

HOOPER BEGINS FINAL PLAY

ALWAYS FIRST
THE SUNDAY
AMERICAN Order it NOW
Both Phones Main 100

THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN.

Read for Profit--GEORGIAN WANT ADS--Use for Results
VOL. XII. NO. 17. ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1913. 2 CENTS. SAT. NO.

South Georgia
AFTERNOON EDITION

THAW GAINS BY COURT DELAY

SHREBROOKE, QUEBEC, Aug. 21. While Attorney Shurtliff was in Ottawa to-day pleading with the immigration department of the Dominion Government to turn Harry K. Thaw loose to go anywhere he pleased, Commissioner Price spent a night in a dead auto on a lonely road.

Commissioner Price Spends Night in Dead Auto on Lonely Road

All alone in a "dead" automobile on a dark night on a lonely road between Atlanta and Stone Mountain was the experience of Commissioner J. D. Price, of the State Department of Agriculture.

PATHFINDER ENDS FIRST TOUR LAP

L. Ferguson, official pathfinder for the all-Georgia trans-continent highway, left Birmingham Friday morning on the second lap of the route between the two Southern cities.

LEADING COUNSEL FOR FRANK IN FULL SWING

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

Bankers Pluck Flaws in New Money Bill

CHICAGO, Aug. 21.—A. B. Hopkins, of the Chase National Bank, New York, was the chief speaker today at a meeting of bankers and clearing house association representatives from all parts of the country.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS MAY TAKE ENTIRE DAY; DORSEY TO END CASE

Quickly but impressively, Luther Z. Rosser began the final plea in the defense of Leo M. Frank, accused of the murder of Mary Phagan, Friday morning.

Thaw sat in the St. Francis jail here bombarding various official circles in the United States to come to his aid.

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Thaw was taken additional hope from an editorial in The Sherbrooke Record demanding "British fair play" for him.

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Man-Eating Rooster Bites 10; Guillotined

LOGANSPORT, IND., Aug. 22.—Loansport's famous man-eating rooster was ordered killed by the police, and the owner, Casimir Jablowski, was victoriously attacked and wounded executing the order.

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Bald Jack' Rose to Lecture for Church

SOUTH-NORWALK, CONN., Aug. 22.—Jack Rose, principal witness in the Rosenbalm murder case, will lecture for the benefit of Christ Episcopal Church, his subject being "Life in the Underworld."

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Fire Alarm Fails to Admiral's Daughter

VALLEJO, CAL., Aug. 22.—Miss Louise W. Irwin, daughter of the late Rear Admiral John N. Irwin, former commander at Mare Island, is dead as the result of a fire alarm turned in at the Navy Yard.

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Slaying Inspired By French Novel

BALTIMORE, AUG. 22.—Julian Edmond, who killed his sister-in-law, Miss Eleanor Cole, and then shot himself at his home, was prompted to do the deed after reading "The Yellow Legion," one of Emile Zola's novels.

There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty, Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead," and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes arguments for defense.

Rosser's work on the Frank case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

It was expected that the bankers would draft an entirely new currency bill, taking all the features of the Owen-Glass bill favored by the bankers and eliminating the objectionable provisions.

Rosser was expected to speak for several hours and will be followed by Hollister Dorsey, who may finish before evening.

Rosser possesses none of the graces of the pleasing speaker, but in forcefulness he is hardly surpassed at the Atlanta bar.

Wife Shovels Snow; Gets Reno Decree

RENO, NEV., Aug. 22.—Helen May Donahue, a pretty Chicago woman, was granted a divorce here.

'Poor Girl Can't Be Good in New York'

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—"I want to die. A poor girl can't be good in New York," exclaimed Elizabeth Heavly, 17-year-old orphan, as she writhed in a bed of misery in Rivington Park.

Alligator Puts Hotel Patrons in a Panic

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—An alligator that was on exhibition at the Peabody Hotel at the convention of the National Comptroller Managers' Association escaped from its cage and invaded the dining room, sending guests scurrying to cover.

Monarchists to Buy Manual Wedding Gift

Special Cable to The American. LISBON, Aug. 22.—A monarchist demonstration was held here today to celebrate the coming wedding of King Manuel of Portugal.

THE WEATHER.

For Atlanta and Georgia.—Showers Friday and Saturday.

Continued on Page 3, Column 6.

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

Continued on Page 3, Column 2.

FRANK TRIAL HEARING END; CASE NOT LIKELY TO REACH JURY TO-DAY

Continued from Page 1.

conviction that the man who wrote the note found on the body of Mary Phagan was her murderer. He branded Jim Conley as a miserable lying scoundrel who was being helped by the pretty little factory girl, on whom he had seduced her...

He further called their attention to the fact that four chips were taken up by the detectives in the place where the supposed blood spots were found and that only one of them was any blood corpuscles found...

C. B. Dalton, who was one of the spectators in the room, along with "Christopher Columbus" Barrett, heard himself described by the attorney as a "common law lawyer" and again his changing and court record.

He closed his address with an inquiry as to the whereabouts of W. H. Mincey, who was expected to appear that Conley made a virtual confession to him.

CHARACTERISTIC POSE OF SOLICITOR AS HE MAKES A CONVINCING POINT

Hugh M. Dorsey stepped in action as the Frank trial.

Gesticulations aid the prosecutor in his arguments.

Senator Borah, Cut By Bottle, Swears

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—When Senator Borah attempted to take the cork out of a mineral water bottle in the Republican cloak room of the Senate, the neck broke and the pain of the Senator's hand was agony.

GAME TO GO TO WED; COULDN'T FIND FIANCEE

Actor, Arrested for Staring at Women, Says He Was Looking for His Sweetheart.

A wonderful tale of having come to Atlanta to get married and forgetting the address of his bride was told at police headquarters Friday by Edward Hogan, an actor from New Orleans, who was arrested at Five Points by Detective Harper late Thursday.

Divine Vision Bids Isadora Duncan Quit Stage for Nunery

Special Gang to The Atlanta Georgian: PARIS, Aug. 22.—Isadora Duncan, the best known performer of classical dances on the stage, announced today that she has received a message from Heaven to forsake public life and will do so at once.

Prof. Albert A. Bell, Georgia Tutor, Dies

Professor Albert A. Bell, one of Georgia's leading educators, died at a local sanitarium Thursday. He was superintendent of schools at Sparta, Ga. Surviving him are his wife, two children, his mother and several brothers and sisters.

PATHFINDER ENDS FIRST LAP OF TOUR

Sunday American's Coast-to-Coast Trail-Blazer Is Given Ovation in Birmingham.

Continued from Page 1. and continuing at Douglasville, Tallapoosa, Heflin, Anniston, Ashville and finally St. Clair, receptions and good roads celebrations were the rule without a single exception.

Mangum to Run for Sheriff Next June

Declaring the rumor that he expected to retire because of ill health groundless, Sheriff Wheeler C. Mangum announced today Friday that he will be a candidate to succeed himself at the election next June.

With Sheriff Kennerly in the race, it is generally thought that there will be at least four candidates for the office. Friends of Pinnacle Bluff, chief deputy under the present sheriff, have been urging him to run, and it is said he has consented to become a candidate.

TO-DAY'S MARKET OPENING

Table with columns for Stock quotations, High, Low, and Close. Includes items like Am. Steel, Am. Car & Foundry, etc.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

Table with columns for Opening, High, Low, and Close. Includes items like Aug. 1st, Aug. 2nd, etc.

NEW YORK COTTON

Table with columns for Opening, High, Low, and Close. Includes items like Aug. 1st, Aug. 2nd, etc.

LIVERPOOL COTTON MARKET

Table with columns for Aug. 1st, Aug. 2nd, etc. Includes items like Aug. 1st, Aug. 2nd, etc.

Strange Corpse to Cross U. S. in an Auto

SAN DIEGO, CAL., Aug. 22.—If Hambery, a local undertaker, will be the companion of a corpse in a transcontinental automobile ride from here to New York, Hambery does not know whose body it is that he is to drive with across the country.

GRACE REVIVAL DRAWS

Revival services at O'Neil Methodist Church are attracting great attention. Evangelists J. M. Bess and O. W. Westphal are conducting the service. Cottage prayer meetings are being held daily.

Pickett Residence Is Destroyed by Fire

Fire destroyed the two-story frame house belonging to Smith O. Pickett, on the Howell Mill road near the corner of Collier avenue, in close proximity of the residence of Colonel Thomas P. Pickett.

Industry Bureau Is Good City Booster

Since the establishment of the industrial and statistical bureau of the Chamber of Commerce, W. H. Leahy, secretary of the bureau, has been an award winner of inquiries from all parts of the United States concerning the advantages of Atlanta.

School Head Back; Urges Enrolling Now

Superintendent of Schools William M. Slaton has returned from Boston, New York and other Eastern cities, where he has been on his vacation. During his trip he studied school methods of various cities and obtained many new ideas, which he expects to apply to Atlanta schools.

The Best Food-Drink Lunon at Fountains

Advertisement for Horlick's Malted Milk. Includes text: 'Insist Upon ORIGINAL GENUINE HORLICK'S' and 'Avoid Imitations—Take No Substitute'.

The Danger of Imitations.

Advertisement for 'The Practical Druggist' and Castoria. Includes text: 'An Ohio druggist writes to "The Practical Druggist," a prominent New York Drug Journal, as follows: "Please furnish formula for Castoria..."'

Children Cry For

Large advertisement for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Includes text: 'The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in the market for over 30 years...' and 'What is CASTORIA'.

Coming of The Sunbeam

New to Avoid Those Pains and Discomforts which so Many Mothers Have Suffered.

Do You Want an Automobile?

The Automobile Column of The Georgian "WANT AD" Section is the place to find real bargains in cars. If you will read these ads every day you will eventually find what you want at a price you can afford to pay.

A House, A Home, A Horse, A Cow

"Want Ads" Will Tell You How

Advertisement for 'Want Ads'.

Advertisement for 'Weak, Nervous and Diseased Men Permanently Cured'.

Advertisement for '900 Drops'.

Advertisement for 'FOR BLOOD POISON'.

HOOVER AND ARBONMENT MADE MOST OF THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

Frank Hoover's speech in behalf of the prosecution against Leo Frank charged with the murder of the little Mary Phagan, reflected much credit upon him.

It was fair to the point, well thought out and appealing in tone and delivery.

It went for the defendant, hammer and tongs, but it was devoid of anything that might be construed as being in his behalf.

Undoubtedly, it was not pleasant to the defendant, sitting there, stolidly following the words of Hoover and Dorsey and Hoover, in its final aspect, may have made up a most dangerous case against Frank and Hoover was there to explain and sustain it. He performed his duty in a way that hardly can fail to bring him lasting applause and commendation.

If, however, Frank felt to the full the gloom of the case, made out against him by Hoover, he was more than abundantly taken care of when Frank followed.

The case made out in defense of Frank by Arnold was extremely plain and covered in detail every point developed by Hoover. It, like Hoover's, was a speech evidently carefully considered.

Jury Held in High Esteem.

Now, the thing about these two speeches that made them so notable and uniquely noteworthy, perhaps, is that both were seemingly designed for the consideration of the jury. They were highly intelligent and not apt to rush pell-mell to a verdict either for or against Frank.

And if the opposing counsel entertain that opinion of the jury—if they hold it in such compelling esteem and respect—and if the jury is such a jury as deserves that opinion, which I think it is, then the defense to the verdict will be righteous and just whatever it may be.

And that the chance of this jury will speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth—communication most devoutly to be wished!

"Try this case, gentlemen, according to the law and the facts," said Frank Hoover, addressing the jury Thursday.

"That is the goal and the ultimate request any man for or against the defendant could or should make of the twelve good men and true that are to pass upon the fate of Leo Frank.

Neither the State nor the defense in justice and right. Data will plead for more or less."

"The two opening speeches in court are heard and are meant to outline clearly the trend of the completed arguments both ways.

"Concluding attorneys may amplify and enlarge upon points raised by opening attorneys, but they rarely go far beyond the primary outline of the two main points of view.

"And so, while Hoover and Dorsey may go further than Hoover and Arnold in investigative, sarcastic, ridiculous and passionate outbursts, neither are apt to add anything material to either side, as compared with the things Hoover and Arnold have said.

"There is some reason to believe that the State—or, at least, there is supposed to be some advantage to it—in that it has the concluding argument before the jury.

"No injustice, then.

"Some people think this is an unfair trial and a hardship upon the defense, but when one comes to consider the theory upon which that practice is founded the apparent injustice and hardship of it vanishes, and it may be seen readily enough that in this, (as in so many things) the law has

FELINE WAIF FINDS PROTECTOR IN PRETTY HOTEL ANSLEY MISS

This is Miss Gladys Brinkley and "Governor Slaton" in a special pose for camera man.

"Governor Slaton" Is One of the Most Distinguished Young Cats in Atlanta.

"Governor Slaton" was served, and justly so, for a hurried traveling man had stepped on his tail. He arched his back, dug his claws into the soft rug at the Hotel Ansley and growled angrily. He loved no body and nobody loved him.

Then Miss Gladys Brinkley came along. Miss Brinkley is one of the prettiest of the young women who work at the Ansley. Her name is on the hands of the hat at the door of the racketeer are worth more than the dinner.

It was one of those wool-soled, joyful smiles the Miss Brinkley showed on the disconsolate "Governor."

"The Governor" succumbed to the witchery of the smile and knew right away that he had found a friend. So he sheathed his claws, dropped his back, and leaped straight into Miss Brinkley's arms, where he purred contentedly while she stroked him behind the ears and groomed over him.

"For Governor Slaton" isn't what you might think he is at all. He's a cat.

And the "Governor" is quite a remarkable cat, too. To begin with, he is snow white; not a hint of color marks his sleek body. He is absolutely alone in the world, having no brothers and sisters, and his mother deserted him when he was quite young. He is further distinguished by the fact that he probably is the only cat in captivity born in a big hotel. For the "Governor" first saw the light of day in a vacant room on the thirteenth floor of Atlanta's newest hotel.

"Governor Slaton" does not care much for human companionship—except Miss Brinkley—but once in a while he will allow Mrs. Moore, who keeps a shop on the mezzanine floor, to pat him. He has no use for men, unless they come bearing gifts, which he accepts and then sticks a claw into the hand of the giver. He is happy about six hours a day. That is when Miss Brinkley is on duty and he can snuggle up at her feet or purr luxuriously in her lap.

"And Miss Brinkley likes the "Governor" too.

"All cats are alike," she said, "but I like the one "Governor." He is so well behaved, and never tries to scratch me. He always trusts me and goes to work, and will sit with me for hours at a time. The "Governor" has been my friend ever since I first saw him, the day the traveling man stepped on his foot. I felt

CANADIAN PRESS FOR RELEASING HARRY THAW

Sympathy for Fugitive Great, and He Is Elated as Court Delay Aids His Fight.

Continued From Page 1.

Thaw will never go back to State-ward and Colonel Fraser.

The officials of the Department of Immigration are marking their time and doing nothing. They were apparently nothing for them to do with Thaw in jail and his custody entirely in the hands of the court. If the court runs Thaw loose or holds that he can be straddled, he will be turned over to the Immigration Department officials at once. Clarence J. Sherrin, a New York City lawyer, has a New York City attorney, has a complete list of the rights in Thaw's various habeas corpus fights in the New York State courts. Mr. Sherrin will make the seventh lawyer in the case.

These are the various lines along which Thaw now is fighting:

Delaying arguments on his habeas corpus fight; but he will have to keep in jail and cannot fall into the hands of the Immigration Department.

Having the matter established by Canadian specialists in order to prove to the Government he is not an undesirable alien.

Appealing to the American State Department and the Governor of Pennsylvania to assist him as a resident of the United States and property holder in Pennsylvania.

Preparing to ask for an injunction to prevent extradition of deportation if turned over to the officials of the Immigration Department by the court.

Bill Cleave, He Telle Meader, secretary of the organization to get his temporary freedom on bail, or that he might leave the country and the organization in the escape from Mattawan.

Thaw to-day wrote a long letter to his mother in Atlantic City, and soon to visit her in Crosson, Pa.

"My grievances" is not exhausted yet," he had to be fighting:

"When the prisoner looked through the barred window of his cell and saw a crowd of anxious-looking people in the streets about the jail, he showed his elation. The people of this part of Ontario are still making a gala occasion of Thaw's arrival every day here. There are so many visiting lawyers, newspaper men and courtiers that hotel accommodations are becoming scarce.

"I have had the Lehigh, Chester, Hornbrook, of Dulwich county, Pennsylvania, and had back in Mattawan, planned to leave for Philadelphia, Pa., to-day.

"I can not do any good here with my hands cuffed and my feet shackled. It is a certainty that Thaw will be deported to the United States.

"When Hornbrook went in to see me, he was very kind and friendly," Thaw said to the reporter. "He told me you, Sheriff," he said, "is a good fellow."

AMERICA'S CHAMPION HUSBAND,

NAT GOODWIN

has come to the rescue of downtrodden men who dare not speak their minds, and reveals all the joys and heartaches of matrimony in

"WHAT I THINK OF MY FIVE WIVES"

This daring actor in his new role explains how he found wife No. 1 "Like a Mother," No. 2 "An Obligation," Maxine Elliott a "Roman Senator," Edna Goodrich "An Error," and No. 5 his "Life Preserver." This will all appear in with the countless other features which have made The American the leading newspaper of the South, as well as a positive joy to the readers of Dixie. Lady Duff Gordon, who, as Lucille of London, is equally famous, will entertain her followers with a description of

NEXT SUNDAY'S AMERICAN

MARRIAGE MARKET GOWNS

with which far-seeing mothers enhance the charms of their debutante daughters. And coming down to the doings of fashionable Atlanta you will find that was among those present at all the functions of the inner circle, and will talk about them in her usual sprightly style. Moreover, baseball fans, as well as those who never see a game, will find a fascinating story in by Hugh S. Fullerton, which begins in this issue. So, why worry about your Sunday reading when you know that in addition to these great features and a dozen others, you can have all the news of the whole universe—sports, financial, foreign, political and local—delivered at your front door for 5 cents? Better catch the bargain at once, and order from your dealer or by plotting Main 100.

POLLY PEACHTREE

THE PLOT FOR THE PENNANT

Why is the soda cracker today such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package. Five cents.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

NEGRO HELD FOR MURDER.

Wright, a negro, was shot by the Smiths, another negro, south of Tuesday afternoon in the city of Atlanta. Smith held awaiting trial.

(Get Off the Line! We're Being Married!)

DAYTON, OHIO, Aug. 11—"Do you, Louis Mosele—'Number, please,' take Florence 'gon—'They don't answer."

"Oh, Central please get off the line, we're trying to get married."

Yes, Louis Mosele and Florence 'gon had their troubles getting married over the telephone. Capt Mosele got the phone plugs in their proper places on the switchboard and Squire Koehn was able to finish the ceremony.

Mosele and Miss 'gon had found two magistrates absent from their offices, and when they reached the office of Koehn, they were told that he had already contracted "to the knot" by phone.

So sorry for him I couldn't keep from cutting him.

The hotel attendants tell a rather remarkable tale about the coming of the cat, which shows why he was named "Governor Slaton." It seems that when the cage came to the Ansley and workmen took it to the thirteenth floor, a big white cat jumped out when they unrolled one. Kitty ran down the hall, and no attention was paid to her. Two weeks later the hotel opened, and Governor John M. Slaton was the first man to register. The same night one of the hotel employees found a little white cat on the thirteenth floor, crying its little heart out for something to eat. By consulting a few stocks and watching it was learned that the cat had been born at the exact moment Governor Slaton was registering his name on the hotel ledger—hence the name.

The Fly with spongy feet collects the harmful germs of disease and spreads them with its wings. Our flies are poisonous.

The Mosquito with its bill in your blood.

Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery

This famous medicine has been sold by medicine dealers in its health form for over forty years, giving great satisfaction. If you prefer you can now obtain it from Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery Laboratories, 100 N. 1st St., Philadelphia, Pa. It is sold by mail—send 50 cents in stamps. Dr. Price, M. D., 100 N. 1st St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Questions of Life—see by V. V. Farrow, M. D. All the mysteries of a young life revealed, with the help of the most famous medical experts in the world. Contains 100 pages with illustrations bound in cloth, price 75c. Send 50c in stamps to Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery Laboratories, 100 N. 1st St., Philadelphia, Pa.

ROSSER RIDICULES STATE'S CASE

Dorsey Prepares for Final Attack on Frank

CANADA WILL TRY SANITY OF THAW

Dominion Government Shows Hand for First Time in Legal Battle Over Fugitive.

