensive plan of mucous membranes lining all the cavities of the body. Herein is where poisonous matter is prepared or converted into a substance to be readily eliminated by the mucous membranes of the lungs, liver, kidneys and bladder and by the skin, which is a modified form of mucous membrane. The well-known catalytic action of S. S. S. throughout the connective tissues brings into play all the forces of the body to check disease and replace with new tissue-building materials that which has broken down or has become infected by disease germs.

And what is of more than passing importance S. S. S. is a purely vegetable product, relatively as essential to well-balanced health if the blood is impure as are the food elements of our daily ration.

Get a bottle today at any drug store but insist upon S. S. S. Look out for substitution. Beware of all those harmful stuffs containing mercury, iodide of potash, arsenic and other mineral poisons.

S. S. S. is prepared only in the laboratory of The Swift Specific Co., 414 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for a copy of a finely illustrated book on skin and blood troubles. When you purchase S. S. S. look for the little folder around the bottle. It invites you to consult the Medical Department free should yours be a serious or chronic case.

DETECTIVE BURNS' PERMIT REVOKED BY POLICE BOARD

Adopts Resolution Asking Council to Recall Agency's License to Operate Here

By revoking the detective agency permit of C. E. Sears, manager of the Atlanta branch of the W. J. Burns National Detective agency, the board of police commissioners Tuesday night put itself on record as being opposed to the operation in this city of the detectives who recently investigated the Frank case.

The board wanted to revoke the license of Sears and would have done so, except for a ruling by City Attorney Mayson that this was beyond the board's authority. Attorney Mayson explained that a detective agency license is issued by the city clerk on recommendation of the police board. He said the board could rescind its recomendation on which the license of Sears was issued, but could not revoke the license itself. He said not even the city clerk could revoke the license. Only the general council would have this authority, he said.

Accordingly the board revoked its recommendation, or permit, and then passed a resolution recommending that council revoke the license.

Sears' license is the one under which Burns has operated in Atlanta, previous to as well as during the Frank investigation. The grounds on which the board revoked Sears' permit, as set forth in the resolution introduced by Commissioner Andy R. King, were:

REASONS FOR ACTION.

First, that Sears agreed to handle only banking business, as an agent of the American Bankers' association, which agreement he has violated.

Second, that Sears agreed to submit to the chief of police the names of all operatives he wished to employ, and to employ none who were turned down by the chief, which agreement he has violated.

Third, that Sears agreed to work always in harmony with the city detectives of Atlanta, which agreeemnt he has violated.

Sears was present at the meeting and undertook to say a word in his own defense, but the vote on the King resolution was taken almost immediately following its reading by the clerk and the board did not stop to listen to him. He seemed to consider this a rather high-handed course for the board to pursue, and announced that he would be back next Friday night with his lawyer, who s Judge Arthur G. Powell. Dan Lehon, manager of the New Orleans Burns agency, who is in Atlanta and was present at the board meeting, said Wednesday morning that the Burns agency will make a vigorous fight to protect its rights in Atlanta.

A special adjourned meeting will be held Friday night to hear the report of a committee of three appointed to find out the names of all the operatives employed in Burns' investigation of the Frank case.

On account of the absence of Commissioner R. T. Pace, one of the candidates for chairman of the board, there was no balloting for the election of a chairman, the board having unanimously agreed at a previous meeting to take no ballots for chairman with any member absent.

S. J. Roberts, formerly chief of the detective department, was elected a sergeant to succeed Sergeant W. H. Turner, who recently died. Roberts was removed from the command of the detective department in a political shakeup some years ago and has since been a patrolman. More recently he has been assigned to the traffic squad.

NINE NOMINATIONS.

Nine nominations by Chief Beavers were made before the board finally elected Roberts, the nominations being submitted in groups of three each.

Detective J. H. Norris, charged with aiding a witness to get out of the city, was suspended for twenty-nine days and severely reprimanded.

The charges against Patrolman B. B. Haslett about two weeks ago for using abusive language to the son of Alderman McDonald was upheld by the board and the chief was instructed to administer a reprimand to Haslett, who apologized to Mr. McDonald.

Patrolmen Paul B. Perison and F. G. Smith, charged by M. Venable with breaking down the front door of his home when they went after him on a blind tiger raid, were dismissed.

The board passed a resolution praising Chief Beavers and all of his men for their splendid conduct during the Shrine convention, and recommended to council that all the members of the force be paid two days' extra time therefor.

"KING" CONSTIPATION OVERTHROWN

Dethroned by Dodson's Liver Tone. Thousands Who Once Feared Constipation Now Laugh at It.

It's little wonder that constipation has been called the "King of Human Ills."

Not that constipation in itself is so dangerous, or so alarming, but that constipation so surely leads to many and dangerous complications. At least 80 people out of every 100 are shackled at some time or other by constipation's "Reign of Terror."

But thank goodness thousands have found a safe-and-pleasant way to stop constipation. And it's not by calomel dosing either, because calomel is anything but safe. It's by taking Dodson's Liver Tone, the harmless vegetable liquid which is recommended and guaranteed by your druggist, who will refund purchase price if you're not satisfied.

Dodson's Liver Tone is fast displacing the use of dangerous calomel. This is because Dodson's Liver Tone accomplishes exactly the same results as does calomel, but without the dreaded and disagreeable after-effects which often follow the use of calomel.

Dodson's Liver Tone should be in every home in the land. Get a bottle (50c) today. It means good-by to dulled brains, bilious headaches, "furred" tongues and a score or more of complaints which arise from constipation and a sluggish liver.—(Advt.)

FIRST PANEL OF HARRIS TO BE UNVEILED HERE

Interesting Letter Received by President of Uncle Remus Assn. About Bronze Panel

Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, president of the Uncle Remus Memorial association, which will unveil a bronze panel of Joel Chandler Harris at the Wren's Nest, the author's former home, in West End Saturday afternoon, received a most interesting letter Tuesday in regard to this panel.

The letter is from the board of trustees of the Forsyth Dental Infirmary for Children in Boston, Mass., where the original of the panel will be placed.

The panel at the Wren's Nest was made at Tiffany's, New York, and was presented to the Uncle Remus Memorial association by the board of trustees of the Boston institution.

The letter directs how the panel should be placed so as to obtain the best lighting effects, and states that the original bronze in Boston will not be unveiled until June 1 or September 1, so that the Atlanta copy will be the first bronze panel of Joel Chandler Harris ever unveiled in this country.

SOLID YEAR OF MISERY

After a Solid Year of Misery, Bordering on Hopelessness, a Grateful Change Comes of a Sudden

Monticello, Ga.—Miss Tommie Bowden, of this town, says: "I suffered for one long year with seriously womanly troubles—and it became so bad that I thought no remedy could cure my case.

I was nervous, at times, and had a sick headache so bad, that I could hardly bend over.

I tried two different kinds of medicine, but they did me no good.

I then began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I hadn't used it but one day before I felt a great change. I continued taking it, and I know it saved my life. I believe it is worth its weight in gold.

I hope every lady, who suffers from womanly trouble, will try Cardui. I praise it to every lady I meet, and my sister also recommends it as the best of medicines for women."

Do you suffer from any of the numerous ailments so common to women, such as headache, backache, sideache, nervousness, sleeplessness, etc.? Have you that tired, weak, wornout feeling? If so, we urge you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has not only relieved thousands of women suffering from serious womanly ailments, but has also been found an excellent tonic for that tired-out feeling.

Get a bottle of Cardui today.—(Advt.)

