RESERVE BANK HEADS DISCUSS DETAILS OF COTTON POOL PLAN

St. Louis Banker, Originator of Plan Favored by President Wilson, Holds Conference with Committee

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Plans for the proposed $100,000,000 cotton loan fund were up for discussion today by a committee of the Federal Reserve board and Augustus J. Wade, of St. Louis, and other bankers. Details of the plan, drawn up by Mr. Wade, to relieve the cotton crisis, were laid before the board committee by him. Governor Hamilton, Paul M. Warburg and W. P. G. Harding are the committee members.

It was believed the bankers would receive later in the day by President Wilson, who approved the proposed pool. Mr. Wade is not inclined to believe the loan of $100,000,000 to cotton planters would cause danger of a "cotton corner." He is of the opinion that the cotton crisis cannot be fully met until the European conflict is ended. The present points out that the most serious stage of the situation is yet to come as the crop has not been gathered.

FUND TO STIMULATE COTTON.
Mr. Wade's plan provides that the fund be formed by subscription from national and state banks and trust companies, merchants and manufacturers in all parts of the country. A group, aided by an advisory committee of bankers and other men, is to have charge of the pool. It is proposed that at least 100 financial centers be called on to furnish the surplus cotton and to issue uniform negotiable warehouse receipts for the cotton, which will be used as collateral in various parts of the country. The fund is designated as an agency of the syndicate to handle the loan.

LOAN NOT TO BE PRETENDED.
To each institution making a loan will be given the notes of the fund, which will be used to secure the warehouse receipt and insurance on the cotton in favor of the issuing bank. The loaning bank would retain the money for forwarding the notes and warehouse receipts to the nearest agency of the syndicate, which would refund the notes and carry forward itself to drawing on the syndicate. It is planned that loans shall be made available one year after date or earlier at the borrower's option. The agency bank is to have the right of extending the loan six months and for another six months with the consent of the syndicate managers. An interest rate of 7 per cent a year is proposed.

DAVIDED OVER COTTONS.
Secretary Houston sent to a number of southern executives today a letter advocating a constructive movement for diversified crops in the south, rather than an attempt merely to control cotton acreage. It had been asked to secure and publish pledges from cotton planters to reduce their acreage next season. Secretary Houston said he believed would not prove effective.

The outcome of the conference at the treasury will be awaited with eager interest by southern bankers and representatives in Washington. It is not their purpose, however, to desert or slacken in their efforts to have congress do something to relieve the situation. It is realized by them, however, that much should stand in the way of the federal legislation, though the southern contingent is a unit on the proposition.

—L.A. FROM ENGLAND.

The southerners were encouraged somewhat today by the great dispatch from London of Sir Charles W. Wright, British ambassador, who said that the American and British governments, together with the French government, will appeal to the patriotism of all Americans and help to facilitate legislation by congress. It should be stated, in any frankness, however, that America's valorous (loan proposal) has not met with a cordial reception from southern and western

WHOLESALE GROCERS WHO JOIN COTTON MOVEMENT

Southern Association Considers Plan to Retire More
Than 1,000,000 Bales

A plan whereby the members of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association will be instrumental in retiring more than 1,000,000 bales of cotton pending better market prices was discussed by the executive board of the association at a meeting in Atlanta yesterday afternoon.

The meeting was executive and nothing more than a general statement was given to the newspapers after it adjourned. No outline of the plan was made public. It was stated the plan contemplated loans on cotton and will be undertaken by the wholesale and retail grocers working in co-operation with the cotton planters. It is a purely philanthropic plan and in no wise financial proposition and will offer the cotton at the present low prices. It was stated that the loan had been raised to believe the necessary financial backing can be obtained in the east.

R. M. Williams, of Jacksonville, president of the association and chairman of the committee, said that the further working out of the plan was left by the board to a special committee to be named by Mr. Williams. Further announcement of the plan will come from him as he is to be the chairman of the committee.

CLOTHES MAKERS BUY.
R. M. Williams, of Atlanta, southern representative of Adair's Clothing Company, Milwaukee, who is the originator of the plan, said that the plan was a purely philanthropic one and in no wise financial proposition and will offer the cotton at the present low prices. It was stated that the loan had been raised to believe the necessary financial backing can be obtained in the east.

