

Q. I know, but are you acquainted with his general character, what is generally said about what has been said about him? A. I can't express my opinion of his general character?

Q. Just answer yes or no? A. Yes sir.

Q. Well, is that good or bad? A. I can't express my opinion of his character from hearsay.

Q. All right, that is what we want - from hearsay, up to April 26, 1913, just what people say said before the Phagan girl was killed. That hearsay is all you can give under the Judge's ruling? A. Well I will tell you all I can say--

The Court: Don't tell what you have heard, just tell whether or not you have heard anything.

Q. I won't press the point. I want to ask you if you knew Miss Irene Jackson? A. I certainly do.

Q. Do you know Miss Mayfield? A. I do.

Q. Were you or not ever present in the dressing room of the ladies on the fourth floor, when Miss Irene Jackson was present and when Miss Mayfield was present, when any or both of these young ladies were partially undressed, and Leo M. Frank came in that dressing room?

A. I was in the dressing room with Miss Jackson when she was undressed.

Q. Was undressed? A. Yes sir.

Q. Did or not Leo M. Frank come in there? A. He came to the door and opened it, and stuck his head inside of the door.

Q. Stuck his head inside of the door, did he or not knock? A. He did not knock.

Q. He did not knock; what, if anything was said -- when he did that, or what did he do when he stuck his head in? A. He just stood there and grinned or laughed, I don't know which.

Q. What was said to him by anybody in that room when he did that?

A. Miss Jackson -- he stood there for a few minutes longer, I suppose, then she thought he ought to, and she said, "Well, wear a dressing, blame it," and then he shut the door.

CROSS EXAMINATION by Mr. Rosser.

Q. Didn't he ask you if you girls didn't have any work to do? A. Yes sir.

Q. He put his head in, and didn't he say, "Haven't you girls got work to do?" A. He didn't say it that way.

Q. Of course, he didn't say it like I do, but he asked you if you didn't have any work to do? A. Yes sir.

Q. That was the only time you were ever in the room when he tried to come in, that is the fact, isn't it, and he never said anything but that? A. I didn't understand the question.

Q. I didn't think you did; well now, you were in there that day, Miss Kitchens? A. I was in there with Miss Jackson.

Q. Who else was in there? A. Well Miss Ethel Stewart, was in there part of the time.

Q. Just you three? A. Just us three.

Q. What time of day was it? A. Well, I can't state the exact time, it was in the afternoon.

Q. Well, was it during business hours? A. Yes sir.

Q. During business hours? A. Yes sir, we were dismissed from work, we didn't have any.

Q. You didn't have any work to do that day? A. No sir.

Q. And you were all just resting in the dressing room. A. Just what?

Q. You were in the dressing room because the work had been dismissed?

A. Now sir, we were in there dressing to leave.

Q. Dressing to leave? A. Yes sir.

Q. Who had dismissed you that you wouldn't have any work to do?

A. Mr. Joe Stelker.

Q. Mr. Stelker, and that is all he said, he asked you if you girls didn't have any work to do? A. That is all he said.

Q. And you all told him you didn't have any work to do? A. Yes sir.

Q. Aren't you mistaken, Miss Jones has been down here and testified, hasn't she? A. I have only got her word for it, she told me she had not.

Q. As a matter of fact, I am asking you if you know? A. I don't know.

Q. Now did they work there before this murder took place? A. Yes sir Miss Jones worked there before I ever went there.

Q. Did Miss Howell work there? A. No sir, Miss Howell worked there when the murder was committed, I think, in fact I know she told me she did, but I don't know just exactly, I was off from the factory four months, I quit in February, and never went back until --

Q. I am going to ask you a question, Miss Howell has been on the stand, hasn't she? A. She says she has not.

Q. I think she is mistaken. I am going to ask you the question that we have asked all of those ladies that worked on the 4th floor; I
