KAISER CLAIMS VICTORY OVER FRENCH IN ARGONNE
Emperor's Own Regiment, Crack Württemberg Infantry, Captures Important French Position

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Heavy fighting has been resumed in the region of the Argonne forest toward the eastern end of the battle line in France, and today's French and German official communications disagree as to the outcome. It was apparent that the conflict was marked with considerable vigor.
The German emperor's own regiment was selected to make an assault on a strong French position which the British statement says was won. The French statement, in referring to what appeared to be the same engagement, says that the German attack was repulsed and the province was taken by the allied troops.
The German infantry fighting has been resumed, although it is not clear whether the Germans have begun another assault. The French war office reports that German attacks on outposts were beaten back and that the German advance, heavily in the Argonne forest, has been stopped.
The German points in the line fighting has become more spirited than has been the case for some time. According to the French statement, ground has been won by the allies in certain sections, including the occupation of German trenches.

50,000 CAPTURED
Berlin still insists that the capture in the east are progressing to its satisfaction, although no new details of the operations are given. It is stated that in the fighting in Russian Poland between November 11 and December 1, 1913, 50,000 prisoners were captured. The Russian statement says that the capture of 50,000 prisoners is a critical one for the German army, which is seeking to force the Russian army to retreat. In the Wake Of the War With Corey

"Germans, high and low, hate everything British," says Corey in his letter today. "You can't even buy a Peach Melba in Berlin because it was named in England. German wives of Englishmen are suspected and ostracized, and the names of hotels changed to a Teutonic twist."
"I am writing you," said he in his slow, precise English, "a fresh peach on vanilla ice with strawberry and cream."
"That is a peach melba," said Corey.
"It is," said he, "a peach on vanilla ice with strawberry and cream."
"It was so ordered," the explanation is. The peach is a name that has come to Germany from Alibi. All Germany hates England. Germany hates all England's works. She will not eat anything named after it. She can help herself. She feels rather kindly toward Russia. One hears fairly pleasant comment upon France. But if Germany can't eat anything named after it, she will take the British empire apart to the last wheel. She is perfectly frank about it.

"We are stopping at the Bristol hotel," he said. "An American friend here. He smiled.
"Fardon me," said he. "You are stopping at Central Hotel Bristol."
"Sure enough." That is the new name. The sign has been taken down from over the hotel and a new one put up. The Bristol hotel, which was named after the city of Bristol, has been renamed the Central Hotel Bristol.

CHARLIE IS EXCORPERATED

SLAYER OF CLUBMAN RELEASED ON FINDING OF JURY AT INQUEST

he (Carhart) shouted out to Mr. Goldsmith below not to go out there, that the man might shoot him. Carhart stated that after the police came he first looked very casually at the face and then he looked at the man. He said he saw a dark spot on the man's shirt. He stated that he was probably ten feet away from the man when he fired. It was brought out that the Carhart residence is about a mile and a half away from Mr. Callaway's room.

Occasionally, he said, Callaway called at the Carhart residence. Mr. Carhart was accused and Goldsmith, who occupies the apartment below Mr. Carhart in the Wyckoff, was called to the stand.

Mr. Goldsmith began his statement by saying "It was bright moonlight and unusually warm, and that caused me to leave the house to change my night clothes. I was surprised when I looked at the clock and came back, asking my wife if she hadn't thought I was home. I had been out only a quarter past 1, I told her."

"I had heard some one moving about upstairs, but had paid little attention. I was sleeping in the southwest corner of the room. I heard a sound under Louis Carhart's room. Ten or fifteen minutes later I heard an automobile returning to the garage. Again I heard footsteps from the front of the building. I naturally presumed Mr. and Mrs. Carhart were coming in. About fifteen minutes later I heard loud voices, but I could not distinguish the words. I heard some one running on the porch. Something struck against my awning, and Mrs. Goldsmith remarked, 'Some one must be trying to get down.' Then came the shot and the person's body, which was supposed to have been suspended from the cornice, dropped."