The Smith brokerage Co., of Atlanta, which has been an excellent booster of the new cotton movement, has been authorized to buy a bale at 10 cents, the price of the cotton, and to issue warehouse receipts for the same. The plan is to be carried out by the chamber of commerce, or New Albany, Ind., the order coming from McDonald's, who has authorized him in his capacity to the south to have five bales of cotton in Atlanta at 10 cents a pound and five bales in each other southern city.

ALABAMA COTTON MEN
To Meet in Opelika

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 9.—Farmers and business men of Lee county will hold a mass meeting Saturday at Opelika to urge legislation prohibiting the planting of cotton next year and other relief measures for Alabama farmers. H. K. Kell, state commissioner of immigration, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address.

representatives. They condemn the idea of having the federal government underwrite the value of the cotton crop, and state that, if such thing is to be undertaken, the federal government should take the lead in the matter.

The better showing in Washington that the continued agitation of the cotton problem with the incident and national publicity is bound to have a good effect on the southern side.

Never before, it is pointed out, has the public eye been so centered upon cotton as at the present time.

The cotton strike show, which closed last night, opened the eyes of the many

THEATERS

It is agreed that the Forsyth show this week is one of the happiest that has been offered in the busy playhouse in a long time. To review the acts on the program would be simply repeating what the critics had to say of the first performance—one of the cleverest comedies of vaudeville yet presented here. Bickel and Watson leading the list are recognized stars of quality and the others on the bill have been responsible for the success of the week from an attendance point.

Next week the show will be headed by Joseph E. Howard, the well known actor, and Mabel McCabe the singing comedienne. This is one of the star acts the Forsyth management had been promising the theatergoers.

"St. Elmo," Augusta Evans' famous novel, is making its debut in the south on the movie screen at the Grand theater. The picture was made in the mountains of southern California, and is one of the best of its kind. It is a story of a young man's life and his struggle with the elements of nature.

BILL TO REDUCE COTTON ACREAGE DRAWN IN TEXAS

Measure is Submitted to State Legislature by Governor
Colquitt

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 9.—Governor Colquitt has submitted to the legislature the question of enacting a law limiting cotton acreage for the next year. The measure, which is a bill drawn by Attorney General Lee, provides that "no one household or corporation shall plant more than twenty acres of cotton in 1915, the penalty for violation to be from one to five years imprisonment or a fine not to exceed $5,000, or both. According to the estimate of the governor, such limitation would cut the cotton crop of the state by one-third.

In submitting the question Governor Colquitt declared that he has been contemplating submitting the question for some time, but that he had "entertained some doubt as to whether the legislature has the power to enact such a law." He has, however, decided to submit the question to the legislature, and he believes that the legislature will have the power to enact such a law. He has also decided to submit the question to the legislature, and he believes that the legislature will have the power to enact such a law.

NEW YORKERS TRAVELING OVER NATIONAL HIGHWAY

William F. Ransom, of New York, and a party of five left that city yesterday over the national highway for Atlanta, to attend the national convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, which will convene October 14. The party expects to reach Atlanta the day before the convention, and will visit points of interest along the highway.

Men and women prominent in social life to the uses to which cotton goods may be put. It is believed that this and similar shows elsewhere will increase the demand for cotton goods and that the American mills will find very soon a stronger market for their products than ever before.

COTTON SEED PRODUCTS SHIPMENTS OBSTRUCTED

Protest Against Alleged Action of England Sent to President
Wilson

Following news received from Washington Thursday night that the British government was interfering with the shipments of cotton seed oil and cotton seed products from the south to the central countries of Holland, Denmark and Italy, President P. D. McCarrie, of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia, sent the following telegram to President Wilson:

"Interference by the British government with shipments of cotton seed oil and other cotton products to neutral ports is curtailing the already ample foreign markets for these products, upon which the south is dependent for its export of its surplus. Holland and Denmark, two neutral countries so situated, are among our largest consumers of these products. The large cotton crop has already reduced the price of cotton seed and with the foreign market restricted further for cotton seed products, the price of cotton seed, the only cash market offered the cotton planter, will necessarily be lowered further. We therefore, urge you to take the necessary action to prevent such interference by the British government with our export trade."