Parents, Fighting For Four Children, Accuse Each Other

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Habeas corpus proceedings to determine which parents shall have custody of the four children, ranging in ages from 3 to 9 years, will be heard here tomorrow in the City Court of Washington, the writ having been sworn out by W. L. Hamilton against Mrs. Minerva Mitchell Hamilton of Monroe, La.

PATHFINDER ENDS FIRST TOUR LAP

L. Ferguson, official pathfinder for the all-Southern trans-continental highway, left Birmingham Friday morning on the second lap of the tour.

LEADING COUNSEL FOR FRANK IN FULL SWING

Rosser works on the case has taken even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

ROSSER A 'WIREGRASS' MAN, TOO—HOOVER

During his argument Attorney Rosser referred to Attorney Hoover of the prosecution, as "a wiregrass man from the wiregrass."

SOLICITOR AND CITY DETECTIVES SCORED FOR TACTICS IN CASE

For three and one-half hours Friday, Attorney Rosser, making the final plea of the defense, held the State case against Leo M. Frank charged with the murder of Mary Phagan, up to the scorn of an intently listening jury in a masterful, analytical and denunciatory closing

At the same time W. L. Shurtzoff, counsel for Thaw, returned from Ottawa after serving a month in the Department of Immigration that it must show that Thaw is insane before he can be deported or extradited.

Divine Vision Bids Isadora Duncan Quit Stage for Nunnery

SPECIAL CABLE TO THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN. PARIS, Aug. 22.—Isadora Duncan, the best known performer of classic dances on the stage, announced today that she has received a message from Heaven to forsake public life and will do so at once. She may enter a nunnery.

Recently Miss Duncan's two children were killed in an automobile accident and since then she had a nervous escape from death.

Luther Z. Rosser, closest argument for defense.

most part Mr. Rosser was cool and incisive, but at times he grew bitter in his attack on the methods he attributed to Solicitor Dorsey and the detectives.

The indications now are that the Government will attempt to prove Thaw insane. That would be acceptable to the Thaw counsel, as they have already taken steps to combat it under direction of Dr. Britton Evans.

Deny Caminetti Is To Admit His Guilt

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22.—A rumor to the effect that F. Drew Caminetti, son of Commissioner General of Immigration Caminetti, will plead guilty next Tuesday and throw himself upon the mercy of the court, was positively denied today by counsel for the defense.

There is not a chance in the world," said his counsel. "We contend that Mr. Caminetti is not guilty of white slavery and will fight to the finish. We also are going to attack the Dicks case after sentence is pronounced."

Georgia To Be 10 Days Without a Governor

Georgia will be without a Governor Saturday following the departure of Governor Charles M. Dalton, who will attend a conference of governors in Colorado next week.

Woman Shoots Man To Save Her Husband

SAVANNAH, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Hattie Lucas, living at Mathias, shot and wounded Spert Loyd three Thursday nights. Loyd was fighting with Mrs. Lucas' husband when she shot him in the back with a revolver.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice uninduced by outside consideration.

Slain Bride Is Buried Beside Judge Godbee

WATKINSVILLE, Aug. 22.—The bodies of both victims of the Edgewood Perkins Godbee lie beneath the 203 of Watkinsville. Mrs. Florence Boyer Godbee, the young bride, was interred at Magnolia Cemetery today beside her dead husband, Judge Walter B. Godbee, who was buried here on Tuesday.

T. R. Likely to Quit Hopis for 'Moosers'

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Theodore Roosevelt may leave the Navajo reservation in Arizona to attend the Progressive party in Chicago on August 30.

Two Die in Suicide Pact

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 22.—Wedded in each other's arms, Roy Rogers, 25, and Hazel Stewart, 24, a married woman, died early today in a suicide pact carried out with carbolic acid.

Rotary Club Files Petition for Charter

PETITION FOR A charter of incorporation for the newly organized Rotary Club was filed with the clerk of the superior court Friday morning.

Slayer Patrick to Practice Law Again

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 22.—Albert T. Patrick, of New York, who was pardoned after serving ten years in the death cell in Sing Sing, N. Y., on a murder charge, has announced that he will resume the practice of law in this city.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice uninduced by outside consideration.

Editorial Pleases Thaw

Dr. Evans has left for New York. He was much accused of being a lackey for a gangster. His appearance before the jury for the plaintiff is a big busy man with his feet.

THE WEATHER

For Atlanta and Georgia. Showers Friday and Saturday.

Georgia To Be 10 Days Without a Governor

Georgia will be without a Governor Saturday following the departure of Governor Charles M. Dalton, who will attend a conference of governors in Colorado next week.

Woman Shoots Man To Save Her Husband

SAVANNAH, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Hattie Lucas, living at Mathias, shot and wounded Spert Loyd three Thursday nights. Loyd was fighting with Mrs. Lucas' husband when she shot him in the back with a revolver.

Slayer Patrick to Practice Law Again

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 22.—Albert T. Patrick, of New York, who was pardoned after serving ten years in the death cell in Sing Sing, N. Y., on a murder charge, has announced that he will resume the practice of law in this city.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice uninduced by outside consideration.

Editorial Pleases Thaw

Dr. Evans has left for New York. He was much accused of being a lackey for a gangster. His appearance before the jury for the plaintiff is a big busy man with his feet.

THE WEATHER

For Atlanta and Georgia. Showers Friday and Saturday.

Georgia To Be 10 Days Without a Governor

Georgia will be without a Governor Saturday following the departure of Governor Charles M. Dalton, who will attend a conference of governors in Colorado next week.

Woman Shoots Man To Save Her Husband

SAVANNAH, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Hattie Lucas, living at Mathias, shot and wounded Spert Loyd three Thursday nights. Loyd was fighting with Mrs. Lucas' husband when she shot him in the back with a revolver.

Slayer Patrick to Practice Law Again

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 22.—Albert T. Patrick, of New York, who was pardoned after serving ten years in the death cell in Sing Sing, N. Y., on a murder charge, has announced that he will resume the practice of law in this city.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice uninduced by outside consideration.

Editorial Pleases Thaw

Dr. Evans has left for New York. He was much accused of being a lackey for a gangster. His appearance before the jury for the plaintiff is a big busy man with his feet.

THE WEATHER

For Atlanta and Georgia. Showers Friday and Saturday.

Georgia To Be 10 Days Without a Governor

Georgia will be without a Governor Saturday following the departure of Governor Charles M. Dalton, who will attend a conference of governors in Colorado next week.

Woman Shoots Man To Save Her Husband

SAVANNAH, Aug. 22.—Mrs. Hattie Lucas, living at Mathias, shot and wounded Spert Loyd three Thursday nights. Loyd was fighting with Mrs. Lucas' husband when she shot him in the back with a revolver.

Slayer Patrick to Practice Law Again

TULSA, Okla., Aug. 22.—Albert T. Patrick, of New York, who was pardoned after serving ten years in the death cell in Sing Sing, N. Y., on a murder charge, has announced that he will resume the practice of law in this city.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice uninduced by outside consideration.

ASKS HOW FRANK KNOW GIRL WOULD COME FOR HER PAY? No Way for Him to Know She Would Call on Holiday, Rosser Asserts

AS ACTIVE GANG BEAT ON CONVICTS ACQUAINTED

CHARACTERISTIC POSE OF SOLICITOR AS HE MAKES A CONVINCING POINT

Continued from Page 1. pass our friends and do not recognize them. This means in the hands of force and aid of revolvers. We mean no harm to ourselves nor harm to our friends, you are safe. You cease to be a part of that revelry of the streets. In old pagan Rome, women of the streets, dressed gaily and carelessly, but a few feet aside—the vestal virgins. They cared not for the gladiatorial combats or the strife.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

Hugh M. Dorsey snarped in action at the Frank trial. Gestulations of the prosecutor in his arguments.

"It is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

He has combed the young with a fist-tooled comb. Young women have had to fly to cover, and young men go down the middle of the road. That immoral squall; what do they call it. Brother Arnold! Oh, yes; the vice squad. Has he swept the town with a broom until there are no insects left in the house? And now they try to tell us this pencil factory was an immoral resort.

"It is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

He has combed the young with a fist-tooled comb. Young women have had to fly to cover, and young men go down the middle of the road. That immoral squall; what do they call it. Brother Arnold! Oh, yes; the vice squad. Has he swept the town with a broom until there are no insects left in the house? And now they try to tell us this pencil factory was an immoral resort.

"It is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

He has combed the young with a fist-tooled comb. Young women have had to fly to cover, and young men go down the middle of the road. That immoral squall; what do they call it. Brother Arnold! Oh, yes; the vice squad. Has he swept the town with a broom until there are no insects left in the house? And now they try to tell us this pencil factory was an immoral resort.

"It is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

He has combed the young with a fist-tooled comb. Young women have had to fly to cover, and young men go down the middle of the road. That immoral squall; what do they call it. Brother Arnold! Oh, yes; the vice squad. Has he swept the town with a broom until there are no insects left in the house? And now they try to tell us this pencil factory was an immoral resort.

"It is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

"No it is with you apart. You say not for the chatter of the tongue of the rabble. You are unprepared. You are the sworn duty of the thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty. I do not feel that I can add to anything Mr. Rosser said except to touch the high places and probably wonder what some places where he did not go.

He has combed the young with a fist-tooled comb. Young women have had to fly to cover, and young men go down the middle of the road. That immoral squall; what do they call it. Brother Arnold! Oh, yes; the vice squad. Has he swept the town with a broom until there are no insects left in the house? And now they try to tell us this pencil factory was an immoral resort.

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

parrot. Gantit would have been the first to testify to it. "I had intended not to go into the detail, but if you will bear with me for a while I will. My friend Hooper said he had fairly presented the State's case. If he has they haven't said said if he has not he has not been fair to you. Says Boy Was Whooled by Dorsey. "They say Frank had been preparing for this for several weeks. That little fellow says he saw Frank talking to the little girl and calling her

Continued on Page 3, Column 1.

WOLFSHEIMER 114-116 Whitehall Street Specials for Cash Only Stew Meat80c Brisket10c Pot Roast15c Rib Roast17c/2 Chuck Steak15c Round Steak17c/2 Loin Steak20c Porterhouse Steak20c LAMB Lamb Stew90c Lamb Shoulder12c/2 Lamb Hindquarter15c Lamb Chops20c Hams, Sugar-cured Picnic14c/2 Hams19c to 21c WOLFSHEIMER 114-116 Whitehall Street

Cash Grocery Co. 116 WHITEHALL 20 lbs Sugar $1.25 No. 10 Silver LARD $1.25 Winner Ham 10c Coffee, lb. 25c Wesson Oil 24c

BANKRUPT SALE! Millinery Supplies for Retail Merchants and Milliners $26,000.00 STOCK OF MYERS' MILLINERY CO. NOW ON SALE Purchasers Can Select Just What They Can Use in Their Own Business at Less Than Cost to Myers Millinery Co. Stock Consists of Following Items, To-wit: Ribbons, $5,000; silks, $1,944; hat pins, $95; thread, silks, $288; mourning veil, $100; hat bands, $40; $276; hats, $950; valentines, $48; velvet, $1,285; English crepe, $155; mill, $124; mill, $1,000; pumies, $3,883; cigarettes and fancy tapers, $2,800; flowers, $3,828; children's headwear, $846; hats and frames, $1,750. This sale is being conducted under order of the Referee in Bankruptcy, at the old store of Myers Millinery Co., 39 East Alabama street, Atlanta, Ga. Terms cash. H. A. FERRIS, TRUSTEE

HORSE'S ACTIONS ARE PLAYED BY ROSSER They Will Never Be Released in Georgia Courts, He Says

2 LAWYERS HAD CURVES OF POLICE

Continued From Page 2

to the press table and said that he wanted to make an explanation of where he came from, after Mr. Rosser's improper reference to him. "You both came from Randolph County, Hooper said, and I guess Mr. Rosser knows about as much about politics and who grass as I do."

"The only surmise against this man is that he employed me and he employed Herbert Haas. I fell in love with the boy, and I fell in love with the boy because my friend 'Dorsey' didn't say anything about Mr. Arnold. Frank didn't employ me on Sunday, but on Monday the police employed different tactics. They came after him with two detectives. He was arrested—oh, no. Hooper friend Black said he was law-abiding. When I asked him what that meant, he said he wasn't arrested and he didn't do anything to any police. Hooper Frank was under arrest for the assault and battery on Chief Meyers, and they left Frank to soak."

"I was the only time in the whole thing," he said, "you didn't show good sense. If you had known what I know about that bunch, you wouldn't have gotten one lawyer, but you would have gotten two good ones, and you wouldn't have been arrested. If you had seen the man who was in the car, you wouldn't have been arrested. He was a white man, Frank. He knew that bunch. He was one of the police, an agent to be mischievous, thought about what I say about that police bunch because if they take a notion they would get me for white slavery before they would."

"At any rate, the Montag called Herbert Haas and told him to go down there and see what is the matter with Leo Frank. Haas could not go. I will give a house and land worth $10,000 to him in the same position he was last day. His wife was preparing to have a baby."

"Not Arrested, But Had to Be Released." "Big took the automobile and went down to Haas' house and said you looked at that man, you were at the station, and what happened? That through a good God of light on the street."

Uther Rosser's Tribute to the Jury

"We walk the streets carelessly, discovered in our own interests. We pass our friends, and do not recognize them. The mind wanders in flights of fancy and idle revelry. We mean no harm to ourselves nor harm to our friends, but we are careless. We walk the streets, chatting gaily and carelessly, but a few weary set-aside—the vital virgin. They cared not for the gladiatorial combats or the strife."

"So it is with you set apart. You care not for the chatter or the laughter of the rabble. You are unprejudiced. You are the sworn duty to pass on a matter of life and death. You are to decide on the evidence, with no favor, no affection, no prejudice. You are to do your duty without one thought of the past or the future. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty."

"Others may take the brave talk of standing up for the weak and oppressed, but it is not for you. You are here and now concerned by justice to do your duty."

"I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge."

"I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge."

"I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge."

"I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge. I am afraid I have heard of going to the police station to file a charge."

BASS DRY GOODS CO.

CLEARANCE OF BEAUTIFUL DRESSES
$3.90 Ladies' Beautiful white embroidered Net Dresses, Handmade white embroidered V-neck dresses, silk, tulle, lace, worth $10.00 to $12.50. Choice... $3.90

EMBROIDERY AND VIOLETTES
$1.98 500 Ladies' Dresses at 1-3 their value in all-over white embroidery and dainty white voile. Dresses worth up to $6.00. Special... $1.98

SKIRTS WAISTS
100 Ladies' and Misses' All-wool Serge Skirts in Plain Black, White Stripes and mixtures, worth up to $4.00. In our Clearance Sale... $2.98

SILK PETTICOATS CHILDREN'S DRESSES
100 New Silk Mesaline Petticoats, with the new accordion ruffles and fancy silk trimmings. Full length, worth $2.00. Everywhere... $1.98

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR
Good quality Muslin Drawers, neatly trimmed and worth 50c... $1.98

NEW FALL DRESSES
$6.90 New Fall Silks, Messaline and Silk Poplin-Dresses. Black and all colors. Sold everywhere for $10.00 and $12.50. Only... $6.90

WHITE SKIRTS LAWN WAISTS
Fine all-wool serge skirts in plain black, white and white serge. Sold up to $10.00... $6.90

BALKAN MIDDY-BLOUSES TAFFETALE PETTICOATS
Ladies' Black Taffeta Petticoats with silk trimmings. Worth $1.00. Only... $6.90

RATINE HATS LADIES' VESTS
Ladies' Fine Mesh Vests, with silk trimmings. Worth $1.00. Only... $6.90

SALE OF NEW FALL HATS
The new fall hats are here. All the new styles and colors. Specially priced for early buyers... $1.98 to $4.98

HOUSE DRESSES CREPE KIMONOS
Ladies' good quality House Dresses, worth $12.00. Only... $6.90

OTHER SPECIALS
LADIES' SILK HOSE Ladies' Fine Silk Hose in Black, White and Tan, worth 50c. Pair... $2.98

LADIES' SILK GLOVES Ladies' 18 Button Silk Tulle Gloves, Black and White, pair... $3.98

TAFFETA RIBBONS Ladies' 6" Wide Tulle Ribbons, 6 and 8 inches wide. Will go in a rank at yard... 3c

LADIES' SILK HOSE Ladies' Fine Black Silk Hose, worth 50c. Pair... $1.98

DINING TABLES Ladies' Dining Tables, with 6 chairs. $9.98

KITCHEN SALES Ladies' Kitchen Sets, with 6 chairs. $9.98

OPEN UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK SATURDAY

HOOPER AND ARNOLD IN ARGUMENT MADE MOST OF THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

Frank Hooper's speech in behalf of the prosecution against Leo Frank, charged with the murder of little Mary Phagan, reflected much credit upon him.

It was fair, to the point, well delivered and appealing in tone and delivery. It went for the defendant, hammer and tongs, but it was devoid of anything that might be construed as below the belt.

It was not pleasant to the defendant sitting there, stolidly following the words of Hooper—but Hooper and Arnold, in their respective speeches, have made out a most dangerous case against Frank, and Hooper was there to explain and sustain the charges. He performed his duty in a way that hardly can fail to bring him lasting applause and commendation.

Hooper's speech was extremely plain—covered in detail every point developed by Hooper. He made Hooper's case a speech, evidently carefully considered.

Hooper's speech was extremely plain—covered in detail every point developed by Hooper. He made Hooper's case a speech, evidently carefully considered.

Hooper's speech was extremely plain—covered in detail every point developed by Hooper. He made Hooper's case a speech, evidently carefully considered.

Hooper's speech was extremely plain—covered in detail every point developed by Hooper. He made Hooper's case a speech, evidently carefully considered.

FELINE WAIF FINDS PROTECTOR IN PRETTY HOTEL ANSLEY MISS

This is Miss Gladys Brinkley and "Governor Slaton" in a special pose for camera man.

"Governor" is never quite happy unless he is safe in the arms of his fair guardian. No one can step on his tail then—he's sure of that.

The three-story floor of Atlanta's newest hotel, the Ansley, was not quite so much for human companionship—except Miss Brinkley—but once in a while he will allow Mrs. Morgan, who keeps a shop on the mezzanine floor, to take him.

"Governor Slaton" is one of the most distinguished young cats in Atlanta. "Governor Slaton" was traveling, and justly so, for a hurried evening had had stepped on his tail. He arched his back, dug his claws into the soft rug at the Hotel Ansley and started growling. He tried no body and nobody loved him.

Then Miss Gladys Brinkley came along. Miss Brinkley is one of the prettiest of the young women who work at the Ansley. Dinner until saying that the smile she dispenses she holds out the bats at the door of the rathskeller are worth more than the dinner.

It was one of those white-robed, joyful smiles the Miss Brinkley bestowed on the disconsolate "Governor." The "Governor" succumbed to the witchery of the smile and knew right away that he had found a friend. So he sheathed his claws, dropped his back and leaped straight into Miss Brinkley's arms, where he curled contentedly while she stroked him behind the ears and crooned over him.

MAKE NOT TO GET TIME EXTENSION

Name of Bolling H. Jones as Successor to Go to Senate Within Few Days.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—Despite the efforts of Postmaster Hugh L. McKee of Atlanta to postpone his removal by the Postoffice Department and his assertions that he will fight the request for his immediate resignation, no extension of time will be allowed him. He will be summarily removed. It was said here today, within a few days, and the name of Bolling H. Jones will be sent in as his successor within the next two or three days.

The department has read Mr. McKee's statement, in which he denies any knowledge of the efforts of his friends to have the charges withdrawn. He states emphatically that he does not want them withdrawn, and that he will not resign his office until he knows the nature of the charges. Mr. McKee and his friends are requested on the grounds that the administration wished to appoint a Democrat, he would have complied at once, but in view of the charges, he thinks it best to remain at his post until they are proved or disproved.

Senator Borah, Out By Bottle, Swoons

WASHINGTON, Aug. 27.—When Senator Borah attempted to take the cork out of a mineral water bottle in the Republican cloak room of the Senate, the neck broke and the palm of the Senator's hand was badly cut. The blood flowed so freely and the cut was so painful that the Senator swooned. A doctor was summoned and it was found necessary to take three or four stitches in the wound.

NEGRO HELD FOR MURDER. Dave Wright, a negro who was shot by Abe Smith, another negro youth, Tuesday afternoon in a courtyard street, died in Grady Hospital Thursday. Wright was held awaiting preliminary hearing on a charge of murder.

