sumed the offensive in Belgium with force. In the Argonne also, hard fighting is in progress.

Allies Advance on Aisne, Meuse and in the Argonne

PARIS, Dec. 9.—There was artillery fighting from the sea to the Lys during the day of December 8, according to the French official announcement given in Paris this afternoon, and all the positions won by the French during the past two days have been strengthened. The French have made gains in the Aisne, in the Meuse, and in the Argonne. Part of the statement is devoted to a recapitulation of the situation in Poland and in Serbia. The text of the communication follows:

"During the day of December 8 there was artillery firing from the sea coast to the Lys."

"In the region of Arras and further to the south there was nothing to report. All the positions won by us during the past two days have been organized and consolidated."

"In the region of the Aisne artillery exchanges resulted in appreciable gains for us. In the Argonne the activity of our artillery and fighting by our infantry resulted in appreciable gains for us. Several German trenches were occupied and we made progress along the entire front with the exception of one single point, where the enemy blew up one of our trenches with a mine."

"On the heights of the Meuse our artillery showed itself distinctly the master of the artillery of the enemy. In this region as well as in the Argonne we have made progress along the entire front, and occupied several of the German trenches. The same thing happened in the forest of Laprele."

"In the remainder of the segment of the Yonne, the enemy made no endeavor during the day of December 8 to deliver any serious attack on the positions occupied by us last week."

"Russia.—The stubborn attacks of the Germans against the front from How to Lodz and from Strzykow to Lodz, and also along a line running north and south sixteen kilometers (ten miles) to the west of Piotrkow, were repulsed. Nevertheless, because of the exposed position of Lodz as the head of the Aisne, the Russians have found it advisable to evacuate this city."

"In Galicia the Austrians, who appear to have received German reinforcements, have resumed the offensive in the region of Nowe Hradzko, to the east of Cracow, against the Russian left wing."

"Serbia.—The Serbian armies are making progress in the upper valleys of the western Morava and on the left bank of the River Ljma. They have taken possession of the heights of Melice, capturing numerous prisoners and also taking cannon from the enemy. In the region of Kosovar the Serbians are in contact with the Austrian troops."

Official German Report

Conflicts With French
BERLIN, Dec. 9.—(By Wire) Without to London.—The official statement issued by the German army headquarters this afternoon says:

"To the west of Rheims a battery, although flying the Red Cross flag, has been bombarded and set on fire. Our troops as we had ascertained by means of photographs taken by our aviators that behind the battery was hidden a French heavy battery."

"French attacks in the district around Soissons and on the villages of Verennes and Vouziers, in the eastern part of the forest of Argonne, were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy."

"In the forest of Argonne itself ground was gained in several places. On the other hand, we took a number of prisoners."

"The French suffered heavy losses in the battle reported yesterday to the north of Nancy. Our losses were comparatively small."

"No new reports are at hand from the front."

"In Northern Poland our troops are in close touch with the Russians who have come to a standstill in a strongly fortified position, east of the Wartha; the fighting for Lower Silesia."

"In southern Poland Austro-Hungarian troops fighting side by side with troops have successfully renewed the attack."

Germans Continue Pursuit Of Russians Beyond Lodz

occupied Lodz, it is pushing on to the eastward after the retreating Russians. The Russian retreat is a strategic necessity rather than a defeat, but it will take further developments to show whether that claim is correct. Twice driven back from Warsaw, the Germans again are in a position to advance on the capital of Russian Poland, and even the British press which minimizes the importance of the taking of Lodz, points out that it is on the trunk line railroad between Kalisz and Warsaw which line is now held by the invaders probably to a point considerably to the east of the occupied city."

"Viewing the fighting in the vicinity of Lodz in retrospect it would appear that Germany had a crushing victory almost within her grasp and lost it by inability to utilize her forces, while the Russians were successful in gaining a dominant position which they could not hold."

"In the west, while it would appear still generally true that the Germans are more on the defensive than the offensive, the news that they have made a violent attack south of Ypres indicates they have not abandoned the idea of breaking through to the French coast."

"The fate of General Bayevs in South Africa has not yet been officially cleared up. If he is dead as is believed, it will remove the last of the important South African rebels. General DeWaal is a prisoner, Colonel Maritz a fugitive."

and most of the commanders have been broken up."

Russian Official Note Says
German Right Is Turned
PETERSBURG, Dec. 9.—(Delayed in Transmission).—An official communication given out by the general staff tonight says:

"Engagements which have developed in the region of Praznyy and Clichow (east of the east Prussian border and Mlawa) have not yet terminated."

"In the fighting which took place in the region of Piotrkow we were only partially successful."