A telegram along similar lines was addressed by the association to United States Senator Hoke Smith and congressmen William Schley Howard, individual oil mills and cotton planters throughout the state are today telegraphing their messages of protest to their congressmen.

At the beginning of the war, when the cotton seed oil and cotton seed products were greatly reduced the demand, and as a result, the price of cotton seed went to a new low level.

Later on there came a demand, originating in the neutral countries mentioned, which for a time afforded an outlet for cotton seed oil and cotton seed products. The state is today telegraphing their messages of protest to their congressmen.

The state chamber of commerce, the Atlanta chamber of commerce and various trade bodies throughout the state are expected to join in protest against an action which promises so much injury to the south.

WITH THE ATLANTA CONVENTION

WISAPPLICATION OF FUNDS CHARGED TO DELEGATE SYSTEM

Spirited Attacks on Present Convention Plan Marked the Morning Session of International Disciples of Christ

Spirited attacks on the delegate system, which, it was charged, is unconstitutional, and has resulted in the misapplication of church funds, characterized the Friday morning business session of the international convention of the Disciples of Christ.

The discussion arose over the motion of Rev. Charles S. McDevrey, of Des Moines, to adopt the joint missionary appropriation as recommended Thursday by the executive committee.

The motion of Rev. W. F. Richardson, of Kansas City, specifically to limit to thirty minutes each. Despite this, however, discussion consumed all of the thirty-minute period allowed to conversion business and from out for the day.

It was declared in the speeches that funds that should have gone to benevolent purposes were used to pay the expenses of organizing the present convention.

Rev. W. K. Asbill, of Cleveland, Ohio, declared that the convention had not been properly organized.

Rev. A. R. Moore, of Savannah, Ga., declared that the organization of the convention was in every respect unconstitutional.

Let us work in harmony and not arouse suspicion that there is a ring or "bribe," he pleaded.

Rev. J. B. Riney, of Fenton Valley, Ky., asserted that over $200,000 had been diverted from the missionary fund for convention expenses.

It is not right to take bread and meat from the needy," he declared, "and put it on a convention the people do not believe in." The present trend, he asserted, is toward a divided brotherhood.

PLEA FOR HARMONY.
Rev. W. T. Moore, an aged delegate, made a fervent plea for harmony and urged the delegates not to be divided by opinion.

"We have always been a delegate convention," he said, "which plan was adopted to meet the demand of the insurgents."

The Saturday morning session will resume discussion of the budget and Rev. Mr. Asbill will attempt to bring before the convention his resolution to abolish the delegate system.

Mr. Asbill's chief attack on the convention plan is his charge that $25,000 has been diverted from the missionary fund to benevolent funds to meet the expenses of the convention.

Mr. Asbill's effort to get his resolution before the convention Friday was met by a ruling from the chair that the convention had automatically adjourned because of the expiration of the thirty-minute time limit.

Mr. Asbill's request that the convention meet earlier Saturday was refused.

Following the business period, the convention was devoted to the religious services of the American Christian Missionary society, the morning session of which was given over to the address of the president, Rev. H. Sheffer, of Memphis, Tenn., and reports of various officers.

The address of Rev. Mr. Sheffer was a fervent plea for the cultivation of brotherly spiritual life and increased devotion to the work of missions.

Eighty-two new congregations of the disciples in twenty-two states were added to build houses of worship during the past year through the church extension fund of the American Christian Missionary society, according to the report of the church extension fund, submitted by Rev. G. W. Muckley, of Kansas City.

The total value of the new church property is stated at $608,460. The board's total receipts amounted to $200,045, of which amount $150,564 represented payments on loans and the remainder was new collections.

MANY CERTIFICATES ADDED.
The report stated that the amount in the church extension fund September 30, last, was $115,678.98, and since the movement of advancing money to the congregations was started twenty-six years ago, the church extension fund has grown to a total of $2,500,000, with a loss of only $10,000.

