

Georgia, Fulton County.

State of Georgia,

Vs.

In Fulton Superior Court.

Leo M. Frank.

Written questions to be propounded to C. P. Stough, a witness for the defendant in the motion for new trial pending in said case, set for hearing October 4, 1913, before Judge L. S. Roan, Judge of the Stone Mountain Circuit.

1. Q. Do you know A. H. Henslee, who served on the jury in the above stated case at the trial commencing July 28, 1913?

A. Yes.

2 Q. How long have you known him?

A. About 6 or 7 years.

3. Q During the time between the murder of Mary Phagan, as reported in the newspapers, to-wit, on April 26, 1913, and the commencement of the trial of the above case, what statements, if any, did you hear juror Henslee make in connection with Leo M. Frank, or as to who murdered Mary Phagan, or as to who was guilty of this murder; or as to how the trial of Leo M. Frank for this murder would terminate?

A. About the time that Conley was reported to have made a statement I was coming into the City on a street car from the home of my daughter. Henslee was also on the car. I heard him say this, in reference to Leo M. Frank's guilt of the murder of Mary Phagan. "I think he is guilty and I would like to be in a position where I could help break his damned neck."

4. Q. How were these statements made?

A. This statement was most positive. He was as positive as I was and I was as positive as I could be in what I said in the conversation.

5 Q. When and where was this?

A. On a College Park street car, coming into the City.

6. Q. What is your business?

Inspector for the Masons Annuity.

C. P. Stough
