

EXHIBIT R.

State of Georgia,	()	Superior Court of Fulton County
Vs.	()	Charged with Murder.
Leo Frank.	(0

Georgia Fulton county.

Personally appeared before the undersigned officer, W. B. Cate, who being duly sworn deposes and says: That on Sept., the 1st, 1913, in the afternoon, I was standing at the corner of Alabama Street and S. Pryor Street, and had intended to go down S. Pryor Street to the Court House where the Frank trial was being conducted but was unable to get any closer to the Court House on account of the crowd that had gathered in the street, I was in about one block of the Court House, while I was standing at this place I heard a great deal of cheering and shouting, the street being full of men most of whom were making noise and cheering. I saw some one come out of the court house, who I understood was Hugh Dorsey the Solicitor General, and he was picked up by some of the crowd and carried across the street on the shoulders of the men who had him. I could not see the man that was carried on the shoulders of the men very well but was told that it was Dorsey. There was at this time fully three thousand men gathered around the Court House, filling the streets on all sides of the court house. I only know Col. Dorsey by sight.

W. B. Cate.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me,
this Sept., 16, 1913.