The church extension fund has been paid to the fund, making the total amount returned $2,500,000. The board reported there are 1200 congregations of the church without houses of worship.

The receipts of the society for last year amounted to $15,194.42, a decrease compared to the previous year of $12,617.79, according to the report submitted by Grant K. Lewis, of Cincinnati, secretary.

The report stated that the society's debt has been reduced during the year from $710.40 to $44,232. The board has recommended that the society's debt be reduced to $10,000.

The board also has recommended that the society's debt be reduced to $10,000. The board also has recommended that the society's debt be reduced to $10,000.

Appeals for greater missionary efforts by the churches were also made with the cities of the United States featured the Thursday night session of the Christian Women's Board of Missions, headed by Mrs. F. C. Inman, chairman of the board's committee on foreign relations.

Headquarters in Florida, Mrs. Inman, voiced the call for increased activities in Central and South America, and H. J. Derbick, of Indianapolis, emphasized the need for workers in American cities.

Mr. Inman asserted that the present is the crucial period in Latin America, and especially in Mexico, where, he said, the great change is being made toward Protestant religion.

The frequent revolutions in Latin America, usually, involve some worthy principle and mean advancement, and do not merely purposeless outbreaks, he declared.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

By Edward B. Bagby

S. G. Inman, the friend of Carrara, made the closing address of the convention, and was followed by the greatest day in the history of the Christian Women's Board of Missions.

From the moment the great hall, called the convention hall, to the final benediction, when Secretary Cory prayed that God would send us to the neighbors across the street, we were in our neighbors across the ocean. It was a time of thrills, of devotion, of inspiration.

Chief Inman is not only the friend of Carrara and other constitutionalists, but in his school in Florida, he has taught us the value of constitutionalism. His superior training have been proper, to be honest and then capture, and some day be the leaders of the nation.

Chief Carrara says that if there were twenty-five such schools as these, the nation would be a different place. He may be the interdenominational representative in promoting the mission work in South America.

Mr. Inman is one of 264 workers employed by the board in Florida. He is one of thirty-nine stations of some half-dozen foreign countries. In prosecuting this work, the board has raised last year $41,000, an increase of $5,000 over the year before, and a record of an enlistment of $7,000 women in the work.

The reports submitted today (Friday) were not less encouraging than those of yesterday. Especially gratifying was the report of Secretary Grant K. Lewis, of the American Christian Missionary society, that their debt of $70,141 of last year had been reduced to $44,232. The society has employed 213 missionaries, who have added 5,554 churches, 6,337 by baptism, and 5,554 churches, making a total of 11,891. This, with the additions made by the state board, totals 19,461 added in the home missionary work.

A beginning has been made of work among the foreign immigrants. John Johnson is at work among $60,000 Russians in New York; F. D. Butcher among the Bohemians in Cleveland; Basil K. Kennell has charge of the Rumanian-Bulgarian mission in Chicago, and D. E. Olson is the evangelist among the Scandinavians of the northwest.

The charge has been made at times that the disciples preached Christian missions, who have failed to practice it, and that the disciples have failed to practice it, and that the disciples have failed to practice it.

QUITMAN'S WOMAN'S CLUB WORKING FOR LIBRARY

Agree to Subscribe $200 a Year for Three Years Toward Maintenance

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) QUITMAN, Ga., Oct. 9.—The Woman's club initiated the winter's work by unanimously voting to subscribe $200 a year for three years toward the maintenance of a Carnegie library. The club also voted to make the securing of a $10,000 Carnegie library the chief object of its endeavors. Mrs. L. H. Chapman reported the conditions upon which the library can be secured and said the Brooke County Library association is ready to donate its property, consisting of a city lot and building and 1,500 books, to the new library. She said the present subscription library has been in existence thirty years here and no longer meets the demands of the public. Members of the city council have been interviewed on the Carnegie library proposition and are understood to favor the plan. The Woman's club believes their voting a definite sum toward the maintenance of the library will stir the council to action.

