

about two miles east of Ferguson, in company with two other men, all riding horseback, one of whom was Bruff. Witness was on his way to St. Louis in company with Mr. Hervey. This was about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Witness remained all night at Warrenton, got an early start the next morning, and as he passed Hutchinson's saw Worrell sitting upon the steps. He called to witness and said, "You have got an early start." Witness recognizes the prisoner as the same man.

Mr. Stewart says he resides in Warrenton, knew Gordon; that on the 24th of January, about 4 or 4½ o'clock in the afternoon saw Gordon as he passed through Warrenton; Gordon was riding a chestnut sorrel horse, two men were in company with him; recognizes prisoner and Bruff as the men; they stopped some time at the door of Sander's hotel and then rode off together, traveling east.

Mr. Camp states that he resides in the west end of Warrenton, saw Gordon in company with two men, all on horseback, on the 24th of January, between 4 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Witness was personally acquainted with Gordon. Gordon was on a chestnut sorrel horse, and rode up to witness' fence, and spoke to witness. Witness asked him to stay all night. Gordon declined, saying he was going to Hutchinson's. Witness is a contractor, and noticed the other men very particularly, supposing they were new contractors on the road. They rode off together, going east. Witness recognizes prisoner and Bruff as the men he saw in company with Gordon.

Mr. Hutchinson says he keeps a house of entertainment on the Boonslick road, about four miles east of Warrenton; that about dark on the 24th of January, prisoner, Bruff and Gordon came to his house and remained all night; that shortly after they came to his house, he saw prisoner loading a large pistol; they left together after breakfast the next morning, going east. It was snowing when they came, and about the time they left it commenced snowing again, and continued to snow most of that day. It is about 40 miles from my house to St. Charles. Saw prisoner and Bruff in the St. Louis jail about the 27th of March following; recognized them, and