PHYSICIAN SUMMONED.
"Then there was a second shot. I looked out of my own porch and saw the form trying to move as if trying to turn on his left side. I called across the porch to Oscar Davis and asked him to summon a physician. It was only a minute before almost under Louis Carhart's room. They divided in two squads and took opposite directions around the house, meeting about where the body was."

"When they commenced to examine the body, Mr. Carhart looked at it. He seemed to be surprised. I had thought it was a negro and I suppose he did, too."

"How many of these loud voices did you hear?" he was asked.
"I couldn't say that I heard more than one male and one female voice. One of the attorneys asked if he remembered Mr. Carhart calling to him not to go out, that he might be shot. The witness said that he did not remember Carhart calling him, but either Mrs. Goldsmith or one of his daughters called to him not to go out until the police arrived. He said he took their advice."

CHARLIE TURNED PALE.
Mr. Goldsmith repeated to the jury what Mr. Carhart told him after the shooting. Mr. Carhart said, stated Mr. Goldsmith, that Mrs. Carhart, on going into her room and turning on the lights, saw the figure of a man, then calling to Mr. Carhart that it was a burglar, to get his pistol. Mr. Carhart did so, according to what he told Mr. Goldsmith, when a man began to run toward the sleeping porch.

Mr. Goldsmith said he understood Louis Carhart was in Jacksonville, in Louisiana had friends visiting him at the apartments. Answering a question of Mr. Goldsmith, Mr. Goldsmith said Mr. Carhart turned deadly pale when he recognized the body.

Describing Mr. Callaway's attire Mr. Goldsmith said he had on a business suit. Responding to a question, he said Callaway wore a large silver ring, about as big as a large cuff button. He said he couldn't tell whether or not there was a jewel ring on his finger.

Mr. Goldsmith said when he first saw the body lying in the court yard, shot, and the person's body, which was grounded and appeared to be trying to turn over.

CHARLIE IS RECALLED.
Mr. Goldsmith was excused and Mr. Carhart was recalled to the stand. He was asked whether the front door was locked or not when he and Mrs. Carhart returned, to which he replied that he did not know, that his wife preceded him into the house. He saw her take out a key, said Mr. Carhart, but did not know whether or not she used it to unlock the door. The door, he said, frequently was left unlocked by Mr. Carhart.

"Did Mr. Callaway have a key to your front door?" asked Coroner Donohoe.
"Not that I know of," replied the witness. "There were only three keys, my wife's, my son's and my own."

Mr. Carhart answered in the affirmative when asked if Mr. Callaway was a close friend of the family. He was friendly with them, he said, and was a friend of the son's, although how intimate a friend Mr. Carhart said he did not know, as he himself was frequently away from home on business and did not know just whom Louis went with in his absence.

The front door was not the only way Mr. Callaway could have obtained entrance to the apartment, said Mr. Carhart. He could have entered from a porch balcony.

The witness said he did not know how many shots he fired, possibly only one. Three empty cartridges were found in the pistol when it was examined later, said Mr. Carhart.

PORCH WAS DARK.
"Two of these I think I fired last week on the plantation," said the witness.

"Leaving the empty shells in the gun. However, I am not sure."

The witness said it was very dark on the porch, no electric light being there. He could not climb shortly after 1 o'clock, the man he shot at. There was a light in his own bedroom and the hall, he said.

Mr. Carhart was then excused. There were no more witnesses called. Dr. Donohoe explained the nature of Mr. Callaway's wounds to the jury, a bullet in the left chest, which had ranged close to the heart, and a fractured left ankle, supposed to have been broken in the fall.