CONVICTS MAKE ESCAPE THROUGH TRAIN WINDOW

Use Pin to Open Handcuffs and Dive Out Headfirst

First MONTGOMERY, Ala., Oct. 8.—Using a pin as a key, Archie Reese and Will Brown, negro convicts of Jefferson county, unlocked their handcuffs and jumped from the windows of a train near Clanton yesterday afternoon. They were being transferred to the penitentiary at Wetumpka to begin long terms. Reese had been sentenced to twenty years for second degree murder and Brown to thirteen years for robbery. They with about eighteen others were chained together on the train and were in charge of P. O. Austin, state transfer agent. Soon after the train had left Clanton Mr. Austin heard a scuffle and looked up in time to see the convicts' feet disappear through the windows. The train was stopped and chase given but they escaped. Rewards of $50 have been offered by the convict department.

NOT TO CONDEMN MEN

But to Save

"God sent not His Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved."

---John 3:17

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND GERMANS killed and wounded.

You grasp the cruel and inexcusable waste of life because their broken bodies have fallen in a space of a few hundred miles.

Did you know?

LAST YEAR THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND CHILDREN died from neglect and want in the United States.

FIVE HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE THOUSAND LABORERS were killed and wounded that year in trying to make a living.

The unnumbered hosts of children born blind or maimed by their fathers' sins are known only to God, but our homes for the blind and the asylums for those of weakened mind are eloquent evidence of the multitudes of these.

BISHOP LAWRENCE of Massachusetts, recently said:

"DRINK, AND THAT NOT TO EXCESS, BUT HABITUAL, gradually disintegrates the physical nerve and the moral fiber; the resisting power, whether against disease or temptation, weakens, AND WHAT IS MORE TRAGIC, the sons and daughters REVEAL THE FATHER'S RATHER LOOSE HABITS OF cocktails, champagne and whiskey, IN WEAKENED BODIES AND MORE OR LESS DEGENERATE SYSTEMS."

After traveling through the Far East, PRESIDENT CHARLES W. ELIOT of Harvard University, said before the General Unitarian Conference at Buffalo:

"It is mortifying to the last degree for an American to see intoxicated American soldiers and sailors staggering about the streets of the Chinese cities—

"THE LESSON OF THE EAST IS THAT THE ALCOHOLISM OF THE WHITE RACE MUST BE OVERCOME, OR THAT VICE, WITH THE LICENTIOUSNESS IT PROMOTES, WILL OVERCOME THE RACE."

In considering these facts, be fair.

The deaths of those children—The killing and maiming of that vast army of laborers—The sickening tragedies among women and babies from vice and alcohol—These sins and their fruits lay not at the doors of a few; the guilt rests upon us all; the burden is both yours and ours.

Let no man boast!

BUT ANSWER—IN SUCH AN HOUR, WHEN EVEN RUSSIA HAS FORBIDDEN THE SALE OF LIQUOR, TO ENABLE HER PEOPLE TO FACE WITH CLEAR HEADS THE CRISIS OF THEIR LIVES, SHOULD OUR SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES AT WASHINGTON HELP TO ENTRENCH THE LIQUOR DEALERS BY INCREASING THE TAX ON WHISKEY, WINE AND BEER, THUS ADDING TO OUR SHARE OF MONEY MADE BY THE RUIN OF MEN, WOMEN AND LITTLE CHILDREN?

GOD FORBID!

GERMAN PRESS SAYS U. S. FRIENDLY TO GERMANS

Comment on Reply of Wilson to Kaiser's Note on Dumb-Bullets

(By Associated Press.)
 LONDON, Oct. 9.—The German press is reprinting President Wilson's reply of September 16, to the Kaiser's note of September 12, in which the president declared the finding of dumb-bullets in the case of the sinking of the Lusitania, and protested against the use of such weapons in which the war was being conducted. The German press is also reprinting the president's statement that it was his belief that the Lusitania was sunk by a German submarine. SENATE STARTS DEBATE ON WAR TAX MEASURE

Leaders Are Confident of Its Passage by Last of Next Week

(By Associated Press.)
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Debate on the war tax bill designed to bring in about $250,000,000 revenue, began in the senate today. Administration leaders are confident of its passage by the end of next week. The subcommittee of the senate finance committee continued today its efforts looking to a settlement of differences between wine growers and taxes on domestic wines. It was thought an agreement would be reached fixing the tax on grape brandy, used to fortify sweet wines at 6 cents a gallon and the levy a gallon on wine arranged to equalize both dry and sweet wine at about 16 or 17 cents a gallon.

