REDIRECT EXAMINATION. When I stated that it took two and a half hours to three hours to make up the financial sheet, I meant without any interuptions. We have quite a few interuptions on Saturdays, salesmen drop in, draymen and people come in, for their envelopes after we have paid off. When I said to Mr. Dorsey that he might do the work from 8.30 to 10.30, I had reference purely to the financial sheet. Making the entries in the house order book, requisitions and dictating the correspondence, I did not include. The correspondence and the entries in the requisition book is usually done in the morning. We usually go to Montag Bros. about eight-thirty, get the mail, come right back, acknowledge the orders and answer the corres- pondence. I have never known Mr. Frank to take up the financial sheet before the afternoon. After he finished his financial, Mr. Frank would usually make two copies of the result of it, and send one of them to his uncle, who is a stock holder and the other to Mr. Pappenheimer, who is the president. My estimate of the time was two and a half hours for the financial sheet, and and one and a half hours for the other work. Mr. Dorsey's picture (State's Exhibit A). shows nothing in the Clarke Wooden Ware Company except the front of it. It has left out every scuttle hole, and toilet and every thing there, It fails to show the door that enters into the partition to the basement. Hasn't got either one of these two front doors. Mr. Frank's wife frequently did some shorthand work for him on Saturday afternoons. I have seen her there often when we were behind in our work. The haskoline did not hide the red spots at all. You couldn't tell whether it was on top or on bottom of the red. It is nothing unusual for the white stuff to be spilled all over the metal room. I did not know that Conley was denying that he could write in the station house, for quite a while. The Pinkerton men came over to the factory to find out if he could. I looked all over the and found a card where he had signed a sig-