"The battle which commenced December 8 southeast of Cracow, in the region of Wloclawka on the River Dniestr, has developed in our favor. After having courageously forced the passage of the Dniestr river in the vicinity of Nowy Sandec our reinforcements pursued the offensive and inflicted a serious defeat on the German troops which had formed in the valley of Losowozna. The German right wing, which was pursued, was turned."

"The Twenty-fourth German corps, transported here from Belgium, opened this combat with an automobile battery in its advance, which was partly disabled and partly put to flight without inflicting a blow. Following this we successfully put out of action several pieces of heavy artillery, silenced five batteries and captured several cannon."

"The German prisoners affirm that their units sustained enormous losses, some of the companies being reduced to forty men. We are pursuing the offensive."

"On the morning of December 7 the Turkish cruiser Breslau was discovered in the vicinity of Sebastopol. Our cruisers and hydroplanes started in pursuit, but before an attack could be made the Breslau disappeared out to sea."

PALESTINE MAY BECOME FREE STATE AFTER WAR

England and Russia Said to Favor Setting Up Independent
Jewish Government

LONDON, Nov. 28.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—One result of the present war may be the realization of the dream of centuries past—the setting up of Palestine as an independent Jewish state. Both England and Russia will favor the project, says the London Globe—England because a small Jewish state in the Holy Land will be the best possible protection to Egypt and Syria, and Russia because it will make the way easier for her to set the certain Jewish problems within her own borders. Continuing the Globe says:

"The events of the moment show how Jewish Palestine is being impelled by the fact that a right of way must be opened up to the Holy Land. Palestine must become either Jewish or neutral. There is an obvious political objection to a British occupation. The neutrality is the more desirable alternative."

"But if Palestine is to become neutral, who is to govern it? Directly the question is raised the claim of the Jews forces itself upon our attention. It has to do with the remarkable fact that a people which lost its country over 2,000 years ago still cherish the memory of that loss and link the hope of recovery with its deepest religious instincts."

"Here, then, we have two influences at work for the re-establishment of a Jewish state—the Jewish desire for a national Palestine, and the territorial instinct of the Jews themselves. There is a third influence. Russia has pledged herself to the Jews. In a recent speech in Poland, as we know it now, there is an obvious obstacle to the development of a Polish state strong in its national independence, and that is the presence of a large Jewish element. All who know Russian Poland will agree that settlement of the Jewish question is essential to the complete success of the great scheme to which Russia is pledged, and will recognize that it is precisely in the Polish Jews that the best security of the Jewish state would be the strongest appeal."

HENRY LOSES FIRST MOVE FOR COTTON CURRENCY

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Representative Henry's first move in his effort to legislate to leave the currency on cotton was beaten in the house today, 19 to 21.

The house refused to recommend its bill to committee with instructions to report it with an amendment for the sum of $250,000,000 in bonds or short-term notes for relief of the cotton farmers. While Mr. Henry was presenting his plan Secretary Daniels and Postmaster General Burleson sat beside him urging him to desist. He then turned to leave into a long hall call on a point of no return.

YOUNG MAN ARRESTED FOR THEFT OF A AUTO

Admittedly the thief who rode off with a Ford automobile belonging to the Southeastern Underwriters' association Friday night, according to the county police, T. D. Cox, nineteen years old, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by County Officers Heard and Jordan at his home in Lakewood Heights.

The machine was found stripped, but J. S. Rain, an officer of the underwriters' association, identified it. Cox had taken the four-seated body off and was converting the Ford into a racer.

He told his friends he said to his mother, to hide the theft from her, that he had obtained the machine in a trade with another man. He confessed to several night rides since taking the car.

Cox is in jail, awaiting trial Thursday before Judge Calhoun, of the criminal court of Atlanta.

CONTESTS EXPECTED OVER SAVANNAH PRIMARY

Unsuccessful Candidates Said to Be Leading Move Against Nominees

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Dec. 8.—On the ground that the municipal primary law, under which Savannah nominated a mayor, aldermen and recorder yesterday is not legal, plans are being made to contest the election.

This movement is said to have been started by Frank C. Dieter, one of the unsuccessful candidates on the said municipal ticket. He has conferred with Mayor George Ritter and proposes, it is said, to file a petition in the superior court very shortly. It is claimed by Mr. Dieter that there is a flaw in the law by which he can throw out the entire election.

Mayor Ritter and his entire aldermanic board were nominated for four years in yesterday's primary. Schwarz was nominated for recorder over Hewlett by 1,200 majority.

CAPT. ANTHONY W. HALE SENTENCED TO U. S. PEN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
COLUMBUS, Ga., Dec. 8.—Captain Anthony W. Hale, former cashier of the Third National bank, Columbus, sentenced to five years in the Atlanta penitentiary today by Judge Johnson, following the plea of guilty to the charge of embezzlement in connection with his recent shortage of some $14,000 with the local bank. Hale will be carried to Atlanta this afternoon.