WILSON OPPOSES FEDERAL LOAN TO COTTON FARMERS

Bill to Make $250,000,000 Available for This Purpose Is Not Favored by Him

(By Associated Press.)
 WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Official announcement was made at the White House today that President Wilson opposes the plan to adjourn congress as soon as the war revenue bill is passed. The president is interested in the cotton situation, but the intimation at the White House today was that he opposes the plan agreed on last night at a meeting of southern members of congress for a bill to have the federal government loan $250,000,000 through the banks to cotton planters. The president is said to believe private banks, with the treasury support, can relieve the situation. Representative Underwood was at the White House today and agreed with the president that adjournment can be taken as soon as the war tax bill is passed.

WALTER ANDREWS URGES PROTECTING STATE ROAD

Declares Every Effort Should Be Made to Prevent Bottling Up State Property

Editor The Journal: On the same morning when I saw in the paper that the attorney general had advised the secretary of state that there was no legal reason why he should not at once sign the charter applied for by the North Georgia Mineral railroad company, I called upon the secretary of state and urged him to sign it. I told him that I was the secretary of the office at that time on a similar mission and the secretary told me that I was the only one who had called upon him in that behalf.

On the next morning, when the governor states that only one member of the legislature has seen him about this matter, I am not yet a member of the legislature being only one of the Democratic committee from Fulton county, but I called upon the governor on the same morning that I saw the secretary of state and urged him to sign it. I told him that I was the secretary of the office at that time on a similar mission and the governor told me that I was the only one who had called upon him in that behalf.

I am so convinced that no little interest is being manifested upon this subject, which is the most vitally important that can come up in Georgia in a decade, and if other legislatures have acted upon "well-oiled" bills, I certainly will guarantee that the next will not do so. It is the point that the secretary of state and which I urge that you and others will also urge.

That it is the duty of the secretary of state to resolve every doubt in this matter in favor of the state. I am sure that if the secretary of state is in the matter of such transcendent importance to all of the people of Georgia, I would arbitrarily refuse my signature to the charter of a proposed railroad company whose name is "North Georgia Mineral Railroad." I would not be so sure that the state's chief asset—the V. & A. railroad—would be a source of trouble, at least, gained so that the legislature would have an opportunity to consider this matter in the regular session. If that much time is given to this matter it is of sufficient importance, not only to justify but to demand the attention of an extra session of the general assembly. It will be forever a late law. The secretary of state is urged to sign the charter. It will mean it. The date of the state's great asset to the state should never give his consent except at the cost of maintaining the integrity of the supreme court of Georgia.

Yours, etc.,
WALTER P. ANDREWS.

RAILROAD COMMISSION TO HAVE BUSY SESSION

An unusual number of public hearings are to be held by the state railroad commission during its regular session beginning Tuesday, October 13. The first of a series of public hearings is being held on Tuesday, October 13. There are many important petitions to be considered, and the commission is expected to make a special interest to Atlantians in the petition of the Georgia Railway and Power company for the right to discontinue extra car service on certain of its lines during the winter season. The session will be heard October 21.

FUNDS ARE NEEDED TO ENFORCE NEW LAWS

Due to inadequate funds, the state board of health will be able to do little this year toward putting into effect the vital statistics and public health laws passed by the last general assembly. The fact was developed at the meeting of the board Thursday. It was estimated that $10,000 a year would be required for the proper conduct of the board's work.

The board ratified the action of its executive committee in changing the office of Dr. R. R. Park from that of public health representative to that of registrar of vital statistics.

Hair Fell Out. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed.

