

when I left Friday night. I left Friday night at half past six. I didn't go to the factory on Saturday morning. I have never timed Mr. Frank entering those orders. I said I guessed it would take him thirty minutes to actually enter them. After entering them he must transcribe and acknowledge them. The initials "H.H." on these orders (Defendant's exhibits 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24). means Miss Hattie Hall, the stenographer. "H.G.S." on these requisitions (Defendant's exhibit 25, to 35 inclusive) are my initials, mean that I checked the order and O.K.'d it and its gone. Miss Hattie Hall wrote the letters acknowledging the orders. I know that because the latter has the letter "H.H." dictated by ". We haven't ~~transcribed~~ any regular way of acknowledging. Some orders are acknowledged before they are ever touched. There is no certain first step. It is not necessary that they should be entered on the book first. One step doesn't hinge on the other. If Hattie Hall had anything to do with writing these things, it was done Saturday morning. The orders must also be transcribed from the order to the requisition sheet. The average sheet was the only sheet that had not been worked on Friday that I found had been worked on when I got back there. It had not been touched on Friday, and I had not given any data for it when I left. The data I had to get up for it was the slat production the packing room production, the tips, I get that from this packing room report (Defendant's exhibit 4 A) The handwriting is that of Miss Eula May Flowers, the forelady. When I received that report, I had to accumulate all the data, penciled it, and transferred it to the pencil sheets here (Defendant's Exhibit 7) These three sheets are the only thing connected with the packing room for the week of April 24. I wrote the figures Wednesday night and Mr. Frank did it Thursday. Mr. Frank had to add two lines to the sheet. He could get those from Miss Flowers report just as well as I could. The figures on the bottom of the page are his. All the writing on this sheet is mine except the last two lines at the bottom, which are his (Defendant's Exhibit 7). On that sheet, yes, there are just eleven figures,
