

J.E. Duffy, and Burke's chauffeur, Lynn at myself at my house. No money was given Duffy at that time. I made him loans on April 4 and April 11th. I loaned Duffy money when he worked under me at the Southern Railroad in the year 1910 and 1911 and at various times I loaned him small amounts of money. I think $3.60 was the greatest amount I had ever loaned him prior to that time. He got the money at three different times. He got $5.00 at one time and then on May 4th, I put that on a note of $10.00 I let him have and on May 11th I put it on a note with $10.00 and let him give one note for it $25.00. I said May a minute ago and that should have been April of this year. He made an affidavit on December 11, 1913, and I never loaned him any money at all, in fact until April 4, 1914. I did not give him one cent at that time. It must have been 7:00 o'clock when the parties met at my house. I never let Duffy have any money at all that night we met at my house. That was on December 11, 1913. He made an affidavit for C.W. Burke and on April 4, 1914, I let him have the first money I ever let him have since long before this trouble in 1912. I did not tell him he would never have to pay it back. I did not make such a statement to Duffy's father. Old man Duffy came over there to the railroad to my place of business - - I went to see Nellie Wood about the 25th of January, 1914. I knew she was a witness for the State ^{in the case} against Leo M. Frank. I went in C.W. Burke's automobile, and I went at his instance. Burke asked me to go there, he said he didn't know her himself, and I did. I had been a foreman out there for the Southern Road at Decatur Street for a long time and everybody knew of Nell drifting up and down Decatur Street. I never had anything to do with her. I think she is a woman of bad character. I can give names as to who said she was a bad character, a fellow named Bishop. He was not one of the men indicted in that crowd. His initials are J.E. Bishop and is not related to B.B. She told me that, while I was talking to her, that anything and everything would be all right, in connection with what she was doing. If telling me would mean I did know, I do know of my own knowledge. Anybody down there who will say anything about her will talk of her general bad character. Bishop can be found on Decatur Street. He is working there for the Southern Road as car inspector. He is in my office there all the time.