News of Women and Society

Mrs. Richardson to Entertain Miss Stewart

Mrs. Hugh Richardson will entertain at a small luncheon Saturday May 23, at her home on West Peachtree street, in honor of Miss Frances Stewart, whose wedding to Dr. Hugh Inman Battey will be an interesting event of June 3.

Garden Party for June Brides

Miss Rosa Belle Chapman will entertain at a garden party Friday afternoon, May 29, from 5 to 7 o'clock, in honor of four lovely brides-elect of June.

The honor guests will include Miss Gladys Catchings, Miss Louise Meli, Miss Bernice Schuessler and Miss Lebie Ewing.

Concert Postponed

The concert to have been given by the students of the Southern University of Music at the Hotel Ansley Tuesday evening was postponed on account of conflicting dates and will be given Wednesday evening in the ball room of the hotel at 8:15 o'clock.

A delightful program has been arranged, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Miss White Entertains Senior Class

Miss Lula Woods White was hostess at tea Wednesday afternoon in compliment to the senior class of Agnes Scott.

Tea was served from a beautifully appointed table which had an artistic centerpiece of pink roses.

The calling hours were from 5 to 6.

To Bride-Elect

Misses Nell, Daisy and Inez Campbell will entertain Friday afternoon from 5 to 6 o'clock at a large tea at their country home near Stonewall, in honor of Miss Hope McLaurin, a charming bride-elect of Fairburn.

A party motoring from Atlanta to attend the tea will include Miss Ethel DeFoor, Miss Addie De Foor, Miss Annie Maude Schuessler, Miss Bessie Kempton and Mrs. William McCollough.

Bridge Luncheon for Visitors

Mrs. Charlton Barrett will entertain at a bridge luncheon at her home on West Fourteenth street, Saturday morning in compliment to her guests, Mrs. W. H. Clary and Miss Ethel Clary, of San Francisco, Cal.

Twenty-five friends have been invited to meet the honor guests.

Rehearsals for Spring Pageant

There will be three rehearsals Thursday afternoon for those taking part in the "Pageant of Spring," to be presented at the Atlanta theater on May 26.

The Indians will assemble for practice at 2:30 o'clock; the maidsof honor, at 3 o'clock, and the nightengales at 3:30.

It is requested that all taking part be on time promptly.

Bridge Party for Bride-Elect

Mrs. Everett Giffin entertained very delightfully at bridge Wednesday afternoon at her home on Peachtree road, in honor of Miss Berniece Schuessler, a pretty birde-elect of June.

The tables were arranged in the reception hall and drawing room, which were decorated ih yellow roses and white carnations.

Score was kept on dainty cards handpainted in flower design.

The prizes of the afternoon included a pair of silk hose and a deck of playing cards.

The honor guest was presented with a hand-embroidered towel as a souvenir of the occasion.

Twenty guests were present.

To Miss Rhurode

Mrs. Allen Schoen entertained informally at luncheon Wednesday at her home on Ponce deLeon avenue in compliment to Miss Emma Rhurode, of Fort Wayne, Ind., who is the guest of Mrs. Macon Martin.

The guests assembled around a large round table, the center decoration of which was a low basket filled with sweet peas and asparagus fern. The guests included eight friends of the hostess.

SPRING RECEPTION AT PIEDMONT CLUB

At the annual business meeting and receptfon at the Piedmont club Tuesday afternoon, Mr. James H. Nunnally was unanimously re-elected president of the club, and Mr. Brooks Morgan vice president.

Mr. Hal Hentz and Mr. John E. Murphy were elected to serve on the governing board with Mr. J. J. Spalding, Mr. Preston Arkwright and Mr. John S. Cohen.

More than five hundred guests were assembled at the club during the early twilight hour and formed congenial groups for supper which was served on the terrace and long veranda surrounding the ball room. Festoons of electric lights concealed by soft toned Japanese lanterns were hung above the hedge about the terrace porch, and brightly lighted the approach to the club.

Many of the guests remained to enjoy the informal dance which followed supper, with bright music furnished by a stringed orchestra.

SPRING COSTUMES WORN.

Charming new spring models were worn by the many beautiful women present.

Miss May Atkinson wore embroidered batiste, the deep flounces edged with lace and festooned with bouffant draperies of pink taffeta. A hat of black lace straw ornamented with a paradise completed the pretty costume.

Miss Julia Dunning was gowned in white taffeta combined with shadow lace. A hat of white leghorn banded with Dresden roses and trimmed with lace ruffles was worn with the pretty costume.

Mrs. John S. Cohen wore a draped gown of changeable taffeta in soft pastel shades of green and with the charming costume was worn an imported hat of dyed green leghorn ornamented with ruffles of soft lace and pink roses.

Mrs. Alfred Newell wore turquoise blue taffeta with deep ruffles of lace and her hat was a smart model in shades of old rose.

Mrs. Milton Saul wore a lovely gown of cream showered in Dresden design, a high girdle of old rose satin gave a French note of contrasting color, and her leghorn hat was trimmed with Dresden roses.

Mrs. Don Pardee was gowned in batiste embroidered with blue, with which was worn a French hat of contrasting shades of blue.

Mrs. Thomas B. Paine wore corn-colored taffeta fashioned with bouffant draperies and her hat was a smart model in contrasting black.

Mrs. Harvey Johnson was gowned in net draped over changeable taffeta and her hat was of leghorn trimmed with French roses.

Mrs. A. D. Adair, Jr., wore canary-colored taffeta, the bodice fashioned of lace, and her hat was of contrasting shades.

Mrs. J. Frank Meador wore with a white lingerie gown a picture hat of black ornamented with a paradise.

Mrs. Harry English wore with a gown of black and white taffeta and net a French hat trimmed with a bird of paradise.

Mrs. Reid Hodson was gowned in pink taffeta and lace. Her hat was banded with roses.

Mrs. Robert Small was a graceful figure wearing a gown of shell pink taffeta with bodice of flesh-colored chiffon. Her French hat matched in color and showed a dainty trimming of blue forget-me-nots and tiny pink rosebuds.

Mrs. John Hill wore a lovely dancing gown of green taffeta with Oriental net tunic embroidered in gold threads.

Mrs. Grayson Heidt wore white lingerie and shadow lace, the corsage finished with a girdle of black satin and a French bouquet of red roses. Her hat was a smart model in black.

Mrs. John Sommerville wore a very striking and beautiful gown of flimy net embroidered in pink rose sprays and fashioned with the new tube underskirt with full long tunic of pleated net bordered with a ruche of pink satin ribbon. A semi-ruff of the ribbon finished the neck of the bodice, and completing the effective costume was a hat of cream Milan straw trimmed in pink roses and clusters of wheat.

Mrs. Charles Godfrey was gowned in white taffeta embroidered in blue. Her hat of cream straw was trimmed with pink roses and blue forget-me-nots.

Mrs. Andrew Calhoun was beautiful in pale pink chiffon with lace and net draperies and she wore a pink picture hat rose-trimmed.

Mrs. Albert Howell was gowned in black taffeta with bodice of shadow lace, and her hat of black Milan straw adorned with a gours.

Mrs. William Tilt was gowned in yellow taffeta and lace, her hat of black lace was adorned with a bird of paradise.

Miss Aimee Hunnicutt wore pink taffeta with overdrapery of net embroidered in pink roses, and her leghorn hat was trimmed in pink roses.

Miss Nellie Hood Ridley was gowned in white and black taffeta with picture hat of black adorned with bird of paradise.

