1 (Q). Have you examined the attached clipping from the Atlanta Georgian of August 23, 1913, and particularly the likeness in said clipping of A. H. Henslee?

(A). Yes.

2. (Q). Do you know A. H. Henslee?

(A). Yes.

3. (Q). Do you recall whether or not A. H. Henslee was in Monroe, Ga. between the time of the murder of Mary Phagan, as reported in the papers, and the time of the commencement of the trial of Leo M. Frank for the murder of Mary Phagan; to-wit-July 28, 1913.

(A). He was.

4. (Q). Did you hear A. H. Henslee make any statements in connection with the guilt of Leo M. Frank of the murder of Mary Phagan, and if so, what were those statements?

What impressed me was that Henslee was the most vehement in his expressions as to the guilt of Leo M. Frank of the murder of Mary Phagan of any person I had heard talk about it.

The Phagan murder was at the time, the particular topic of conversaton generally; a great many people were discussing it, and many were denouncing Frank as guilty particularly traveling men Henslee was the most bitter of any.

For about 2-1/2 hours in my place of business Henslee argued Franks in this murder case; in talking about the outcome of the case, he made the statement, which to the best of my recollection was That if the jury should turn Frank out, he (Frank) would not get out of Atlanta alive.
