"BLIND TIGER" REPORTED FOUND IN BARBER SHOP

S. N. Williams, Proprietor,
Arrested in Raid by County
Police Wednesday Night

County policeman Wednesday night raided the barber shop and dressing room of S. N. Williams, near the National Bank, and arrested the proprietor and his assistant, and confiscated a quantity of bottles of whiskey which they will show in court as evidence that Williams was running a "blind tiger." Officers Davis and Carroll, looking through the window of the shop about 10 o'clock, saw Williams sell a pint of liquor to a young white man for 75 cents, they say. They entered the shop and after a search discovered two pints under the ice box in the pressing club and four pints concealed in a "phony" safe beneath a table.

Williams' bond was placed at $500, and several witnesses were summoned to appear when the case is tried before Judge Andy Calhoun next week.

GLOBE CLOTHING COMPANY BOOKKEEPER IS MARRIED

A. L. Brannen and Miss Alice
Snodgrass Surprise
Many Friends

When A. L. Brannen, who is bookkeeper for the Globe Clothing company, entered the store Thursday, he wore an embarrassed smile which a man always don when he has done something of which, secretly, he is enormously proud, but which he knows his friends are going to kid him about.

"Well, boys," he said, "I got married yesterday. I am surprised, very, very surprised. I followed one after the other, and the story was told. Mr. Brannen had arranged a meeting with Miss Alice Snodgrass, of Lawton street, West End, for Wednesday afternoon. Together they went to the home of Dr. W. H. Bond, pastor of the First Baptist church. There the ceremony was performed, and now they are at home to their friends at 515 Oak street.

CHOIR OF ALL SAINTS REHEARSES FOR CHRISTMAS

In preparation for their Christmas performance, the choir of All Saints Episcopal church is rehearsing twice each week—Wednesday and Friday night. Choirmaster William E. Arnold is choosing the music in a number of Christmas anthems and cantatas which have never before been given in Atlanta. From these a selection will be made for the Christmas service. The others will be sung at the vesper service held each Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

COLLEGE PARK LODGE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

College Park lodge, No. 234, International Order of Odd Fellows, held an enthusiastic meeting at their quarters Tuesday night, and the following were elected officers for the coming term: W. H. Fitzpatrick, noble grand; H. J. Quinn, vice grand; H. W. Fitzpatrick, secretary; and G. F. Longene, Jr., treasurer. The new officers will assume their duties January 1.

THEATERS

There is something wonderfully sensational in the disappearing divers who are the feature of the big "Nautilus" Garden of Living Statues; the headlines act at the Forsyth this week. There are ten pretty girls who pose as the statues and who turn to life at the sound of a voice. One by one, at intervals, they dive into the "enchanted pool," and when they return to the surface after a quarter of an hour apparently under water, they have been transformed from marble statues to maidens in modern attire.

Little Emma Denting is drawing big attendance at the Lyric and her first week of the two weeks engagement will show figures that are surprising. Miss Denting is playing "What Happened to Mary," a play taken from the story that appeared in one of the leading magazines. Her second and last week will be devoted to the presentation of "The Storm Country," the play written for her by Rupert Hughes and originally presented at the Lyric.

The appearance of Maude Adams is always made interesting by the importance of her offerings. Of late years she has devoted herself almost exclusively to the presentation of plays by the gifted Scotch author, J. M. Barrie, and her success in them is a matter of theatrical history. When she comes forward at the Atlanta Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with a Wednesday matinee, it will be in a bill made up of two plays that bear Barrie's name. The first and most important of these, and the first long play from the pen of its author in some time, is "The Legend of Lovers." This work has had a long run in New York and shows Barrie in a new and delightful mood. The role is one of the best that Miss Adams has had. The play is in three acts and will open the bill. "The Ladies' Choice" is in one act and contains three scenes. It calls for a large cast. On this program the play is described as "being one woman's reading of a notorious work edited by J. M. Barrie." The play is based on one of Shakespeare's most popular comedies, and presumably Barrie has rewritten it as the ladies of today would have it. Seats on sale now.

There could be no more welcome announcement for the amusement-loving public than the appearance here of "The Old Homestead" at the Atlanta Thursday, Friday and Saturday with a Saturday matinee. The dear old pastoral play itself is by this time so familiar to everyone that any attempt to describe it would be supererogation. The mere mention of the names of Joshua, Whitcomb, Cy Prime, Seth Perkins, Aunt Matilda and Betsy Ann, is sufficient to bring to mind all of these delightful rural characters, and at the same time arise in the background the pictures of the old farm.

