GERMAN CRUISER IS REPORTED SHOT OFF COAST OF SCOTLAND

Two British Destroyers Are Also Reported Damaged and Limping Into Leith, Scotland - Not Confirmed

FIERCE FIGHTING GOING ON IN BELGIUM NOW

Both Sides Claiming Advances in Flanders - Russians Are Offering Determined Resistance in Poland

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Dec. 21.—Persistent rumors are current that a German cruiser has been sunk off the coast of Scotland. It is also rumored that two British destroyers arrived at Leith, Scotland, yesterday damaged.

There is no official confirmation of these reports.

Hardest fighting in the west since the German offensive was launched in the English channel is now going on in Flanders and German statements today show that yesterday's engagements were contested keenly along the front from Alsace to Flanders, and on each side claims are made of the capture of trenches and other important positions.

The German war office gave out what was described as a French army order, signed by General Joffre and found on the bodies of a French soldier, calling for a general attack on the Germans. The order recited that heavy reinforcements had been received by the allies and "it is now our business to clear the way of the invaders."

In Poland the Russians are offering determined resistance to the German advance which are advancing on Warsaw. Less than thirty miles from the city one of the most stubbornly contested battles of the campaign is still in progress, the Russians for three days having held in check the German columns which are seeking to force a passage across the Bzura river.

Emperor William's departure for the front, announced yesterday, was said to have been decided upon against the advice of his physician, notwithstanding the statement in Berlin that the emperor desires to spend Christmas with his troops.

A killed fife is reported to have begun a bombardment of the Dardanelles yesterday. Today the British are serving with the colors are returning to the sea.

It is reported that the British have threatened a rupture of diplomatic relations with Turkey unless a satisfactory explanation is made of the threatening attitude of the Turkish fleet in the Aegean Sea.

In the Wake Of the War With Corey

Christmas in the trenches will not be so bad, says Mr. Corey in his letter today. The Christmas presents for soldiers are swamping the war departments, and the folk at home are denying themselves to send bits of plum pudding to the men at the front.

BY HERBERT COREY.
(Copyright, 1914, by Herbert Corey.)
LONDON, Dec. 21.—It is rather a pity that Sergeant Ogilvy, of one of the Highland regiments, is so near inarticulate. With all the will in the world he was unable to tell his story. He stood upon one long Scotch leg after the other, and again a Scotch leg answer in monosyllables. Still, he managed to extricate one important statement from his incoherent babble. "Me," he said to the man he met at Oxford street, "me, I'm Santa Claus."

In one hand he held a long list of addresses. In unsteady rattling on a dirty slip of paper. The names seemed to be mostly those of children. The rest were those of women. Sergeant Ogilvy said that his spouse—that furry bag which hangs from his Highland center—was "just jinglin' with shillies." He had been empowered by the mates he left behind in the trenches to buy what he would for the kiddies' Christmas.

"Nothing green," he said, "but so they wouldna think Santa had forgotten the wee bairns."

That was three weeks ago. As soon as Ogilvy had concluded this bit of wobble he was back for the line, in France as "puddin' tender." When he reached that particular place on the line where his regiment in fighting he would be charged with the duty of getting to men the plum pudding and the goodies which have been sent to them by England and by their friends. He thought that Christmas day would probably be like every other day. Fighting would be on as usual.

"We canna spare time from the job," Ogilvy said, "Christmas night will be very pleasant."

He didn't know, of course—not being a prophet—just what might happen Christmas day. But he knew that the men were counting on a celebration on Christmas night. They all realized that it would be impossible to take "lime off" the line on that day. Just as matters must be killed on that day. The commanders of neither side would consent to a truce. He doubted if the men would fight as hard as on other days.

EXTRA POLICEMEN WILL WORK DURING HOLIDAYS

All Parts of City Will Be Patrolled, Including Remote Sections

Beginning Monday night and continuing through the Christmas holidays the residence sections of the city will be patrolled by an increased force of policemen. Thirty-four additional officers will be on duty every night between the hours of 8 p. m. and 4 a. m. and it is expected that there will immediately be a great decrease in the number of burglaries and hold-ups.

"The thirty-four men, comprising twenty-three supernumerary policemen and eleven members of the regular force, will be apportioned to the residence sections of the various wards. The apportionment has been made by Captain W. M. Mayo, who said:

"Policemen will be seen in Atlanta tonight where they have never been seen before. I believe that with the addition of the twenty-three supernumeraries to the force for holiday residence sections during the night hours, the force will be sufficient to keep down crime in Atlanta. I look for fewer highway robberies and burglaries than in the past few weeks."

The first ward will have four policemen, instead of only two, as heretofore. Ansley Park will have two special policemen assigned to patrol duty there, where heretofore this resident section of the city has been left unguarded. Druid Hills will have six policemen, instead of only two.