Miss Marian Goldsmith wore a becoming costume of white taffeta and net.

Miss Elizabeth Morgan was gowned in white French net embroidered in blue.

Miss Dorothy Hebert, of New Orleans, wore with a gown of charmeuse a black lace hat.

Miss Laura Cowles wore pink crepe with girdle of blue.

Miss Harriet Calhoun was gowned in yellow taffeta ruffled with cream lace and wore a black picture hat.

Mrs. William Spalding was very handsome in a gown of soft white lace and chiffon with panniers of pale blue taffeta.

Mrs. Charles Remsen wore a quaint costume of buff-colored taffeta brocaded in rose design in shades of brown and gold. The long tunic which formed the top skirt revealed a foundation skirt of shadow lace and chiffon finished with a plain hem.

Mrs. W. A. Speer wore a gown of flowered tafefat, a hat of white milan straw trimmed with roses.

Mrs. Edgar Hunnicutt wore a draped gown of blue crepe, the bodice formed of lace and embroidered net and her hat was of contrasting shades.

Mrs. William Lawson Peel wore with a gown of cream charmeuse a hat of milan straw adorned with a blue willow plume and a single pink rose.

Guests at Reception and Dance.

Among those seen during the afternoon and evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nunnally, Dr. and Mrs. Remsen, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sciple, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Marye, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. DeGive, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. C. Pedder, Mr. James Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Paine, Mr. and Mrs. Keats Speed, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Calhoun, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Walker, Colonel and Mrs. W. L. OUR ASTROLOGER

The stars incline, but do not compel.

HOROSCOPE
For Thursday, May 21, 1914.

(Copyright, 1914, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

This is a day held by astrologers as propitious for most human activities, since Saturn, Jupiter and Venus are all in benefic aspect.

Saturn is in a place believed to produce a thoughtful conservative, prudent, diplomatic mind. Under this rule the president should hear good news from quarters which have caused most anxiety.

Whatever depends on systematic, constructive work for success should prosper under this aspect. Subtlety, tact and cleverness should gain extraordinary results.

The indences of the stars today favor the attainment of positions of trust, but advancement will be slow rather than rapid, steady rather than sudden.

The time is auspicious for leasing ground, beginning new buildings and signing new leases. Real estate dealers, masons and excavators are all subject to the best leadings, the seers announce.

Jupiter gives promise of success in all matters associated with bankers, lawyers, merchants and brokers.

Buying is under an extraordinary favorable government. Investments made while this configuration exists should be guided by sound judgment, honesty and foresight.

Women should be lucky, while Venus exercises kindly power today. It is a lucky time for weddings and all social entertainments. Love affairs are ruled fortunately.

Actors, artists, singers and all who depend on public approval should benefit from this sway of Venus. When this planet is in a good aspect it is noticed that the mind strikes a lighter vein and that unusual power to gain a response to any appeal to the emotions is remarked. Persons born between April 21 and this date should especially benefit.

It is predicted that theatrical changes will mark the theatrical season next year, when plays of high quality will be offered by new managers. There is a sign read as indicating looses among those who conduct moving picture enterprises.

Persons born on this day have a happy augury for the year. Money will come easily and there will be joy in the domestic circle. The young probably will have much romance and many will marry. Those who are employed, however, should be cautious to attend to business.

Children born on this day are likely to be clever, industrious and successful in whatever they undertake. They have the promise of much prosperity and pleasure.

Andrew College

CUTHBERT.—Commencement occupies the center of the stage at Andrew now. Preliminary programs have been given at frequent intervals the entire month of May. The first of these was a recital by the piano pupils of Mrs. Henrietta G. Scott and the expression pupils of Miss Maude Moss. Two certificate recitals have been given, one by Misses Belle Geise, Donnie Andrews, Bessie Barry and Frances Brimberry in piano, and Miss Jane Mulligan in voice, and the other by Misses Annie V. Womack, Ernestine Chestnutt and Jane Milliran in piano, and Miss Alleen Hayes in voice.

The class day exercises this year were held on the campus at night and were especially unique and interesting. The president's address was given by Miss Ruth Carter, the history by Miss Belle Geise, the prophecy by Miss Frances Brimberry, the poem by Miss Mary Davenport, the will by Miss Marjorie Hartsfield, and appropriate gifts were bestowed upon each member of the class yh Miss Ernestine Chestnutt. Class and college songs, the planting of the class ivy and the bequeathing of various gifts to the juniors were features.

The tennis tournament, held the following day, was won by Misses Emma Hargrove and Marguerite Burton for the sophs.

A unique feature of the closing days of school was the Bohemian luncheon given by the art class in the studio. Mrs. Nettie L. Kierulff, teacher of art, presided over the occasion. Favors, in the form of palettes, were painted by Mrs. Florence Kierulff Kennon, of Salem, Ala., an honorary member of the class. The drawing contest was won by Miss Elizabeth Davenport.

Later features of commencement have been the operetta, "O Hanu San," given by the voice department under the direction of Miss Helen Knox Shaln, the art program and the annual concert. Prominent in the operetta were Misses Marguerite Burton, Bessie Barry, Ruth Rustin, Aileen Hayes, Gladys Beauchamp, Grace Laramore and Lena Godbey.

LITTLE STORIES FOR BEDTIME

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.

If you should meet with Mr. Toad
You scarce would give him half the road.

I wonder if you'd be more fair
If you should meet with Buster Bear.

Probably you would. Indeed, I suspect that you would give him all the road. And the funny part is that it is quite likely that Buster would be quite as polite and would give you all the road. The fact is that, big as he is and strong as he is and fierce as he looks, Buster Bear is very shy and bashful. Little as Old Mr. Toad is he would hardly more than hop out of the way of your feet, while big as Mr. Bear is he wouldn't even let you see him if he saw you first.

That is one difference between Old Mr. Toad and Buster Bear, and, of course, as you know, there are a great many other differences. But in one thing they are very much alike. Yes, sir, Old Mr. Toad and Buster Bear are very much alike in one thing. Can you guess what it is? Well, it is in their fondness for ants. Old Mr. Toad is just as fond of ants as Jimmy Skunk is of fat beetles. So is Buster Bear, and that is how it happened that Buster Bear came to invite Old Mr. Toad to dine with him.

He was watching a little ant hill, and snapping up every ant that came Along.

Buster had that lonesome feeling again and was wishing he had some one to talk to and to talk to him when just ahead of him he saw Old Mr. Toad watching something very intently. Every once in a while he would lean forward, run his long tongue out like a flash, then smack his lips as if something tasted oh, so good. He was so busy with what he was doing that he didn't see Buster Bear and he didn't hear him. You know Buster, big as he is, can walk without making the teeniest, weeniest sound. Buster tip-toed a little bit nearer until he could see just what Old Mr. Toad was doing. He was watching a little ant hill and snapping up every ant that came along. Buster nodded his head approvingly.

"I'm glad to see that you have such good taste, Mr. Toad," said he in his deep grumbly-rumbly voice.

Old Mr. Toad gave a frightened little scream and fell right over on his back, kicking his legs feebly in the most foolish way. He looked so funny that Buster Bear just had to laugh. He couldn't help it. And because his laugh was grumbly-rumbly like his voice Old Mr. Toad was more frightened than ever.

"Seeing you eat makes me hungry, too," continued Buster. This sent cold shivers all over Old Mr. Toad, for he was sure that Buster meant to eat him.

"How would you like to dine with me today?" went on Buster, pretending not to notice how frightened Mr. Toad was. "It must be very slow work catching ants one at a time. What do you say to taking dinner with me?"