Important---

In this Suit Sale tomorrow none of these Suits will be sent C. O. D., none on approval, none charged, no mail orders, none to employees—all caused by the enormous sacrifice in the prices. TEARS FLOW AS PARENTS WAGE FIGHT FOR CHILD

Judge Pendleton Decides
Marion Riley Must Divide Time
With Mother and Father

The man and woman concerned in a case that does not make any difference to them as they are grown and can look out for themselves. But it hurts them when a little child is involved. I can't stand it. The child bears the brunt of it all and suffering—and this is not right," said Judge Pendleton, of the superior court, Thursday morning.

A case involving the possession of Marion Riley, a six-year-old boy, was heard by the judge. Disputing decisions of the court, Judge Pendleton decided the child should be divided between the mother and father.

A Riley, a county policeman, a man well known and liked around the city, was called to keep his son, Marion, Mrs. Little Mae Riley, the boy's mother, who is residing at the home of her father and who is suing for all time, claimed Marion under a court order.

Before Pendleton, during the trial, and after the trial, the boy, a sturdy little fellow, was called to the judge's side. Judge Pendleton's opinion, kept back his tears as he was called to the judge's side. He was called to the judge's side for a heart to heart talk. There he was when told he must leave his home.

Staying in the witness stand near the judge, Mr. Riley, in tears, endeavored to get the first time in months.

Out in the court room the mother, in tears, said she had been sitting, kept control of his feelings until the boy ran out and hugged him around the neck, saying, "I don't want to leave my mother." The self-control of the boy was evident, and he sobbed openly and unashamedly, holding his son as if he were his own.

Judge Pendleton at length ordered the boy to be divided between the mother and father, separated from his mother and to live with his father.

At the end of these three months, the boy was to be divided between the mother and father, separated from his mother and to live with his father.

GIVING PERSONAL ENGRAVED XMAS CARDS

ARTISTIC HOG AND HOMINY DISPLAY.

Among the many artistic window displays last week for the hog and hominy carnival, none attracted more attention than a window in Cone's drug store on West Peachtree street, a picture of which is shown above.

The decorations consisted chiefly of hogs and hominy. The hogs were of various sizes and colors, and the hominy was arranged in a most artistic manner.

Thirteen reported holdups and burglaries kept police on the jump.

Thirteen reported holdups, robberies and burglaries kept the police searching for the criminals.

Alderman Elmer Edgar Dunlap, 1937 Fonce de Leon avenue, reported a burglary was in his bedroom Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Dunlap, whose wife was ill in another room under the care of a trained nurse, was awakened by a person in the room.

"Who's there?" he called.

The burglar, supposed to be a negro man, fled out of the room and down the stairs, making his exit by a rear window. The police found two pairs of children's trousers, belonging to Mr. Dunlap's boys, and twenty cigars were missing.

N. A. Moore, 127 Richardson street, reported that burglars broke down the back door of his home Wednesday evening while everyone was out, and stole two gold rings, a bracelet and some valuable old coins.

Nick Theodore, 162 East Harris street, reported he was held up Tuesday night near his home. The robber took his watch, chain and chain, and some money.

A gold bracelet and a revolver were reported stolen from the home of Lee Shields, 40 North Boulevard.

Twenty-seven dollars in cash was stolen by burglars from the register of Rogers grocery store, 305 Fonce de Leon avenue.

Seven dollars and a large quantity of linen was taken by burglars from the home of Mrs. R. A. Malone, 124 Courtland street.

M. M. Duncan, 35 1-2 West Alabama street, reported his Ford automobile had been stolen.

John Ben H. Hill, of the Fulton superior court, reported his machine had been robbed of two new tires.

One burglar failed to bring home the bacon. Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, 245 East Pine street, alone in her home Wednesday night, heard the burglar breaking into the house. She telephoned the police. The thief, evidently hearing the summons for the officers, changed his mind and did not enter the house.

Other minor burglaries were also reported.

Asbury Park Woman Had
Complete Nervous Breakdown—Restored to Health
by Vinol

Asbury Park, N. J.—"I was in such a nervous, weak, sleep-disturbed condition that I could not sleep nights, every little thing disturbed me, my appetite was very poor, and I was losing flesh. I was so nervous at times that I used to have fits and hysterics. I got my housework for a family of four, and they became alarmed at my condition. I tried tea, wine and cod liver oil emulsion without benefit. One day my doctor suggested that I try Vinol and told me how it had helped others. I did so, and it has simply done wonders for me. I am a well woman and entirely free of my nervousness."—Mrs. Katharine E. Klein, Asbury Park, N. J.

