JENKINS WINNER OVER J. R. POTTLE

BY ROGERS WINTER.
(Staff Correspondent.)

CONVENTION HALL, Macon, Ga., Sept. 1.—Amid scenes of wildest enthusiasm, Hon. W. F. Jenkins, of Eatonton, was elected temporary chairman of the Georgia Democratic convention here this morning by the vote of 246 to 126. Mr. Jenkins, who was the choice of Messrs. Hardwick, Felder, Harris and Hardman, was opposed by Judge Robert Pottle, of Albany, advanced by forces of Gov. Slaton.

In accepting the temporary chairmanship, Mr. Jenkins paid high compliment to Senator Woodrow Wilson, Senator Hoke Smith, and to Judge Nat E. Harris, the successful candidate for governor.

The convention unanimously selected St. Elmo Massengale, of Atlanta, as secretary, and D. F. McClatchey, of Cobb county, as assistant secretary. Joseph S. Davis, United States marshal for the southern district of Georgia, was appointed sergeant-at-arms, and following the appointment of credentials and rules committee adjournment was taken until 2 o'clock.

The nomination of Judge Pottle by H. H. Dean, of Gainesville, was not seconded. The opening of the convention was marked by stormy demonstrations for Senator Hoke Smith and for the candidates for governor, and the nomination of Mr. Jenkins was made by Dupont Guerry and was seconded by J. E. Shepard and by Joseph E. Pottle, leader of the opposing candidate.

The nomination of Judge Pottle by H. H. Dean, of Gainesville, was not seconded. Before the voting began, G. R. Hutchins and others, the local padandomonium, sat on the floor, amid pandemonium and a roar, in which no one could be heard, and loudly voted "no confidence" in either Senator Hoke Smith, the mention of whose name was signal for a thunderous roar.

AUDITORIUM IS THRONGED. The movement of the hotshots to the city at 10 o'clock, and the 12 o'clock, half hour before the time for calling the convention to order, was led by the leading delegations of the candidates and was a solid mass of automobile, hacks and pedestrains.

Out, but the delegations, alternately newspapered and the galleries, were admitted down stairs, the galleries were required to present their credentials before admittance. Congressional districts were grouped together, each with a placard over a tall post showing its number. The districts were arranged in numer-

BRAVERY OF CAPTAIN ON BURNING STEAMER SAVES MANY ABOARD

Hundreds of Women and Children Narrowly Escape Death When Steamer Catches Fire Near Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The lives of three-hundred passengers of the excursion boat City of Chicago, which caught fire about twelve miles out from this harbor at 5 o'clock this morning, were saved by the gallantry of Captain Oscar Bjork.

In attempting to save the boat, Captain Bjork ordered the engines full speed ahead and 45 minutes later the big boat with carrying capacity of 5,000 passengers started her bow into the government pier and was thrown upon the water which had accumulated in the hold.

The passengers, who were packed like sardines and stokers and engineers were choking with the smoke and flames bursting from the boat's hold.

To avoid panic, the passengers, nearly all of whom were asleep in their cabins, were told to remain on deck until the pier was dimly visible.

"Women and children first," ordered Captain Bjork, and the passengers, as well as the crew stood back.

Most of them were thrown over their feet when the boat struck the pier.

The plight of the ship had been seen from shore, and seven tugs, two fire boats and two excursion boats had been sent to the rescue.

The tugs had been sent as soon as the City of Chicago struck the pier.

The passengers descended to the pier, which forms a long breakwater at the entrance to the harbor and were later brought into the city on the rescue craft.

The tugs were subdued after three hours' fight by the fire tugs and excursion boats.

The passengers lost most of their baggage.

The War Today

(By the Associated Press.)

LONDON, Sept. 1.—Today, on the eve of the anniversary of the capitulation of Sedan, 300,000 troops are battling on the French frontier—the Germans in a building effort to celebrate Sedan day with a dramatic success. The French, backed by their British allies to avenge their defeat of forty-four years ago.

The British, fighting appears to be taking place along a line from Peronne in the department of Somme, to Vervins, in the department of Aisne. There the flower of Emperor William's army is to be sent to pierce the British defense.

Further to the east the forces of the German crown prince still are attacking the French in the section about Mezieres, the capital of the department of Ardennes.

The only points where the French claim to have gained positive successes are in the Vosges mountains and in Lorraine, where the Germans are said to be in retreat.

The latest official report on the situation north of Paris, issued yesterday, said that the French, owing to the progress of the German right wing, has been forced to "mark" a new retirement line, which is the Prussian front, the French embassy in London today said.

The Allied French army corps have had to give ground, but nowhere have they been broken through.