In charging the jury Coroner Donohoe explained that there was no warrant against Mr. Carhart, and that on their decision would rest the issuance or non-issuance of a warrant. He instructed the jury to turn in one of four verdicts, that the shooting was accidental or was justifiable homicide, or was not accidental or was not justifiable homicide. In the case of either of the two former verdicts being rendered, no warrant would be issued against Mr. Carhart, said the coroner.

CHARLIE'S STATEMENT.
At police headquarters, Mr. Carhart made the following statement:
"About midnight Mrs. Carhart and I left the Capital City club, where, earlier in the evening we had been, among other friends, Mr. Callaway. Last night he was just stopped for a moment at our table and chatted with us."

"Before going home, we carried in our automobile Mr. and Mrs. Robert Butters, Jack Lewis, Graham Phelan and Carl Port to their residences. When we reached the Wyckoff, I undressed and got into bed. There was no one else at home, my son, Louis, was in Jacksonville."

"My wife went to the bath room, which is between our room and Louis's. As she opened the connecting door, she fell back with a little cry. She said there was a man in Louis' room, and told me to get my pistol."

"I got out my revolver and as I entered Louis' room, I saw the form of a man in the darkness, making I thought for the door leading to the back porch. It appeared to me that he had some thing in his hand, like a pistol. Naturally, I thought he was a burglar. Just as any other man would have done, I fired. By this time he had reached the back porch and was climbing over the banisters. I saw him fall outward, and then ran back into my room to call the police. I did not know when I had shot until later, when the man was identified as Mr. Callaway."

JACK LEWIS' STATEMENT.
Jack Lewis, Carl Port and Graham Phelan, who were passengers in the Carhart automobile from the club to their residence, confirmed Mr. Carhart's statement in so far as they were concerned.

"Mr. Phelan, Mr. Port and I were in the club shortly after 1 o'clock," said Mr. Lewis, local manager for the Dixon Crucible company, "when Mr. Carhart was leaving. They offered to give us a lift out Peachtree street, and we got in the car. At Tenth street we got out. We saw Mr. Callaway at the club earlier in the evening, about 11 o'clock. He was dancing and talking just as all the others were."

"Mr. Phelan and Mr. Port said they were leaving the club when they met the Carharts, who offered to take them home. They both stopped at Tenth street and alighted."

Besides his brother, the deceased is survived by his mother, Mrs. Ellen Pattillo Callaway, and a sister, Ethel, both of West Point, Ga., the old family home. The Callaway family is one of the most prominent in Georgia.

Carharts Are Widely Known in Columbus

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 2.—W. B. Carhart, who shot James P. Callaway in Atlanta today was well known in Columbus. He married Miss Alice Carhart of this city. Mrs. Carhart has several relatives here. She was a daughter of the late John H. Carhart, of Five Knot Springs, Ga. Local relatives are demonstrated at the news.

NATIONAL POLICE FIGURE PRAISES ATLANTA FORCE

Says More Men and Two New Substations Are Needed
That Atlanta is sadly in need of about sixty additional policemen and two police substations, is the opinion of Frank J. Casassa, secretary and treasurer of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, who stopped in Atlanta Wednesday to pay a visit to Chief James L. Beavers.

Mr. Casassa is a former chief of police at Elmira, N. Y., his present home. He is on his way from Elmira to Gulfport, Miss., for a short vacation. He and Chief Beavers have been close friends for about ten years.

High praise for the efficient work of the Atlanta department was given by Mr. Casassa. He said that Atlanta was in some respects a model to other cities and thinks that with the handicaps of a small force, the work of the department here is remarkable.

He leaves Wednesday night for Gulfport.

THE WINDOW LOOK IN

An 1894 Nickel

Got one in your pocket? Look at it. Twenty years of circulation have worn it smooth. When that nickel was new, it was worth one street-car ride in Atlanta. Now that it's worn, it still is worth here in Atlanta one street-car ride.

