

INCOME TAX DOGGERS' CANNOT ESCAPE LAW

Treasury Agents Ready to Take Trail of Those Seeking to Avoid Payment

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Treasury agents are making ready to take the trail of income tax doggers. Just now only incidental attention is being given to the evasions of the law, but as the time is being accumulated and when the collections of the income tax are made, his assistants have cleared up collections on income returns next month, there will be a general movement against offenders.

There may be a few who attempt to avoid the income tax, said Commissioner Osborn today. "We are sure to be detected sooner or later. There is no chance that tax doggers can escape."

The time for payment of this tax does not expire until September 15, but the treasury department already has information necessary for the prosecution of many persons who made false returns. In April Treasury agents visited all corporations for full lists of the shareholders and stockholders, with lists of the names and addresses of the persons who received the dividends. The treasury department is now collecting this information from the corporations and is making it available in one internal revenue office alone. But the treasury is satisfied that large numbers still are trying to avoid payment of the tax and the 400 extra assistants employed for the investigation of income tax returns will be used to discover the facts.

It may take the treasury department months, or even years, to catch up with those of the tax evaders, but the officials say the chase will be relentless. The records of all income tax returns are open to the department for its agents have been given the power of information.

The penalty for making a fraudulent return is imprisonment for not more than one year or a fine not exceeding $10,000, or both, with the cost of prosecution. Persons subject to the tax who make any return which is false or fraudulent are liable to imprisonment for not more than one year or a fine not exceeding $10,000, or both, with the cost of prosecution. The penalty for failure to file a return is imprisonment for not more than one year or a fine not exceeding $10,000, or both, with the cost of prosecution.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Command of the great Atlantic fleet, goal of every American naval officer's ambition, is to be the reward of Rear Admiral Frank P. Fletcher for his work in Mexican waters.

Some of the navy's higher officials outside Mexico, but the secretary holds the conspicuously successful conduct of Admiral Fletcher's operations in the Gulf of Mexico as the basis for the recommendation.

The pending bill creating the rank of rear admiral, Fletcher is among the first to be advanced to that grade.

MONEY IS AVAILABLE FOR MOVING OF CROPS

Secretary McAdoo Ready to Lend Hand to Western and Southern Banks

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Secretary McAdoo stands ready to lend a hand to western and southern banks in case they need money for crop-moving. The plan of lending government money to the banks in agricultural districts for use during crop-moving season last year was so successful that it will be adopted this year, if the money loaned by the treasury department last year was secured mostly by commercial paper, and all the borrowed money had been returned to the treasury by April.

The total amount loaned to banks in sixty-two cities of twenty-eight states was $17,384,000. It went to 193 banks in sixty-two cities of twenty-eight states.

Secretary McAdoo announced he would lend $50,000,000, but that much would not be sought. In fact, the secretary stood ready to lend as much as $200,000,000 had the banks in the farming sections demanded that much money.

SAYS RAILROADS PLAN HIGHER FREIGHT RATES

J. Prince Webster Discusses Effect of Long and Short Haul Provision

WASHINGTON, June 15.—That the railroad operating in Georgia and other southern states are planning to increase freight tariffs to competitive baring points under the long and short haul provision of the interstate commerce commission, is the assertion of J. Prince Webster, in Washington, commission. Webster is in Washington studying the effect of the federal commission's order and railroad rates, which are now being worked out a schedule of rates that will materially effect such basing competitive points as Atlanta, Macon, Athens and other Georgia cities.

"The effect of the enforcement of the long and short haul provision as promulgated by the interstate commerce commission would be to materially increase freight rates to competitive basing points of Georgia," said Webster this morning. "The carriers are working out the scheme of rates to basic points which will offset the reduction to local points occasioned by the enforcement of the long and short haul provision. This means simply that points like Atlanta, Macon, Athens and other cities will pay a higher rate than now on freight while local points like Gainesville, Douglas and Marietta will get cheaper rates."

Sunday School Heads Will Elect Officers. The annual election of officers of the Atlanta Sunday school superintendent's congress will be held Tuesday evening at the June meeting of the congress in Central Presbyterian church. Nominations for the several offices have been prepared by a committee.

The present officers are led by Dr. Martin Mott, Hull, president, and J. S. Spaulding, secretary and treasurer. Mr. Hull has been active in the leadership of the organization for the past ten years and will not be eligible, therefore, for re-election. The congress is composed of superintendents of Atlanta Sunday schools regardless of denomination.

JUDGE PARKER HITS HARD BLOW AT COL. ROOSEVELT

Scores Recent Statement of T. R. Regarding Attitude on Coal Strike

(By Associated Press.) NEW HAVEN, June 16.—Something is radically wrong in the mental processes of the electorate, or else patriotism is at its last gasp when, with hardly a whisper of protest, a retired chief executive may brag to representatives of the people of his treasonable scheme to intrude on state rights, and violate otherwise the fundamental law by establishing a military receivership over coal mines pending a strike, admitting what he had well considered that his offenses might be impeachable if committed—impeachable, of course, only because the acts planned would have been unconstitutional and lawless, said Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York, once a candidate for the presidency, in addressing the graduating class at the Yale Law school today.