Such reliable testimony should convince others of the value of Vinol. If you are worn out, weak and nervous, and want your strength and more vitality, we ask you to take Vinol. It will help you to sleep, and if it fails to benefit you, we will give you your money.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy for all weak, nervous and run-down conditions of men, women and children.

LUMBER MANUFACTURERS FIGHTING FREIGHT RATES

Complaint Against Railroads
Is Heard Thursday by Special
Examiner Watkins

A freight rate only 3 cents a hundred more than the lumber rate on carload shipments is asked of the railroads by the Yellow Pine Lumber, Door and Blind Manufacturers' association and allied building industries of the north in their petition which is being heard today Thursday by Edgar Watkins, special examiner of the interstate commerce commission.

The manufacturers were heard Thursday, with the probability that the hearing would last through the day. The railroads will be heard following the manufacturers.

At points north of the Ohio and west of the Mississippi river the railroads charge a rate of only 2 to 3 cents in excess of the lumber rate in the territory south and east of the river they charge a rate twice and four times as great.

W. S. Watts, representing the Freight Agents and Adjustment company, of Washington, which is pushing the manufacturers' claim, says that outside of the south the maximum rate is only 3 cents above the lumber rate. He also asserts that the present rate in the south had been in force for thirty years.

R. F. Dalton, president of the Lumber company, of High Point, N. C., testified that the rate had resulted in his business being confined almost entirely to North Carolina, and William M. Otis, a Columbia manufacturer, showed a similar experience in his state.

Hundreds of people stopped to admire the window and R. H. Cone, the proprietor of the two Cone drug stores, received many compliments on it.

trying pan, succulent pork chops, all pork sausage in large round cakes, etc. The "piece de resistance" was a mouth-watering pie and beer young at dinner time, really molded out of Norfolk chocolate.

Thirteen reported holdups, robberies and burglaries kept the police searching for the criminals.

Alderman Elmer Edgar Dunlap, 1937 Fonce de Leon avenue, reported a burglary was in his bedroom Thursday morning at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Dunlap, whose wife was ill in another room under the care of a trained nurse, was awakened by a person in the room.

"Who's there?" he called.

The burglar, supposed to be a negro man, fled out of the room and down the stairs, making his exit by a rear window. The police found two pairs of children's trousers, belonging to Mr. Dunlap's boys, and twenty cigars were missing.

N. A. Moore, 127 Richardson street, reported that burglars broke down the back door of his home Wednesday evening while everyone was out, and stole two gold rings, a bracelet and some valuable old coins.

Nick Theodore, 162 East Harris street, reported he was held up Tuesday night near his home. The robber took his watch, chain and chain, and some money.

A gold bracelet and a revolver were reported stolen from the home of Lee Shields, 40 North Boulevard.

Twenty-seven dollars in cash was stolen by burglars from the register of Rogers grocery store, 305 Fonce de Leon avenue.

Seven dollars and a large quantity of linen was taken by burglars from the home of Mrs. R. A. Malone, 124 Courtland street.

M. M. Duncan, 35 1-2 West Alabama street, reported his Ford automobile had been stolen.

John Ben H. Hill, of the Fulton superior court, reported his machine had been robbed of two new tires.

One burglar failed to bring home the bacon. Mrs. W. A. Woodruff, 245 East Pine street, alone in her home Wednesday night, heard the burglar breaking into the house. She telephoned the police. The thief, evidently hearing the summons for the officers, changed his mind and did not enter the house.

Other minor burglaries were also reported.

HAD HYSTERICS AND FADING SPELLS

Asbury Park Woman Had
Complete Nervous Breakdown—Restored to Health
by Vinol

Asbury Park, N. J.—"I was in such a nervous, weak, sleep-disturbed condition that I could not sleep nights, every little thing disturbed me, my appetite was very poor, and I was losing flesh. I was so nervous at times that I used to have fits and hysterics. I got my housework for a family of four, and they became alarmed at my condition. I tried tea, wine and cod liver oil emulsion without benefit. One day my doctor suggested that I try Vinol and told me how it had helped others. I did so, and it has simply done wonders for me. I am a well woman and entirely free of my nervousness."—Mrs. Katharine E. Klein, Asbury Park, N. J.