Old Mr. Toad struggled to find his voice, for he felt that he must be polite.

"I—I—I don't feel hungry any more," said he faintly. "I—I think if you will excuse me, Mr. Bear, I'll be moving along."

"Then I will go along with you," said Buster, who was just aching to have some one to talk to.

Poor Old Mr. Toad! This was too much for him. He didn't have strength enough to turn over and get on his feet again. He was sure now that Buster Bear meant to eat him when he got ready. Perhaps Buster would be better pleased if that invitation to dinner was accepted. It was of no use to even try to run away, and as for trying to hide under anything why there was nothing to hide under that Buster Bear could not pull over and catch him.

"I—I've changed my mind; I'll be very pleased to dine with you, Mr. Bear," said Old Mr. Toad in a voice meant to sound very brave, but which was so faint that Buster Bear cocked his head on one side in order to hear better.

Announcements

MEETING.

Study Circle No. 1, Atlanta Drama league, will hold its regular weekly meeting Thursday morning at 10:30, in Carnegie library. The selected reading is Sudermann's drama, "Magda." All interested are cordially invited to attend.

IMPORTANT PAN-HELLENIC MEETING.

An important meeting of the Atlanta Pan-Hellenic association has been called for Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock, at the University club.

All members are urged to be present, as plans are to be completed for the benefit performance at the Lyric next week.

PULLMAN COMPANY HAD BIG JOB SHRINE WEEK

Twelve Million Dollars' Worth of Equipment Was Assembled Here for Meeting

The big part played by the Pullman company in the success of Shrine week has just come to light in the publication of statistics showing how tremendous was the job that the company handled here.

Twelve million dollars' worth of equipment was gathered in Atlanta. Seven hundred employes were engaged in managing it. Forty-five expert assistants were detailed to aid Superintendent W. M. Camp, of the Atlanta district. Four hundred and sixty-five Pullman cars on special service, in addition to those on regular trains, were received in the city during the week. These would make a solid train eight miles long.

Each car was populated by an average of twenty-five people. To care for these, a small army of employes was at work. Two kitchen cars for the employes served 500 meals to them during the week. The number of meals served to the visiting Shriners on the parked cars is estimated in the hundreds of thousands. From Monday morning to Friday night more than 170,000 pieces of linen were laundered in Atlanta for the cars parked here.

EMPLOYES OF RICH CO. SEE LYRIC PERFORMANCE

Force of 450 Enjoy "The Escape," Presented by Lucille LaVerne Company

The annual theater party by M. Rich & Bros. Co. to its employes was given Tuesday night at the Lyric theatre, when 450 of the big store's force enjoyed the work of the Lucile LaVerne company in "The Escape."

It has been the custom of the department store management for several years to give a theater party to which every employe is invited. When plans were made this year the choice of the theater was put up to the guests, and they were practically unanimous in preferring the stock company at the Lyric.

What Anne Rittenhouse Says

There Are Distinctive Clothes for the Young Girl This Season and She Should Make the Best of Them While They Last.

NEW YORK.—It has been generally believed that all clothes were alike during the last four years because fashion did not take cognizance of age.

To some extent, this was true, for the young woman has as her rival, all the rest of the world. That is one of the reasons why there have been so much criticism, disapproval and laughter.

Youth possesses structural qualities that age does not; and no matter how young the woman of forty may look, she does not really fool any observer. She may possess a slim figure, a smooth skin, a fresh color, and unwearied eyes, but if she has lived at all, if she has thought or felt, or acted, her face and figure must bear certain marks of what she has experienced.

And, therefore, many of the fashions designed for the young and worn by the middle aged, did not enhance the appearance of the latter. It is silly for a woman of forty to want to look twenty, but it is admirable that she should try in every possible way to keep the structural freshness of youth and let her features proclaim the fact that her mind has developed.

The woman of forty whose face does not show any more evidence of mental and moral experience than the face of the girl of twenty is proclaiming to the world that she is lacking in something vital. It isn't intelligent to keep mental growth out of the face and the only woman who can do it is the one who has not grown.

All of which is an essay on the philosophy of age and not on fashions for the young.

What Young Girls Wear.

There has been a strong effort on the part of the designers this season to give the young girl something that really belongs to her.

In Paris there is a vast difference in the style permitted a girl and a woman. A girl over there must show that she is a girl. She must not wear what a married woman wears, but styles that are created for her are not sufficiently dashing for the American girl.

The latter is more sophisticated and is permitted a much wider playground. She roams over Europe, America and Japan, she takes part in sports and she goes into every corner of outdoor life during the summer months and, therefore, she has a wider opportunity to show off a variety of clothes.

Some of the things which have been arranged for her are the top coats of heavily ribbed corduroy in brilliant colors. Some are geranium red, others are royal blue and these are immensely popular and one sees plenty of yellow. There is a tone known as burnt orange which is sometimes lined with yellow, and there are brilliant grays lined with Martine silks which have huge circles as a design, each circle in a different color.

By the way, these Martine silks are immensely popular this summer. I often wonder if the little girls from the country who sit all day at the easels in Martine's shop designing the fabrics that our girls wear in the playgrounds of the world would envy their fortunate companions? Possibly not. Your young French girl from the provinces sees little happiness in going far from home.

But the silks and satins she designs are reaching from continent to continent because they have a spirit of gayety that is irresistible in the open.

One does not wish to make gowns of these blue surfaces on which black and yellow peaches grow, but one likes them for the inside of a coat, for the wide scarf around one's Panama hat and the loose cravat and deep waistcoat girdles that the young girls attach to their white costumes.

The sketch shows one of the new Poiret turbans for the American beaches. It is of red and white striped cotton folded about the head and caught in front with a huge crystal buckle.

There is a pointed turnover collar to match which is added to a white blouse, and beneath it is a cravat of scarlet taffeta.

Officers Elected for Joseph Habersham Chapter

Mrs. John A. Perdue was paid a well deserved compliment at a recent meeting of the Joseph Habersham chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. Mrs. Perdue's term of office as regent had expired as she had served two terms.

The executive board amended the constitution to give her the regency for a third term.

The membership shows a splendid increase, 355 members being enrolled.

The financial report is remarkable, over $2,000 having been raised through the concerted efforts of the chapter under the able direction of the chairman of the building fund, Mrs. William Lawson Peel.

The officers as elected were Mrs. John A. Perdue, regent; Mrs. A. P. Coles, first vice regent; Mrs. P. H. Mell, second vice regent; Mrs. Samuel Lumpkin, third vice regent; Mrs. A. H. Harrell, recording secretary; Miss Alice Mascengale, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. H. Ashford, treasurer; Mrs. W. F. Dykes, auditor; Mrs. George Stevens, registrar; Mrs. Albert Akers, assistant registrar; Mrs. William Percy, historian; Miss Helen Prescott, genealogist.