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY. COLUMBIAS.—The Columbus Labor Union is preparing a program for Labor Day at Wildwood Park. There are about 2,000 union men in Columbus.

Robinaire Hair Dye. This wonderful preparation keeps the hair in a beautiful condition, restores the original color to faded gray hair, and does not stain the scalp or make the hair sticky. Prepared for night, morning and day, it browns and black hair. For sale by druggists and toilet goods departments. 75c. If you can not obtain it, send by parcel post, 85c. If you will give us a name of a druggist who can not supply you, we will send you FREE a sample of the wonderful Robinaire Hair Dye. Write to Jacobs' Pharmacy, P. O. Box 100, New York, N. Y.

Commissioner Price Spends Night in Dead Auto on Lonely Road

All alone in a "dead" automobile on a dark night on a lonely road between Atlanta and Stone Mountain was the experience of Commissioner J. D. Price of the State Department of Agriculture.

Although Mr. Price admitted it a good one on him, he doesn't make any secret of it, and now that the harrowing experience is a thing of the past, he actually chuckles when he speaks of it.

The Commissioner and his son were motoring from Dalton to Atlanta. Everything went well until the Georgia Railroad crossing a few miles from Stone Mountain was reached. There is a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead" and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight. Mr. Price remained in the car while his son walked four miles to the nearest house for assistance.

Poor Girl Can't Be Good in New York. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—I want to die. A poor girl can't be good in New York," said Elizabeth Heath, 14-year-old orphan, as she awaited the verdict of the jury in the case of her mother's murder. She was rushed to a hospital. "I won't be bad, so I can't live," moaned the girl, refusing to take an antidote.

Wife Shovels Snow Gets Reno Divorce. RENO, NEV., Aug. 27.—Irene May Donahue, a pretty Chicago woman, has obtained a divorce here. She had been married to her husband, John Francis Donahue, though she was doing manual labor. Mrs. Donahue said she had been accused of adultery with a man. There is one child, four years old.

STATE ASYLUM INSPECTED. Representative J. R. P. Thompson, chairman of the House Committee on the State Sanitation at Mississippi, inspected the institution here in excellent condition. He completed his inspection Thursday.

LOYD LINE TO NEW ORLEANS. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—A cablegram received from Lloyd's line of steamships has made arrangements to inaugurate a trip to New Orleans and back. The trip between Bremen, Boston and New Orleans. The new service will commence September 11.

BOY KIDNAPED 7 YEARS AGO FOUND

New York Mystery Cleared When History of Trappist Monks' Ward Is Traced.

LACHES, QUE., Aug. 27.—After being kidnaped by gypsies and escaping, then being taken up and cared for by Canadian monks, Frederick Brouseau of Potomac, N. Y., has been found. Brouseau was kidnaped seven years ago when he was seven years old. After escaping he was given a home by Trappist monks near Oka. The monks reared him. The gypsies made several unsuccessful attempts to get the boy away.

Killed While Rushing To See His Sick Baby. LEXINGTON, Aug. 27.—Mortch Little, a railroad man of Casey, Ky., called home by illness of his baby, jumped from a train when it did not stop at his home, broke his back and a leg and fractured his skull. He died at a hospital here.

Chatham County's rate for 1915 has been fixed at $1.25 on $1,000, which is the same rate levied for last year. It was found to be impracticable to make any downward revision of the rate, despite the rather substantial increase in the rate of revenue will be only about $2,000.

Federal Debtors and Flowers For All Occasions. Atlanta Floral Company, 408 EAST FAIR STREET.

Season's Farewell Offer!

Tomorrow Positively Ends It. Your One Last Chance to Get

EXTRA PANTS FREE

"Stop all free pants offers after tomorrow's sale." That's our orders. We've got to obey. After tomorrow we tighten up. No more "gift" pants. This is positively your only hope—your last chance to get a nifty pair of genuine S. W. M. $5, $6 and $7 pants made to order absolutely free.

SUTS

Made to Order

EXTRA $5, $6, $7 PANTS FREE

We are going to end the season in a blaze of glory. Our entire line of fancy fabrics is at your disposal. The run of the store is yours. Choose any material—there are no restrictions. But come early and get the cream of the picking.

REMEMBER—this is final—your last chance

Scotch WOOLEN MILLS

The Original $15 Tailors

107 PEACHTREE

"The Piedmont Is Across the Street!"

Open Saturday Night Until 10:30

The Best Food-Drink Lunch at Fountains

Horlicks Malted Milk

Insist Upon ORIGINAL GENUINE HORLICKS

Avoid Imitations—Take No Substitute

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigorates nursing mothers and the aged.

More healthful than tea or coffee. Agree with the weakest digestion. Keep in your cupboard at home. A quick lunch prepared in a minute.

WOMEN THROU COURT TO HEAR CLOSE

Many Unable to Secure Admittance on Account of the Immense Crowd.

Continued From Page 2.

... to come back the next morning to work at the factory. But he had said Arnold, how was he to know that Mary Phagan was not going to come after her pay envelope Friday night at 8:30, or along with the rest of the employees?

He did not believe that Helen Ferguson asked Frank for the pay envelope of Mary Phagan and was refused. Of course, the Ferguson girl testified on the stand that she did but, other testimony developed that Ethel was the man who paid off and not Frank at all. And Megolita Kennedy, in whose word Arnold was inclined to place much credence as in that of the States witness, swore that she was standing by Helen Ferguson at the pay window and that the Ferguson girl got her envelope and never asked for the Phagan girl's pay.

But even granting that this was so, argued Arnold, what reason had Frank to believe, accepting the States theory, that he was standing by Mary Phagan not coming for her pay Friday, that Mary would not come on Monday, the next work day, for her money, as was the general custom in the penitentiary?

Arnold presented it as his positive conviction that the man who wrote the notes found by the body of Mary Phagan was her murderer. He branded Jim Cobley as a miserable, lying scoundrel who was busily engaged in concocting stories, with the help of the detectives, with which he might save his own black neck from the hangman's noose. "The woman," he said, "was the work of a savage negro. The eloquent lawyer paid his compliments to 'Christopher Columbus Barrett, the discoverer' of the alleged blood spots and of the strands of hair on the lathing machine. He charged that Barrett was only after the reward money, and called to the attention of the jury that Chief of Detectives Lanford and his assistant went over the same place on the factory floor Sunday where Barrett discovered the spots on Monday morning.

He further called their attention to the fact that four chips were taken up by the detectives in the place where the supposed blood spots were found and that on only one of them were any blood corpuscles found—and then only three or four, when one drop of blood contains thousands of the corpuscles. He referred to the testimony and showed that the chips were covered with grime and dirt and that there was nothing to show that the few blood corpuscles had not been there three months or years.

The spots, inasmuch as they failed to respond to the blood test, he maintained, must have resulted from staining dyes exactly as the dyes had concluded from the very first. C. B. Dalton, who was one of the spectators in the room, along with 'Christopher Columbus' Barrett heard himself described by the attorney as a 'commo' liar' who had bragged his challenging and court record. Boys Detectives

Cooked Negro. Arnold then turned his attention to the negro Conley's story, as told in his various affidavits and on the stand. He took it from the first and pointed out what he deemed the inconsistencies and the impossibilities.

He pictured the detectives helping the negro in his story. He exhibited a chair and pointed out the time discrepancies in the States case from the viewpoint of the defense. He concluded with an appeal to the jury not to be swayed by the tales of any slander that had been uttered against the plainer.

Attorney Hooper made a vigorous SEMI-ANNUAL STATEMENT For the six months ending June 30, 1913, of the condition of

The American Credit-Indemnity Company OF NEW YORK

Organized under the laws of the State of New York, made to the Government of the State of Georgia in pursuance with the laws of said State. Principal Office—New York City.

I. CAPITAL STOCK.
Amount of capital stock authorized $1,000,000.00
Amount of capital stock paid up in cash $500,000.00

II. ASSETS.
Total admitted assets $1,210,859.00

III. LIABILITIES.
Surplus over all liabilities $1,163,536.01
Total liabilities (including $500,000 capital) $1,039,429.99

IV. INCOME DURING FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1913.
Net Income $1,062,465.52
Income from interest $21,482.30

Total Income $1,083,947.82
Total loss payments $28,002.29
Operating expenses (including items for which we carried a reserve of $23,644.53 December 31, 1912) $19,171.31
Loss on bonds $502.50
Total disbursements $47,676.10
A copy of the full and true account of this report is on file in the office of the Insurance Commissioner.

STATE OF MISSOURI—City of St. Louis.
I, Joseph J. Groves, who being duly sworn, depose and testify that I am the secretary of The American Credit-Indemnity Company, a corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, and authorized before me to make and publish this report; and that I have read the same and it is true and correct, and I have sworn to its truth and contents before me as the law and duty require.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND AND SEAL OF OFFICE, this 11th day of August, 1913.
JOSEPH J. GROVES, Secretary.

Notary Public, City of St. Louis, Missouri.
I, R. B. WITHERSPON, Attorney at Law, St. Louis, Missouri.

WARS DECLARED ON FOOD LAW VIOLATORS

Complaints Arouse Commissioner Price to Action—He Gives Warning of Crusade.

Commissioner J. D. Price, of the State Department of Agriculture Friday morning formally declared war on the violators of the pure food laws of Georgia.

The campaign, which is the result of numerous complaints, will be directed against slaughter houses, meat markets, dairies, groceries, soda fountains and drug stores which handle illegal narcotics.

Mr. Price will conduct the campaign personally through Chief P. A. Kerby and six inspectors.

Mr. Price declared Friday he was forced to take the step in accordance with the provisions of the pure food law. He said he would give fair warning, then if conditions were not improved he would not hesitate to make elaborate arrests.

"We are making no grandstand plays in this fight," he said. "We simply are going after those who are doing wrong."

He said that the law is enforced to make adulterated articles stop from being sold, and that he had been for several months investigating the violation of the law.

Inspector Kerby, who is in charge of the State Department, according to the Commissioner, has brought to his attention several instances of illegal slaughter conditions in some of the dairies and in some of the food dispensaries. One can of milk inspected showed millions of germs to the cubic centimeter.

REAL ESTATE AND CONSTRUCTION NEWS

Lot on Edgewood Ave. Brings $110 a Foot

Edgewood avenue property continues to be in demand, and the price of it is high. A parcel of 113 feet wide and 113 feet deep on Edgewood avenue, between First and Second streets, was sold for $110 a foot. This was the highest price ever paid for a lot of this size in this city.

Loan Business Good.
The loan business is fast improving and indications point to an unusually good autumn business. This is due to the fact that the insurance companies are lending more, and all that the lender asks is good security. The smaller loans are occasionally bringing 10 per cent, but frequently large amounts are placed at 8 per cent, and some in a while at 7.

Ground Broken for Club.
Ground has been broken for the new club house of the "Dixie" Club. The building will be on the corner of Peachtree and North streets, and the structure should be completed in about three months. The situation is on the north side of Peachtree street, between North and South streets, near the intersection of Peachtree and North streets.

Loan Dred Given.
Luther S. Roemer Jr. has given a loan of $100,000 to the Georgia Southern Railway Co. for the purpose of improving the road between Atlanta and Marietta, Ga.

Contractors Submit Bids.
Alicia contractors are busy preparing bids for the new city hall building at Great Park. Bids will be opened on August 15th.

To Oil Peachtree Road.
The McKeenies, the Hugginses, the Drays, the Chappells, the Edgemoors and others at Brookwood and along Peachtree road, are planning to have a good road.

Mrs. W. J. H. Smith at 10 W. D. Murphy and C. M. Hodgins, 45 lot in land lot 181, of subdivision of A. E. Smith, C. O. Beck, of which estate. August 11.

1150—W. W. Tracy, No. 46 1/2 street, build separate house. May 20.

1150—Ben Feld to Annie M. Cox, southeast corner of Glenn and Hill streets, $1 in 11, September 11, 1911.

1150—Mrs. Annie M. Cox to Mrs. Annie M. Sutton, same property. October 1, 1911.

1150—C. L. Little, No. 413 South street, same as addition. Day work.

1150—W. W. Tracy, No. 46 1/2 street, build separate house. May 20.

1150—Ben Feld to Annie M. Cox, southeast corner of Glenn and Hill streets, $1 in 11, September 11, 1911.

1150—Mrs. Annie M. Cox to Mrs. Annie M. Sutton, same property. October 1, 1911.

1150—C. L. Little, No. 413 South street, same as addition. Day work.

1150—W. W. Tracy, No. 46 1/2 street, build separate house. May 20.

Tariff Act May 20 The U. S. $10,000,000

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The tariff act, which provides for a reduction of duties on many articles, is being considered by the Senate. The act is expected to be passed in the next few days.

FINAL REDUCTIONS

CLOUD-STANFORD CO. ANNOUNCE NEW PRICE SCALE EFFECTIVE AUGUST 23d to 30th

It is a continuation of our former method to clear our stock completely of seasonal wearables.

The wisdom of such a policy must be obvious to every one familiar with the character of our merchandise, and the mere announcement of a second and final reduction is an economy tip to those who enjoy the luxury of men's extra fine apparel at prices much lower than is usually obtained for inferior grades.

ANY SUIT IN THE HOUSE . . . $17.00

ANY SHIRT IN THE HOUSE . . . 95c

ANY SILK NEGLIGEE SHIRT . . . $2.85

Any Straw Hat in the House . . . $.95

Any Panama or Bangkok Hat . . . $2.50

All 50c Neckwear Reduced to . . . 25

All $1.00 Neckwear Reduced to . . . 50

All $1.50 Neckwear Reduced to . . . 75

All $2.00 $2.50, $3.00 Neckwear . . . $1.00

All 50c Hosiery, "Onyx Make" . . . 25

All $1.00 Hosiery, "Onyx Make" . . . 50

All $1.50 Hosiery, "Onyx Make" . . . 75

All $2.00 Hosiery, "Onyx Make" . . . $1.00

Belts, Pajamas and a special lot of broken sizes in Underwear reduced to half former prices.

Cloud-Stanford Co. 61 Peachtree

Hargis-Cookrill Feud Is Renewed; One Slain

LOUISVILLE, KY., Aug. 12.—A report from Jackson, Breathitt County, to day said that a slaying had taken place and killed Greenberry Comb.

The killing is a result of the old Hargis-Cookrill feud, of which the murder of Sheriff Ed Callahan was a part. The feud has been renewed with intensity as the war between the two men has been renewed.

Mr. Price will conduct the campaign personally through Chief P. A. Kerby and six inspectors. He said that the law is enforced to make adulterated articles stop from being sold, and that he had been for several months investigating the violation of the law.

A SHAMPOO

And how much better you feel. Our process is different. Try it. You will feel like a new man.

The Little White Shop Around the Corner

Leslie's Place
10 Alabama

EISEMAN BROS., Inc.

Boys' and Children's Department (Entire Second Floor)

Buy the Boy's School Clothes At Clearance Prices!

August Discounts list many items of exceptional value at bargain prices, including splendid Suits for Fall wear.

BOYS' HANDSOME NORFOLK SUITS

25% Discount

BOYS' DOUBLE-BREADED SUITS

33 1/3% Discount

Boys' Stylish Felt Hats	25% Discount
Boys' and Children's STRAW HATS, values up to $2.00	60c
CHILDREN'S BOMBERS 50c Values 40c
70c Values 80c
1.00 Values 70c

WASH SUITS

Boys' and Children's Wash Suits in great variety. 33 1/3% Discount

Boys' Underwear, one lot shirts and drawers, 25c value	Per Garment 15c
Boys' Underwear, one lot shirts and drawers, regular 50c value.	Per Garment 25c
Boys' and Children's SHOES, Main Floor Rear. Clearance Prices on Boys' and Children's low shoes.

CHILDREN'S RUSSIAN AND BLOUSE SUITS.

made of Fine Woolen Fabrics in a variety of solid colors and fancy effects—just the thing for early Fall wear—now selling at Special Discounts of 33 1/3%

Summer Clearance Prices are drawing to a close, and the opportunities now offered for substantial economy in buying should be quickly taken advantage of.

Discounts In All Departments!

Men's Clothing---Furnishings---Hats---Shoes. At Cut Prices

LUGGAGE NOW SELLING AT CLEARANCE PRICES

Eiseman Bros., Inc.

11-13-15-17 Whitehall

Read for Profit--GEORGIAN WANT ADS--Use for Results

VOL. XII. NO. 17. ATLANTA, GA., FRIDAY, AUGUST 22, 1913. 2 CENTS PER COPY

ROSSER FLAYS DORSEY'S TACTICS

They Will Never Be Repeated in Georgia Courts, He Says

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING

PATHEON CROSSES FIRST TOUR LAP

CHARACTERISTIC POSE OF SOLICITOR AS HE MAKES A CONVINCING POINT

Wife Shovels Snow; Gets Reno Decree

CALM, DISPASSIONED PLEA FOR ACQUITTAL IMPRESSES HEARERS

Fugitive Decides to Drop Fight for Release and Contend Efforts Against Deportation.

Sunday American's Coast-to-Coast Trail Blazer is Given Ovation in Birmingham.

Hugh M. Dorsey, snatched in action at the Frank trial.

Gesticulations aid the prosecutor in his arguments.

Wife Shovels Snow; Gets Reno Decree. RENO, Nev., Aug. 22.—Helen May Donahue, a prettily Chicago woman, has obtained a divorce here. She testified she shovelled snow, carried the coal and clipped the staiding because her husband, John Francis Donahue, thought himself deserving manual labor. Mrs. Donahue said she had been accused unjustly of unfaithfulness. There is one child, four years old.

With the fate of Leo M. Frank, accused of the murder of Mary Phagan, soon to be put in the hands of the jury, Luther Z. Rosser Friday made an extraordinary closing argument for the defense in a final effort to convince the jury of the entire innocence of his client.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but it was quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and add up justice unimpaired by outside consideration.

However, the speaker was inspiring in discussing the case of O. B. Dalton and the methods used by the detective to get evidence that he held up to ridicule. When he had been talking for two hours he launched into an indirect but bitter attack on Solicitor Dorsey, referring particularly to the attempt to keep Frank's hiring of Rosser look like a damning circumstance. Calls Dorsey's Imagination Contemptible.

"My friend Dorsey," he said, "made much of the fact that Frank hired the lawyer. The charge and imputation that he has made are the most contemptible that have ever occurred in the history of Georgia courts. The thing he has done in this trial will not be done in Georgia again. I will stake my life on that."

"You may question Frank in his judgment, but you may not question the lawyer. He might have hired a more famous lawyer, but he could not have hired a more devoted lawyer. I would say that for myself if I were dead in my tracks."

He spoke without heat in the introduction of his speech. He said that but for his profound conviction that his client was innocent he would not speak at all because the evidence spoke for itself. Rosser will be followed by Solicitor Dorsey, who may speak before evening. It seemed probable, however, that the final arguments would take up the entire day and the jury would be charged to-morrow morning.

ACTOR, ARRESTED FOR STARING AT WOMEN, SAYS HE WAS LOOKING FOR HIS SWEETHEART.

A wonderful tale of having come to Atlanta to get married and forgetting the address of his bride was told at police headquarters Friday by Edward Hogan, an actor from New Orleans, who was arrested at Five Points by Detective Harper late Thursday.

Harper arrested Hogan because he says, the actor was staring rudely and offensively at women. Hogan insists he was looking for his sweetheart, hoping to see her in the past.

"I came to Atlanta to marry Miss Marie Byrd," Hogan declared, "and when I got here I could not remember her address. I haven't seen her in some time, but I know her in a minute. I was standing there waiting to see if she would pass."

Hogan insists also that he was locked up five days ago instead of yesterday.

The actor's arrest was the climax of a number of sensational incidents after he had started at women passing Five Points for more than an hour. Citizens who noticed him told Detective Harper, and the officer watched Hogan stare into a soda fountain and asked the soda clerk for the loan of a nickel. The clerk said he did not have a nickel. Hogan stared at him aside.

"Don't follow," he said, "if you haven't any money, I'll give you some." He went to the soda fountain and threw it on the counter. When he began to get attention he looked at the table. "You are supposed to look on the counter when you are waiting," he said.

The police have wired the Hogan relatives and the police in New Orleans and are awaiting an answer.

WILSON TO SHOW MEXICO POLICY IN MESSAGE

Proposals of United States and Huerta's Reply Will Be Given to Congress Monday.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Washington awaits the complete and definite statement of policy which President Wilson will give regarding Mexican affairs when he sends his special message to Congress next Monday.