Man With Battered Face Tells Recorder His Wife Beat Him Up

When E. L. Brewer entered recorder's court Wednesday morning his nose was battered to a pulp, his lips were bleeding, his cheeks were marked with long abrasions and, taking off his coat and vest, he exhibited the remains of a battered shirt.

"My wife did it," he told Judge Johnson.

Then Mrs. Brewer entered, trim and dainty, without so much as a pin scratch to mar the peachlike rosy cheeks.

It appears from the testimony that the two had indulged in a domestic row about 4 o'clock Wednesday morning at their home, 125 East Hunter street. Brewer stated his wife began the assault when he attempted to light a pipe, and polished him off with both fists.

Since they had come to Atlanta, for two weeks he had been without work, she said, and had not tried to get out, simply loafing about the house.

Judge Johnson said he believed it was his duty to get to the bottom of the matter. He turned to find a job. "I'm sorry for the man. I'll turn you both over to the probation officers, and if you can't agree, I'll separate you later."

PLANS PROTECTION FOR COMMERCE OF AMERICAS

Special Commission Considers Problems Caused by Presence of Warring Ships

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Informal conferences were begun here today by the special commission of the governing board of the Pan-American union with a view to working out plans for the solution of problems arising from the operations of belligerent warships in North and South American waters.
The commission was appointed at a conference here yesterday of diplomatic representatives of the twenty nations of the western hemisphere, when resolutions were adopted expressing disapproval of operations of the belligerent warships in American waters. Authority was given the commission to study problems presented by the European war with a view to formulating practical steps having as their object a more vigorous assertion of the rights of neutrals.

It consists of Secretary Bryan, of the state department, as chairman ex-officio; the ambassadors from Brazil, Chile, Argentina, and the ministers from Uruguay, Peru, Ecuador, Honduras and Cuba.

The committee will consider the six boards of jurists appointed by the last Pan-American conference to codify international law, one from each of the nations in Washington and is headed by John Bassett Moore.
The commission has before it for consideration several concrete proposals, including one by the Peruvian minister declaring his government believes the time has come for joint action of all the American republics to guarantee the inviolability of their commercial routes.
It suggested the adoption of a resolution declaring that the American could not admit that commerce within the maritime area belonging to the two continents was subject to the contingencies of the present war. A boundary line equidistant from the American continent, the other continents, both of the Atlantic and Pacific, was suggested.
Other proposals include limiting of the supply of coal to belligerent warships, and the steps to make it impossible for belligerent warships to sustain themselves for any length of time in American waters.
The conference was presided over by Secretary Bryan who expressed the deep sympathy of the United States for the neighboring republics in their plight and declared the innocent nations should not be compelled to suffer for the acts of the belligerents.

German Embassy Protests to U. S. Against This Method of Warfare

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Count Bernstorff, German ambassador, has brought to the attention of the state department new charges of violation of British troops of rules of international law.
With his note the ambassador filed original cartridges said to have been used in violation of international law and photographs of wounds, said to have been caused by these bullets.

An official statement issued by the German embassy says:
"New proofs of violation of the rules of international law by British troops have been found by the German government."

"Soft nose cartridges have been delivered by a wounded soldier of the Eighty-eighth Connaught Rangers' regiment on his return from France. They were given to that regiment before the battle of Mons, and with regular infantry ammunition."

"Other dumdum bullets were given to the Duke of Wellington's Infantry corps on August 8. Both kinds of dumdum bullets were made by Eley Bros., 254 Cray's Inn road, London."

"The British government has ordered from the Winchester Repeating Arms company 20,000 riot guns with 10,000 'buckshot' cartridges. The 'buckshot' cartridge contains nine bullets. The use of these weapons and this ammunition has hitherto been unknown in civilized warfare."

"The Union Metallic Cartridge company, Bridgeport, Conn., has on October 19 secured through Mr. Frank C. Hoagland, a patent for a 'muskum bullet.'"
"It has been ascertained from reliable sources that since October 1, 1904, 99 cartridges made according to this patent were sent by the above mentioned firm to Canada for use in the British navy. No outside sign distinguished these bullets from ordinary ammunition, so that the soldier who uses them does not know he is using dumdum bullets."

"Even if the bullets mentioned under two and three were not defined for the European war—what, however, seems unlikely, on account of the large number of cartridges ordered—but for the use in British colonies, this would all the same represent a barbarous method
of warfare."

HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT ROBBS BOLD BURGLARS

Unexpectedly returning home Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Will McMurray, a high school student, 109 Ormond street, routed a gang of burglars who were busy engaged in ransacking the house. According to McMurray's report to the police, he tried the front door, found it locked, and rang the bell, whereupon the robbers ran out the back door. The house had been ransacked but nothing was missing.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—The police be-

Years of experience have led us to provide various forms of telephone service, each designed to fill some particular requirement.