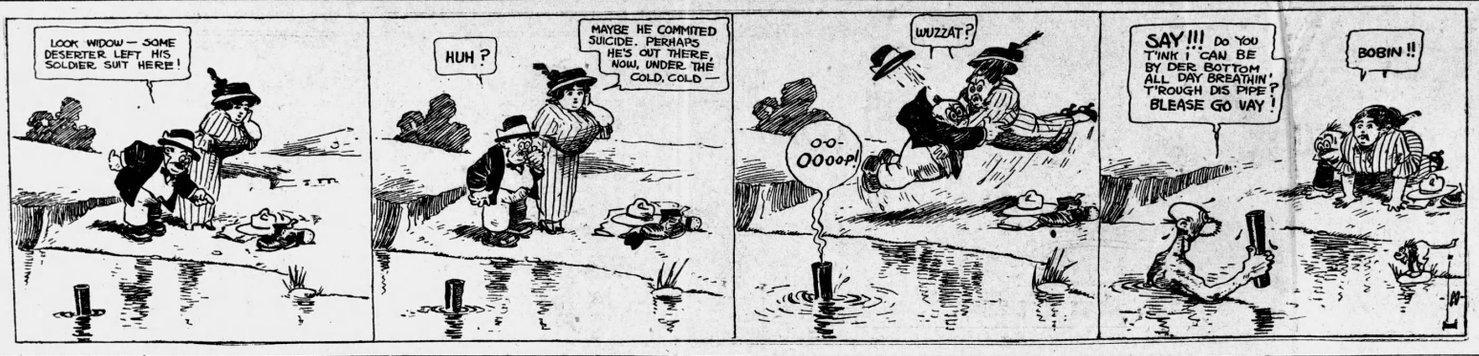
Hilton Is Most Formidable of British Golfers, Thinks Jerry Travers

LITTLE PAL---HE DISCOVERS A DESERTER -BY LEO



THE SPORTLIGHT

BY GRANTLAND RICE

"Before any manager can hope to win a pennant in the American league," said Mr. Hugh Ambrose Jennings, "he must first establish a ball club able to fight off Philadelphia when the two clubs meet. Griff might have had a chance before if he could have beaten Mack's club. But he couldn't do it. We have a chance this season, but our main chance lies in stopping the Mackmen—or at least holding them to an even fight. I believe we have the club now that can do it—just as we did in 1907, 1908 and 1909. But that's another story."

THE PITTSBURG CASE.

On the other hand, establishing a ball club good enough to curb the Mackmen is not an every-day achievement. Sometimes you can hardly do it in a week.

Pittsburg, in the N. L., is up against the same proposition. Fred Clarke's chances to win a pennant depends upon his ability to stop McGraw. And for a number of years this job has been a trifle beyond his reach. Passing up opinion for facts, and dragging out the succulent statistic from its lair, we find these records—i. e., viz., to wit:

Of the last 64 games played between New York and Pittsburg since 1911, McGraw has won 42 and Clarke 22. McGraw's percentage is .657; Clarke's is .343.

Of the last 65 games played in Pittsburg upon the Pirates' home battlefield, McGraw has won 42 and Clarke 23. And this covers a period existing since 1907.

NO WINNING SYSTEM.

As long as the still justly esteemed Pirates are only able to win about a third of their games from the Giants they have no idyllic, rose-colored chance of finishing out in front.

The handicap is entirely too heavy. The margin they must obtain over other clubs is too bulky. It can be done, but very few of the best people are doing it this year.

If Pittsburg is able to rally and check the Giants her flag dream is well established. Otherwise she might as well abandon it now.

MAY CONDITIONS.

So far as May conditions are concerned, which they are just now to a highly developed degree, Jennings has the best looking ball club—the best balanced one that we have seen.

This goes for Athletics, Senators, Red Sox, Giants, Dodgers and Phillies.

He has on board the speed, the punch, the pitching and the pep—the Big Four of Flagtown-on-the-Pike. It is quite apparently a question as to how he can mingle with the world champs.

THE SANDWICH AFFAIR.

Unless our Mr. Ouimet can get going with amazing rapidity England will soon run the gravel train over his body in revenge for what he passed along to Messrs. Vardon and Ray.

The Open Champ of the U. S. A. has fluttered considerably to date, but fortunately the Main Show is just opening, and this alone will count.

THE TRAVIS CIRCUMSTANCE.

Ouimet's case is a bit indigo, but not yet hopeless. Back in 1904, at Sandwich, Walter J. Travis was playing indifferent golf up to the day of the championship start. But from that point he managed to swing back into line and by the end of the week he had putted the Albionic Lion to death.

George Stallings is planning another hunting trip next winter over his Georgia plantation.

But this time he won't hunt birds with a shot gun. He is planning to turn his ball club adrift and hunt it with a gatling gun.

WHY SO?

"Forget that stuff," writes in a perturbed fanatic, "about the manager being the biggest part of a ball club. It's up to the players—not the manager."

Possibly—and possibly not. The two main people fighting out the American league proposition now are Jennings and Mack—two leaders who have won seven out of the last eight pennants in their circuit.

The two main people fighting out the National league flag are McGraw and Clarke, two leaders who have won nine out of the last thirteen National league championships.

And a big part of the operation has been accomplished with widely shifting sets of baseball talent.

It isn't what you've got, but what you can do with it It isn't how you got there, but it's more "where are you?"

THE EXCEPTION.

Harry Lord discovered that he was slipping, and quite ahead of the schedule. Rare case. (If by now he isn't back in harness.)

On most occasions the situation stands as summed up by the late Hek.

"What though you do not sense the change
That strikes you from the list,
Nor feel the atmosphere grow strange
Nor note the gathering mist?
Your secret gets in every ear—
The secret you're the last to hear.

"What though you lived an hundred years
E're nature claimed its own,
And Godlike form that won our cheers
Is wasted skin and bone?
You'll hear that cheer that died away
That everlasting yesterday."

Oh, mocking memory of youth,
How is it that you hold
From him who's gone the honest truth,
Nor wait until he's told—
Until, still in his fullblown pride,
He heartlessly is thrust aside?"

If England wins at Sandwich this week the international count will be two to one in her favor and America will need a general mopup in polo, tennis and yachting to carry off the edge. It can be done, but the road to three straight is always inclined to be a trifle lumpy.

Hilton Is Real Obstacle for Yankee Golfers

Jerome Travers Says Royal Liverpool Wizard Is Most Formidable Player Among Britons—Some Points of His Style

BY JEROME D. TRAVERS,
(Amateur Champion of the United States.)

SANDWICH, England, May 20.—Harold H. Hilton, the present amateur champion of Great Britain, is on hand to defend his title against the American contingent, in the atempt to wrest that title from him and his fellow-countrymen. As a golfing proposition, Hilton is a formidable antagonist. He put Schmidt out of the 1913 British championship, after the American had disposed of a number of clever Britishers. In 1911 he disposed of me in the third round of the amateur championship of the United States at Apawamis; and in the same event he won the final and the championship itself in a hard fought match against Herreshoff, who carried him to the thirty-seventh hole.

Hilton and Ouimet have never met, consequently a match between them would draw a big gallery. As will be remembered, Hilton visited America in 1913 to defend his title as champion of the United States, but made a very poor showing, and Charles G. Waldo, Jr., of Brooklyn, a new comer in national golf, put him out in the first round of match play. The heat at Chicago affected him adversely, and put him off his game. In 1913, however, the Royal Liverpool wizard came to the fore again in excellent style, and won the Britis hamateur championship for the fourth time. In addition to the above named achievements, Hilton has to his credit two open championships of Great Britain, 1892 and 1897.

A GREAT RECORD.

Beyond question, this is a record to be proud of. The only British player I can recall as having a better record is John Ball, Jr., who, if my memory serves me well, has won the British open championship once and the British amateur championship eight times.

Hilton impresses me as a man who has made a very deep study of golf, and as one who has a greater variety of shots than any other player I have met. He excels with his wooden clubs, being particularly effective with the spoon. This brings to mind a certain shot I saw him make on the eighteenth hole at Muirfield. His drive landed him about a foot in the rough, and directly back of his ball was a large tuft of grass. To my amazement he chose his spoon, although the carry over a bunker guarding the green was about 175 yards. I thought he was making a mistake, but he picked the ball up clean, and although it only rose to a height of five or six feet, when it struck the green it had so much back spin that it stopped like a high and well cut mashie shot.