The President made no engagements for to-day and his spending a quiet, much-needed day of rest at Camp Myrtle.

President Wilson does not propose to lay his hand entirely on the table in his message and will outline the future policy toward Mexico in only the most general terms. It is unlikely that any event will intervene between to-day and Monday to cause a modification of the message, and in the meantime Envoys Lind and the rest of the Mexican mission.

President Wilson found such an excellent road from a point near Annapolis to Birmingham, that he decided to take this route for the official trans-continental tour, although the River and Great Lakes routes are more vigorous and light for their highways.

Throughout the trip Mr. Ferguson, assisted by Mrs. Ferguson, is making the closest sort of check on all the general plan to perfect a model highway from coast to coast.

Advance reports from Montgomery, which Mr. Ferguson will reach Saturday at noon, Mobile and New Orleans and other prominent cities in each city will meet the party in the afternoon.

Mr. Ferguson probably will take a part in the reception in Montgomery, Mobile and New Orleans.

Parents Fighting For Four Children, Accuse Each Other

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Intense court proceedings to determine which parents shall have custody of the four children, ranging in age from five to ten years, will be heard here today in the City Court of Washington. The writ having been sworn out by W. L. Hamilton against Mrs. Althea Mitchell Hamilton of Washington, being released on bond.

A 75-Mile-Per-Hour. Hamilton's lawyer, James H. Moore, swore out a warrant against Hamilton charging "willful neglect."

Harper arrested Hogan because he says, the actor was staring rudely and offensively at women. Hogan insists he was looking for his sweetheart, hoping to see her in the past.

"I came to Atlanta to marry Miss Marie Byrd," Hogan declared, "and when I got here I could not remember her address. I haven't seen her in some time, but I know her in a minute. I was standing there waiting to see if she would pass."

Hogan insists also that he was locked up five days ago instead of yesterday.

The actor's arrest was the climax of a number of sensational incidents after he had started at women passing Five Points for more than an hour. Citizens who noticed him told Detective Harper, and the officer watched Hogan stare into a soda fountain and asked the soda clerk for the loan of a nickel. The clerk said he did not have a nickel. Hogan stared at him aside.

"Don't follow," he said, "if you haven't any money, I'll give you some." He went to the soda fountain and threw it on the counter. When he began to get attention he looked at the table. "You are supposed to look on the counter when you are waiting," he said.

Man-Eating Rooster Bites 10; Guillotined

LOANSPOORT, N.M., Aug. 22.—Loanspoort, a famous man-eating rooster was offered, killed by the police, and its owner, Casimir Jakobowicz, was viciously attacked and wounded during the offense.

The rooster had attacked a young child, throwing him down and trying to peck out his eyes. The child turned his head, but the bird plunged deep holes in the youngster's neck.

The complainant had been made to the police previously about the bird's man-eating propensities.

Bald Jack' Rose to Lecture for Church

BADEN, N.W., Aug. 22.—Bald Jack' Rose, principal witness in the recent murder case, will lecture for the benefit of Christ Episcopal Church, his subject being "Life in the Underworld." The entire proceeds from the lecture will go to the church treasury.

Rose's offer to lecture took place in reply to an appeal sent to him by the pastor of the church, the Rev. J. Brown, who stated that funds were needed to meet certain obligations.

Divine Vision Bids Isadora Duncan Quit Stage for Nunnery

SPECIAL CALL TO THE ATLANTA GEORGIAN. PARIS, Aug. 22.—Isadora Duncan, the best known performer of classical dances on the stage, announced today that she has received a "divine message" from Heaven to forsake public life and to live in a nunnery.

Recently Miss Duncan's two children were killed in an automobile accident and since then she has had a narrow escape from death.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

Through divine inspiration I have been told to retire from secular life and to live in a nunnery. I shall never dance again.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY

OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

WOMAN JUDGE IN NORWAY. OSLO, Norway, Aug. 22.—The first woman judge in Norway was appointed yesterday. She is Mrs. Astrid Holmboe, a well-known lawyer.

THE WEATHER. At Atlanta and Georgia. Showers Friday and Saturday.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The case may be fought all the way to King George. Thaw has enough money to carry it on indefinitely. "Prove Thaw insane or turn him loose," is the attitude of the Thaw lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. Thaw was to-day in the St. Francis hall bombarding various official circles in the Justice department that they come to his aid in the corner of a plot to liberate Thaw from his jail. He has no foundation for their claims.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ROSSER'S PLEA MAY GO TO THE KING. The result of rumors of a plot to liberate Thaw from his imprisonment is that the Thaw lawyer is being very suspicious of strangers. He even suspected Dr. Evans, the famous alienist of being a "ringer" for Thaw's lawyer.

ASKS 'HOW DID FRANK KNOW GIRL WOULD COME' FOR HER PAY No Way for Him to Know She Would Call on Holiday, Rosser Asserts

DETECTIVES ARE SCORED AS 'ACTIVE GANG' BENT ON CONVICTING ACCUSED

Continued from Page 1.

you put your hand on your pockets. Look at you. You would, you are heavier men than I. The word thief I written all over my face. My friend Rube Arnold said when Dalton came to the stand, "That's a thief or I don't know one." I smiled the odor of the changing upon him. I reach asked as to what Frank was doing in his office? He said: "I had such a peck myself that I had no time to give attention to anyone else." Dalton, he said he had Dalry, and you saw Dalry. She was the "peach." Poor Dalry, she is not to blame. If she has fallen, which I pray to God she never will, she is a victim of the Devil's forgery on the Magdalen. Gentlemen of the jury, I don't say

Rosser turned toward Attorney Hooper at this point, and continuing his testimony, without one line of testimony, to attack the character of these young men, so that you may carry your case. You are willing to clap this Herbert Dalton to your breast as though he were a 15-year-old. If I know a single thing on the earth I know the ordinary working man and working woman of Georgia. I have an inventory of working second behind me. My parents were working people. With 100 of Atlanta's working girls, with about the same number of Atlanta's hardy working men, in that factory on Forsyth street, I assert they could not have been there eight long years if the factory had been an imperial house. Those girls should have died. The outraged citizens would have torn

LEADING COUNSEL FOR FRANK IN FULL SWING

Rosser's work on the case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes argument for defense.

Rosser possesses none of the graces of the pleasing speaker, but in forcefulness he is hardly surpassed at the Atlanta bar.

ed for him; I told for him; I asked him if he had ever been, but away from home. He evaded me. When he left the stand, I said, "Rube, that man's been in the chain-gang as sure as there's a God in heaven." And, sure enough, we looked him up, and he had been. Then he came to Atlanta, and they said he had reformed. But there are two things in this world I do not believe in. One is a reformed thief and the other is a reformed woman of the streets.

"Whispering the Oath in I Did Think of Heaven." "On the cross the thief prayed, and the Master recognized him. He gave him forgiveness. He saw the thief and before the thief spoke he recognized him as a thief. But the Lord is all-forgiving, and He said to the thief, "Glad day thou shalt be with Me in Paradise." Now, I have no faith in these reformed thieves. I have no faith in a reformed prostitute. Tell me you can reform a thief. I mean a thief at heart, and not that man who has thievery in his heart will carry it there all his life. He may wear a white shirt, and in his hand he may carry a pen, but he will still be a thief. You may reform other criminals, but that thief never.

"That Dalton reformed? Oh, he has done the beauty thing. He has done the low, with a sanctimonious expression on his face. He stinks with a congregation of godly people and deceives them. He joins them in hypocritical carrying on of their work. He deceives them. Why, gentlemen of the jury, joining the church is an old trick of thieves, and now before we have had the real illustration that of a thief who stinks in two counties and goes in and out of a jail away from the odor of his past existence.

"I have seen the Bishop to protect the weak, yet I've heard something I've never heard before, and I never expect to hear as long as God lets me live." The Solicitor said, "I'll go as far as the court will allow me. That's the crux of the case. The Solicitor General said that, God only knows how far the detectives went. Dalton said he went to the factory some time last year, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock. Did he go into the Weyburns Company's part of the building or into the retail factory? There's nothing to show, except that wherever he went he left the trail of a reformed thief. Frank didn't know he was there. It was Frank's trick. If Dalton went he was taking advantage of the factory authorities.

Coming of The Sunbeam

New to Avoid Those Pains and Discomforts Which so Many Mothers Have Suffered.

What have they found? "Let's see, in the first place, we have had a mighty upheaval in the last two years. It is wrong to consider the proper surroundings of the amount of secrecy the world tolerates. But Chief Justice Deane, who has combed the towns with a fine-toothed comb. Young women have looked down, and young men have looked up. The world is being reformed. What do they call it? Imperialism. Oh, yes, the Vice Squad has swept the town with a broom until there is not one leavety nose left in the head of the police. And now they try to tell us this peach factory was an immoral resort.

all of us have been free of passion's lure, but I do say that most of humanity is still under the control of passion. A gentleman went decent surroundings when committing such an act. He wants cleanliness. No decent man ever stood on the stand and bragged about the "peach" that he had. Why, even the beasts of the field hide that.

"Bursa had it right when he said that poem about 'be gentle with your brother man, be gentler with your sister woman,' that ends with the line, 'The human to also said.' Dalton went and got that 'peach' and carried her to his scullion-hole like a gopher. Did you ever see a gopher? My friend Hooper used them for chalice down in South Georgia all his life. The gopher has a hole, with usually a red-tail hawk for its companion. Ah, that's a fine combination! In that dirty, filthy old hole of the peach factory, on old goods boxes with an odor which if put to the nose of a snook would not offend, where a dog would not stir aside, where an old lacivious cat would not crouch—that's Dalton. Yet only he and Jim Conley have brought charges of immorality against this factory.

"I am going to be fair with you, gentlemen, if I can. I am going to tell you the truth. I thought this case was to be tried by a Solicitor General. God save the mark! I've never seen such partisan feelings before.

Says State Witness Left Berpan's Trail. "The name of the Bishop to protect the weak, yet I've heard something I've never heard before, and I never expect to hear as long as God lets me live." The Solicitor said, "I'll go as far as the court will allow me. That's the crux of the case. The Solicitor General said that, God only knows how far the detectives went. Dalton said he went to the factory some time last year, between the hours of 1 and 2 o'clock. Did he go into the Weyburns Company's part of the building or into the retail factory? There's nothing to show, except that wherever he went he left the trail of a reformed thief. Frank didn't know he was there. It was Frank's trick. If Dalton went he was taking advantage of the factory authorities.

"What do you think would become of a factory superintendent who got on intimate terms with his women employees? This would be bad enough for a native born American, but what would you think full-blooded Americans would do or say about a foreigner who came here and attempted such a thing, especially considering the antipathy which has always been borne to the Jewish race?"

"Now, let's take up the man. I've seen illustrations of being one of the most remarkable men I have ever met. He talk to you, indeed, remarkable and as far as I know to it for the first time. I wondered what he had in the brain of the mind. I could never have made up a speech like that, even if I had had the brain. And it wasn't a written speech either.

every man connected with the bank has been under suspicion at one time or the other. But there is one thing I wish to say. There was never a hard-working, thrifty man among you who was ever found guilty in the slightest way.

"Now, gentlemen of the jury, that is the way it is in every walk of life. When you watch a great river flowing on to the sea, you don't take a spy-glass and pick out the little eddies. No. You look at the heavy flow of the water as they move majestically along.

"So it is with human life. It is this way with the hard-working man who follows the straight course and goes on in a majestic way on the even tenor of his way. It is not for the jury, trying him, to take the spy-glass and search out the small eddies in his character, but let them take his full character, the broad and majestic flow of it.

"If we hadn't said a word about his character, the court would have instructed you to assume a good character. Under the law, we could have remained mute, and his character would have been good to you. But we didn't wish to do that. We wanted you to know what manner of man he was. I say to you with all the strength of my soul that no man within the sound of my voice could show as good character as he has, it put to such a test. I am only dealing with the infamous lies of Dalton and Conley.

"But you say, 'Wait a minute. Some people said he had a bad character.' That's correct. I am not going to try to fool you. I am going to deal with the facts.

Easy to Find Witnesses Against a Character. "I couldn't find you who it tried. Let's see who they are who may be as he has a bad character? You know you can find some people to swear against anyone. Suppose my friend Arnold had occasion and so far forgot himself as to put my character up. Don't you suppose you could find a hundred men in Atlanta to swear that I am a vilely vicious? I am not so extraordinarily so, but in my long practice of law, perhaps I have worked someone. Perhaps sometimes in my mind I have been too severe, and some people may think they have a just grievance against me.

"Now, what did this young man do? Here's the young lady, and I haven't a word to say against them. The older I get the gentler I become. If anything, Oh, why should I abuse and vilify anyone? They don't work in a moment bright, then dark forever, why should it be?

"Here is Miss Myrtle Cato. She worked there three and a half years. She also was a sweet, pure girl, and I take it for granted she was, would she have stayed there that long, constantly associated with Frank, if he was a vile man? She would have fled from him long ago. Oh, she has felt the bitterness of the noblest crime crime occurred. She was under the tense heated atmosphere of this trial.

every man connected with the bank has been under suspicion at one time or the other. But there is one thing I wish to say. There was never a hard-working, thrifty man among you who was ever found guilty in the slightest way.

"Now, gentlemen of the jury, that is the way it is in every walk of life. When you watch a great river flowing on to the sea, you don't take a spy-glass and pick out the little eddies. No. You look at the heavy flow of the water as they move majestically along.

"So it is with human life. It is this way with the hard-working man who follows the straight course and goes on in a majestic way on the even tenor of his way. It is not for the jury, trying him, to take the spy-glass and search out the small eddies in his character, but let them take his full character, the broad and majestic flow of it.

"If we hadn't said a word about his character, the court would have

Continued on Page 3, Column 1.

It was the truth, pushing out naturally as does the water from the flowing spring. There was no force behind it. There was no hypocrisy there. It was the plain, simple flowing truth as Mother Nature furnished it.

Gentlemen of the jury, if Frank's talk to you had been forced, it would not have had that ring of truth to it. You may make a silver dollar that in appearance would fool the Secretary of the Treasury. But drop that dollar and the ring will tell. The real dollar has the real ring, the silver links that can not be mistaken. And the real truth, like the real ring, has the real truth that it is nothing but the truth.

"Frank's words had the ring that comes from old 'Mother Nature's' breast when telling the truth. The old saying is that the tide brain is the devil's workshop. No one knows this better than I do. When I am busy, I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep and I behave myself as I mean I am fairly good. But let me stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will find it is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.

Why Frank's Character Was Put in Evidence. "Who do you catch stealing and doing mischief all around? It is the idle fellow. An old banker, retired from active business in New York, was once given a banquet, and this is what he said when his faithful employees gathered around him: 'My 40 years in this bank, it has been an unfortunate coincidence that nearly Rich milk malted grain in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, building the whole body. Always and always the best.

More healthful than tea or coffee. Agree with the weakest stomach. Keep on your sideboard at home. Has a good luck charm in the shape of a...

BANKRUPT SALE!

Millinery Supplies for Retail Merchants and Milliners

$26,000.00 STOCK OF MYERS' MILLINERY GO NOW ON SALE

Purchasers Can Select Just What They Can Use in Their Own Business at Less Than Cost to Myers Millinery Co.

Stock Consists of Following Items, To-wit:

- 1000 yds. $5.00; wire, $1.94; hat pins, $55; thread, etc. $688; mourning veils, $100; fur bands, etc. $378; broad, $360; velvet, $98; rayon, $1,285; English crepe, $150; felt, $65; fur, $47; maline, $387; chiffon, $638; tulle, $188; veiling, $700; lace, $813; mull, $124; silk, $1,000; plumes, $3,889; argente and Anoy feathers, $2,800; bows, $3,282; children's headgear, $346; ladies' hats and frames, $1,750.

This sale is being conducted under order of the Referee in Bankruptcy, at the old store of Myers Millinery Co., 89 East Alabama Street, Atlanta, Ga. Terms cash.

H. A. FERRIS, TRUSTEE

HOOPER AND ARNOLD IN ARGUMENT MADE MOST OF THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

Frank Hooper's speech in behalf of the prosecution against Leo Frank, charged with the murder of little Mary Phagan, reflected much credit upon him.

It was fair, to the point, well thought out and appealing in tone and delivery.

It went for the defendant, hammer and tongs, but it was devoid of anything that might be construed as below the belt.

Undoubtedly, it was not pleasant to the defendant, sitting there, silently following the words of Hooper—but Dorsey and Hooper, in their final aspect, have made out a most dangerous case against Frank, and Hooper was there to explain and sustain it. He performed his duty in a way that hardly adds all to bring him lasting applause and commendation.

It, however, Frank felt to the full the force of the case made out against him by Hooper, he was more than abundantly taken care of when Arnold followed.

The case made out in defense of Frank by Arnold was extremely plausible. In detail every point developed by Hooper. It, like Hooper's, was a speech evidently carefully considered.

Jury Held in High Esteem.

Now, the thing about these two speeches that made them particularly and uniquely noteworthy, perhaps, is that both were seemingly designed for the consideration of a jury held to be highly intelligent and not apt to rush pell-mell to a verdict, either for or against Frank.

And if the opposing counsel entertain that opinion of the jury—if they hold in such compelling esteem and respect—and if the jury is such a jury as deserves that opinion, which, in these times of chances, is the best verdict will be righteous and just, whatever it may be.

That is the feeling of this jury. I SHALL speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth—that, in the words of Hamlet, "as a consummation most devoutly to be wished!"

Try the case, gentlemen, according to the law and the facts! said Frank Hooper, addressing the jury Thursday.

That is the final and the ultimate request any man for or against the defendant could or should make of the twelve good men and true; there is no more to be said. It is the duty of the State and the duty of justice and right; duty will plead for more or less.

The two opening speeches in murder trials are presumed to outline clearly the facts of the completed arguments both ways.

Concluding arguments may amplify and enlarge upon points raised by opening arguments, but they should not go beyond the primary outlining of the two main points of view.

And so, while Hooper and Dorsey may go further than Hooper and Arnold in invective, sarcasm, ridicule and passionate outbreak, neither is apt to add anything material to either side, as compared with the things Hooper and Arnold have said.

There is some advantage in the State or, at least, there is supposed to be some advantage to it in that it has the concluding argument before the jury.

No Injustice There.

Some people think that is an injustice and a hardship upon the defense, but when one comes to consider the theory upon which that practice is founded, the apparent injustice and hardship of it vanishes, and it may be seen readily enough that in this, as to so many things the law has been most carefully thought out—and is just and right.

FELINE WAIF FINDS PROTECTOR IN PRETTY HOTEL ANSLEY MISS

This is Miss Gladys Brinkley and "Governor Slaton" in a special pose for camera man.

"Governor" is never quite happy unless he is safe in the arms of his fair guardian. No one can step on his tail then—he's sure of that.

The law throws about the defendant at bar the presumption of innocence—it places upon the State the burden of proving him guilty, rather than putting upon the defendant the burden of proving himself innocent.

But the law, having done this, permits the final voice to be the voice from the State.

The dead—be or she is not there to speak, and to say as to the truth, and so the law directs that the prosecuting counsel shall speak if in doubt.

Thus does the law, with impartial hand, protect first the defendant and then protect quite as jealously its own majesty, and the rights of the accused.

The law, however, in the event the defendant elects to introduce no witnesses in his behalf, and to rely solely upon his own isolated statement, not under oath, reverses the order of argument and permits the defense to open and close for the law will not permit a defendant even to place himself at a disadvantage without fully compensating him for the same. What will the Frank jury say?

Will it find the prisoner not guilty, clear his name of all stain and send him forth a free man?

Or will it find him guilty and fasten upon him forever the disgrace of one of the most heinous and diabolical crimes ever committed in Georgia?

To render the latter verdict it must believe Frank a monster, loath to every sense of decency and right—a man who has meanly and unpardonably deceived his mother, his wife, his friends, his faithful employees and his acquaintances. It must believe him a cruel murderer, for an unrepentant just—the vilest and most wicked of the wicked men among his kindred and his kind!

Will the jury believe that? It is not for you to think it. Will you? And yet.

The Alternative.

Not to believe it is to believe those girls who swore Frank's character to be, who cited instances of a suspicious nature, and who believed, and who are wrong, that they knew him not, notwithstanding their opportunity—and that all the circumstances of the crime seemingly connecting him with it are errors, and that Conroy's story, no less so, for he is the true culprit, and that all the things alleged against Frank either are wrong factually, or wrong in intent and malicious purpose.

Will the jury look at the matter that way? It is not easy to think it.

