SWAN STARTS TRAINING DEBUTANTES AND APOLLOS

World's Most Beautiful Man Will Teach Them How to Dance a la Classique

Twenty of Atlanta's most beautiful debutantes and society girls began rehearsals yesterday at the Piedmont driving club with Paul Swan, the famous classic dancer, for two performances which will be given on January 31 and February 1, at the Atlanta theater, under the auspices of the Atlanta Art association.

Twenty young men will be selected Monday, who will also be trained every day to take part in the performance. The rehearsals will continue every morning this week.

Mr. Swan, who has won international fame as "the most beautiful man in the world," because his figure and features are both said to be a perfect reproduction of the pure Greek type of masculine beauty, arrived in Atlanta Friday night and is at the Georgian Terrace. He brought with him the Greek costumes and the magnificent Egyptian costumes which the Atlanta girls and young men will wear in the two performances.

Mr. Swan has been lionized all over the world. London, Paris, Athens, Rome and Cairo have all signally honored him. He gave "chalk talks" at the English school at Cairo and lectured on art in Greece. He painted portraits of John Burroughs, the naturalist; Robert Hichens, the novelist; Sir John Eldon Gorst, governor general of Egypt, and the Duchess de Seville, cousin of the king of Spain. His heads have been purchased by celebrated persons in Europe and this country, the first being taken by Lady Ina Hamilton. Last summer he went to London for a single performance at the Aldwich theater, under the patronage of Lady Cunard and Sir Robert Beecham, and in this country he has appeared before colleges, at society functions and for charity.

The program for the two Atlanta performances will be as follows:

Prelude, "Greek Processional," music—Macdowell; entire cast.

"The Rubaiyat of Omar Kahyyam," a symbolic interpretation—Debussy; Paul Swan with reader and pianist.

"Spring," Grieg; cast of girls.

"The Greek Phantasp," Paul Swan; Music—Ponchielli.

"The Sea," an impression, Rachmaninoff; cast of girls.

"To Heroes Slain," (dedicated to battlefield in Flanders), Paul Swan; Organ—Grieg.

"Fauns," (A. Bacchanale), A. Glazounow; cast of boys.

"Narcissus," Paul Swan. Music—Kreisler.

"Egyptian Dance," Grieg; cast of girls.

"The Sphinx," Paul Swan; entire cast.

PAUL SWANN IS SHOWN HERE in one of the movements of the faun dance that he will teach the young men of Atlanta.

LATEST THING IN STRIPES FOR FULTON'S CONVICTS

County Officials Plan to Clothe Them According to Latest Style

Fulton county's convicts are going to be clothed according to the latest style in stripes if it is possible for the public works committee of the county commission to procure patterns for summer wear.

At a meeting held yesterday afternoon Chairman J. Oscar Mills and his committee decided to ask for bids for 4,800 new uniforms of the most approved pattern, the bids to be accompanied by samples of striped material.

When the bids and samples are received, the committee will have an expert to receive them and his decision as to pattern and material will be final. This in itself, is enough to guarantee that Fulton's convicts will be the best dressed prisoners in the entire state.

ASKS REWARD OFFERED IN MARY PHAGAN CASE

Attorneys for Robert Barrett Make Application to Governor for $200

A formal application for the $200 reward offered by the state of Georgia for evidence sufficient to bring about the conviction of the man who killed Mary Phagan in the National Pencil Factory in Atlanta, April 26, 1913, was made to Governor Harris Saturday by Attorneys Lawton Nally and Thomas E. Scott, on behalf of their client, Robert Barrett.

Barrett, who was a latheman in the pencil factory, pointed out to the authorities certain alleged blood spots on the second floor of the factory and some hair which was found upon a lathe handle. It was the contention of the state that both the blood and hair were Mary Phagan's and it was on this evidence that the state largely relied to establish its contention that the murder was done on the second floor and to convict Leo M. Frank of the murder.

Solicitor General Hugh M. Dorsey called on Governor Harris Saturday morning to say that if any one was entitled to the reward offered by the state it should go to Barrett, as it would have been very difficult, if not impossible, to have convicted Frank without the evidence supplied by Barrett.

Barrett, through Attorneys Nalley and Scott, brought suit against the city of Atlanta to collect a reward of $1,000 offered by the city in the Phagan murder case. This suit is pending before the state supreme court, attorneys for the city having demurred to it on the ground that the city of Atlanta was without a charter right to offer such a reward.

FOUNDATION IS LAID FOR LAKEWOOD BOULEVARD

Steam Shovels Busy Cutting Path for Magnificent Two-Mile Drive

Steam shovels are at work laying the foundation for the magnificent two-mile boulevard around the lake at Lakewood and the water has been drained out to allow the filling in of certain coves where the water extended beyond the bounds of the proposed speedway.

The directors of the Southeastern Fair association, working in harmony with the Fulton county commissioners, have torn down the old dancing pavilion and skating rink to clear a way for the boulevard at that point.

Members of the commission stated yesterday that the work would be rushed during the winter and expressed the belief that the boulevard would be completed by the early spring.

CONDITION OF SCOTT PLEASES PHYSICIANS

Victim of Mysterious Shooting Expected to Escape Pneumonia.

Physicians at the Davis-Fischer sanitarium stated late Saturday afternoon that the condition of Trammell Scott, victim of the mysterious shooting Monday night on East Merritts avenue, was "very good—an improvement over Saturday morning."

This is regarded as the most encouraging statement yet made. Saturday morning his friends and relatives were pleased to learn that the turn for the worse which occurred Friday afternoon had shifted into a change for the better; this additional improvement during Saturday was still more pleasing.

However, Mr. Scott's doctors still insist that absolute quiet is essential to the patient's recovery, and state that excitement of any kind might prove disastrous. Dr. J. G. Earnest, one of the attending physicians, said:

"He doesn't seem to want to talk to any one, and I don't think he should be allowed to do so until he is out of danger, which will be a week or more."

This was taken to mean that the detectives and others who are seeking to interview Mr. Scott will not be able to do so for some days.

The threatened pneumonia which alarmed his relatives so much Friday failed to materialize Saturday, and the improvement of Saturday lessens the possibility of this dread disease, it was stated.

On the other hand, Mrs. Frank Word, mother of Mrs. Trammell Scott, said Mrs. Scott was worse Saturday afternoon at the St. Joseph's hospital.

Mrs. Word said Dr. Richard Orme Flinn, pastor of the North Avenue Presbyterian church, called on her daughter at the hospital during the afternoon, and talked to her and to give her spiritual cheer. Dr. Flinn is a friend of both Mr. and Mrs. Trammell Scott.

GILBERT PARKER WRITES TO HAMILTON DOUGLAS

Says England Will Finish Off Germany at Whatever Cost

Hamilton Douglas, the Atlanta lawyer and dean of the Atlanta Law school has received a most interesting letter from Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist and head of the publicity bureau of the British government.

A particularly striking paragraph of the letter follows:

"No, you need not fear that we shall not hold steadfastly to our task. We know what we have to do and we are determined to do it at the cost of whatever sacrifice. The German mania for dominion must be frustrated once for all. That is the essential condition for future Europe—a Europe in which every people, great and small, will be at liberty to work out its own salvation without perpetual fear of an onslaught from a stronger and more ruthless neighbor."

In the course of the letter Sir Gilbert pays tribute to the people of Canada for the support which they have accorded the arms of the empire.

MY TIRED FEET ACHED FOR "TIZ"

Let your sore, swollen, aching feet spread out in a bath of "TIZ"

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

Get a 25-cent box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel. You can wear shoes a size smaller if you desire.