Hilton is very proficietn with his iron clubs, particularly so with his mashie. His weak point is his work on the greens. At Apawamis, he told me that he had never been a good putter, although he had devoted a great deal of practice to this part of the game, and had about given up hope of ever becoming a good putter. However, even if he is not so strong a putter as Ouimet, Travis or myself, he is such a sound golfer in other respects that he looms up as a formidable obstacle in the path of the American aspirants to the British amateur title.

Vols Purchase First Sacker

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—First Baseman Paulet, formerly of the Mobile club, has been purchased by the Nashville club from the Cleveland American association team and was due to arrive here Tuesday, according to Manager Schwartz. It is believed this acquisition means that Schwartz will hereafter manage his club from the bench.

Sanders Hurls No-Hit Contest

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., May 20.—Bladdon's Georgia Military college boys put it all over Riverside in the second game of the series, shutting them out by the score of 7 to 0, Riverside never having a chance to score.

Sanders, G. M. C.'s southpaw, literally fed Anderson's bunch out of his hand. He pitched a clean, no-hit game, striking out nine. He is the toast of Milledgeville, as no team has scored a run off him this season. G. M. C. hit Miller hard all through the game for singles and two-baggers.

The season in which G. M. C. has so brilliantly starred closes Saturday, when they meet Tech High, of Atlanta, here for a double bill.

Gulls Get Third Game; Crackers Are Blanked

Browning and Gudger Engage in Strenuous Pitcher's Battle—Smithmen Unable to Score on Gull Hurler—Final Count 1 to 0

BY ELLIOTT DENT.

MOBILE, Ala., May 20.—The Crackers went down to defeat yesterday for the third consecutive time at the hands of the Mobile club. The score was 1 to 0. It was another great pitchers' battle, Gudger pitching for Mobile and Browning for Atlanta. The Mobile twirler used a spit ball that completely baffled our men and all we could do was to collect four safe hits.

He was as steady as an eight-day clock all the way and showed wonderful coolness in the first inning when the Crackers threatened to score. We had the bases full and only one out and he came through without allowing a score. While I give the Mobile pitcher credit for a masterly exhibition of pitching, no little credit is due our own Frank Browning, who without a doubt pitched the cleverest game of ball that I have seen for a mighty long time and it was a crime to see such grand work go to waste, for our boys could not get him a single run. Brownie evidently is in his best form now and Billy Smith is delighted with the showing he made yesterday, even though we could not win for him.

Mobile's only run came in the fifth, when Hindall doubled to center and advanced on Dobard's single to left. George Kircher was the hitting star for Atlanta and Kirby and Dobard hit well for Mobile.

Perryman will likely be our pitcher today.

Boland Hurls Vols to Victory

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—Boland holding the locals to three scattered hits and both McIntyre and Styles being batted hard, Nashville defeated New Orleans Tuesday by a score of 7 to 0. It was the second shutout of the season experienced by the locals. McIntyre was taken out in the third inning after two runs had been scored and Styles who succeeded him lacked control. Callahan's home run with a man on base in the ninth and the batting of Williams and More were features. Hendryx stumbled in running past first base in the eighth and was knocked unconscious by falling heavily, but recovered soon after. Higgins replaced him.

Billies Trounce Lookouts, 13-1

MONTGOMERY, May 20.—Montgomery hit Kroh and Reisigl hard Tuesday and won the third game of the series from Chattanooga. The score was 13 to 1. Black, who pitched for the locals, was in fine form. Knaupp's steal of home in the fourth was a feature. Shaw, a new outfielder, took Baker's place in right field yesterday and made a good showing.

Turtles Triumph Over Barons

BIRMINGHAM, May 20.—Wild heaves to the bases by Catcher Tragresser in the first and sixth innings paved the way for a Memphis victory here Tuesday afternoon against the Birmingham team. Each of the poor throws resulted in runs and with this advantage the visitors escaped with a 3 to 2 decision. Tragresser is suffering with a split finger and this was responsible for the throws. The locals had a rosy opportunity to tie up the game in the sixth, but the best they could do was to nab over two runs. Sage pitched for Memphis, while Harbin worked for Birmingham.

Red Sox Triumph Over Detroit Tigers

BOSTON, May 20.—The Red Sox took the third straight game from the league leaders Tuesday, 6 to 4. Aided somewhat by errors, Boston gathered most of its runs while Dubuc was pitching, breaking his string of five straight victories. He was taken out in the sixth inning, after Boston had scored twice. Sam Crawford recovered from a batting slump with two singles.

CHANCE BUILDING UP ANOTHER TEAM TO PROVE THAT HE, NOT MURPHY, MADE CUBS

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.

Frank Chance, peerless leader, is busy regaining the laurels which C. W. Murphy strovce to snach from his head.

Chance's success in remaking the New York American league team has proved the sensation of the early season. Whether he falls or remains up near the top of the league matters not. He has proved that the great reputation he earned as a team builder and manager in Chicago was deserved, and that the attempt to discredit him was just another of the tricks by which organized baseball club owners brought about the retirement of high-priced players.

Chance's team which represents New York is not a strong one yet. It is merely a well constructed team, with well trained pitchers, obeying a natural leader and inspired with some of his own fighting spirit.

Chance last year took a disorganized, faction-rent, "joy club" and without material he made it play ball. It lost steadily and consistently, but it lost while trying its best to win, and the fans of New York realized this fact. Chance cleaned house from top to bottom. He ignored reputations and stood on his own judgment of players. To him a minor leaguer hitting .220 who will work and obey orders is better than a great star who wants special privileges.

Look over the scores of the present season. You will discover that the fact that the Yankees are well up is not an accident. They are playing the game. ..hether they win or lose they are giving the opponents a battle, and remember, too, that thus far they have been all spring against the supposedly strongest teams of the league. In only two games have ..e been badly beaten. In every other game they have had a chance to win right to the finish. Considering the strength of the team they have been playing the best and most consistent ball of any club in the league.

After Chance had been manager of the New York team two weeks we had a chat.

"I didn't know there were so many bad ball players in the world," he said. "I'll have to get a new team."

"Who will you keep?" I inquired casually.

He named six men—and four of them are still with him.

Chance's success is not an accident. If he remains in baseball three more years he will make a pennant-winning team.

School Teams Play for Title

The second game of the championship series between Formwalt and Oakland will be staged at Brisbine park this afternoon. Festivities will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

The first game, played Monday, went to Formwalt, 6-5. The game was a pitchers' duel between Wallace of Formwalt and McLoughlin of Oakland with Wallace having the edge. These two hurlers will probably face each other this afternoon for the second time. McLoughlin allowed less hits than Wallace Monday but did not receive the support of his opponent.

No admission is charged for these games and a large crowd is sure to turn out this afternoon.

DAMAGING CROP REPORTS CAUSED RISE IN COTTON

Market in New York Closed 9 to 18 Points Higher Than the Previous Close

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 20.—The cotton market opened strongly early today with all deliveries selling now high ground for the movement. Reports of continued wet weather in the western belt and continued dry weather east of the river. Cables were about as due and the market here was steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 2 points, but the market soon turned higher on covering by yesterday's sellers, buying and bull support, with active offers selling about 6 to 14 points above yesterday's closing figures.