Everything's gone up—except your street-car ride. That's cheaper—yes, cheaper!—than it was when your 1894 nickel was coined. Two decades have brought you better and faster and more comfortable cars, greater transfer privileges, miles and miles of new track lines that didn't exist then. Your 1894 nickel pays your fare in 1914 from College Park to Decatur, or from Decatur to Rock Hill, or from Bolton to Buckhead, or from Buckhead to East Lake, or from East Lake to Druid Hills, or from Druid Hills to Hapeville, or between a score other extremities of the Atlanta system.

You couldn't be served adequately today by Atlanta's street-car equipment of twenty even years ago. You'd laugh at the man who tries to continue using today's equipment will suffice ten years from now.

We've got to get growing. That's the foundation of one phase of good service. Growth calls for new investment. That must assuredly follow. That's impossible without your good will. To win your good will and keep it, we must give good service. The thing's a cycle.

Would we be so foolish as to break it?

PROPOSALS FOR NEUTRAL ZONES TO BE DISCUSSED

Pan-American Union Board to Consider Protection of Shipping

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Proposals for creating a neutral zone in the waters of the western hemisphere and conserving the rights of neutrals will be laid by United States before the governing board of the Pan-American union, which consists of diplomatic representatives of the twenty-one American republics.

The governing board will meet Tuesday. Secretary Bryan said today all suggestions will be discussed, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Uruguay and Ecuador are among the countries which have formally communicated plans for the restoration of shipping in this hemisphere through a more vigorous assertion of neutral rights. The conferences will take the form of an exchange of views by the diplomatic.

The general purpose of the meeting is to reach a concord of views on American questions so the twenty-one American republics will speak as with one voice to the European belligerents whenever war questions arise. Secretary Bryan said today all suggestions will be discussed, Argentina, Chile, Peru, Uruguay and Ecuador are among the countries which have formally communicated plans for the restoration of shipping in this hemisphere through a more vigorous assertion of neutral rights. The conferences will take the form of an exchange of views by the diplomatic.

WAR GREAT BOOST TO AMERICAN MUSICIANS

Public at Last Forced to See True Worth of Artists

(Philadelphia, Dec. 2.—The European war is proving a great boon to American musicians, composers and teachers, according to Dr. Hugh A. Clarke, professor of music at the University of Pennsylvania, who yesterday addressed the annual convention of the National Phi Mu Alpha Fraternity. The war has been the means of overthrowing the great European fetish which said: "Formerly no American artist could appear as a soloist with an orchestra, unless he could claim foreign birth. The American public is beginning to see the true worth of their artists and will hereafter furnish the support which they have been so long denied."

"Concertos all report that they have thus far a remarkably successful year. Orchestras are competing with a popular demand by playing mostly American numbers on their programs."

REV. H. T. FREEMAN TO BECOME A BENEDICT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 2.—Rev. H. T. Freeman, pastor of Ashbury Methodist church, is to take unto himself a bride tomorrow morning. The ceremony is set for 9 o'clock in Ashbury Memorial church, which Mr. Freeman has served for the past four years. He leaves soon to take charge of the church in Saxley, where he is to serve during the coming year. The bride-elect is Miss Anita Lucille Rumph and is a most charming young woman. Many invitations have been extended to the wedding, and it is expected the little church will be crowded with the friends of the bride and bridegroom. Savannah is sorry to lose Mr. Freeman and it is even more regrettable that he is to depart, as he carries away with him one so popular as this young man.

Prince of Gratters To Spend Eighteen Months in Atlanta

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Frederick Nugent, long known to the postal authorities as the "supreme ruler" of the "Irish Order of the Gratters," head of the "Irish Order of the Gratters," and also as "Chief of the Gratters," was sentenced today by Federal Judge Clarence W. Francis, to an indeterminate term of years in the penitentiary for the use of the mails in the operation of the Gratters.

