

to two men between the outer office and the clock. He was dismissing those two men when we came. Mrs. White and the stenographer were in the office then also. As we were going up the steps, Mr. Frank called to Mrs. Freeman to tell Arthur White to come down that his wife wanted to see him. On the fourth floor we saw May Barrett, Arthur White and Harry Denham. When we left the factory, the following people were still there: Arthur White, Mrs. White, May Barrett, her daughter, Harry Denham, the stenographer and Mr. Frank.

CROSS EXAMINATION. We met Mr. Holloway between Broad and Forsyth St. as he came out of the factory and as we went in. We met Lemmie Quinn afterwards at the Greek Cafe, don't know what time it was. When we came out, we went to corner of Alabama and Forsyth to use a telephone. It took us about about five minutes to go there and come back to Greek Cafe. We got cup of coffee and sandwich and were getting the change when Quinn came in.

MRS. EMMA CLARKE FREEMAN, Sworn for the defendant.

I married on April 25th. I worked at the pencil factory before that, at the time I was married. I was paid off on April 25, by Mr. Schiff. On the 26th, I reached the factory with Miss Hall about 25 minutes to 12. I saw Mr. Frank at his office. He was talking to two men when we went in. Mrs. White and Mr. Frank's stenographer were also in the office. Mr. Frank gave us permission to go up on the fourth floor to get my coat. While we were going up the steps Mr. Frank called to me to tell Mr. White that Mrs. White wanted him. We went on up, I got my coat and came down, and asked permission of Mr. Frank to use the telephone in his office. I used the telephone. I spoke to Mrs. White a few minutes and then we left, which was about a quarter to twelve. I remember looking at the clock. When we left there was in the building, May Barrett, the stenographer, May Barrett's daughter, Arthur White, his wife, Harry Denham and Mr. Frank. We met Lemmie Quinn afterwards in a cafe. He said he had just been up to see Mr. Frank. (Cross Examination waived.)

MISS BULA MAY FLOWERS, Sworn for the defendant.

I did not work at the factory on Saturday, April 26th. I worked there Friday, the 25th in the packing department. Mr. Schiff got from the data for the financial sheet on Friday night at ten minutes to six. It was the production for the entire week.