There was considerable rallising and local selling on the advance, but with offerings were absorbed and the market rallied some 9 to 18 points net higher shortly after midday. The upon conditions relatively firm.

The market continued firm during the early afternoon with prices within a few points of the highest, about 9 to 18 points net higher on the wet weather decision for the Houston district, further covering and bull support.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

(By Associated Press.)

NEW ORLEANS, May 20.—First prices in the cotton market today were unchanged to 2 points higher in indifferent calles and some improvement in weather conditions over the belt. Offerings were not liberal from any source and a moderate demand after the first advance served to put prices 2 to 3 points over yesterday's close. The continued heavy rains in Texas attracted some attention caused enough buying to put prices a net advance of 6 points by noon.

COTTON MARKET OPINIONS.

The market is swayed by the weather.

W. H. Rothschild & Co.: We advise purchases of old crop but would eschew the near positions.

Hubbard Stone & Co.: If rains continue appreciation will increase.

Newcomb, Sweeney & Newman: We look upon the new crop positions around 11¾ cents as an investment opportunity.

"CHAUTAUQUA" NOT TOOK FOR DALTON FOND LOVER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALTON, Ga., May 20.—The Dalton Chautauqua association, planning for Chautauqua week, June 3-9, inclusive, evidently failed to put over the idea of one season ticket as likely prospect.

"I'd like to have it, but I couldn't get any girl to go with me," he said. On being informed that every attraction will be above reproach, he said: "I don't mean it that way. You see," and he grew confidential, "I can't say the same thing."

EXPORTS OF COPPER SHOW VAST INCREASE

WASHINGTON, May 20.—With sales abroad steadily increasing exports of copper from the United States during the six months ending with March last totalled 455,000,000 pounds, according to the department of commerce.

The exports equalled the total exports for the calendar year of 1906 and one and one-half times the exports for 1902.

Copper manufactures of all grades exported in March were valued at $14,000,000 not practically equal to the exports for the entire fiscal year of 1895, double those of 1892 and six times those of 1850.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET WAS QUIET AND LOWER

Union Pacific, Missouri Pacific, Smelters, Great Northern and Steel Are Off

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 20.—A utter lack of initiative was shown in today's early dealings on the stock exchange. Price changes were quite evenly divided as to gains and losses, few of which exceeded fractions save in Missouri Pacific and Chesapeake and Ohio which declined a full point.

The professional element, whose operations made up the great bulk of the present trading, seemed disposed to await the outcome of pending developments, such as Mexican mediation, prospects and general money conditions, before assuming a more definite attitude.

For the balance of the morning session the market showed a somewhat firmer tendency. United States Steel and the Coppers lost substantial fractions and American Tobacco was conspicuous for a 3-point drop.

Bonds were irregular.

Further weakness ensued in the afternoon, but the general market was a standstill with prices 1 to 1½ points below yesterday's close. Weakness of bonds was a shrinking feature. Missouri Pacific and Sa as well as Southern Pacific convertibles were under pressure. Time money was in better demand, but exchange continued strong, cables being quoted at 84.88.95 and demand at $4.88.50, which implies further gold imports. Bullion was supported by Europe.

The list inclined to recover but business continued in very light volume and left no doubt as to professional character.

Closed irregular.

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT PLANS

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALLAS, Ga., May 20.—Commencement exercises at the Dallas High school will be held tomorrow night and through Tuesday. The commencement sermon will be delivered by Rev. J. G. Hunt, of Atlanta, and the literary address will be delivered Monday by A. M. Pierce, of Cedartown.

Mr. R. O. Kellum Dead

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

TALBOTTON, Ga., May 20.—Mr. Robert O. Kellum died at his home near Talbotton on Sunday, May 17, after an illness of two weeks.

He leaves several children, among whom are Mrs. Edgar Edwards, of this place; Mr. Owen Kellum, a student at Young Harris institute, and others. Mr. Kellum was a Confederate veteran. Rev. L. A. McLaughlin conducted the funeral.

Canines Outlawed

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

DALTON, Ga., May 20.—As have its predecessors for time immemorial, city council has formally outlawed the canine tribe, having passed an order for owners to muzzle their dogs, keep them off the streets or else pay fines in recorder's court. Every one of the dogs comes a similar ordinance, but no council has yet succeeded in getting satisfactory results.

Weather Conditions

Forecast till 7 p. m. Thursday:

Atlanta and vicinity: Fair tonight and Thursday.

Georgia: Fair tonight and Thursday.

Alabama: Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

The area of high atmospheric pressure in the east is increasing in central farther south over northern Georgia and eastern Tennessee, with the maximum reading 30.40 inches, the highest ever recorded in May at Atlanta. Fair, comparatively cool weather continues in the country east of the Mississippi except that light showers have fallen in Florida.

Rainy weather continues west of the Mississippi from Texas northward to Minnesota. Galveston reports 2.76 inches, generally the rainfall in Texas was not heavy. Moderate disturbances are central over Arizona and North Dakota.

Temperatures are moderate in all sections. Boston reported a high 7 a. m. temperature of 70 degrees, but elsewhere 70 degrees only occurred along the gulf coast.

Fair weather is indicated for Thursday.

C. F. von HERRMANN, Section Director.

COTTON GOSSIP

Times-Picayune says:

The cotton trading is face to face with a very important position. A short crop in Texas would make a bumper practically impossible, and would be worse than anything seen before.

Unfortunately it is not from Texas alone that disquieting reports come. The condition of the staple in every other State is also low. It is a question of talk about replanting in the last days of May, but replanting at this time is apt to mean little more than preparation for the spring work of the weevil. From this point of view, it is unpleasant to be forced to the fine figure of condition itself in evidence. It is consequently to be hoped that the eastern belt will respond to the call for more production, for a general shortage would be too calamitous to contemplate.

It may be said the world need not bother, since the sellers of cotton are not interesting themselves to avoid and fixing a moderate price, as measured by the record of the last two crops. It is a question to talk about replanting in the last days of May, but replanting at this time is apt to mean little more than preparation for the spring work of the weevil. From this point of view, it is unpleasant to be forced to the fine figure of condition itself in evidence. It is consequently to be hoped that the eastern belt will respond to the call for more production, for a general shortage would be too calamitous to contemplate.

Dallas writes: "Condition this state very bad; crop will be late; stand poor; 30 per cent will be replanted; 20 per cent will be abandoned. Rock, Ark., to this point. The country is under water; more rain tonight."

Forecast: Louisiana—Unsettled tonight and Thursday; probably showers in southeast portion; gentle to moderate northeast winds on the coast.

Arkansas—Unsettled tonight and Thursday, probably showers; moderate to fresh easterly winds on the coast.

West Texas—Tonight and Thursday unsettled.

Alabama and Georgia—Fair tonight and Thursday.

Kentucky—Generally fair tonight and Thursday.

Tennessee—Generally fair tonight and Thursday, not much change in temperature.

Mississippi—Partly cloudy tonight and Thursday.

11 a. m. bids in New York were as follows: May 12.03; July 12.23; August 12.37; October 12.10; January 12.63; March 12.61; May 12.37; July 12.23; January .2109.

Wires to A. Iverson, New Orleans were: May, 12.37; July 13.05; August 12.87; October, 12.16.

The room traders and Wall street sold, but the Liverpool cables were better and the buying orders from Liverpool were large.

Bullish crop reports were received and shown on the map and private reports showed that the rains in Texas were heavy, but that the next few days in Texas to cause any setback in the movement. The Senate Interstate Commission houses buying and ring crowd selling.