The fighting today in which the Allies are believed to be opposing the German advance, it is thought to be centered around La Ferte, a strongly fortified French position on the River Our, about seventy-five miles northeast of Paris. The fate of the French capital may hang on the outcome of this battle.

It is not definitely known whether the British troops in France have been engaged again against the Germans.

A news dispatch from Diophane says a great battle has been fought at Antwerp since the situation throughout Belgium is satisfactory. The Germans are declared to have driven the Belgians from railroad communication has been restored in the Campine country.

At Brussels, the Belgians say food there is getting scarce, and the German numbers not more than 10,000. German patrols are posted at all the public buildings.

Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and her children, who arrived in London last night, are today the guests of the Queen.

A news dispatch from The Hague says the four richest men in Belgium have guaranteed the payment of a debt of $10,000,000 levied against the Belgian capital.

News dispatches published in London say that the people of Berlin, who are said to be in a state of alarm, are beginning to leave the capital for neutral countries.

OFFICIAL REPORT SAYS 70,000 ARE TAKEN PRISONERS

Three Russian Army Corps Annihilated; Two Generals, Three Hundred Officers, Complete Artillery Captured

(By Associated Press.)

GERMANS CAPTURE 70,000 RUSSIANS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—A German victory at Allenstein in which three Russian army corps were defeated and 70,000 prisoners, including two Russian commanding generals, were taken was reported today to the German embassy from Berlin by wireless via Sayville, L. I.

The dispatch says:

"Official news of the victory at Allenstein shows that it was even greater than known before. Three Russian army corps were annihilated. Seventy thousand prisoners were taken, including two commanding generals, three hundred officers and the complete artillery of the Russian army."

ENGLISH CAPTURED.

"In the west, General Von Kluck, it is reported, against the French, advanced to the Cote d'Or, a part of the frontier which was not believed to be closed (despite the) 'General Von Buelow completely defeated a superior French force near St. Quentin after having captured the English infantry. A battalion under General Von Hessen forced back the French upon the river at Rethel.'

"The Duke of Wurttemberg crossed the Meuse river, also advancing upon Aisne. The crown prince advanced beyond the Meuse after capturing the entire garrison of Montady, which tried to sort. The fortress also was captured. The crown prince of Bavaria and General Von Heeringen have been in continuous battle in French Lorraine.

CELEBRATION OF SEDAN DAY.

"Today, Sedan day will be celebrated here with jubilation because of the victories news which arrived from the east and west last night. The Russian defeat at Orteilsburg recalls Sedan by the huge number of prisoners taken."

"The Brazilian military attaché at Berlin writes that the German victory did not come as a surprise to those who witnessed their maneuvers in peace, and declares that the effect of the Krupps heavy artillery is astonishing."

TURKEY TO JOIN GERMANY.

ROME, Sept. 1.—A telegram received from Berlin announces the mobilization of the Turkish army.

Following the advice of Field Marshal Baron Von Der Goltz, it is stated the Turkish government will form an army of the first line composed of 200,000 men, all Musalmans.

Seventy-two superior German officers, forming the German military mission at Constantinople, have been incorporated in the Turkish army and will participate in the war.

The presence of the German officers in the army is interpreted to mean that Turkey will fight at the side of Germany.

The sultan's real reason for going to war at this time is veiled, but authorities believe the sultan sees a chance to gain back his lost territory, especially the islands in the Aegean sea which Greece now controls. Turkey also feels a grievance toward England for taking over the two new battleships being built for the Ottomans in English yards at the time of the outbreak of the present war.

TURKEY ABOUT TO DECLARE WAR.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The British embassy has been informed by a cable from London that German officers had gone to Constantinople to take charge of the Turkish army, and that a declaration of war from Turkey was expected. Plans are already in force to take the American ambassador at Constantinople to take charge of British interests there.

TURKISH ENVOY DENIES IT.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—The Turkish ambassador, A. Rustam Bey, expressed doubt today that the Turkish army was mobilizing and about to fight on the side of Germany. He said the Turkish army was mobilized three weeks ago.

BELGIAN OFFICER LIVES DESPITE EFFORT TO DIE

Heroic Commander at Liege Blew Up Fort Rather Than Surrender; Was Only Survivor, and When Taken Prisoner Was Given Sword

PARIS, Sept. 1.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Petit Parisien gives this account of the present crisis in Belgium: "The Belgian commander at Liege, in Magdeburg as a prisoner of war."

On August 17 General Leman was summoned by the Germans to surrender the Liege fort. He refused but as the Germans were about to hold another bombardment, he called his officers together in Fort Louvain and told them "We must fight, try further."