For the Home

we furnish telephone service on a PARTY LINE, service where more than one person uses the same circuit, thus reducing the cost to each user; or a DIRECT LINE, service over an exclusive circuit.
We also install EXTENSION TELEPHONES so that calls may be answered without running up or downstairs. We provide, too, INTERIOR TELE-PHONE SERVICE between the various rooms or floors of a residence.

For the Office

we furnish every type of telephone service that may double track service is known as PRIVATE BRANCH EXCHANGE SERVICE, and is very generally used in large offices. The PRIVATE BRANCH EXCHANGE also permits of excellent interior service between various rooms or departments of the office.

For the Factory

we furnish telephone service to meet all require-

ECONOMIC STRENGTH OF U. S. HAILED BY 'AOD'

Secretary of Treasury Pays High Tribute to Bank-ing and Business Interests

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Secretary McAdoo, in his annual report, outlined at length the steps taken by the treasury department to restore confidence and support American business, shaken and weakened by the European war.

"A catastrophe of calamitous proportions," said the report, "was narrowly averted. It is a tribute to the economic strength and soundness of the country and to the patriotism of its people in every class and walk of life that the shock has been so admirably withstood. A panic of catastrophic proportions might easily have resulted and it is to the injury to the country that would have been incalculable and many years would have been required to overcome its effects."

By formation of the $100,000,000 gold fund, the $100,000,000 currency fund, the $100,000,000 emergency currency fund, and the deposit of confidence money in national banks, the situation was relieved and confidence was revived, the report says.

"Through the prompt and effective action of the treasury department and the cordial and intelligent co-operation of the banking and business interests of the country, the danger has been averted," said the report.

CONFIDENCE IN RESTORED.
"Confidence has been restored and specie payments have been maintained on the face of the world. At no time since the war broke out has there been a knowledge of this country, with the exception of a few isolated cases, a failure on the part of any national bank to honor its obligations in currency or money or to meet its obligations. The prompt action of the treasury department has been the best evidence that confidence has been restored. There is every reason to believe that the country should look forward to the future with confidence so far as its trade, commerce and industry are concerned."

In spite of drains from Europe, where the nation owed about $400,000,000 at the outbreak of the war, Secretary McAdoo says the treasury's gold holdings are a reduction of only $15,578,778 on October 31, 1914, compared with holdings of $132,421,427 on June 30, 1914.

Secretary McAdoo referred in some detail to his action against banks which, as publicly announced, were hoarding money, piling up reserves and charging high interest rates. "It was a disagreeable duty," he said, but one which resulted in the determination on his own part to withdraw government deposits from banks not using such funds for the benefit of their communities.

CREDITORS LOBBIED UP.

"This section," he said, "had a salutary influence, because it was followed by a general loosening up of credits; and while it is not for a moment contended that the improvement is not attributable wholly to the action of the department, it is, nevertheless, believed to have had a beneficial effect on the situation."

MR. McAdoo's report is devoted largely to a review of the activities of the treasury department for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1915, before the war began, but it included detailed statements of the treasury's participation in various post-war problems.

The secretary makes several recommendations. He suggests to congress that the war revenue tax law should not expire December 31, 1915, but that its operation should be extended until the end of the European war, by proclamation of the president.

Discussing the income tax law the secretary advocates a change in the law so that a person having a gross income of $10,000 be required to make a return and of those persons with a net income of that amount or over.

MR. McAdoo again recommends to congress the consolidation of the revenue cutter and life saving services, to bear the name "United States Coast Guard Service." He urged the building of two more revenue cutters and the appropriation for a program for the use of the public health service.

Secretary McAdoo estimates the receipts of the government for the fiscal year 1915, ending June 30, at $124,000,000, including $100,000,000 from customs and $14,000,000 from the emergency war revenue fund, he places the excess disbursements at $170,000,000 for the current year. Counting upon $25,000,000 for the balance out of the treasury's general fund, he places the excess disbursements at $145,000,000.

For the fiscal year, which ends June 30, 1916, Mr. McAdoo says he expects receipts amounting to $135,000,000, with customs bringing $240,000,000. The secretary places ordinary expenditures for that year at $171,765,105, with $18,000,000 additional for the Panama canal, leaving a slight surplus.

In his estimate Mr. McAdoo puts the return from the income tax for the current fiscal year at $98,000,000; $40,000,000 from individuals and corporations. For 1916 he expects the same tax to produce $45,000,000, half to be paid by individuals, homes, and corporations.

NO AGGRESSIVE ACTION OF BORDERS PLANNED

Official Statement Explains Movement of Troops to Naco, Ariz.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—No aggressive action on the part of the United States government is planned in the sending of additional troops to Naco, Ariz., according to an official statement issued today at the White House.