Liverpool says spot market looks swept clean of anything above low grades. Trade is waiting for some new energy indication of business in yarns and goods continuing to expand. All this accumulated weight of old crops and the new crop left looks as if it will surely and inevitably cause heavy liquidation.—Wagner.

Waco, Tex.: Raining here and prospects for more. Crop conditions bad. Local buying on trade generally realizes the seriousness.

I think Mitchell's buying is for Liverpool. They say Southern is also a good buyer. Mitchell continues best buyer December.—Clevenburg.

Minneapolis: Cash demand fair. Spot people also buying these options and there is a good demand for cash wheat from milling consumers. Ring crowd and floor traders who sold early are now anxious purchasers. Many of the local weather experts predict better weather for western belt around Friday, but as the contrary has been predicted so often it will probably be made on to May 25th, which is expected to be low. Bull pool not over the market here.—Anderson.

Chicago.—A dispatch to S. B. Chapin & Co. says: "The subcommittee has completed the cotton futures bill to report to the full committee. The bill does not tax legitimate contracts. It places a prohibitive tax, however, on illegitimate ones. It also standardizes grades and establishes a board of appeals to which disputes may be referred. It provides for publicity for all contracts relative to futures."

STOCK GOSSIP

Dew Jones' summary: Fund Motor company passed dividend this time on account of losses, but besides regular quarterly of 15 per cent; year also extra dividend payable August 15. Bondholders told first session at 3 o'clock today. London financiers are reported that Lloyd George will not resign, but won't be taken. Frank W. Bethlehem Steel Co. declared 1 per cent on active issue and attractive for trading purposes.—Dow Jones.

GRAIN GOSSIP

Chicago Record-Herald says: Most of the commission houses, as well as the largest speculators were bullish on wheat last night and looked for a continuation of the rise. The crop is in poor shape, expect to come from a wider territory as the crop experts extend their field of observation.

The short interest in corn has been cut down and another advance among the trade is mixed.

Sentiment in the oats trade is becoming more bullish daily on any little setback.

Provisions: Strength in grains is contributing a steady tone.

Lack of fly damage reports is again this morning. Look to see market work higher again today.—Chapman.

Snow wires from Kansas City: Counties immediately south of Missouri river from St. Louis to Kansas City all show lowered wheat prospects past week. Much, especially near Kansas City, that will promise high, but a great deal more that begins to show thin and ragged. Considerable percentages of plant seems to die off before heading. With fly loss showing so severe and early it is reasonable to look for increasing disappointment as harvest approaches.

Wheat Closed 7-8 to 1 5-8c Higher—Corn, Oats and Pork Up—Lard and Sides Steady

(By Associated Press.)

CHICAGO, May 20.—Continued reports of damage from hessian fly continued today to enhance the value of wheat. State officials were advising farmers to plow up fields that had been badly attacked and to plant corn as a substitute crop. The market closed unsettled, 7-8@1 higher but with the top somewhat lost.

Reported enlargement of damage in Nebraska tended to bring about a renewal of the market strength in wheat. So also did word that Kansas farmers proposed to burn fields to exterminate the pest. Closed strong at ⅞ to 1⅜c net advance.

Although corn at the outset showed firmness with wheat prices later failed to hold up. Prices started unchanged to ⅛@¼ higher but then receded to ⅛@¼ under last night's figures.

Afterward, a rally in corn took place, influenced somewhat by advices that rain was again interfering with the movement of the crop in the Texas crop. Closed firm, ⅛ to ⅜c net higher.

Dry weather and less favorable crop reports farther south in oats, helped to boost prices 1@1¼

MRS. ALICE HARRINGTON DIES AT NEW JERSEY HOME

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 20.—Mrs. Alice Earle Harrington, 65 years old, mother of George Harrington, of Atlanta, Ga., who expired Friday midnight at her home in Newark, N. J., was buried Monday, May 18, in Warsaw, N. Y., cemetery following services in the cemetery chapel. She married in 1874. Her husband for years was a prominent lawyer in Warsaw. He died nineteen years ago.

Besides her son in Atlanta the late Mrs. Harrington leaves one daughter, Miss Alice Harrington, who lived with her mother in Newark and one sister in New York City and a brother in Grand Rapids, Mich.

PROVES CATTLE RAISING IS SUCCESS IN GEORGIA

As evidence that cattle raising can be made a most profitable industry in Georgia, Commissioner of Agriculture J. D. Price cites the success being achieved by S. D. Fambrough, a farmer of Bishop, Oconee county.

"I was at Mr. Fambrough's place a few days ago and was gratified to learn he was giving especial attention to the raising of hogs, cattle and goats and that he was having wonderful success," said Commissioner Price.

"Mr. Fambrough has about 250 fine Berkshire hogs, about 100 head of blooded cattle and 400 goats."

DORSEY READY TO FIGHT DEFENSE IN FRANK CASE

To Combat Setting Aside of Verdict on Account of Defendant Not Being in Court

Many affidavits to combat the statements of fact made by the defense are being taken by Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey in preparation for the hearing on Saturday of the motion to set aside the verdict of guilty against Leo M. Frank on the ground he was not present in the court room when it was rendered.

Affidavits are said to have been secured from Judge L. S. Roan, the trial judge, and other prominent figures in the case, although Judge Roan may be called upon to give his testimony orally.

Sheriff Wheeler Mangum has made an affidavit for the state dealing principally with the conditions in and about the court room just prior to and after the rendering of the verdict against Frank.

Sheriff Mangum in the affidavit says that he felt at all times that he and his deputies were capable of handling any situation that might arise, although he did at one time say in answer to a question of Judge Roan that "things looked squally."

On the Saturday preceding the rendering of the verdict on Monday, the affidavit recites, Governor John M. Slaton called the sheriff to the executive mansion, and told him that he had been called in regard to ordering out the military.

Sheriff Mangum states that he told the governor that he did not think it was necessary or that it would become necessary to call out the troops.

The sheriff recites that he told the governor that while he considered that any likely situation could be handled by himself and his deputies, he would unhesitatingly call for troops if he at any time considered them necessary.

He says that at the time the verdict was rendered he did not bring Frank back to the court room, although he remembers receiving no orders to pursue this course.

He was in the court room, ready to bring the defendant there from jail whenever he received orders from Judge Roan.

The sheriff says that he informed Frank of the verdict an hour after it had been rendered and Frank's only comment was "I am an innocent man."

GEORGIA 'POSSUM CAUGHT RIGHT IN HEART OF CITY

Rodent Wanders Far Afield and Is Treed Under Whitehall Street Viaduct

Nobody knows how it got there, but the fact remains, according to W. H. White, president of the White Provision company, and E. S. Papy, secretary, that a genuine Georgia 'possum was treed and captured Monday night on a girder underneath the Whitehall street viaduct.

Bill and Sim, Mr. White's keen-nosed fox terriers, were responsible for it. Messrs. White and Papy were preparing to close shop at the White company's freight office underneath the viaduct, when a terrific racket of barks and whines and whimpers arose without.

Simultaneously Messrs. White and Papy arose and went out. Bill and Sim were cutting capers beneath an arc-light and lifting cold noses to a dark shadow hurled on a steel girder above. The shadow was beady-eyed, smooth-tailed and white-teethed—unquestionably a 'possum.

They got him. And now one B. Possum is being fattened on sweet potatoes and other vegetables in the offices of the White company, while Bill and Sim are scouring the railroad jungles in vain search of more exotic rodents that have wandered far afield.