"I have decided to die here. Louvin shall be my tomb," he said.

"All the officers there would die with their general. Again the canons were fired. The officers and their wives were silenced after which a terrible explosion took place. General Leman and his wife were buried in the fort. Or all in the fort General Leman alone survived and from the fort he was removed and from the fort he was taken to the prison of Magdeburg. On Emperor William's order he was allowed to keep his sword."

LONDON, Sept. 1.—The Belgian bushman who has just arrived in London said that food was already very scarce in Brussels.

"People who are in a hundred can afford eggs and milk," he said. "People who are rich enough to have 100,000 francs a month are lucky. The Germans have directed the suburbs St. Gilles to supply to the millionaires in Brussels. The rich people proper has to contribute daily 75,000 pounds of bread while the suburb of Anderleghem supplies 40,000 pounds of meat."

Minister in Switzerland Not Allowed to Use Telephone or Telegraph

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.—Minister Pleasant St. Stoval at Berne, Switzerland, is reported to have been unable to find hundreds of Americans for whom inquiry has been made through the state department. The minister is not permitted to use the telephone or telegraph and when an inquiry is made for an American he must employ a messenger.

Minister's reports show, however, that Americans are slowly making their way to Switzerland.

ITALIAN SHIP BRINGS RICH AMERICANS HOME

Trip From Genoa on This Vessel Cost So Much Ordinary Folk Couldn't Ride

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The Italian liner Principessa Matilda chartered by John D. Rockefeller to bring Americans home from Genoa, today with 388 wealthy Americans aboard. Some of the passengers paid $1,000 for a cabin; none paid less than $100 and the average cost was $500.

The presence of empty cabin berths and the fact that the price was explained by the declaration that although there were many Americans abroad, there were not enough to fill all of them, the Americans were unwilling to pay the fares demanded.

Arriving port at almost the same hour as the Principessa, Matilda was the Holland-American liner Ryndam and the two liners were to meet at sea. The Americans were to be accommodated with refreshments. Scores of them were twenty-seven years of age.

As option on the Principessa, Matilda was offered to the United States government by Mr. Jones at Genoa. When the option expired, Mr. Jones offered to pay the fare of the state department at Washington to pledge payment for the ship's passage home.

Americans guaranteed the $104,000 demanded.

Principessa's owners refitted the ship to suit the passengers. What has been done is remodeled with care.

The steamer was sighted when the vessel had run out two miles from Genoa, and is now a prisoner of war. The high court of justice of the United States in London has appealed to the American ambassador in Berlin to obtain St. James' release.

GERMAN PEOPLE KIND TO AMERICAN TOURISTS

Mrs. Harrison, Wife of Former President, Tells of Aid Rendered

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—The friends of the German people for Americans in deep-seated and took concrete form in many acts of kindness during the early days of the war, according to Mrs. Benjamin Harrison, who reached New York today on the liner Hyndam from Rotterdam. Mrs. Harrison and twenty-four other American refugees were won in Germany at the outbreak of hostilities, drew up a statement condemning the acts of the German army.

"As Americans returning from Germany," the statement read, "we feel it is our duty to call on a friendly country to set forth the truth concerning our treatment in Germany."

While American people always travel in the American way, great tenderness and kindness in times of peace, this was especially emphasized in times of war. From the time of the declaration of war, the spirit of sacrifice and departure nothing but kind treatment was accorded to us.

Again the kindly spirit of the nation was shown by providing special trains, which were to be used for the transfer of soldiers and munitions of war, to convey the American troops to the front. The stations where passage could be secured were absolute destitute.

KAISER'S MEN HAVE TOUGH ASSIGNMENT IN CAPTURING PARIS

Germans Concede French Capital Is Greatest Fortified City in World—Can Stand Long Siege

BY W. S. SIMMERMAN.

How long can Paris hold back a flood of victorious Germans dashing at its gates?

In late the city resisted the Prussians for four months, although it was not prepared for a siege. Now, a million men and hundreds of cattle are safely rushed within the city's safety zone for Frenchmen are getting ready to make a last, desperate stand behind its massive fortifications.

The Germans will have a hard nut to crack before he dictates terms of peace within the world's gayest capital. German military tacticians consider that Paris is the only city in the world which Frenchmen can be impregnated to defend.

Everything the human mind can conceive of has been done against a seemingly impregnable fortress in hand in Paris. Thirty-six blue-turreted fortresses, each containing two or three gun batteries, have been built, form the basis of the defense. The ground has been mined, or made impassable, and the city has been closed for miles and miles. Aeroplanes and the latest types of bombs and aerial missiles have to be sent over Paris to keep it safe.