After a conference with President Wilson, Secretary Tamm said the following statement:

"It has been thought wise to strengthen the forces at Naco, because of the reckless carelessness of the contending forces there in failing to control the direction of their fire. Of course no aggressive action is contemplated."

A number of messages have been received from American along the border pointing out the continued firing into United States territory by followers of General Hill and General Mayrora. More than a score of people have been killed and wounded on the Mexican side.

Later Secretary Garrison said the commanders at Naco had been ordered not to cross the border unless they received orders to do so from Washington. "The military circumstance discretion would be with the commanders."

WILSON WILL PRESIDE AT RED CROSS MEET

Will Hear Reports of Work of Americans in War Zone

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The American Red Cross society today opened its tenth annual meeting here with President Wilson, its active head, presiding at the opening of the first session. Review of the relief work accomplished by the society during the past year and proposals for the future, with special reference to the European war, stirred the delegates to a high pitch of enthusiasm.

At the morning session, Counselor Lane, of the state department, presented the report of the international relief board, of which he is chairman. After touching upon the general work of prevention of famine in China, Japan, Mexico, the Balkans and Korea, including references to world-wide suffering which the Red Cross had without exception extended aid, Mr. Lane said:

"Never since the creation of the world have there been so many and so far-reaching. For the first time, we may hope the last time, the misfortunes of war rather than those of disasters have occupied most of its activities."

SUBSISTENCE ABROAD.
The report said that more than 100 surgeons and nurses have so far been sent to Europe, and said more were urgently needed.

"So great are the numbers of wounded," it said, "that there are constantly being received reports of the need of vast quantities of surgical and hospital supplies. To these needs the Red Cross is responding as promptly as possible. It is a satisfaction and so much more to the world of humanity that we are enabled to aid in the relief of the untold sufferings caused by this world-wide trouble."

The constantly increasing requests for nurses in the part of the American communities was considered by the convention in a report presented by Miss Fannie F. Clement, superintendent of the town and county nursing service. This report was read in part as follows:

"This particular field promises a broadening field of usefulness for the service. The eastern states, north of Washington, where public health nursing in cities has been most generally established, lead in their interest in rural nursing. The growing importance of public health work and the rapid development in its administration, both by public and private organizations, are increasing the responsibility on the part of the Red Cross field, hospital and relief work."

Miss Mabel Boardman, chairman of the national relief board, emphasized the need of extending charitable and philanthropic movements in organization work. Humanity was appealing for aid from so many directions, she said, that the scope of the society, broad as it is, should be enlarged. "The Red Cross and the European War," was the subject of Miss Boardman's address.

LUMBERMEN INTERESTED IN FEDERAL RATE HEARING

Special Examiner Watkins Takes Up Petition for Better Rates

A hearing which deeply concerns yellow pine saw, floor and blind manufacturers was begun in the federal building today, when Special Examiner Watkins, formerly an Atlanta attorney, but now a special examiner of the interstate commerce commission.

Hearings will also be heard on the petitions of material men. Their complaints are made against the Southern and many other railroad systems, which, they claim, offer better rates to manufacturers north of the Ohio and west of the Mississippi river than to those south and east of those rivers.

The yellow pine association was represented at Wednesday's hearing, which will continue the entire day. Their case is being handled by the Freight Audit and Investment company of Washington, which is represented at the hearing by W. M. McKee and W. S. Watts, of Washington. Mr. Watt was on the stand during the morning.

It is claimed, for instance, that a manufacturer in St. Louis has a lower freight rate relatively into Atlanta than one located in a state east of the Mississippi river, with the result that these manufacturers, who sell some of their output here, are competitors through the discrimination of the railroad.

One of the petitions from the material men wants a lower rate on brick from South Carolina, while another wants the same rates on building material as on lumber.

GRAND OPERA PROBLEM TO BE DECIDED SOON

M. Atkinson Back From New York With Report for Association Directors

Harry M. Atkinson, of the Atlanta Music Festival association, has returned from New York, where he talked with several directors of the Metropolitan Opera company in regard to opera week at Atlanta next spring.

While Mr. Atkinson does not care to discuss the result of his interview, he said he would take the matter up with other officers of the Atlanta Music Festival association and that some arrangement will be made in the near future.

There are strong grounds for believing the Metropolitan company will come here as usual, provided Atlanta wants it and there is no doubt in the minds of any one that Atlanta does want it. "The principal of the company who were stranded in Europe at the outbreak of the war, have returned safely to New York, with the exception of one or two, and there is nothing to prevent the 1915 season from being as successful as its predecessors."

MISSIONARY TO CHINA VISITING FATHER HERE

Miss Elizabeth M. Lewis, missionary for six years in the southern province of Chekiang, China, and of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, has returned to Atlanta to visit her father, Ulysses Lewis, a well-known local attorney. She is accompanied by Miss Anna Charles, another missionary, who will spend a few days with her before going to her home in Lancaster, Pa.

