

to speak to me. 387 Washington street is three doors above Georgia Avenue. I saw him take the car at the corner of Glenn and Washington St.

JEROME MICHAEL, Sworn for the defendant.

I live in Athens. I was in Atlanta on April 26th. I took dinner at Mrs. Wolfshelmer's residence at 387 Washington Street. I saw Mr. Frank upon that day between five minutes to 2 and 2 o'clock. I know it was that time because I had an engagement with a young lady and I had a watch in my hand most of the time. My brother Dave had just left for the opera when Mr. Frank came up. When I first saw him he was going toward the right hand corner of Washington Street and Georgia Avenue, going up Georgia Avenue. I saw him and called him and when he saw my mother standing on the porch he came over and spoke to her. He stood on the steps of the porch, he stood there just a few minutes until the next car came. I noticed <sup>absolutely</sup> nothing unusual about him. No scratches, bruises, marks and no nervousness. He ran up to the corner of Glenn and Washington Streets and caught the Washington St. car there going to town.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I had my watch in my hand about the time I saw Mr. Frank. I practice law.

MRS. HENRIE WOLFSEHIMER, Sworn for the defendant.

I am the aunt of Mrs. Frank. I live at ~~the~~ 387 Washington St. the third house from the corner of Georgia Ave. On April 26th I saw Mr. Frank in front of my house. It was about 2 o'clock. We had finished dinner which we ate at half past one. I was not on the porch when he came up but I walked out on the porch after he came. I did not see him catch the car as I was called in the house before he left. I saw nothing unusual about him. No nervousness or bruises or scratches. ~~I saw~~ <sup>stains on his clothes,</sup> no marks or tears of any kind.