In addition, the most important garnisons of defense call for rifle and machine guns as secondary defense. These are placed in trenches behind breastworks, and the men, who are well fed and armed with quick-fire and machine guns, will be depended upon to beat off the German hordes as they pour into the city.

Look at the bird's-eye view a moment and you will see that Paris is a city which is sturdily defended. The city, built in a valley is surrounded by low-lying hills, and the fortresses, with their heights, with guns which command miles of the country below. As a rule, the fortresses are built in pairs, so that two of them, and sometimes three of them, may pour a withering cross-fire upon the German hordes as they advance. In case of siege the guns in the line will be stopped by the Germans, and the fortresses will be captured and trenches in sufficient force, it is thought, to check an army.

The Germans, as the invaders have to pass three concentric rings of fortresses. Of these the first line, several miles from the center of the city, is made up of nineteen fortresses.

Five miles to the rear and filling the gaps of the first row are seventeen towers, each with a gun battery, and four miles in circumference. These are the forts which hold the heart of the city. The fortifications have been modernized and in many cases converted by heavy ramparts for shelving.

Paris is out of range of guns bombarding the two outer lines, but the city is within range of the inner wall of Paris twenty-one miles in perimeter and although strengthened by fortresses, is not safe from the effects of heating off cavalry raids and small scouting parties. It is said that about 100,000 men are now in Paris for the protection of the city's guns, but it is possible that the area is nearer 200,000.

Charles Treadwell for Relatives in Will Contest

Manuscript Proves Dislike of Charles Treadwell for Relatives in Will Contest

The admission in evidence of a book, showing the intense dislike of the author, of his wife's relations, played an important part in the trial of a suit of D. T. Heavy, Jr., Clarkston, obtained by the city of Atlanta, capital of the state of Georgia, to have the name of the late Charles Treadwell for his young daughter, Miss Jessie Heavy.

The jury on Monday awarded the entire estate of $1,000,000 to the trusteeship before Judge Charles Reid, of the Stone Mountain circuit. Heavy, who brought suit as his daughter's next friend, was represented by Attorneys Colquitt and Conyers. Soon after the death of his wife, two years ago, he brought his eight children and wife, claimed his estate. Mr. Henry brought a counter claim, saying that a number of years before his death, Mr. Treadwell agreed that he would leave his estate to little Jessie Heavy, who was then 12 years old at the time of his death.

Besides proving the will was never published, to show that the deceased had no desire to give his estate to his wife, he left the property to them if he had made a will which he did not.

Crackers Land Big End of 1 to 0 Score in First Game With Barons

Dent Gets Decision Over Hardgrove in Slab Duel

Crackers Grab Opener From Barons by Narrow Margin of 1 to 0—Both Pitchers Worked Well—One Run Scored on Squeeze

By Elliott Dent

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 1.—The Crackers got the jump on the Barons by winning the first game of the series here to a tie, 1 to 0.

This is the last road series we have to play, and all the boys are extremely anxious to win the series, for the result of this game will have a great bearing on our chances for winning the pennant. Now, that we have taken the first game, we are in a good position. The win will not be so hard to land.

Hardgrove's game was about the tightest battle of the year, and when and then I say we squeaked through by the skin of our teeth. I had the task of settling for one run, and as a result my squeeze play, worked to perfection by Jimmie Kirchner, was the reason for the win.

At 8 o'clock, Hardgrove and Dent were both on the mound, and the game was a dead heat.

McMullen sent out in his best bet, Omar Hardgrove, who is the leading pitcher of the league. Each of us allowed three clean hits but the Barons had the better of the game.

At 8 o'clock, Hardgrove and Dent were both on the mound, and the game was a dead heat.

Our run was scored in the seventh, after a direct result of a base on balls to comedian Kirchner. Kirchner drove a pass to the plate, and the squeeze play. Kirchner crossed the plate when Blodell put out the squeeze sign and Blodell, and then Hardgrove.

Manager Smith is undecided as to his pitcher for today but he takes of using McMullen or Pease.

Lookouts Beat Mobile Gulls

MOBILE, Sept. 1.—Chattanooga won the first game of the Lookouts-Mobile series yesterday afternoon, 3 to 1. Morgan allowed the locals only three runs, and at the beginning of the eighth, but the successive singles tied the score, and the Lookouts scored two more hits, with a sacrifice fly, and another single, giving the visitors two more runs.

Hurry Up' Yost Ready to Tune Up Michigan

ANN HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 1.—The Lookouts are off to the assembling of the Lookouts-Mobile series, and the first Yost for the season of 1914 has been uttered.