NOTED MUSICIAN TO PLAY HERE SUNDAY

Leo Tecktonius Leaves City Where Zeppelins Drop Bombs for Quiet and Peace in Atlanta

This is the brief but moving story of Leo Tecktonius, noted musician and friend of prisoners, in today in Atlanta instead of in Petrograd, Russia, where he had expected to spend Christmas.

Early in October he was peacefully established in his studio at Paris when he heard that the Germans were coming. Like other Parisians, he did not believe it, until one morning a Zeppelin sailed over his studio and dropped a bomb.

When he resumed reading his morning paper, he learned that the Germans were only fifteen miles from the outer fortifications and still coming strong.

Down in the street he heard people singing "Aux armes, citoyens, de la patrie et du drapeau." He was not an "enfant de la patrie," a plain American son of Wisconsin, Mr. Tecktonius banded his belongings together, pulled the dust cloth over his grand piano, and departed hastily from Paris, wearing a small American flag conspicuously in the lapel of his coat. By the help of Mr. Herriot, he managed, after divers adventures, to reach a seaport.

In New York he asked some friends what American city they considered the most interesting from a musical standpoint, and they told him Atlanta, because of its grand opera record.

C. B. Howell and some of the other hosts were entertaining a celebrity unaware, and went to call on him. As a result he is going to play at the free concert Sunday afternoon at the auditorium-annex, and such playing it will be as Atlanta has not heard since Maestro Tuschinski, who left for England last April.

POSTMASTER ADDRESSES BUILDING OWNERS' ASS'N

Discussed Need of Co-operation of Tenants With P. O. Department.

Postmaster Bolling H. Jones was the chief speaker at the December luncheon of the Atlanta Association of Building Owners, held at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Piedmont hotel.

Mr. Jones gave some valuable advice on how tenants and owners of apartment houses, office buildings and dwellings could materially assist the post-office department in its work, and presented interesting statistics to show the progress made during the past year in the service in Atlanta.

The National Association of Building Owners and Managers, one of the largest and wealthiest organizations in the country, meets in Atlanta next September, and plans already are being discussed by members of the local association for their entertainment.

A Chicken Thief Wrote Verse

After cleaning out a chicken coop in Birmingham, Ala., the chicken thief left the following note:

"I have just cleaned out your coop, and I am sorry to say I have found no more chickens here. I will look again next week, but I am sure I will find them. I am sorry to say I have found no more chickens here. I will look again next week, but I am sure I will find them."

CITY MAY FIND WAY TO GIVE UNEMPLOYED WORK

Will Consider Using $142,000 From Late $3,000,000 Bond Issue

A delegation representing the trade union, the merchants and the churches of Atlanta went before a special committee of council Tuesday afternoon and urged the committee to formulate a program of needed public work by the city which will give employment to idle men.

The committee seemed willing and ready to be confronted with a lack of money in the city treasury.

The plan to appropriate $142,000 out of the city's reserve, as suggested by Jerome Jones, of the labor union committee, could not be considered because the charter of the city absolutely requires this money ($175,000) to be on deposit in the banks every day, and if it were used of the same for the year there would be no incoming revenue with which to replace it.

Another plan was suggested, and this may open a way. It is to use $142,000, remaining from unexpended bonds, to issue $2,000,000 bond issue, in the construction of sewers and the repaving of pavements. R. M. Clayton, chief of construction, outlined a program of work which is needed, which can be done with this amount, and which will furnish employment for 800 men until after January.

PLAN HAMPERED

But this plan is hampered by a legal technicality. The bond ordinance specifies certain work. The work outlined by Clayton plan will be done with this amount, and which will furnish employment for 800 men until after January.

On this question there was much discussion. Mayor Woodward was inclined to adhere strictly to the provisions of the bond ordinance. W. D. Ellis, assistant city attorney, was doubtful of the legality of anything but the strict ordinance. Jerome Jones took the position that technicalities should not be allowed to stand in the way of relieving an extremely serious condition. He said the people, instead of dissuading an evasion of the strict terms of the bond ordinance, will actually endeavor to act when nothing but legal technicalities prevent action.

Full and free discussion the committee took a recess until 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, at which time the Clayton plan will be gone into fully with the bond commission and the finance committee in council, with somewhat more positive legal advice as to the use of the bond money. Also at this meeting of the board of department heads will be called on for statements of unemployment in their various departments, with a view of taking this money in the event it is enough to finance any considerable amount of work.

MERCHANTS REPRESENTED

The labor unions were represented at the conference by Jerome Jones, editor of the Journal of Labor, and S. H. Marks, president of the Georgia Federation of Labor. The merchants were represented by Beaumont Davison, W. Orr and W. S. Byrd. The churches were represented by Dr. Dunbar Giden, pastor of Central Presbyterian church.

