

to be Burns detectives, asked me if there was anybody else besides myself that I knew who had seen Frank go into the dressing room with women. I stated that my recollection was that Miss Myrtie Cato saw this occur. They then asked me where Miss Cato worked and I told them she worked <sup>at</sup> E.H.Cone's drugstore and I added, "you go there to see her and you will get the same dose you got here." N. A. GARNER, Sworn for the State. About 7:00 o'clock p.m. on April 24, 1914, I was standing at the corner of Mitchell and South Pryor Sts. when Miss Carrie Smith came across the street from the Southern Bell Telephone Exchange, and she stopped and talked with me a few minutes, this being the same Miss Carrie Smith who testified at the original trial of the above case, but who was at that time or sometime since has married a man named Benton.

C. A. ISOM, Sworn for the State. On Monday, April 20, 1914, about 10 o'clock, P.M. I could not say whether it was twenty or thirty minutes before or after, but about that time. I know that it was previous to 11 o'clock because we had to be at 33 Forsyth Street before 11 o'clock and we got there with the automobile before 11 o'clock. On the date and at the time stated I was sitting in this automobile referred to in front of the Metropolitan Club, on South Forsyth Street. In this automobile was Jimmie Wrenn. Jimmie has been working for Burke, who is employed in the office of L.Z.

Rosser on the Frank case, for the last several months. Fred Linn who has been running the automobile of C.W. Burke was also in the automobile. We were going North on South Forsyth St. and we passed the entrance of the Metropolitan Club which was on the West side of South Forsyth Street at the corner of West Mitchell. We passed beyond a weiner stand next to the Metropolitan Club. As we passed it, I first noticed a girl, my attention being attracted to her by Linn saying to Jimmie Wrenn, "yonder she is Jimmie". She had on a light blue dress, blue hat. After the automobile stopped Linn gave Wrenn a nickle and Wrenn went up to the weiner stand. He was the only man who went up to the weiner stand, and the girl described was the only girl present. I did not see them speak, because Linn suggested that we stand in the stairway as a city policeman was ~~standing~~ coming up just then. We were in the staircase entrance about a minute when Jimmie Wrenn came up eating a weiner. I pointed this girl out to detective Black on Friday, April 24, 1914. She came out of the southern bell telephone exchange, and I saw her talk a few minutes with Mr. N.A. Garner.