And yet again, it MUST believe the one or the other—or believe no verdict!

What, then, CAN honest minded mortals, men and women who want to do the right and the right alone prevail, do other than put their faith in the jury there, and believe that it will speak the TRUTH of this case, no matter what may be anybody's preconceived opinion?

The time for argument has passed. Hooper and Arnold and Hooper and Dorsey have concluded that.

The general public should now prepare itself to receive the verdict as the final and determining circumstance.

Individual opinion is interesting at times, but after all, a man's opinion is as good as another's, but not more so.

The Important Thing.

What you think, reader, and what I think, is relatively inconsequential. The thing that matters SUPREMACY is now, and the thing that alone matters supremely, is what does the jury think.

No man possibly can know at this time—and nothing is so uncertain in the matter of forecasting as the verdict of a jury.

Public should Accept Verdict.

But whether it be acquittal or conviction, the public should, and the law-abiding public WILL, prepare itself to accept that verdict as righteous and just.

No man ought to be willing to set his opinion dogmatically against that of those twelve good men and true, whenever their verdict may be.

Leo Frank, the defendant, is entitled to all the protection the law affords, and he is entitled to an absolutely fair trial, without favor or prejudice, one way or the other. He is entitled to all of that, but more.

The State has rights as sacred as the defendant's—they must be considered.

What more can human integrity give? What more can the law give? The public will know what the Frank jury thinks of the case made against him.

The jury may convict him, and it may acquit him.

No man possibly can know at this time—and nothing is so uncertain in the matter of forecasting as the verdict of a jury.

Public should Accept Verdict.

But whether it be acquittal or conviction, the public should, and the law-abiding public WILL, prepare itself to accept that verdict as righteous and just.

No man ought to be willing to set his opinion dogmatically against that of those twelve good men and true, whenever their verdict may be.

Leo Frank, the defendant, is entitled to all the protection the law affords, and he is entitled to an absolutely fair trial, without favor or prejudice, one way or the other. He is entitled to all of that, but more.

The State has rights as sacred as the defendant's—they must be considered.

What more can human integrity give? What more can the law give? The public will know what the Frank jury thinks of the case made against him.

The jury may convict him, and it may acquit him.

JURY think, and what will the jury say?

No one of us has the opportunity to know so well the inn and outs of the case as the jury. The jury does not read what I write nor does it hear what you say. It is there, in the courtroom, made from the outside world; not to itself, a thing apart—there to do justice, to the State and to Frank, though the heavens be no verdict!

There is no responsibility upon, individuals expressing opinion pro and con. They are not under oath—the life of a human being, on the one hand, and the majesty of the law of the land on the other, are no direct legal concerns of theirs.

It is all very well for you to say "Frank is innocent," or "Frank is guilty," or "Frank is a monster," or "if I were running this thing I would hang Frank," when there is no legal impediment, and oath-bound obligation upon you to render a verdict that means something definite in law.

With a jury, however, the case is different. It is then a matter of finding that means everything!

Within twenty-four hours, perhaps, the public will know what the Frank jury thinks of the case made against him.

The jury may convict him, and it may acquit him.

No man possibly can know at this time—and nothing is so uncertain in the matter of forecasting as the verdict of a jury.

Public should Accept Verdict.

But whether it be acquittal or conviction, the public should, and the law-abiding public WILL, prepare itself to accept that verdict as righteous and just.

No man ought to be willing to set his opinion dogmatically against that of those twelve good men and true, whenever their verdict may be.

Leo Frank, the defendant, is entitled to all the protection the law affords, and he is entitled to an absolutely fair trial, without favor or prejudice, one way or the other. He is entitled to all of that, but more.

The State has rights as sacred as the defendant's—they must be considered.

What more can human integrity give? What more can the law give? The public will know what the Frank jury thinks of the case made against him.

The jury may convict him, and it may acquit him.

"Governor Slaton" Is One of the Most Distinguished Young Gats in Atlanta.

"Governor Slaton" was peered, and justly so, for a hurrying traveling man had stepped on his tail. His arched his back, dug his claws into the soft rugs at the Hotel Ansley and snarled angrily. He loved nobody and nobody loved him.

Then Miss Gladys Brinkley came along. "Miss Gladys" is one of the prettiest of the young women who work at the Ansley. Diners unite in saying that the smile she dispenses as she hands out the hats at the door of the restaurant are worth more than the dinner.

It was one of those whole-souled, joyful smiles the Miss Brinkley dispensed on the discomfited "Governor."

The "Governor" succumbed to the witchery of the smile and forgot his own dignity. He had found a friend. So he stretched his claws, dropped his back, and leaped straight into Miss Brinkley's arms, where he purr contentedly while she stroked him behind the ears, and crooned over him.

"Governor Slaton" isn't what you might think he is at all. He's a cat.

And "Governor" is quite a remarkable cat, too. To begin with, he is snow white, not a blotch of color anywhere in his sleek beauty. He is absolutely alone in the world, having no brothers and sisters, and his mother deserted him when he was quite young. He is further distinguished by the fact that he probably is the only cat in captivity born in a big hotel.

For the "Governor" first saw the light of day in a vacant room on the thirteenth floor of Atlanta's new hotel.

"Governor Slaton" does not care much for human companionship—except Miss Brinkley—but once in a while he will allow Mrs. Morgan, who keeps a shop on the mezzanine floor, to pat him. He has no use for men, unless they come bearing gifts, which he accepts and then sticks a claw into the hand of the giver. He is happy about six hours a day. That is what Miss Brinkley is on duty and he can snuggle up at her feet or purr luxuriously in her lap.

And Miss Brinkley likes the "Governor" too.

"All cats are nice," she said, "but I can dole on 'Governor' like he is so well behaved, and never tries to scratch me. He always hums up to me when I go to work and I sit with me for hours at a time. The 'Governor' has been my friend ever since I first saw him, the day the traveling man stepped on his foot. I felt so sorry for him I couldn't keep from cuddling him."

The hotel attaches tell a rather remarkable tale about the coming of the cat, which shows why he was named "Governor Slaton." It seems that when the rugs came to the Ansley and workmen took them to the thirteenth floor, a big white cat jumped out when they unloaded one. Kitty ran down the hall, and no attention was paid to her. Two weeks later the hotel opened, and Governor John M. Slaton was the first man to register. The same night one of the hotel employees found a little white cat on the thirteenth floor, crying its little heart out for something to eat. By consulting a few clocks and watches, it was learned that the cat had been born at the exact moment Governor Slaton was inscribing his name on the hotel register—hence the name.

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY.

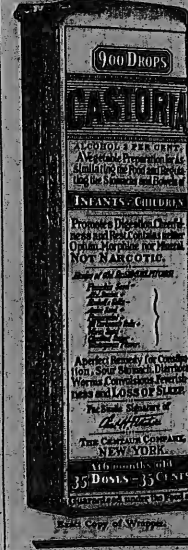

COLUMBUS—The Columbus Labor and Trades Assembly is preparing a program for Labor Day at Woodward Park. There are about 2,500 union men in Columbus.

The Danger of Imitations.

An Ohio druggist writes to "The Practical Druggist," a prominent New York Drug Journal, as follows: "Please furnish formula for Castoria. All the formulas I have worked with are either ineffective or disagreeable to administer."

To this "The Practical Druggist" replies: "We do not supply formulas for proprietary articles. We couldn't if we wanted to. His experience with imitative formulas is not surprising, but just what is to be expected. When Castoria is wanted, why not supply the genuine. If you make a substitute, it is not fair or right to label it Castoria. We can give you all sorts of laxative preparations for Children, but not Castoria, and we think a mother who asks for Castoria would not feel kindly toward you if you gave her your own product under such a name."

No mother with a spark of affection for her child will overlook the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher when buying Castoria.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

The kind you have always bought and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the strictest of and has been made under his personal supervision since its invention. Allow no one to deceive you in this. All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but experiments that will ruin your child's health. Infants and Children—Resistance against Experimentation.

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic, all Coughing, Whooping and Diarrhoea. It regulates the Stomach and Bowels, assimilates the Food, gives Healthy and Natural Sleep. The Children's Panacea—The Mother's Friend.

GENUINE CASTORIA ALWAYS BEARS the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

THE BENTLEY BUILDING, NEW YORK, N. Y.

READ FOR PROFIT GEORGIAN WANT ADS USE FOR RESULTS

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY.

COLUMBUS—The Columbus Labor and Trades Assembly is preparing a program for Labor Day at Woodward Park. There are about 2,500 union men in Columbus.

Final August Clean-Up of Men's and Boys' Summer Wear

We still have a splendid assortment left for you in all lines—and no doubt the very Suit, Hat, Shoes or Furnishing Goods which you are in need of are waiting for your visit to-morrow—come see any way.

MEN'S SUITS	MEN'S SHIRTS	MEN'S UNDERWEAR
$18.00 values	$1.00 values	$1.00 values
$20.00 values	$1.16 values	$1.16 values
$25.00 values	$1.40 values	$1.40 values
$30.00 values	$1.66 values	$1.66 values
$35.00 values	$1.92 values	$1.92 values
$40.00 values	$2.18 values	$2.18 values

MEN'S SHOES	ALL STRAW HATS	BOYS' WOOL SUITS
$5.00 values	For Man or Boy	$5.00 to $15 values now $3.76 to $11.25
$6.00 values	HALF-PRICE	BOYS' WASH SUITS
$4.00 values		$1.00 to $5.00 values now 75c to $3.50
$3.00 values

Men's Neckwear and Belts Reduced for Quick Selling.

Parks-Chambers-Hardwick

37-39 Peachtree Company Atlanta, Georgia

Why is the soda cracker today such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

Uneda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package. Five cents.

NATIONAL BISCUIT COMPANY

STATE ABYLUM INSPECTED.

Representative J. R. P. Thompson, chairman of the House Committee on the State Sanitarium at Milledgeville, will report Friday that the affairs of the institution are in excellent condition. He conveyed his impressions Thursday.

NEGRO HELD FOR MURDER.

Wright, a negro, was held by the Smith County negro youth force, entitled to all of that, but more.

STATE ABYLUM INSPECTED.

Representative J. R. P. Thompson, chairman of the House Committee on the State Sanitarium at Milledgeville, will report Friday that the affairs of the institution are in excellent condition. He conveyed his impressions Thursday.

NEGRO HELD FOR MURDER.

Wright, a negro, was held by the Smith County negro youth force, entitled to all of that, but more.

AROUND CHARGES A 'FRAME-UP'

Hooper Culls Defendant a Jekyll and Hyde

U. S. URGED TO POLICE MEXICO

Senate Resolution Asks for Constabularies to Protect Foreigners in Turbulent Republic.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—Senator Penrose today introduced a resolution in the Senate declaring it to be the sense of that body that the President of the United States should establish constabularies in Mexico and place in them a sufficient number of troops to protect the lives and property of American citizens. The resolution also declares it to be the sense of the Senate: That it has been the policy of the United States to maintain the Monroe Doctrine. That there is internal lawlessness and warfare in Mexico. That the continuation of this condition will add to the complications there. That the first duty of the United States is to protect the lives and property of its citizens at home and abroad. That the extension of such protection will lessen the danger of foreign interference, and that it is not the policy of the United States to aid or assist any faction. The resolution explains that in sending troops into Mexico for the purpose of protecting American citizens and their property there was no intent of hostility toward Mexico and that it could not be considered an act of war. Asks Money for Protection. Senator Penrose asked that the resolution be on the table, as he did not intend to discuss it today. He then introduced a proposed amendment to the first deficiency appropriation bill providing for an appropriation of $25,000,000 for the protection of life and property of American citizens in Mexico. This money is to be available at any time up to July 1. Senator Penrose asked that this amendment also be on the table. "American citizens in Mexico have their rights in international law and under the Constitution," said Penrose. "Rather than appropriate a hefty $25,000,000 for the removal of these Americans from Mexico I would spend $25,000,000 to assure their safety and protection in Mexico."

Sulzer and Glynn Imbroglia Has Echo in Georgia Capitol

That the Sulzer-Glynn gubernatorial mix-up in New York State has a far-reaching effect was indicated at the Georgia Capitol Thursday when the Governor found his hands tied in connection with efforts to have Homer Reed extradited from New York. Reed is charged with bad stock manipulation in Appling County. Following the indictment Reed fled to the District of Columbia and later to New York when Governor Glynn Brown made efforts to have him extradited just before he retired from office. In the meantime the matter was held up just long enough for the sulzer-Glynn imbroglia to interfere. The upshot of the whole matter now is that Mr. Sulzer, ex-Governor of New York, according to the ruling of the Attorney General of that State, has the resolution papers for Reed in his pocket. The final disposition of the matter has all the Georgia statehouse officials guessing.

THAW PLEAS UP TO HIGH OFFICIALS

Fugitive Not to Appear at Writ Hearing Because of Danger of Deportation Arrest.

ALBANY, N. Y., Aug. 21.—Aid from the Federal authorities in having Harry K. Thaw deported to New York State was invoked today by Acting Governor Glynn and Attorney General Carmody. Telegrams were sent to the Secretary of State and the Secretary of State, as follows: "In the name of the State of New York, we request that you ask Canadian immigration authorities to detain Harry K. Thaw to the State of New York. His return is necessary."

DEFENDER OF FRANK WHO RIDICULES PROSECUTION

Attorney Reuben Arnold, who opened the closing argument for the defense in the Frank trial.

FARMERS' UNION OPENS ROUSING CONVENTION

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 21.—With delegates from almost every county in Alabama and visitors to the number of 600, the Farmers' Co-operative and Educational Union, in its session here. President Charles R. Barrett of the national organization is presiding. His address on the opening day was received as the greatest and most valuable ever delivered in Alabama, and he is the idol of his people for whom he is giving his time and talents. He said he has traveled thousands of miles to every nook and corner of the United States, and that he was satisfied that the South had the best land, the best people and the prettiest women in the world. He called attention to the high class of the colonists from the North who were coming South, and said that what was wanted more than any other thing was folk—real folk, who would add to the citizenship, and not foreign riffraff. He cautioned the farmers against selling lands to capitalists, saying if the future was to be judged by the past, that in the course of a few generations we would be on the same footing as Ireland, ruled by the landlord. Reports of officers showed that the

2 DEAD IN FIGHT WITH KNIVES AT CHURCH

As a result of a knife battle fought within a few yards of the doors of the New Hope Church, in Cobb County, three miles out of Marietta, a fierce prayer meeting Wednesday night, two men are dead, one is probably fatally wounded and four is held by a Coroner's verdict on a charge of murder. The dead are Fred Lemmings and John McHenry. John Harper has wounds in a shoulder and lung and is in a serious condition. Fred Harper is held by the Coroner's jury charged with killing Lemmings. The trouble between the Harpers and the Lemmings dates back to the last term of the Cobb County Superior Court, when Charles Lemmings, a brother of Fred Lemmings, was sentenced to the chain-gang on a charge of carrying a razor. The sentence was so long that it was not so gaily, but had been returned to the chain-gang through false testimony. McHenry said the warring class met at the door of New Hope Church. When the warring class met at the door of New Hope Church, the object of this trial, in all other cases is the ascertainment of truth and the attainment of justice. I want to distinctly understand you the correctness of our verdict. I want to distinctly understand that we are not seeking a verdict of guilty, unless this man is guilty. "I was not distinctly understood that the burden of proving him guilty is on our shoulders. We recognize that this has got to be done beyond a reasonable doubt and from the evidence. We cheerfully assume the burden. "There is not one connected with the prosecution who would say that the best of the evidence is not in our favor. We want him to be acquitted, but we will not let a man go who is not guilty. "I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

Judges Barred From Congressional Fight

GADSDEN, Aug. 21.—Judge J. E. Blackwood and Judge W. W. Harlan, two Circuit Court judges of this district, prospective candidates for Congress in the Seventh Alabama District, opposing Congressman John H. Hatcher, incumbent, have been barred from making the race because of a provision of the State Constitution which provides that judges may not enter a campaign for any office during his term on the bench. They could not make the race even though they resigned from the judicial office.

Convicted Promoter Renewing Operations

GADSDEN, Aug. 21.—A report received from Port Payne are to the effect that E. C. Draw, who was convicted of luring the mail to defraud in the operation of oil well prospecting, and who has just secured his release under a $1000 appeal bond, is renewing his operations and will have a deal at work at an early date. It was reported here today that Draw had been offered financial assistance by Gadsden people, but the report could not be confirmed. Draw had little trouble in making bond, many of the people of Port Payne are not in sympathy with him.

Mississippi Asylum Probe To Be Resumed

JACKSON, Miss., Aug. 21.—The members of the legislative investigation committee have returned to Jackson after an absence of several days and will once more take hold of the matter of the lunatic asylum. It is understood that the expert accountants who have had charge of this work will not be ready to report before the middle of next week, but in the meantime they have furnished the committee with a rough draft of data on which it is expected that more trouble will be found for some of the employees.

Prisoner Escapes by Leaping From Train

BURAUOLA, Aug. 21.—While Constable W. N. Heverly was bringing Ben Buckles and two other prisoners to Eufrata from Dothan to-day to answer larceny charges, Buckles escaped by leaping through a car window from a fast train on the Central of Georgia Railroad. He was unharmed. Buckles hid behind a pile of croakies until the train had passed. He is still at large.

Free Wool Is Urged By Nevada Senator

WASHINGTON, Aug. 21.—"I am heartily in favor of the free raw wool provision of the tariff bill," declared Senator Pittman of Nevada, one of the trustees of wool-producing States in the country. "An army combined that the provision in the best interest of my State and the States."

Hail Ruins $50,000 North Dakota Crops

MINOT, N. D., Aug. 21.—Pity to twenty-five thousand dollars' damage to crops of Rosville County, resulted from a terrific hailstorm. The damage extends from "Pole across the international boundary. The path of the storm was five miles wide and sawed the heavy wheat crops of officers showed that the

LINK BY LINK, FRANK DEFENDER HEWS AWAY AT STATE'S THEORIES

In a cold, cutting arraignment of the methods used to build up a case against Leo M. Frank, accused of the murder of Mary Phagan, Reuben Arnold, of the accused man's defense, Thursday afternoon unparagonably flayed Jim Conley as a perjurer and willing tool in the hands of men determined to convict an innocent man. Arnold's attack minced no words. It bristles with scathing denunciation and bitter ridicule. His impassioned appeal was interperated with sardonic humor that made a hostile court room laugh. But his humor was only in flashes. Otherwise it fairly raged with accusation and denunciation. Arnold charged that the state had deliberately perverted every innocent action into a circumstantial pointing to guilt. Link by link, he hewed away at the prosecution's chain. He ridiculed the theory of a premeditated attack, declaring that none but God could have known that Mary Phagan was to call for her pay on Saturday—a holiday. He said the State's attempt to prove premeditation was but an instance of its many "wild guesses."

From the first time Arnold centered his attack on Conley, he said that the had never heard of a witness who was so thoroughly convicted of lying being put forward as one to be believed. Arnold finished his address at 5:30 o'clock. His address followed a scathing arraignment of Frank by Frank A. Hooper, who opened the argument for the State and demanded the conviction of the defendant on the plea that the evidence presented left no other conclusion than of Frank's guilt. Hooper emphasized Gantt's Trip to Factory. Mr. Hooper emphasized various features of the State's case that had not been clearly brought out before, dwelling particularly on the incident of J. M. Gantt's visit to the factory on the afternoon of the tragedy and how Frank had at first refused to let him enter, and how the accused man had called up Newt Lee, the watchman, later, fearful, said Hooper, that Gantt had discovered something.

After Hooper had finished his argument he began presenting authorities to the judge to guide him in making his charge to the jury. He declared that the jury should not be charged that direct evidence was superior to circumstantial evidence. Before Thursday's session began Frank had expressed himself as entirely confident of the outcome. "I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

"May it please your honor and gentlemen of the jury," began Mr. Hooper, "the object of this trial, in all other cases is the ascertainment of truth and the attainment of justice. I want to distinctly understand you the correctness of our verdict. I want to distinctly understand that we are not seeking a verdict of guilty, unless this man is guilty. "I was not distinctly understood that the burden of proving him guilty is on our shoulders. We recognize that this has got to be done beyond a reasonable doubt and from the evidence. We cheerfully assume the burden. "There is not one connected with the prosecution who would say that the best of the evidence is not in our favor. We want him to be acquitted, but we will not let a man go who is not guilty. "I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

"I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

"I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

"I am certain that I will be acquitted and set right before the world," he said. "If he had been a terrible ordeal, but I await the outcome with the utmost confidence."