During the conference H. H. Harrison, a member of the board, who went along with the labor committee, interrupted the discussion by declaring that he was getting desperate, with his money exhausted and his pantry empty. He was greatly excited and demanded of Mayor Woodward that he stop "quibbling over technicalities."

Call for Charity Causes

City Warden to Overdraw

Mayor Woodward called R. G. West, chief clerk of the city treasury, into consultation Wednesday, and Mr. West reported that at the end of this month without any appropriation by council, the warden will be barely enough money in the city treasury to meet the charter requirements.

Mr. West reported that the city warden has numerous bills being called on the municipality's charity to pay November's bills overdraw his city treasury appropriation by $1,000.

The mayor has instructed the city warden to continue to overdraw in order to feed the hungry and provide shelter for the homeless, and this means that the department by the end of the month will be overdrawn to the extent of probably $5,000.

Mr. West announced—also that the prison department is to be overdrawn to the extent of probably $1,000 in order that guards and drivers at present employed at the stockade shall not be thrown out of work.

Mayor Woodward declares that the plan to utilize the money now in a bond issue to construct certain sewers, for any other work, is unfeasible.

THEATERS

Interest in vaudeville holds the same firm grip on the Georgia state as has been so strong this season. "Neptune's Garden" is the biggest act in all vaudeville. Atlanta theatergoers will never see anything finer or better here or elsewhere.

It was seen by thousands here a year ago and is going to break that record on this visit.

Bill McMillan, the tramp comedian, the Berens in their surprise musical comedy, "The Great Gatsby," the impersonations, and Kelly and Galvin in a good comedy help to make the show worth while.

Anna Held's daughter will headline the bill at the Lyric, and her novel comedy, "Whisper, Houston, and company," in a comedy sketch, and others are on the bill.

Little Emma Banting's two weeks' visit to the Lyric will be an event that will be a pleasant chapter in the theatrical history of this season here. The clever little actress is giving her admirers a new show, "What Happened to Mary," an old-fashioned love story, crowded with interesting events and capriciously played by the best company that has ever appeared here with Miss Banting.

There will be evening performances the rest of the week as usual and matinees on Thursday and Saturday. The box office is open daily from 9 a. m. and sets of seats have been engaged for every performance and for next week, when "The Storm Country" will be the bill.

SANTA CLAUS HEADQUARTERS

Hightower's Is the Christmas Store

The advantage in Christmas shopping is always with the early buyer. Firms make special efforts to provide goods adapted for presents, and many of these are sold almost exclusively at this time of the year. No merchant desires to carry over goods from one season to another, consequently their purchases are adapted to meet the probable sale. Again, when stocks are depleted it is frequently impossible to secure a further supply in time.

You have a certain number of Christmas presents that you wish to make and would feel miserable and mean if you did not, so do not put it off until the last minute, but make your selections at once.

There'll be merry Christmas in thousands of Atlanta homes this year, and one of the largest factors in the Christmas celebration will be Atlanta's Greatest Toy show, with its thousands of useful, ornamental and beautiful offerings.

This store has already assumed a holiday appearance in keeping with the season, and we'll be glad to hold a continuous reception from now until Thursday evening, December 14th. The earlier you come the oftener you'll want to. You'll not be asked to buy a thing, but we want to see you, and we want you to see what an attractive store you've got in which to do your holiday shopping, as well as your year-round trading. It would take many pages of The Journal to enumerate all the best-selling presents that are here.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 9.—Poor cables and some little hedge selling worked against the price of cotton in the early trading today. Prices were put 3 to 4 points under yesterday's close. The tone was steady as there was an undercurrent of buying, which some brokers claimed was of an investment character.
Straggling hedge selling and lack of demand were against the market. In the trading up to noon prices went seven points under yesterday's finals.

NAVY NOT PREPARED FOR CRISIS, SAYS FLETCHER

Admiral Declares Fleet Cannot Cop With "Most Powerful in World"

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—Admiral Fletcher impressively told the house naval committee today that the United States navy now is unprepared to cope with the most powerful navy in the world. He mentioned no country.

"You can safely say," he testified, "that we are not prepared for the worst emergency that might arise to protect ourselves from the greatest force available."

"We would have to greatly enlarge our fleet to protect American interests against all possible combinations against us or to control the ocean. We would have to take the offensive when we have a strong enough fleet."

"The European war has not demonstrated," he declared, "that the battleship is any less valuable in naval warfare than battleships, or that it is not still the main factor in finally determining a conflict."

"The submarine undoubtedly is a valuable adjunct to the navy. The defense against the submarine has not yet been fully developed. Presently a defense against the submarine will be found just as a defense was found against the old style war torpedo and the automobile torpedo. One defense against the submarine already developing is the airship."