The prisoner's office in this city was raided on March 14 last. The volume of business was such at the joint possession of the "Irish Order of the Gratters" and "The Gratters" that the "Irish Order of the Gratters" was required to send a clerk to look after his correspondence with the Gratters, in all parts of the country. In the literature sent through the mails the "Irish Order of the Gratters" was described as a secret organization having a large membership, and the members were supplied with "honey stones" at a cost of $1 each. Although it was charged they were made of glass and cost only 12 cents apiece.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION STIRS LAWRENCEVILLE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., Dec. 2.—The municipal election which will be held here next Monday is beginning to warm. There are two aspirants already offering for mayor, N. B. Robinson and Colonel O. A. Nix. Four have announced as candidates at present, because of the belief that such a move would be interpreted by one or more of the belligerents. Such a step could come only from the voluntary action of the citizens, according to President Wilson's recently expressed view. Officials here believe the protest should be pressed by the citizens of Lawrenceville.

FOG SETS NEW RECORD FOR DENSITY AND EXTENT

Heavy Mist Covers Wide Area From New York to Mississippi River

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—A fleet of fifteen ocean liners packed at anchor in New York harbor, fog-bound in the thickest mist seen in this section of the eastern seaboard for fifteen years. The half-million commuters that come daily from New Jersey, Long Island and nearby New York state points, were delayed from half an hour to a single hour. Trains crawled slowly past almost hidden semaphores. Ferry boats stopped at a dock of mist so dense that one could not see a boat's length ahead. Hardly half the ferries were operated.

The local weather bureau said the fog extended over a wider area of country than was ever covered by a single fog before, and placed its western boundary at the Mississippi river. Officials pronounced it the heaviest fog of the twentieth century.

Gauze Muzzles to Stop Kissing Are Suggested To Hygiene Association

(By Associated Press.)
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 2.—"Stop kissing if you can, arrest the spitter, if you will, prohibit the public drinking cup, if you must," declared Dr. W. G. Elmore, secretary and treasurer of the National Youth Hygiene association, at the joint meeting of that organization with the American Public Health association here today.

"Do these things," he added, "and you have made progress; but to give humanity that to which she is entitled from a hygienic standpoint you should have to place gauze muzzles on over 90 per cent of the people. We must do to avoid one kind of disease. Way not must we do to avoid the many other kinds of disease? It might be ideal, but hardly practical."

BAD TEETH MOST SERIOUS OF PROBLEMS, SAYS WILEY

(By Associated Press.)
JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Dec. 2.—Bad teeth caused the most serious health problem of the day, according to Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, of Washington, D. C., who discussed that subject here today in an address before the American Public Health association. A joint session was held with the National Youth Hygiene association of which Dr. Wiley is president. The speaker submitted figures showing that out of 10,000 school children examined in Washington, more than nine thousand had teeth which required treatment.

Today's convention program included consideration of many questions which relate to health and sanitary conditions in American cities. Methods of dealing with the drug evil will be discussed at tonight's session.

PACKERS MAKE PROTEST AGAINST HANDLING MEAT

Shipments to Neutral Countries Stopped by British, Is Charge

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—Protests from American exporters—notably western beef packers—against American consignments to Europe being held up today at a conference between Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, and Counselor Lansing, of the state department. The practice of American exporters consigning goods "in order" also was discussed. In all cases of detention so far the department has lodged a formal protest in writing.

The position of the British government is that it has information that Germany is receiving large quantities of supplies consigned through neutral countries. The ambassador pointed out that ships could be allowed of unescorted search and detention, even when they carried goods consigned "in order" if they would exhibit manifests or produce supplementary statements showing in whom the goods actually were consigned.

The state department is standing on the principle that even semi-contraband goods when carried in neutral bottoms to neutral countries are exempt from interference. The question is in the controversy as to whether the British government has reached upon a generally acceptable rule. Meanwhile the British government will try to shorten the period of detention of vessels.