FRANK GOALT WAS HOOPER ARGUES TO SEND HIM TO THE GAOLS

Stoically and Unblinkingly He Listens to Scathing Arraignment of State

ACCUSED TO SACRIFICE TO PROTECT AND GALT, STATE SAYS

Continued from Page 1.

protection of the law just as any other citizen. "But another thing: He is not on account of his high position and wealthy connections, entitled to any more than any other defendant. The strong arm of the law is strong enough to reach to the highest places and do justice there. "It is strong enough to reach down to the gutter and regulate the affairs of the lowliest. I am not going to undertake to cover all the facts in this case. "Believes Firmly In Frank's Guilt. "I congratulate you, gentlemen of the jury, that the case is leading an end. I have felt sympathy for you, because you not only have worked hard, but you have been deprived of your liberty and the enjoyment of your homes. In one sense of the word, you have been in jail. "There has never been a criminal case in Georgia that has been so long. There has been no trial so important or the result of which will be so far-reaching, and that only makes the responsibility on you the greater. "There is one other thing that I want to say to you before I go into the facts of the case. This man ought not to be convicted simply because someone has to, nor because of the law that demands an eye for an eye and a life for a life. We have the evidence above him to be guilty beyond any reasonable doubt. "In taking up this evidence, I am considering you deeply, I am considering the strain you have been under. I am thinking deeply, in fact, I am trying to make myself as one of you twelve men, and in attempting to bring this to a conclusion, I am trying to get at the truth. "Let me see what the situation was on Memorial Day, Saturday, April 14. There is this great big pencil factory, which was built by a number of men with this defendant in charge. Let us consider the conditions that related there, and gentlemen, must be that I am not proud of these conditions. "Witness Inposed By Factory Conditions. "But to get to the real facts of this case; to come to a full realization of just how things occurred, we must understand the conditions that existed here absolutely before we can proceed with this case. The character of this place was one to make us think deeply. The evidence which has been laid before you here has been a good deal to make one doubly serious. Take the defendant, between 35 and 40 girls have come before the jury and said that his character was good. "They spoke in the highest terms of him. That must be considered. But on this charge this is negative evidence. But also consider that the girl who told of his character being bad; who told of the immoral conditions that existed in this great pencil factory, and gentlemen of the jury, most of these girls had worked at that factory from two years to three weeks before the time of this trial. "Twenty-one of them said his character was bad. Did you notice the emphasis with which they said it? And did you notice that they would have told more if they could have been allowed to? Did you notice how happily innocently they fell toward the immoral conditions which existed at that factory? "You have those who are all there who will say that his character is good; but you have those who have said who inevitably say his character is bad. We put them on notice from the very first that we were willing to enter fully into his character. We would furnish particular information in regard to this, but we have been prevented. "We have asked our own witnesses and our own witnesses have answered them. Did you ever hear of this incident? Did you ever hear of this incident? We brought before you the witnesses who were in the factory, and we asked them in regard to Frank's character. They said it was bad. We were willing to question them in regard to any of the incidents to which we have referred. "Incident Arnold Interrupted at this point, protesting to Judge Ross that he considered Mr. Hooper was making an improper argument in saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

ATTORNEY F. A. HOOPER ARGUING BEFORE JURY

Characteristic attitude of Attorney F. A. Hooper, who opened the Frank trial argument for the State.

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and question the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

tion the State's witnesses in regard to the particular incidents. Judge Ross sustained Hooper's saying that the State could not go into the particular evidence and in intimating that it was an incriminating circumstance that the defense did not have advantage of its privileges and ques-

POPULAR EXCURSION TO WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

8 Round Trip; Sat. - August 1st. Special Rates for Men, Women and Children. Leave Old Depot 6 p. m. SEABOARD.

ARE YOU SICK, DISEASED, NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN?

Have You Blood Poison, Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Troubles? Dr. HUGHES' Kidney Pills. 100% Cure. Price 25c. Sold Everywhere.

$8 WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH

Round Trip; Sat. - August 1st. Special Rates for Men, Women and Children. Leave Old Depot 6 p. m. SEABOARD.

EGGS 17 1/2 Doz.

Lemons, 10c Doz.

25 Pounds Sugar $1.25

No. 10 Silver Leaf $1.35

Cash Gro. Co., 118 Whitehall

8 Round Trip; Sat. - August 1st. Special Rates for Men, Women and Children. Leave Old Depot 6 p. m. SEABOARD.

DR. HUGHES

100% Cure. Price 25c. Sold Everywhere.

ARNOLD OPENS CASE GREATEST OF FRAME-UPS' 'Frank Prosecuted Because He Is a Jew,' He Says to Jury

'WRITER OF THOSE NOTES KILLED MARY PHAGAN,' IS CHARGE OF DEFENSE

Continued From Page 2.

and found something. They found the body of little Mary Phagan brutally murdered, the cold body lying on the ground where it had been left, for Jim Conley to burn.

"Jim had taken his bag, though, and had not come back. The policemen looked the body over in the undertaking establishment, and at daybreak they started to get up Frank again. And when they got him he was anxious to know if there had been a fire.

"Apt, gentlemen, aside from the conversation that took place, every officer and every man who was with him that morning will tell you that he was nervous; that he was shaking like a leaf; that he rubbed his hands and was completely filled with nervousness.

"But the morning after the crime he was as weak as a cat. He was nervous; he was trembling like a leaf. The people in the automobile on the way to the undertaking establishment felt him tremble.

"But the morning after the crime he was as weak as a cat. He was nervous; he was trembling like a leaf. The people in the automobile on the way to the undertaking establishment felt him tremble.

"What did he do with the time after that was put in the night before? He was properly punished. Others looking for his shoulder agreed to it. He truly himself agreed to it.

"At this point Attorney Hooper produced the time slip which he held up before the jury.

"There weren't any marks on it," he continued. "Frank said:

"I was the same girl he called Mary; it was the same girl he tried to engage in conversation; it was the same girl on whose shoulder he placed his hand.

"What did he do with the time after that was put in the night before? He was properly punished. Others looking for his shoulder agreed to it. He truly himself agreed to it.

"At this point Attorney Hooper produced the time slip which he held up before the jury.

"There weren't any marks on it," he continued. "Frank said:

"I was the same girl he called Mary; it was the same girl he tried to engage in conversation; it was the same girl on whose shoulder he placed his hand.

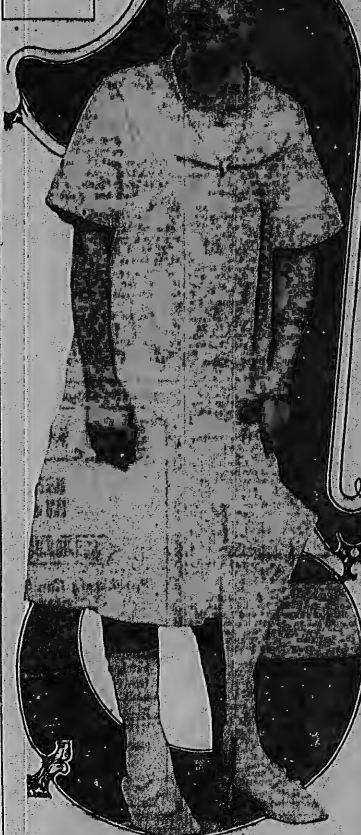

"What did he do with the time after that was put in the night before? He was properly punished. Others looking for his shoulder agreed to it. He truly himself agreed to it.

"At this point Attorney Hooper produced the time slip which he held up before the jury.

"There weren't any marks on it," he continued. "Frank said:

DAUGHTER OF JUROR WAITING TO SEE 'PAPA'

Margaret Louise Wisbey, whose father is on the Frank Trial Jury.

Horries on the question of a reasonable doubt and the quality of circumstantial evidence. And if it against the law to charge a jury that the defendant is guilty of a crime until the proof of that character is not at all direct.

Arnold Opens Argument Charging Persecution

When Attorney Arnold arose to speak he asked for the paper model of the penalty factor. The model was brought in and placed before the jury stand.

"Gentlemen of the jury," Arnold began, "we are to be congratulated that this case is drawing to a close. We have all suffered at trying a case resulting so much effort, time and concentration in such hot weather. We have suffered for lack of adequate quarters, and from the noise from the street.

GEORGE'S GREATEST WORROED TRIAL NEARS ITS FAREWELL CLOSE

By JAMES E. NEVIN.

The evidence in the Frank case has been delivered; the last word has been spoken, both for and against the defendant so far as the witnesses are concerned.

It only remains for the lawyers to argue the matter to the jury—and that after the court has given the jury the law in charges they will remain only the verdict to record.

The Phagan case for which it will go down in history, rather than as the Frank case, has combined within itself all that goes to make for intense and insistent interest.

It has revolved about a sweet little working girl, typically and cruelly and brutally killed—murdered in the first flush of youth and promising womanhood, who probably never knew, and if knowing still not comprehending, why she should be so suddenly and so unavoidably slain.

It has involved the career and the home happiness of a young business man, therefore of unblemished integrity and standing in the community, and a young girl, who, in the most unprovoked manner, has been accused of murdering her lover.

It has, with scintillating emphasis, suppressed but unmistakable made manifest the deep-seated prejudice and long-cherished animosity which have been the cause of the tragedy.

It has, with a force and conviction which has never been equaled in this city, shown the very best of human nature, and the very best of human law.

It has, with a force and conviction which has never been equaled in this city, shown the very best of human nature, and the very best of human law.

It has, with a force and conviction which has never been equaled in this city, shown the very best of human nature, and the very best of human law.

M. RICH & BROS. CO.

August Furniture Sale

This sale was carefully planned six months ago and the 10 to 50 per cent reductions embrace:

- First—Every place of our regular furniture on the waterrooms and on the floors.
- Second—Special purchases from manufacturers who supply us regularly.

Customers wishing to profit by the August prices and desiring more than the usual 30 days' credit, can arrange terms through our office.

(Furniture—Fourth Floor)

For College Girls, Brides or Matrons

A hand-embroidered shirtwaist will please them all. Exquisitely embroidered shirtwaist fronts, on sheer voile and lingerie for the bride-moderate little colored embroideries for the schoolgirl and beauty for all. See to see.

New arrivals! Hand-embroidered in all colors. Fringed and ready for the quick, new adjustments which are being put in the blouse in style. 4 1/2 yard length. 100% Rayon.

(Embroidery—Main Floor, Right)

$1.98

Neckwear of Beauty

The new Fall Neckwear has arrived. But—that is too conservative when speaking of this array of loveliness. Right Oriental effects for the sixty matrons—dainty pink and blue neckties for the bride-moderate little colored embroideries for the schoolgirl and beauty for all. See to see.

New arrivals! Hand-embroidered in all colors. Fringed and ready for the quick, new adjustments which are being put in the blouse in style. 4 1/2 yard length. 100% Rayon.

(Embroidery—Main Floor, Right)

Center Aisle Greets You

With a Sparkling Trio of Good Values

- Hatpins 25c.
- Hair Ornaments 6 for 50c.
- Jeweled hairpins, bobby pins, combs and other hair ornaments. Beautiful and durable. Value from $3 to $10.

Imported 6-inch hatpins. Hair Ornaments 6 for 50c. Jeweled hairpins, bobby pins, combs and other hair ornaments. Beautiful and durable. Value from $3 to $10.

Bandeaus 25c. New collared demand bandeaus. These would adorn the head of Psyche herself—so prettily are they set with brilliant diamonds and corals. Were good values at 50c to $1.00. Now but 25c.

69c--Leather Bags--69c

Regular $1 and $1.50 values, but an odd assortment, so all will go for 69c. Frames—German leather and leather-covered. Top strap handles, round and crescent bottom leather and china lined. Filled with soft foam rubber. All styles in some in color.

(Genteel—Main Floor)

Handkerchiefs Wave Farewell

In fact, that's what we expect. We are not anxious to keep these broken lots in the store. You will be glad we feel that way when you see our

- Freshly laundered—15c each.
- Some white, others with colored borders. Black and white borders on many. Values—25c to 50c.
- All- linen Handkerchiefs—25c each.
- Ladies' embroidered and men's hemstitched handkerchiefs—10c to 25c each.
- All- linen Handkerchiefs—6 for 49c.
- Ladies' initial handkerchiefs—Only a few initial left. Value—10c to 25c.
- All- linen Handkerchiefs—6 for 98c.
- Machine-washed. Unusual opportunity to get 247 good handkerchiefs for less than the price of ordinary ones. Value—10c to 25c.

School Days Are Nigh

Get the children handkerchiefs before the last minute.

- Girls' Handkerchiefs—6 for 29c.
- All- linen hemstitched and initial handkerchiefs. Used to cost 50c, but you can buy six for your little girl at 29c.
- Boys' Handkerchiefs—6 for 89c.
- All- linen, with most initial. Serviceable. Best 41c value—good for Dad, too.

(Handkerchiefs—Main Floor, Left)

Here Again, Double-Front Petticoat 98c

This eliminates use of two petticoats. Narrow style, carefully fitted with buttoned placket, neatly scalloped hem. Double front girth makes it the preferable under summer frocks. Ought to mark it $1.50.

(Multiplies—Fourth Floor)

Neat House Dresses 98c

Flowered lavins in Empire style. Some have large, fancy collars. Pink blue and lavender—all in floral designs with borders. Washable. Value $1.25, now 98c.

August Blouses and Bedding Sale—Continued

Watch Out!

- Indigestion
- Dyspepsia
- Constipation
- Biliousness
- Will surely 'get you' if you are careless and neglect the Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Be on guard, and get the always take

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

It cures Stomach, Liver and Bowels. It is the only system. Try it now.

SEABOARD EXCURSION TO WRIGHTSVILLE

Special train leaves 7 p. m.

Rich's Economy Basement

A Fresh Supply of Boudoir Slippers 59c

The New Fall High Shoes for Women, Misses, Boys and Children

Rich's Economy Basement

Rich's Economy Basement

MAN WHO WROTE NOTES KILLED MARY PHAGAN, SAYS ARNOLD Recalls Dreyfus Case to Show Mistakes of Circumstantial Convictions

'PRICE OF PERJURERS' SEPHET APPLIED TO
CONLEY BY ATTORNEY

Continued From Page 3.

determine his guilt or innocence. The jury system came as a result of a desire to popularize the courts, let the people flow through the courts.

'God Grant We Get Away From the Street.'

Hooper objected. "Your honor," he said, "I don't want the speaker to misrepresent my meaning."

'Man Who Wrote Note Killed Mary Phagan.'

"This is one of the profoundest mistakes that ever occurred in the history of the law," he said.

'Things developed. New Lee was the man who wrote those notes.'

'Kenley Sample of Living Blowhard.'

'Durant Case.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

friendless. He was an easy mark for their greed.

'Arnold Grows Frenzied At Expense of Hooper.'

"One thing in my friend Hooper's speech I want you to consider. What he didn't know about this case would fill many volumes. He has got just a little better of an idea."

'Man Who Wrote Note Killed Mary Phagan.'

"This is one of the profoundest mistakes that ever occurred in the history of the law," he said.

'Things developed. New Lee was the man who wrote those notes.'

'Kenley Sample of Living Blowhard.'

'Durant Case.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

Mary Phagan. And all that they could say was that they had heard him call her Mary.

'Discharged Employee Testified in Reversal.'

'State Conspiracy in State Evidence Chain.'

'How unreasonable must it be for intelligent human beings to believe any story so utterly preposterous.'

'Premeditated Killing. Soule's Theory Frank Arnold never had any theory.'

'Accuses the State of Begging the Question.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

as they might be. There is always the possibility of a witness who will not testify.

'Discharged Employee Testified in Reversal.'

'State Conspiracy in State Evidence Chain.'

'How unreasonable must it be for intelligent human beings to believe any story so utterly preposterous.'

'Premeditated Killing. Soule's Theory Frank Arnold never had any theory.'

'Accuses the State of Begging the Question.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

Mrs. Jackson admitted that girls had been flirting from the window of that dressing room. She said they were there for a long time.

'Discharged Employee Testified in Reversal.'

'State Conspiracy in State Evidence Chain.'

'How unreasonable must it be for intelligent human beings to believe any story so utterly preposterous.'

'Premeditated Killing. Soule's Theory Frank Arnold never had any theory.'

'Accuses the State of Begging the Question.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

you can go out to Piedmont Park any day and see 200 women with their hands on their hips and their feet on their heads.

'Discharged Employee Testified in Reversal.'

'State Conspiracy in State Evidence Chain.'

'How unreasonable must it be for intelligent human beings to believe any story so utterly preposterous.'

'Premeditated Killing. Soule's Theory Frank Arnold never had any theory.'

'Accuses the State of Begging the Question.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

Frank telling him to come back and see him. He said he had seen Mary Phagan in the street.

'Discharged Employee Testified in Reversal.'

'State Conspiracy in State Evidence Chain.'

'How unreasonable must it be for intelligent human beings to believe any story so utterly preposterous.'

'Premeditated Killing. Soule's Theory Frank Arnold never had any theory.'

'Accuses the State of Begging the Question.'

'Tell Birdie Tale.'

'Dreyfus Case.'

'Bull Up Case.'

'That Tore It Down.'

'Our friends the detective and police were here to find someone on whom to place the crime.'

J.M. High Company. A Big Sale. Remnants White and Colored Wash Goods. 12 1-2c to 35c Qualities. SALE BEGINS PROMPTLY AT 9:30 o'clock Friday morning. Be amongst the first comers at this sale; the assortment is the greatest we ever put into a Remnant Sale.

SKIN TROUBLE BEGAN WITH SHINGLES. Could Not Rest Day or Night. Sore Itched So Would Scratch Here to Pieces. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in Two Weeks.

Waist Sale 77c. Values to $2.50. A clean sweep sale of all velle, lingerie and linen waists of our great special purchase, also a big lot of neatly folded linen waists from our regular stock.

White Skirts $1.00. Values to $2.50. We have put into one lot all white Bedford, Basing, Pique and Orange Skirts formerly priced $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

Men's $1 and $1.25 Shirts 79c. To Go in One Lot. The most stylish patterns in plaid and plain-front shirts, all sizes, imported percales and madras, made by the best people in the business.

Rummage Sale--Notions. 4 Bars Armoire's Bath Slop for 50c. 100 Box Marine Bond Stationery 80c. Washable Net Dollar Fashion, 50c.

Women's Undermuslins 25c. New, Fresh Fall Goods. 100 down pairs of women's knit cambric drawers, the best we've ever bought under 35c.

White Skirts $1.00. Values to $2.50. We have put into one lot all white Bedford, Basing, Pique and Orange Skirts formerly priced $1.50, $2.00 and $2.50.

Men's $1 and $1.25 Shirts 79c. To Go in One Lot. The most stylish patterns in plaid and plain-front shirts, all sizes, imported percales and madras, made by the best people in the business.

Women's Vests 10c. To Close. 100 dozen women's fine mesh Cotton Vests, low neck, sleeveless, made Saturday, while they last, at 10c each.

Rummage Sale--Notions. 4 Bars Armoire's Bath Slop for 50c. 100 Box Marine Bond Stationery 80c. Washable Net Dollar Fashion, 50c.

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co.

Here's News That Will Make Interesting Reading For Women

Nainsook Gowns That Were Until Now $1, $1.50 & $1.75, Are 69c. Prepare to buy them in twos and threes and half dozens. You will, once you see how fine they are--(It does not take a woman's eye long to catch the real value that lies in such an offering as this)

They are, every one of them, taken from our own stocks, which means they had to be worth their former prices before they could enter. The nainsook is smoothly woven and light and free from all filling.

The laces, Valenciennes, Cluny and shadow, are those neat and dainty patterns that women of good taste instinctively prefer, and so with the Swiss embroideries that form yokes, that are oddly placed in sleeves, slip-over style, Empire style, both variously charming. We warrant you haven't known such gowns before at 69c.

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co.

$20.95 BALTIMORE AND RETURN VIA SEABOARD.

On August 28, 29 and 30, the O.C.R. will visit Baltimore, through Atlanta and other points.

Funeral Directors and Flowers will be sent to the O.C.R. at Atlanta, Florida City, 405 EAST FIFTH STREET.

J.M. High Company.

J.M. High Company.

JIM CONLEY MISERABLE, LYING SCOUNDREL, SAYS ARNOLD Dressing Room Story Preposterous, Lawyer Asserts Hotly to the Jury

DALTON IS BRANDED AS COMMON LIAR; NO SPOTS WHERE HAIR WAS FOUND

Continued from Page 8.

about his discoveries are, I am not going to tell you that place like my friend Hooper did. I am going to tell you that place like my friend Hooper did. I am going to tell you that place like my friend Hooper did.

to state, I have no doubt that they... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

to state, I have no doubt that they... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

to state, I have no doubt that they... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

to state, I have no doubt that they... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Conley began to try to secure... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Their evidence also is based on... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

There they held him. They haven't... Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record. Dalton's Record.