Such reliable testimony should convince others of the value of Vinol. If you are worn out, weak and nervous, and want your strength and more vitality, we ask you to take Vinol. It will help you to sleep, and if it fails to benefit you, we will give you your money.

Vinol is a constitutional remedy for all weak, nervous and run-down conditions of men, women and children.

"THE SPOILERS" DRAWS BIG CROWD TO GRAND

Rex Beach's Stirring Novel Is Cleverly Presented in Motion Pictures

"The Spoilers," by Rex Beach, was shown at the Grand theater this afternoon to crowded houses. It will be repeated tonight, Friday and Saturday matinees and evenings. William Farnum, brother of Dustin Farnum, has the leading role. It is supported by an unusually strong company.

Rex Beach sat in the audience when these stirring motion pictures of his famous novel were first shown in New York and he expressed amazement at their remarkable fidelity and truthfulness to the life pictured in his book.

The fight between Farnum and the "villain," which comes as a climax to one of the reels, is considered the most exciting and hardest fought battle with nets ever shown on a picture screen. Fifty cents at matinees for all seats and 10 cents in the evening.

One of the Most Helpful "Gift Centers"—

The Gift Furniture Section

Arranged for your convenience in the first floor of the Furniture Store is a display of small and separate pieces of furniture that, women tell us, is one of the most helpful things we have done this Christmas season.

It is giftable and receivable furniture; giftable in that it is inexpensive and artistic and fine; receivable in that it is serviceable and artistic and fine.

You may spend an interesting half hour looking about—at the nests of tables, the book racks, the rockers, the chairs, the desks, the taboretts, the cellophane, the smoking stands and the cedar and matting chests.

Dinner to Visitors

A pretty compliment to Dr. and Mrs. William A. Evans, of Chicago, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Osgood, was the dinner given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Woods White at their home on Howard street.
The center decoration of the table was a large basket of pink anemones, containing, encircled by a design etched in enamel on the handsome table cover of Mexican lace and embroidery. The place of six guests were indicated by cards bearing hand-painted Japanese scenes.
Mrs. White was crowned in brocade and in white with coverage embroidered in crystals and jet.

New Treatment for Bronchitis

Asthma, Catarrh and Head Colds

Vick's Vapo-O-Rub Group and Pneumonia Salve Relieves by Inhalation and Absorption. No Dosing.

When Vick's "Vapo-O-Rub" Group and Pneumonia Salve is applied externally, the body warmth releases vapors of Pine Tar, Eucalyptus, Thymol, Menthol, and Eucalyptol. These vapors are inhaled direct in the lungs and air passages where internal medicines can not go. You loosen the phlegm, open the air passages and stimulate the mucous membrane to throw off the disease germs. For catarrh and head colds, a little in a spoon and inhale the vapors, also apply well on the nostrils. For asthma and hay fever follow the instructions given above and also rub Vick's well over the spinal column, thus relaxing the nervous tension. Vick's is not a "cure" for these diseases, but it

Club Women Conduct Campaign for Selling Red Cross Seals

The approach of winter heralded by the snap and tang in the air which marked Thursday lent an added impetus to the campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals which commenced in the early morning and continued through the day.
The Atlanta Woman's club had charge Thursday and at the street corners and each store could be seen hands of eager workers assisting in the disposal of the seals. Mrs. Hugh Willett acted as the chairman of the day and was assisted by Mrs. P. J. McGovern, president of the Atlanta Woman's club and Mrs. Irving S. Thomas, chairman of the Child Welfare committee.

A volunteer army of young girls all deeply interested in their assistance and with each seal pinned the tiny red cross on the purchaser which is the symbol of the fight being waged in Atlanta by the Anti-Tuberculosis society.

Merry bands of school children also assisted in the afternoon and stood at the street corners offering the stamps with the face of Jolly St. Nicholas radiating good cheer to the passers by.

In Savannah the use of the Red Cross seal instead of the usual gold stars or punches marked a recent innovation in several of the large bridge parties of the season.

The street sale will continue for one week and all organizations in the city have joined in the nation-wide campaign being waged for the relief of suffering humanity.
Headquarters of the stamp campaigners have been moved from the Gould building to the parlor of the Piedmont, where George A. Simms, general manager of the crusade, is in command. It is planned to sell in Atlanta between now and Christmas approximately 1,000,000 of the Red Cross stamps. Red Cross boots are to be established at principal street corners, at the railroad stations, in the hotel lobbies and shops and at the chamber of commerce building.

