formerly a member of our Board of Directors, though he is not now. The other sheet I always invariably sent to my uncle, Mr. M. Frank, no matter where he is, who is President of the Company. On this particular Saturday, my uncle had during the week ending April 26th gone to New York, stopping at Hotel McAlpin, preparatory to taking his annual trip abroad for his health, he being a sick feeble old man. When I made out that financial, I really made out two small ones, and I put one in an envelope, addressed it to Mr. Oscar Pappenheimer (Deft's Ex. 45), c/o Southern Furniture Company, Atlanta, Georgia; the other one was put in this envelope (Deft's Ex. 44) which you see right here, and sent to my uncle, Mr. M. Frank together with a letter, which I wrote him, after having finished the financial sheet, the sheet showing the comparison of vital statistics for the same weeks of 1912 and 1913, and after having completed these two small condensed financial reports (Deft's Ex. 42). I wrote that letter to my uncle, and I sent him that report, and also sent a price list, to which I referred in that letter; hence the size of that envelope. I am going to show you one of those price-lists. Its a great big sheet when it is folded up, it is much too large for the ordinary size; hence the reason I used a great big envelope like that. I addressed that letter to my uncle Mr. M. Frank, C/o Hotel McAlpin, Greely Square, New York, N.Y., as has been identified.

This ends practically the work on the financial. After finishing the financial, I wrote these letters, and sealed them, and placed them aside to post. After finishing the financial, I folded this big report up, and put it with the comparison sheet (Deft's Ex. 11) for the week of 1912 and 1913 in a large envelope, addressed it to