We trust that Boston doesn't take offense at this article. We may have criticised her too severely—perhaps a trifle harshly for her sportive shortcomings—but we merely meant to be helpful in assisting her cause for better days. We merely feel that Boston is entitled to a winner once in a while—nothing more. As it is, she has been struggling away since last April, and with what result? What does she hold today? Not a thing. Not a thing in the world but the baseball championship, the football championship, the golf championship and perhaps eight or ten others. Outside of that—

Brad is far from being a "has-been" yet. His record longer than these three can remain in it until it is possible to forecast. They are each about forty-five or forty-six years old. We hope the smailth of the old triumvirate is still as distant. Would indeed be fitting when that comes that the record should be known to have an equal number of victories emblazoned against their respective names.

There were a shade better than 200,000 shares trading, but the volume was a little higher, but prices edged slightly right after the call on a private report estimate of $700,000,000 in new mortgage and a little later liquidation. COTTON SEC. II MARKET

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Scattered liquidation evidenced a loosening up of crude at the close, but the market was not so much affected as a result of a decline of 4 to 10 points in refined oil this morning. The enormous receipts went and big cotton crop appeared as obstacles to bullish operations and selling power is lessened. Minor covering and a threat and a partial rally occurred later in the day.

IS A BUSINESS BALANCE - WHEEL

The qualified Certified Public Accountant metaphorically examines the very vitals of a business with a business microscope, and after laying bare causes for loss, suggests methods of cure.

In this he proves himself a balance-wheel in efficiency—a most profitable investment. In proof of this, the services of competent experts in this line are daily coming in greater demand.

NEGRO SUSPECT IN HOLDUP IS ARRESTED

Police Think Albert Butler Had Part in Ormond Shooting Saturday Night

As the result of their investigation of the hold-up in Cooper street Saturday night, in which W. E. Ormond was shot and killed, Sergeant G. C. Bullard and Police Chief Shaw, of the plain clothes squad, Tuesday arrested Albert Butler, a negro, who gave his address as 162 Forman street.

According to the officers, Butler is a relative of the Jones woman who was arrested a few minutes after the hold-up and shooting, and they hope to be able to fasten the crime on him. It is their theory that the Jones woman acted as a lookout for Butler while he attempted the hold-up.

The other negro, Tom Ballou, arrested with the Jones woman, is said to have admitted firing shots at Mr. Ormond, who came to his wife and daughter's assistance, but the police are inclined to believe his story that he fired after young Ormond mistook him for his mother's assailant and shot at him.

EAST POINT TO HOLD ELECTION DECEMBER 9

Race for Mayor and Council Has Stirred Voters to High Pitch

Interest in East Point centers in the municipal election December 9, which will name the next mayor and three members of council.

Friday night, December 4, the candidates will address the citizens at the city hall in East Point.

Candidates for mayor are Judge J. C. McKendie, former mayor and now member of council, and Rev. T. T. G. Lindsay.

Candidates for council, three to be elected, are A. J. McCoy, present mayor; E. E. West, D. H. Orr, J. C. Bryant and F. M. Thompson.

Keen rivalry between the candidates has stirred up greater interest in politics this year than for some time past. A large registration is recorded and an exceptional vote is expected.

Through Snow and Slush Warm and Dry

If you'll drop in here for a few minutes tomorrow, we'll guarantee that you won't mind how much it snows this winter—or how slushy the streets are. We want to show you the famous Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes—the shoes that make walking in winter a pleasure because they keep out the chill and the dampness that soaks through the soles of ordinary shoes.

For winter wear, there's absolutely no shoe that we know of, that can equal the Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoe.

Ordinary shoes have nothing but a hard, porous leather sole between your foot and the icy pavement—while Dr. A. Reed Cushion Shoes have a special insole—a soft fibre cushion—that protects your feet—keeps them dry and warm. Cold or moisture can't get through—and walking is made ten times easier and more delightful—for the cushion insole fills the hollows of your feet—supports the arches—and distributes your weight evenly over the whole foot. Try—