R. F. D. No. 1, Tazewell, Tenn.—"My disease started on my legs in a small patch and kept spreading until my whole body was covered. It would not sleep at night. I would scratch till the blood would come out and down my body and legs. The eruption came out in small red pimples and when I scratched the whole surface of the skin became irritated and very itchy. My clothing seemed to irritate it. The pimples were especially bad on my hands and feet. I also had dandruff on my head until my hair was all falling out."

"I was told it was eczema and took a treatment but all remedies failed. Then I got some Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I first washed with Cuticura Soap and warm water, dried well and then applied the Cuticura Ointment. In a short time I was entirely well of the trouble. Cuticura Soap and Ointment cured me and they also cured my dandruff and falling hair."

SEE THIS HAT? IT IS THE VERY LATEST OUT

Mrs. Sarah Egypt, the Model,

Ringlings

Oh, see the camel!
This particular camel is one of a number of camels that are being shown at the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, which is now in the city.

The release of the long-forgotten prisoners of war, Mrs. Sarah Egypt, the given name, probably being some menagerie man's name, of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus, the place where most camels were obliged to plough and for a living until the kindly circus agent came along and offered them a place in his show with nothing to do and a whole lot of hay and carrots each day for doing it.

"But," you are probably protesting, "what has all this to do with the hat?"

That's the point—where did Sarah get that hat?

One of the pretty ladies of the circus (the one who dresses in fluffy pink and spangles and who will ride the big gray horse in the center ring when the show comes here) has a little daughter who is very fond of the camel. Now, a short time ago this little girl was given a

CATTLE TRAIN WRECKED AND BOLTON IS OVERRUN

Army of Hogs and Cows
Swarms Into Village Early
Friday Morning

An army of hogs, its right flank supported by a division of cows, invaded the town of Bolton about 5 o'clock Friday morning and routed the inhabitants.

The invasion is not part of a general war scheme, but occurred when Western and Atlantic freight train No. 17, was wrecked near the Bolton station. The tender and four cars, three of them loaded with hogs from Tennessee and one loaded with cows, were overturned.

As the cars were overturned the hogs and cattle were all jammed together in what had been the top of the cars, so the trainmen, to relieve their suffering smashed in the cars and let the hogs and cows escape.

The herd, which was loosed on Bolton before the citizens were out of bed Friday morning, consisted of approximately 300 hogs and about 20 cows. The "army" scattered in all directions, with many grunts and squeals and moans.

A wrecking car was called by the trainmen, and when the derailed cars had been cleared away, efforts will be made to corral the pigs and cows and get them into other cars.

No one was injured in the accident. The engine was derailed, but did not overturn. The tender and the four cars, however, turned over and fell partially down an embankment. A spreading rail is said to have caused the trouble.

Card of Thanks

Mr. O. C. Mann, Miss Fannie Mann and Mrs. Jack Webster, wish to thank their many friends, for their loving sympathy and kindness shown them in their recent bereavement.

"Oh, wouldn't it be fun to put it on Egypt?" said she.
"How the hell," said she, "the camel at low the head while he tied the long ribbon bow about his neck and then made her the camel-looking animal pose while the circus photographer snapped the picture."

Here entered the Muse of Tragedy. The little girl had skipped away to her room to get the new dress she had bought, and at the same moment Boss Smith was called aside to attend to the wants of "Mr. Bonney," the big chimpanzee who rules the monkey family.

He was gone too long by far. For when he returned it was to find that one of the giraffes had unslinging its thirteen-foot neck, sank into millinery from Mrs. Egypt's head, and was drooping the same with that placidity which only a giraffe can exhibit when eating a new summer hat on a sunny afternoon.

CLAYTON ANTI-TRUST BILL UP TO PRESIDENT

War Tax and Philippine Bill
Next and Then Adjournment

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Wilson's approval of the Clayton anti-trust bill was all that was necessary today to make it a law. Final congressional action was taken when the house late yesterday adopted the conference report on the measure. It previously had been agreed to by the senate.

Passage of the Clayton bill leaves on the war tax and the Philippine bill to be disposed of before congress will be ready to adjourn. While the Philippine bill is a virtually certain passage in the house it will not be taken up in the senate before adjournment, as the war tax bill has the right of way.