Baltimore and Annapolis Turn shoe.

Southern Suit & Skirt Co. Atlanta's Exclusive Women's Apparel Store - 43-45 Whitehall Street. J. P. Allen & Co. Whitehall St.

Summer Dresses and Linen Suits Greatly Reduced at ALLEN'S. $6.95 to $10.00 Dresses $2.45. $12.50 to $16.50 Dresses $4.45.

Any Linen Suit in the House $4.45. J. P. Allen & Co. 51-53 Whitehall St.

Women's High-Grade Footwear at $2 a Pair. A sale of Allen's shoes at $2.00 a pair is a money-saving opportunity, indeed.

CRIME WAS THE DEED OF A SAVAGE NEGRO, DEFENSE CHARGES Couldn't Have Happened as Conley Said It Did, Attorney Arnold Declares

OFFICERS ARE ACCUSED OF SCHEMING WITH BACK TO FIX GUILT ON FRANK

Yet in this statement Conley stuck to his story... 'Trucks of Perjury'... 'Clear in This Case'...

It is worth nothing for a man to worry about a little salary and try to hold up his hands... 'Display Chart of Frank's Movements'...

Continued From Page 6. Jim Says Frank told him he was going to stand away. Listen now it says...

regular stance with me. I saw nothing of a new light. I made lots of changes in my testimony... 'Pictures Onlay Girl'...

him to do what he alleges he did... 'Phagan Girl's Steps Retrace in Detail'...

'Notes Are Products Of Negro's Brain.' 'If Frank saw the woman coming he could have seen her in the hall...'

'Killing Phagan Girl.' 'Conley says he saw what we came here to answer...'

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co. ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS

'A Wise Man' will make more opportunities than he finds. Ninety-nine per cent of the great industries and businesses of to-day were created and not found...

CHAMBERLIN-JOHNSON-DuBOSE CO. A Fine Day For You, Mr. Man. To-morrow we shall furnish you with furnishings, as shirts, Sox, ties, pajamas and the like...

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co. ATLANTA NEW YORK PARIS. A remnant sale of woollens in late August is worth two in February.

'A Wise Man' (continued) 'And here he says Frank sat down in his chair...'

The Clearaway of "Onyx" Sox. Hardly any need of telling a man how fine "Onyx" Sox are...

Regular Prices Are Reduced One-Third, One-Half and More The Silks. Surprising quantities have accumulated within the last few weeks...

'A Wise Man' (continued) 'Now he sat in his cell and lying in every direction...'

The Pajamas. Of nainsook and solesette in white, cream, blue and tan, also white striped in lavender, blue and black...

Regular Prices Are Reduced One-Third, One-Half and More. None sent C. O. D. or on approval. None will be exchanged.

Georgia Savings Bank & Trust Co. Atlanta's Oldest Savings Bank Grant Bldg.

Also - 50c Washable Silk and Madras Ties are marked at half price... $1.00 Values... $1.50 Values...

Chamberlin - Johnson - DuBose Co. Agents for Batterick Patterns and Publications.

DOBBY'S ACTS ARE REPEATED BY ROSSER They Will Never Be Repeated in Georgia Courts, He Says

FRANK WOULD HAVE BEEN CONVICTED OF MURDER IF HE HAD BEEN HELD BY POLICE

Continued From Page 2

was a little boy named Turner. I can't begin to say anything further. I don't know what happened to the child. I don't know what happened to the child. I don't know what happened to the child.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

know what was in the mind of the man. I don't know what was in the mind of the man. I don't know what was in the mind of the man.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

Luther Rosser's Tribute to the jury

"We walk the streets carelessly, absorbed in our own interests. We pass our friends, and do not recognize them. The mind wanders in flights of fancy and fits of fever. We mean no harm to ourselves nor harm to our friends, but we are careless."

"Others may take the brave talk of standing up for the weak and oppressed, but it is not for you. You are a still, silent, concentrated band. You are to do your duty without one thought of the past or the future. You are here and now consecrated by justice to do your duty."

committed that crime and not have scars upon him. Frank showed that he had no remorse. He had no remorse. He had no remorse. He had no remorse.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

the case fulfills my indignation. That white man should believe this person guilty of a crime on this great city and this great state. I am sure that the jury will do its duty. I am sure that the jury will do its duty.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

See came I was just saying how horrible it was that this charge of perjury was made against the defendant. I was just saying how horrible it was that this charge of perjury was made against the defendant.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

That little girl, Dewey Howell, testified that Frank had been in the room with her mother and father and that she had seen him with a woman who was not her mother.

BASS DRY GOODS CO

CLEARANCE OF BEAUTIFUL DRESSES Ladies' Beautiful white embroidered Navy Dress, Handsome white embroidered Yoke Dress, Silk Tating Dress, and Full Metaline Dress, worth $10 to $12.50. Choice, $3.90

EMBROIDERY AND VOILE DRESSES 600 Ladies' Dresses at 1-3 their value in all-over white embroidery and dainty white voile. Deceased worth up to $5.00. Special $1.98

SKIRTS 100 Ladies' and Misses' All- Wool Serge Skirts in plain black, navy, tan, fancy stripes and mixtures, worth up to $20.00. In our Clearance Sale, only $2.98

SILK PETTICOATS 100 New Silk Messaline Petticoats, with the new accordion ruffles and fancy silk brocades. Petticoats worth $5 to $10.95. rerearware only $1.98

LADIES' MUSLIN UNDERWEAR Good quality Muslin Drawers neatly trimmed and $1.00. Fine quality Muslin Corset fully trimmed with embroidery and worth up to $2.00. Very fine Muslin Petticoats trimmed with wide embroidery and also a new one worth less than $2.00. $1.98

NEW FALL DRESSES $6.90 New Fall Satin Messaline and $6.90 Silk Poplin Dresses. Black and all colors. Sold everywhere for $10.00 and $12.50. Only $6.90

WHITE SKIRTS Lawn Waists Another big clearance. Fine white muslin waists, worth $1.00 to $1.50. $89c. Balkan Middy Blouses Ladies' and Misses' good quality Balkan Middy Blouses, each worth $1.00. $47c

RATINE HATS Ladies' Vests Ladies' and Misses' Hats and Goggles. $1.50. $89c. Ratine Hats Ladies' and Misses' Hats and Goggles. $1.50. $89c

SALE OF NEW FALL HATS The new fall hats are here. All the new plumes and silk veils. Specially priced for early buyers. $1.98 to $4.98

HOUSE DRESSES GREY-KIMONS Ladies' good quality Madras and Cotton House Dresses worth $1.00. $69c. Grey-Kimons Ladies' and Misses' Kimons, worth $1.00. $89c

LADIES' SILK HOSE GENUINE R. & G. CORSETS Ladies' Fine Silk Hose in black, white and tan, worth $1.00. $75c. Ladies' and Misses' Corsets. Ladies' Corsets $1.00. $75c

SILK LISLE GLOVES R. & G. MAKE CORSETS Ladies' and Misses' Silk Lisle Gloves, black and white, worth $1.00. $39c. R. & G. Make Corsets. Ladies' Corsets $1.00. $47c

TAFFETA RIBBONS MEN'S $1.00 SHIRTS Ladies' and Misses' Ribbons, 3 and 4 inch wide, worth $1.00. $3c. Men's $1.00 Shirts. Men's $1.00 Shirts $1.00. $49c

LADIES' SILK HOSE MEN'S NIGHT SHIRTS Ladies' and Misses' Silk Hose, 3 and 4 inch wide, worth $1.00. $69c. Men's Night Shirts. Men's Night Shirts $1.00. $47c

DINING TABLES KITCHEN SAFES 100 Dining Tables, Oak, Walnut and Pine, worth $10.00 to $15.00. $3.98. Kitchen Safes. Kitchen Safes $1.00. $1.98

OPEN UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK SATURDAY NIGHT

HOOPER AND ARNOLD IN ARGUMENT OF MOST OF THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

Frank Hooper's speech in behalf of the prosecution against Leo Frank charged with the murder of little Mary Phagan, reflected much truth upon him.

It fell to the point, well thought out and appealing in tone and delivery.

It went for the defendant, hammer and tongs, but it was devoid of anything that might be construed as being the bell.

Incidentally, it was not pleasant to the defendant, sitting there, stolidly following the words of Hooper—but Dorey of Hooper, in his final attack, made out of most dangerous case against Frank and Hooper was there to defend and sustain it.

He formed his duty in a way that hardly can fail to bring him lasting applause and commendation.

If, however, Frank fell to the full gloom of the case made out against him by Hooper, he was more than abundantly taken care of when Arnold followed.

The case made out in defense of Frank by Arnold was extremely plausible—it covered in detail every point developed by Hooper. It, like Hooper's, was a speech evidently carefully considered.

Now, the thing about those two speeches that made them particularly and uniquely noteworthy, perhaps, is that both were seemingly designed for the consideration of a jury held to be highly intelligent and not out to rush pell-mell to a verdict either for or against Frank.

And that the opposing counsel entertained the opinion of the jury—if they hold it in some compelling esteem and respect—and if the jury is such as respects as decries that opinion, which I think it is, then the chances are that its verdict will be righteous and just, whatever it may be.

And that the finding of the jury will speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth—that, in the words of Hamlet, "is a consummation most devoutly to be wished."

Try this case, gentlemen, according to the law as developed by the Frank Hooper, addressing the jury Thursday.

That is the final and the ultimate request any man for or against the defendant could or should make of the twelve good men and true who are to pass on the fate of Leo Frank.

Neither the State nor the defense in justice and right dare will plead guilty or not guilty.

The two opening speeches in murder trials are pronounced by the State and the defense of the completed arguments both ways.

Concluding attorneys may amplify and elaborate upon points raised by opposing attorneys, but they rarely go beyond the primary outlining of the main points of issue.

And so, while Rosser and Dorey may go further than Hooper and Arnold in "reverts," advanced, and in passionate outbursts, neither is it to do anything material to either side as compared with the findings of Hooper and Arnold have said.

There is some advantage to the speaker, at least, there is supposed to be some advantage to it—that it has the concluding argument before the jury.

No injustice there.

Some people think this is an injustice, that a hardship upon the defense, but when one comes to consider the hardship upon which practice is founded the apparent injustice and hardship of it vanishes, and it may be seen readily enough that in this as in so many things the law has been most carefully thought out—and is just and right.

The law throws about the defendant at bar the presumption of innocence—it places upon the State the burden of proving him guilty, rather than putting upon the defendant the burden of proving himself innocent.

But the law, having done this, permits the final vote to be the voice from the grave.

The dead—be he or she not there to speak, and to say as to the truth, and to the law directs that the State's burden of proving guilt shall now be in its hands.

She does the law, with her hand, protect first the defendant and then protect also as jealously his own majesty, and the rights of the dead.

The law, however, in the event the defendant elects to introduce no witnesses in his behalf, to say only upon his own isolated statement, and after such, reverses the order of argument and permits the defense to open and close—for the law will not permit a defendant even to place himself at a distance, without fully compensating him for the same.

It will find the Frank jury and will find the Frank jury guilty.

Or will it find him guilty and fasten upon him forever the disgrace of one of the most infamous and dishonorable crimes ever committed in Georgia?

To render the final verdict it must be that Leo Frank, a monster, lost to every sense of decency and right—a man who has meanly and unjustly deprived his mother, his wife, his friends, his faithful employees and his acquaintances. It must believe him a cruel murderer, for a distinguished lawyer like the State and must will create a never known among his kindred and his kind.

Will the jury believe that it is not easy to think it will.

The Alternative.

Not to believe it is to believe those girls who swore Frank's character is bad, who cited instances of a suspicious nature to uphold that belief, are wrong—that they knew him not, notwithstanding their opportunity—and that all the circumstances of the crime seemingly connecting him with it are errors, and that Conley's story, if true, is not to be true, then to believe it to be untrue, still is untrue, and that all the things alleged against Frank either are wrong actually or wrong by design and malicious purpose.

Will the jury look at the matter this way? It is not easy to think it will.

And yet, again, it MUST believe the one or the other—there will be no verdict.

What, then, CAN honest minded men, more and more who were to see the right and the right alone prevail, do other than put their faith in the JURY there, and believe that it will speak the TRUTH in this case, no matter what may be anybody's preconceived opinion?

The time for argument has passed. Rosser and Arnold and Hooper and Dorey have about concluded that. The general public should now prepare itself to receive the verdict as the final and determining circumstance in this case.

Individual opinion is interesting at times, but after all, one man's opinion is as good as another, but not more so.

The important thing.

What you think, and what I think, is relatively inconsequential—the thing that matters SUPREMACY is the TRUTH in this case, no matter what the JURY think, and what will the jury say.

No one of us has the opportunity to know so well the ins and outs of the case as the jury. The jury does not read what I write nor does it hear what you say. It is there, in the courtroom, aside from the outside world, to listen, and to hear—there to do justice, to the State and to Frank, though the heavens fall.

There is no responsibility upon individuals expressing opinion and opinion. They are not under oath—the life of a human being, on the one hand, and the majesty of the law of the land on the other, are no direct legal concerns of theirs.

It is all very well for you to say, "I was wrong in this case, I would turn Frank loose in a jiffy," or "if I were ruling this thing I would find him guilty." But that is a legal matter imposed and oath-bound obligation upon you to render a verdict means something definite in law.

With a jurymen, however, the case is different—his is a solemn function, a finding that means everything.

Within twenty-four hours, perhaps, the public will know what the Frank jury thinks of the case made against him.

The jury may convict him, and it may acquit him.

No man possibly can know at this time—and nothing is so uncertain in the matter of forecasting as the verdict of a jury.

Public thought—Accept a Verdict.

But whether it be acquittal or conviction, the public should, and the law-abiding public WILL, prepare itself to accept that verdict as right and just.

No man ought to be willing to see his opinion doggedly against that of the twelve good men and true, whatever their verdict may be.

Leo Frank, the defendant, is entitled to all the protection the law gives defendants—he is entitled to an absolutely fair trial, without favor or prejudice, one way or the other. He is entitled to all of that—but no more.

The State has rights as sacred as his. They are not under oath, but they are entitled to be considered.

What more can human ingenuity do in the form of words to introduce no witnesses in his behalf, to say only upon his own isolated statement, and after such, reverses the order of argument and permits the defense to open and close—for the law will not permit a defendant even to place himself at a distance, without fully compensating him for the same.

It will find the Frank jury and will find the Frank jury guilty.

Or will it find him guilty and fasten upon him forever the disgrace of one of the most infamous and dishonorable crimes ever committed in Georgia?

To render the final verdict it must be that Leo Frank, a monster, lost to every

FELINE WAIF FINDS PROTECTOR IN PRETTY HOTEL ANSLEY MISS

This is Miss Gladys Brinkley and "Governor Slaton" in a special pose for camera man.

"Governor" is never quite happy unless he is safe in the arms of his fair guardian. No one can step on his tail then—he is sure of that.

McKEE NOT TO GET TIME EXTENSION

Name of Bolling H. Jones as Successor to Go to Senate Within Few Days.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—Despite the efforts of Postmaster Hugh H. Moore of Atlanta to postpone his removal by the Postoffice Department, and his assertions that he will fight the request for his immediate resignation, no extension of time will be allowed him. He will be summarily removed. It was said here today within a few days, and the name of Bolling H. Jones will be sent in as his successor within the next two or three days.

The department has read Mr. McKee's statement, in which he denies any knowledge of the efforts of his friends to have the charges withdrawn. He states emphatically that he does not want them withdrawn, and that he will not resign his office until he knows the nature of the charges. Mr. McKee and his friends say that had his resignation been requested on the grounds that the Administration wished to appoint a Democrat, he would have complied at once, but in view of the charges, he thinks it best to remain at his post until they are proved or disproved. So far the department has received no answer to his letter to Mr. McKee, dated August 14, asking for an immediate resignation. Having allowed him to remain in office, it is the department's purpose to go ahead with the appointment of his successor without delay.

Alligator Puts Hotel Patrons in a Panic

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 22.—An alligator that was on exhibition at the Platters Hotel at its convention of the National Comptroller's Association, escaped from his cage and invaded the dining room, sending guests scampering for cover.

One man jumped over two tables as he fled. The alligator turned his attention to the negro waiters, who dropped their trays and fled. The humiliated alligator.

POWDER TRIP TO NEW YORK. PLEASANTDALE, Aug. 22.—An outcutter on a coast at Pleasantdale, N. Y., died in Gray's Hotel, Thursday. The matches were in good shape.

Commissioner Price Spends Night in Dead Auto on Lonely Road

All alone in a "dead" automobile on a dark night on a lonely road between Atlanta and Stone Mountain was the Commissioner of Agriculture, J. B. Price, of the State Department of Agriculture.

Although Mr. Price admitted it is a good one on him, he doesn't make any secret of it, and now that the harrowing experience is a thing of the past, his actually chuckles when he speaks of it.

The Commissioner and his son were motoring from Walton to Atlanta. Everything went well until he crossed the Georgia Railroad crossing a few miles from Stone Mountain, when he was struck by a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead" and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight. Mr. Price remained in the car while his son walked four miles to the nearest house for assistance.

Poor Girl Can't Be Good in New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—"I want to be a poor girl can't be good in New York," exclaimed Elizabeth, a 13-year-old orphan, as she swallowed a spoonful of mercury in Sullivan Park. She was punished to a hospital. "I won't be bad, so I can't," moaned the girl, refusing to take an antidote for trial.

Wife Shovels Snow Gets Reno Decree

RENO, Nev., Aug. 22.—Jelma May Donahue, a pretty Chicago woman, has obtained a divorce here. She testified she shovelled snow, carried the coal and chopped the kindling because her husband, John Frank Donahue, a shoemaker, had been doing manual labor. She was accused unjustly of unfairness. There is one child, four years old.

State Abolish Inspectors

Representative E. P. Thompson, chairman of the House Committee on the Institution, has announced that the institution are in excellent condition. He completed his inspection Thursday.

Lloyd Line to New Orleans

NEW YORK, Aug. 22.—A cable received here says the North German Lloyd Company has made arrangements to inaugurate a monthly passenger and freight service between Bremen, Europe and New Orleans. The new service will commence September 1.

BOY KIDNAPED 17 YEARS AGO FOUND

New York Mystery Cleared When History of Trappist Monk's Ward Is Traced.

LACHIN, QUE., Aug. 21.—A boy being kidnaped by Trappist and accompanying, then being taken up and cared for by Canadian monks, Frederick Brossard of Potlatch, N. B., has been found. Brossard was kidnaped seven years ago when he was seven years old. After escaping he was given a home by Trappist monks near Que. The monks traced him. The Trappist made several fruitless attempts to get the boy away.

Killed While Rushing To See His Sick Baby

LEXINGTON, Aug. 19.—Mortco Little, a railroad man of Casey, Ky., called home by illness of his baby, stepped from a train when it did not stop at his home, broke his back and died at a hospital here.

Chatham Tax Rate $8.33 on Thousand

SAVANNAH, Aug. 22.—Chatham County's rate for 1913 has been fixed at $8.33 on $1,000, which is the same rate levied for last year. It was found to be impracticable to make any downward revision of the rate, despite the rather substantial increase in tax returns for the year, which in the meantime has been about $120,000.

Final Designs and Flowers for All Occasions

Atlanta Floral Company 408 EAST FAIR BLDG.

"Governor Slaton" Is One of the Most Distinguished Young Cats in Atlanta.

"Governor Slaton" was peevish, and justly so, for a hurrying traveling man had stepped on his tail. He arched his back, dug his claws into the soft rugs of the Hotel Ansley and snarled venomously. He loved no body and nobody loved him.

Then Miss Gladys Brinkley came along. Miss Brinkley is one of the prettiest of the young women who work at the Ansley. Divers into it by saying that the smile she dispenses as she hands out the hats at the door of the retailer are worth more than the dinner.

The Best Food-Drink Lunch at Fountains

Insist Upon ORIGINAL GENUINE HORLICK'S

Avoid Imitations—Take No Substitute. Rich milk, malted grain in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. Pure nutrition, upbuilding the whole body. Invigates nursing mothers and the aged.