Admiral Fletcher said that if England chose to war with the United States it would be entirely practical to send submarines against the fleet of the United States. He said that the practicality of such a move, and the admiral remarked that England had a "nice little supply station" 700 miles away from New York harbor—Bermuda.

The admiral said he would recommend the building of eight or ten more submarines for coast and harbor defense.

He reiterated that the real success of the navy must ultimately rest with the dreadnaughts and the battleships fleet generally.

"Considering the location of this country," said Representative Bachman, of Ohio, "do you think that the United States war policy, if there should be a war, should be to have the navy operations largely on the defensive?"

"Well," replied Admiral Fletcher, "in this event it would leave the money free to drive you off the ocean and block all your commerce."

He said control of the sea was not materially affected by the number of submarines, operated by a belligerent.

FRANK SENTENCED TO HANG ON FRIDAY, JANUARY 22D

person who manifested the slightest evidence of approval or disapproval. Then, "Is Leo M. Frank in court?" asked the judge.

Frank acknowledged his presence by rising, and sat down.

"Have you or your attorneys anything to say before sentence of death is passed upon you?" asked the judge.

Mr. Frank has a statement to make, your honor," he said.

FRANK CALLED VOICE ITEM.
Frank, standing by his place at the table, faced the court. His face was drawn and pallid, his manner was calm, his voice was firm and carried to every part of the court room.

The crowd drew its breath, there was a low shuffling sound in the rear as of the man about to go to a better view. Looking into the eye of the judge, Frank made the statement. Once he clenched his hands and raised them he gave emphatic gestures with his arms. And two or three times he took his eyes away from the judge and turned to the crowd.

When Frank said "I deeply sympathize with the parents of Mary Phagan," there was something like a man's low muttering under his breath in the back corner of the court room. The sound stopped.

Frank bent on apparently unconscious of the little interruption.

After finishing he hung his head and something more. The impulse caused by one last appealing look into the eye of the judge. Then he sat down.

JUDGE HILL'S SENTENCE.
"It is ordered by the court that you shall be carried by the sheriff to the common jail of the county and there safely kept with sufficient guard until Friday, the 23d day of January, 1915, on which day, between the hours of 10 in the morning and 4 in the afternoon, you shall be hanged by the sheriff until the sentence of death shall be carried out."

As Judge Hill spoke the last words of the death sentence, the bell of a nearby church struck the hour of noon, and was answered by the clock in the court room.

Was just at 12 o'clock when Frank finished his statement to the jury, which found him guilty, and as he spoke the last word of that extraordinary ritual today the same church bell rang out the sentence of death shall be carried out.

The judge rose and stepped into his anteroom.

The sheriff rose with a gesture to Frank, he followed, the deputies fell in behind, and they walked out through the door by which they had entered.

HIGH HONOR IS CONFERRED ON HERRICK BY FRANCE

Grand Cross of Legion of Honor Is Given Retiring Ambassador

(By Associated Press.)
NE YORK, Dec. 8.—The grand cross of the Legion of Honor is on its way from the president of France to Myron T. Herrick, in recognition of Mr. Herrick's services to the French people while ambassador to Paris. Mr. Herrick was decorated yesterday with a red ribbon, emblematic of the cross, by the captain of the steamship Rochembeault, acting on wireless orders from the French ambassador at Washington, who said he was acting under instructions of President Poincaré.

The decoration was placed on Mr. Herrick's coat as soon as the steamer reached the transatlantic dock.

The Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor is the highest honor the French government can bestow. There are, including Mr. Herrick, only forty-five living persons who have been thus decorated.

FIGHT FOR LITTLE BOY IS WAGED IN COURT
Centering around a sturdy, red-checked, brown-eyed boy of six, contempt of court proceedings, brought by Mrs. Little Miss Riley, against Mr. Riley, county policeman, began Wednesday in the superior court before Judge Pendleton.

Marion is the name of the boy. All during the morning, waiting for the case to be called, the lad sat outside the court house, waiting for his father.

When asked he went to leave his father, Marion fought tighter, and cried, "No, sir! No, sir! No, sir!"

It is this attitude on the boy's part that is the cause of the trouble. Mrs. Riley, who is getting $25 a month alimony and who is suing for divorce, was granted the possession of Marion for three months, alternating with the custody of the boy. The husband's three months ended September 26, but the boy is still with him.

The mother charges the father with contempt of court in not surrendering the child to her; the father answers that he cannot make the boy go to her without whipping him, and quotes Judge Hill as authority that he is not forced to whip Marion.

The case will probably be finished Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Paul L. Bartling, representing Mr. Riley, while Frank Harrison and Attorney Miller represent Mrs. Riley.