The tea dance at the Piedmont club Wednesday afternoon, assembled a large number of the club members and their friends and many of the bright parties were given in honor of the attractive visiting girls who have added to the pleasure of the social parties of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arkwright

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Arkwright will entertain at a buffet supper Tuesday, December 22, at their home in Druid Hills, in honor of Miss Louise Broyles, Miss Isabelle Campbell, Miss Josephine Mobley and Miss Helen McCarry.

To Miss Grant

Mrs. William D. Grant will be hostess at a luncheon Friday, January 1, at the Piedmont club in compliance to her granddaughter, Miss Margaret Grant, and her house party guests.

MISS HORINE PRESENTED AT AFTERNOON RECEPTION

The beautiful reception at which Mrs. Edward M. Horine and Mrs. E. Lee Worsham entertained Thursday afternoon at the Piedmont club, marked the occasion of Miss Horine's debut. A formal presentation to society.

The attractive young debutante, with her mother and sister, stood to receive the guests in the ball room where the rich color scheme of red, green and gold, in elaborate and artistic detail the appeal of the glad Yuletide scene. Festoons of similar hues hung from the ceiling and entwined the white columns around the length of the spacious hall. Holly wreaths brilliant with red berries and caught with satin were shown in charming relief against the background of densely grouped palms and ferns which lined the walls of the loggia and were banded against the large open fireplace at the end of the ball room.

Valvet polonaises in glowing crimson tones were arranged by a stringed orchestra in the great crystal chandeliers were sprays of mistletoe whose pearls and berries shone in the reflected lights.

A mural decoration of amilies and southern bamboo interpreted the brilliant bohemian scheme completed by a handsome gown of white lace over a beautiful minimal program was rendered by a stringed orchestra concealed in a tower of palms and ferns.

At the end of the hour a group of married friends of the hostesses of the lovely occasion. A housewife was a handsome gown of white lace over a foundation of soft white satin.

Mrs. Worsham was wearing in white dress with embroidered in pearls and gracefully draped in white tulle. Miss Horine's initial costume was fashioned of soft white chiffon with overdraperies of white satin embroidered in threads of silver and gold. She held an arm bouquet of delicate pink roses and surrounded by young debutantes were many beautiful gift bouquets and flower-filled baskets sent as tributes to the young housewife.

The supper dance to follow the reception at which will be entertained the season's debutantes and the members of the younger set will be a brilliant event of the evening. Dancing will precede supper which will be served at 11 o'clock.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The market opened a shade higher on scattered buying by commission houses, but later reacted under selling for long account, induced by expectation of a bearish cotton report and with the decline in lard. Sometimes came out last night at 87 and 87½, but mills generally are holding for higher prices.

COTTON DECLINED ON BIG CROP ESTIMATE

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 10.—Although apparently pointing to the largest crop of cotton in record, the government estimate of the yield this afternoon caused only moderate decline in the price of futures here, the most active months losing 17 to 18 points in the first half hour after the report came out.

Traders quite generally figured that the estimate indicated a commercial crop of from 36,000,000 to 38,000,000 bales, as against the estimated crop of 35,000,000 in 1911. Making allowance for the fact that the estimate pointed to a commercial crop which included

The estimate was far above average expectations. In both New Orleans and New York the brokers had their usual pools on the estimate and the average guess of 42 brokers here was only 13,548,942 bales, while the average of 25 brokers in New York was 15,400,000.

POLICE BOARD CENSURE IS NOT PROBABLE NOW

Reversed Attitude Toward Chief May Cause Council to Reconsider

That the mayor's veto of the resolution of censure for the board of police commissioners will be sustained by the general council Thursday afternoon, even leaders of the opposition to the mayor's veto.

The veto message was tabled last Monday on the motion of councilmen who will vote to override the veto, and they declared the delay in action on the paper was planned for "strategic" reasons.

The strategy was the giving of an opportunity to the police board to reconsider its action of last month's meeting in putting three superintendents on the force without the recommendation of the chief.

While the action was not rescinded, politicians favoring the resolution say the move has been partially successful since at Tuesday's meeting the police board displayed an extremely mild manner toward Chief Rogers and did not exclude him from the executive session as they did at the previous meeting when three superintendents were placed on the force over the chief's head.