Senator Borah, Out By Bottle, Swoons

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—When Senator Borah attempted to take the cork out of a mineral water bottle in the Republican cloak room of the Senate, the neck broke and the palm of the Senator's hand was badly cut. The blood flowed so freely and the cut was so painful that the Senator refused to attend to the matter. It was found necessary to take three or four stitches in the wound.

Negro Held for Murder

Dave Wright, a negro who was shot by Abe Smith, another negro youth, Tuesday afternoon in Courthouse square, died in Gray's Hotel, Thursday. Smith is held awaiting preliminary hearing on a charge of murder.

The Look of Youth

It depends more upon the condition of the hair than upon the features of a woman's face. That is why any woman can keep her young-looking beauty, no matter how old she is, by using the scalp or make the hair slick. Prepared for Night, medium and dark brown and black hair.

Robinnair Hair Dye

This wonderful preparation keeps the hair in a beautiful condition, restores the original color to faded or gray hair, and does not irritate the scalp or make the hair slick. Prepared for Night, medium and dark brown and black hair.

Jacobs' Pharmacy

Atlanta, Ga.

Season's Farewell Offer!

Tomorrow Positively Ends It Your One Last Chance to Get Extra Pants

Stop all free pants offers after tomorrow's sale! That's our orders. We've got to obey. After tomorrow we tighten up. No more "gift" pants. This is positively your only hope—your last chance to get a nifty pair of genuine S. W. M. $5, $6 and $7 pants made to order absolutely free.

Woolen Mills EXTRA $5, $6, $7 PANTS FREE

We are going to end the season in a blaze of glory. Our entire line of fancy fabrics is at your disposal. The run of the store is yours. Choose any material—there are no restrictions. But come early and get the cream of the picking.

REMEMBER—this is final—your last chance

The Original $15 Tailors 107 PEACHTREE 'The Piedmont Is Across the Street'

SOILTOR MAKES STINGING SUMMING UP AGAINST ACCUSED

We get Frank Convicted According to Law Only, Declares Hugh Dorsey

PREJUDICE IS BROUGHT INTO DEFENSE ONLY SAYS DORSEY IN FINAL SPEECH

Continued from Page 1.

man unless it is absolutely known that he committed a crime. But gentlemen of the jury, the authorities say it is the best evidence of the fact that the jury are reluctant to convict on circumstantial evidence.

"It is true that recently there have been many failures in convicting on circumstantial evidence, but a man who is convicted on circumstantial evidence is not a man who is convicted on circumstantial evidence. It is a man who is convicted on circumstantial evidence. It is a man who is convicted on circumstantial evidence.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

C. M. Pickett was dated April 18, nearly two weeks before the murder of Mary Phagan. He made the statement that he had seen the investigation in anticipation of just such a story as Arnold had told.

"There are men here who are in the height of civilization when they do not know what they are doing with a cord. This man had strung the cord, strangulation was the cause of death. At that time Durand was a young man of 23 years, a student at the Cooper Manual School, a member of the army signal corps an attendant of the Episcopal Church, a member of the Episcopal Church, a member of the Episcopal Church.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

He says that he is only a necessary actor after the fact. But Billy Conley and some other men who were with him at the time he was building the house and about something else were not there. He says that he is only a necessary actor after the fact.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

Police Arrange for Elopers to Marry

MOBILE, Aug. 22.—Through the persistent efforts of Chief of Police W. C. Crenshaw, Augustus F. Lee and M. Lee, an attorney who practiced at Chatterville, Ga. and who says he is well known in Atlanta, married 12-year-old Radio Davis Smith, of Milton, Fla., with whom he eloped on Thursday from Pensacola.

"When the girl's absence from home was discovered, it was learned that she had eloped with a man named Lee at Pensacola and was coming to Mobile. Detectives met the couple at the depot and took them to the police station. Later the consent of the girl's mother to the marriage was obtained.

"Lee said they would live in Atlanta. The girl's mother to the marriage was obtained. Lee said they would live in Atlanta. The girl's mother to the marriage was obtained.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

"I am not a lawyer, but I am a citizen. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state. I am a citizen of this state.

Weak, Nervous and Diseased Men. Permanently Cured. Dr. Hughes' success... For blood poison... For chronic diseases...

Final August Clean-Up of Men's and Boys' Summer Wear. We still have a splendid assortment left for you in all lines... Men's Suits, Men's Shirts, Men's Underwear, Men's Shoes, All Straw Hats, Boys' Wool Suits, Boys' Wash Suits, Girls' Dainty White Princess Slips are Reduced.

The Store Is Open on Saturdays Until 1 P. M. The Half-Day in the Junior Department—Third Floor—Brings Tidy Savings. Boys' $1.00 and $1.25 Wash Suits are 79c. Girls' Dainty White Princess Slips are Reduced.

Parks = Chambers = Hardwick. 37-39 Peachtree Company. Atlanta, Georgia. Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company.

LUTHER ROSSER'S COMPLETE ADDRESS DEFENDING LEO FRANK
Dorsey, Detectives and Conley Are Given Terrific Scoring by Attorney

CALM, DISPASSIONED
PLEA FOR ACCIDENTAL
IMPRESSES HEADLERS

Luther Rosser's closing argument unquestionably made a deep impression. He attacked the State's case at every point and brand.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

Rosser's speech was remarkable for its calmness, but its very quietness added to its impressiveness. For the most part he sought to impress upon the jury that "fair play" must be done, and that they were a sacred body set apart to weigh facts and do justice.

LEADING COUNSEL FOR FRANK IN FULL SWING

Rosser's work on the case has taxed even his remarkable physique. He has lost 25 pounds in weight.

Luther Z. Rosser closes argument for defense.

My friend Dorsey, he said, "made much of the fact that Frank hired the lawyer. The charges and insinuations that he has made are the most contemptible that have ever occurred in a Georgia court. The things he has done in this trial will never be done in Georgia again. I will stake my life on that.

"You may question Frank in his judgment; he might have hired a better lawyer than I. He might have hired a more decent lawyer, but he couldn't have hired a more devoted lawyer. I will stake my life for myself if I drop out of the case."

"Gentlemen of the jury," he began in a low voice, as he leaned against the railing of the jury box, "all things come to an end. But for that masterly effort of my friend Arnold I almost wish it had ended without any speaking.

"My physical condition enables me to say but little. My voice is husky and almost useless. But for my intense interest, my profound conviction of the innocence of this man, I would say nothing.

"I want to repeat what my friend Arnold so aptly said. This is not a mob. The attitude of the jurors' mind is the attitude of the State. Mindlessly walks the streets. My friend must have brought his doctrines with him when he came to Atlanta.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

"I am not for the chatter of the laughter of the rabble. You are unacquainted. You are to decide on the evidence without an echo from any hostile mob. With no fear, no favor, no feigning.

Why Frank's Character Was Put in Evidence.

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

Why Frank's Character Was Put in Evidence.

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

"Who do you catch stealing and going munched all around? It is the little folks. An old banker retired from active business in New York was once a witness, and that is what he said when his faithful employee gathered around him: 'In my 40 years in this bank, I have seen an unfortunate coincidence that nearly killed me. I am one of the nicest men you ever met. I eat regularly and get plenty of sleep, and I behave myself. I mean I am a fairly good. But I will stop work for a couple of days and there is no telling where I will light. It is the man with nothing to do who gets into mischief.'

WOLFSHEIMER

- 114-116 Whitehall Street
Specials for Cash Only
Stew Meat 8c
Brisket 10c
Pot Roast 16c
Rib Roast 17c
Chuck Steak 16c
Round Steak 17c
Loin Steak 20c
Porterhouse Steak 20c
LAMB
Lamb Stew 9c
Lamb Shoulder 12c
Lamb Hindquarter 16c
Lamb Chops 20c
Hams, Sugar-cured
Picnic 14c
Hams 10c to 21c
Breakfast Bacon 21c
WOLFSHEIMER
114-116 Whitehall Street

BANKRUPT SALE!
Millinery Supplies for Retail Merchants and Milliners
$26,000.00 STOCK OF MYERS' MILLINERY CO. NOW ON SALE
Purchasers Can Select Just What They Can Use in Their Own Business at Less Than Cost to Myers Millinery Co.
Stock consists of Following Items, To-wit:
Ribbons, 45,000 yds, 31 1/2 pins, $65 thread, 60, 3888 mourning veils, $100
bat bands, etc, $378; bird, $950; velveteen, $495; rebuffs, 263; Bonnet crepe, $155; fals, $65; furs, $47; maline, $360; georgette, $298; scarfs, $188; veiling, $706; lace, $312; mull, $124; silk, $1,000; plumes, $4,839; cigrettes and fancy feathers, $3,600; flowers, $3,282; children's headwear, $845; ladies' hats and frames, $1,750.
This sale is being conducted under order of the Referee in Bankruptcy, at the old store of Myers Millinery Co., 38 East Alabama street, Atlanta, Ga. Terms cash.
H. A. FERRIS, TRUSTEE

HOOVER AND ARNOLD MAKE MOST OF THEIR OPPORTUNITIES

By JAMES B. NEVIN.

Frank Hoover's speech in behalf of the prosecution against Leo Frank charged with the murder of little Mary Phagan, reflected much credit upon him.

It was fair, to the point, well thought out and appealing in tone and delivery.

It was fair to the defendant, hammer and tongs, but it was devoid of anything that might be construed as below the belt.

Undoubtedly, it was not pleasant to the defendant, sitting there, stolidly following the words of Hoover—his words and Hoover, in its first aspect, have made out a most dangerous case against Frank, and Hoover was there to explain and sustain it. He performed his duty in a way that hardly can fall to bring him lasting approval and commendation.

If, however, Frank felt to the full the gloom of the case "made out" against him by Hoover, he was more than abundantly taken care of when Arnold followed.

The case made out in defense of Frank by Arnold was extremely plausible—it covered in detail every point developed by Hoover. It did not cover a speech evidently carefully prepared.

Jury held in First Edition.

Not the thing about these two speeches that made them particularly and uniquely noteworthy, perhaps, is that they were so completely destined for the consideration of a jury held to be highly intelligent and not apt to rankle to a verdict either way.

And if the opposing counsel entered the opinion of the jury—if they hold it in such compelling esteem and respect—and if the jury is such a jury as deserves the title, I think it is then the chances are just that its verdict will be righteous and just, whatever it may be.

And that the finding of this jury SHALL speak the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, as the words of Hamlet, in a consummation most devoutly to be wished.

"Try this case gentlemen, according to the law and the facts," said Frank Hoover, addressing the jury Thursday.

This is the final and the ultimate appeal any man or against the State can make or should make of the "twelve good men and true" there to pass upon the fate of Leo Frank.

Neither the State nor the defense, in justice or right, dare will plead for more or less.

The two speeches opening in murder trials are presumed to outline clearly the trend of the completed argument both ways.

Considering arguments may amplify and enlarge upon points raised by opposing attorneys, but they rarely do so beyond the primary outlining of the two main points of view.

And so, while Hoover and Arnold did not make Hoover and Arnold did not make passionate outbursts, neither is it to be expected that they should do so, as compared with the things Hoover and Arnold have said.

There is some advantage in this. At least, there is supposed to be some advantage to it—in that it has the concluding argument before the jury.

No man justly thinks this is an injustice, a hardship upon the defense, but when one comes to consider the theory upon which that practice is based, the question becomes a different one. It is not so much that the law has been most carefully thought-out and is just and right.

The law throws up the defendant at bar the presumption of innocence—it places upon the State the burden of proving him guilty, rather than putting upon the defendant the burden of proving himself innocent.

But the law, having done this, permits the final voice to be the voice from the State.

The deed or act is not there in question, and so the law directs that the State's prosecuting counsel speak if it is desired.

Thus does the law, with impartial hand, protect first the defendant and then protect quite as jealously its own majesty and the rights of the State.

The law, however, in the event the defendant elects to introduce no witnesses in his behalf, and to rely solely upon his own isolated statement, not under oath, reverse the order of argument and permits the defense to speak and close—for the law will not permit a defendant even to place himself at a disadvantage without first compelling him to speak.

What will the Frank jury say?

Will it find the prisoner not guilty, or will it find him guilty and fasten upon him, forever, the degree of one of the most inhuman and deplorable crimes ever committed in Georgia?

To render the latter verdict it must believe Frank a monster, loath to every

FELINE WAIF FINDS PROTECTOR IN PRETTY HOTEL ANSLEY MISS

This is Miss Gladys Brinkley and "Governor Slaton" in a special pose for camera man.

"Governor" is never quite happy unless he is safe in the arms of his fair guardian. No one can step on his tail then—he's sure of that.

'Governor Slaton' is One of the Most Distinguished Young Cats in Atlanta.

The thirteen-year-old of Atlanta's newest hotel, the "Governor Slaton" does not care much for human companionship—except Miss Brinkley—but once in a while he will allow Mrs. Morgan, who keeps a shop on the mezzanine floor, to pat him. He has no use for men, unless they come bearing gifts, which he accepts and then allows a claw into the hand of the giver. He is in the room about six hours a day. That is when Miss Brinkley is on duty and he can amuse up at her feet or purr lazily in her lap.

And Miss Brinkley likes the "Governor" too.

"All cats are nice," she said, "but I just love our 'Governor' like he was just scratched me. He always brings me up when I go to work, and sits with me for hours at a time. The 'Governor' has been my friend ever since I first saw him, the day the traveling man stepped on his foot. I fell so sorry for him I couldn't keep from cuddling him."

The hotel attaches little or no value to the cat, which shows why he was named "Governor Slaton." It seems that when the rug came to the Ansley and Workman took them to the thirteenth floor, a big white cat jumped out when they unrolled one. Kitty ran down the hall, and no attention was paid to her? Two weeks later the hotel opened, and Governor John S. Slaton was the first man to register.

The same night one of the hotel employees found a little white cat on the thirteenth floor, crying like a little heart out for something to eat. By consulting a few floors and watching it was learned that the cat had been born at the same moment Governor Slaton was inscribing his name on the hotel register—hence the name.

PREPARING FOR LABOR DAY. The Columbus, Ga., Columbus Chamber and Trades Assembly is preparing a Labor Day program for Labor Day at Wildwood Park. There are about thirty union men taking part.

McKEE NOT TO GET TIME EXTENSION

Name of Bolling H. Jones as Successor to Go to Senate Within Few Days.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—Despite the efforts of Postmaster Hugh J. McKee to postpone his removal by the Postoffice Department, and his assertions that he will fight the request for his immediate resignation, no extension of time will be allowed him. He will be summarily removed. It was said here today, within a few days, and the name of Bolling H. Jones will be sent in as his successor within the next two or three days.

The department has read Mr. McKee's statement, in which he denies any knowledge of the efforts of his friends to have the charges withdrawn. He states emphatically that he does not want them withdrawn, and that he will not resign his office until he knows the nature of the charges. Mr. McKee has been requested on the grounds that the Administration wished to appoint a successor, but in view of the charges, he thinks it best to remain at his post until they are proved or disproved.

So far the department has received no answer to the letter to Mr. McKee, dated August 14, asking for his immediate resignation. Having allowed the department to propose to place with the appointment of his successor without delay.

Commissioner Price Spends Night in Dead Auto on Lonely Road

All alone in a "dead" automobile on a dark night on a lonely road between Atlanta and Stone Mountain was the experience of Commissioner J. D. Price, of the State Department of Agriculture.

Although Mr. Price admitted it's a good one on him, he doesn't make any secret of it, and now that the harrowing experience is a thing of the past, he actually chuckles when he speaks of it.

The Commissioner and his son were motoring from Walton to Atlanta. Everything went well until the Decatur Railroad crossing a few miles from Stone Mountain was reached. There, a dangerous crossing as a result of new grading, and to add to the difficulty Mr. Price's machine suddenly went "dead" and "dead" it remained until nearly midnight. Mr. Price remained in the car while his son walked four miles to the nearest house for assistance.

BOY KIDNAPED 17 YEARS AGO FOUND

New York Mystery Cleared When History of Trappist Monk's Ward Is Traced.

LACHINE, QUE., Aug. 21.—After being kidnaped by pirates and seafarers, last being taken up and cared for by Canadian monks, Frederick Broese van Groenou, N. Y., has been found. Broese was kidnaped seven years ago when he was seven years old. After escaping he was given a home by Trappist monks near Oka. The monks raised him, and he speaks made several ineffectual attempts to get the boy away.

Chief Clerk of Lachine is now applied to the provincial authorities to send men after certain other leaders in the North and bring them here to Montreal for trial.

The Rev. Father Byron, of Montreal, who visited the monastery of the Trappist fathers at Oka, found the strange story of the man, and remembering the disappearance of Broese's parents went to Oka and identified their son by a birth mark.

In the meantime news of the young man's strange capture got abroad in the newspapers and many persons claimed him as their son.

He was identified as the boy who was kidnapped while rushing to see his sick baby.

Poor Girl Can't Be Good in New York

NEW YORK, Aug. 21.—"I want to die. A poor girl can't be good in New York," exclaimed Elizabeth Heath, 18-year-old orphan, as she swallowed a dose of mercury in Stuyvesant Park. She was rushed to a hospital.

"I won't be bad, so I can't live," she said, the girl, refusing to take any medicine.

Wife Shovels Snow; Gets Reno Decree

RENO, NEV., Aug. 21.—Helen May Danaher, a pretty Chicago woman, has obtained a divorce here.

She testified she shovelled snow, carried the coal and chopped and hauled because her husband, John Danaher, a Danish laborer, shovelled above 6000 manual labor.

Mrs. Danaher said she had been accused unjustly of unfaithfulness. There is one child, four years old.

STATE ABYEMUM INSPECTED.

Representative J. R. P. Thompson, chairman of the House Committee on the State Sanitation at Millington, Tenn., has inspected the institution after it was closed for 100 days.

The commissioners allow 10 per cent discount on the price of the early installations.

Chatham Tax Rate $8.33 on Thousand

SAVANNAH, Ga., Aug. 21.—Chatham County's rate for 1913 has been fixed as $8.33 on $1,000, which is the same rate fixed for last year. It was found to be impracticable to make any downward revision of the rate. The county board has approved the rate on tax returns for the reason that the increase in revenue will be only 10 per cent.

Federal Designs and Flowers for ALL OCCASIONS.

Atlanta Floral Company 456 EAST FAIR STREET.

Season's Farewell Offer.

Tomorrow Positively Ends It. Your One Last Chance to Get Extra Pants.

"Stop all free pants offers after tomorrow's sale." That's our orders. We've got to obey. After tomorrow we tighten up. No more "gift" pants. This is positively your only hope—your last chance to get a nifty pair of genuine S. W. M. $5, $6 and $7 pants made to order absolutely free.

We are going to end the season in a blaze of glory. Our entire line of fancy fabrics is at your disposal. The run of the store is yours. Choose any material—there are no restrictions. But come early and get the cream of the picking.

REMEMBER—this is final—your last chance

Search WOLENMILLS The Original $15 Tailors 107 PEACHTREE "The Piedmont Is Across the Street"

Open Saturday Night Until 10:30

Senator Borah, Cut By Bottle, Sworns

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—When Senator Borah attempted to take the cork out of a mineral water bottle in the Republican club room of the Senate, the neck broke and the pain of the Senator's hand was badly cut.

The blood flowed so freely and so fast that the Senator swooned. A doctor was summoned and it was found necessary to take three or four stitches in the wound.

NEGR0 HELD FOR MURDER. Dave Wright, a negro, who was shot by the Smith, another negro youth, Tuesday afternoon in Courtland street, died in Grady Hospital Thursday. Wright is held pending a preliminary hearing on a charge of murder.

The Look of Youth

Robinnair Hair Dye

This wonderful preparation keeps the hair in a beautiful condition, restores the original color to faded or gray hair, and does not stain the scalp or make the hair sticky. Prepared for light, medium and dark brown and black hair.

For sale by druggists and toilet goods departments. 70c. If you can not obtain it, send for parcel post. Enclose 10c. for a sample. If you will give us the name of the shop or who can not supply you, we will send you FREE samples of our world-renowned Robinnair Face Powder and Cold Cream of Rome.

Jacobs' Pharmacy Atlanta, Ga.

The Best Food-Drink Lunch at Fountains

Insist Upon ORIGINAL GENUINE HORLICK'S

Avoid Imitations—Take No Substitute

Rich milk, malted grain, in powder form. For infants, invalids and growing children. For infants, invalids and growing children. For infants, invalids and growing children. For infants, invalids and growing children.

Negro Is Executed in Savannah Jail

SAVANNAH, Aug. 21.—Frank Collier, a negro, was hanged in the city jail today for the murder of a white woman. The execution took place at 10 o'clock.