The patrol of the second ward has been increased by four policemen, making a total of four; the third ward, increased by four, making a total of six; the fourth ward by four, making six; the fifth ward by four, making six; the sixth ward by four, making six; the seventh ward by one, making three; the eighth ward by four, making six; and the ninth ward has been increased by four, making a total of eight policemen. There has been no increase

Mercury Is Expected To Go Below Freezing On Longest Night

Monday is the shortest day of the year. Daylight dawned just the fraction of a second later than on any of the other 364 days, twilight will creep down a bit sooner than it did on Sunday or will on Tuesday. From now on the days will lengthen, but so gradually that it will be imperceptible.

Fog and mist are adding in making Monday seem shorter than even the shortest day warranted. The murky weather which caused the lights of the Great White Way to burn as early as 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, increased if anything in thickness; but C. F. von Hermann, the weather man, said that he has a prediction of clearer Tuesday.

"It's unsettled all over the country," he said, "but I think the bad weather will lessen Monday night, the longest night of the year, and the mercury will drop, probably below freezing. Of course, it's still rather early to make a Christmas prediction; but conditions are favorable for fine weather Friday."

SAMUEL M. INMAN IS TAKEN TO OWN HOME

Samuel M. Inman, whose recent nervousness at the home of his son, Frank M. Inman, 1609 Peachtree road, has been the source of concern to his many friends, was so improved Sunday that he was removed to his own home, 552 Peachtree street.

Fire Damages Roof
While the family of M. B. Grant, 65 Arizona avenue, were at breakfast Monday morning, fire, thought to have been caused by a defective fan, blazed out on the roof. The department was called and the flames extinguished. The roof was damaged to the extent of about $1,200.

In the patrol of two policemen in the Tenth ward, as in this section, Captain Mayo states, there has been very little crime.

MAYOR'S ATTITUDE KILLS INTEREST IN BOND PLAN

To Be Presented to Council Monday Afternoon for a Formal Vote

The ordinance to call a $2,000,000 bond election on March 3 will be presented to the city council Monday afternoon. Interest in the fight for bonds, however, has waned since Mayor James G. Woodard has said he knows that he will not approve a bond ordinance drafted by this year's council.

Several objections to the plan have been advanced by the mayor. First, he says he doubts the legality of the 1914 council calling an election in 1915. Second, he considers that the council, which calls the election, should also supervise the spending of the money derived from the probable issue. Third, he says the matter could be handled at most as quickly by the 1915 council if it favors a bond election.

As a result of the mayor's attitude the action of council Monday afternoon on the bond question will be comparatively unimportant, after there is practically no chance of this year's council, at its final meeting on the first Monday in January, overriding an executive veto.

TWO MURDER CASES ON CALL AT DOTHAN

BOY INJURED WHEN AUTO SKIDS AND HITS CAR

Young Macon Lad Redelives Very Painful Cut on Forehead

Robert Dixon, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dixon, of Macon, received a painful cut on the forehead, when the automobile of his uncle, W. J. Dabney, of the Dabney Implement company, skidded on the slippery pavement and struck a trolley car.

The accident occurred about 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon at Broad and Hunter streets. According to Mrs. Dabney, who was in the machine, the negro chauffeur to avoid striking a car turning into Broad applied his brakes and the car skidded, striking the side of another trolley. The auto, she says, was not going faster than five miles an hour.

In the car was the chauffeur and five passengers, including Mrs. Dixon, who is visiting Mrs. Dabney. Robert Dixon was rushed in the machine, which was only slightly damaged, to the Grady hospital, where his hurt was dressed, and then he was carried to the Dabney residence at Decatur. While the cut across the forehead is deep and painful, it is not thought to be serious.

There will be three boxing bouts and a battle royal, with Lou Castro acting as referee. In the main bout will be seen Jimmie Pappas, the local lad, who put up a good fight against Ed Herrmann, of New Orleans, recently. He will be matched with another good boy. SICK WIFE NOT TOLD OF HUSBAND'S DEATH

Doctors Fear Shock of W. D. Owens' Death Would Be Too Great for Widow

Fearing the shock would be too great, physicians of Mrs. Lucy Candler Owens, the only daughter of Asa O. Candler, have ordered that she be kept in ignorance of the fact that her husband, William D. Owens, died Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock.

This order has been carried out to the letter, and Mrs. Owens still believed her husband living Monday. Mrs. Owens is 21 with typhoid fever. Mr. Owens died of typhoid pneumonia, contracted while his wife was ill.

The funeral of Mr. Owens, who was cashier of the Central Bank and Trust corporation for years, will be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the home of Asa O. Candler, 22 Elizabeth street. Bishop Warren A. Candler, uncle of Mrs. Owens, will conduct the services. The body will be placed in a temporary resting vault. The service will be private.

Mrs. Owens, a woman of widespread popularity and of marked business and banking ability, came to Atlanta when twenty years old, from her home in Nassau county, Florida. He became acquainted with the Central bank as assistant cashier, and later was promoted to cashier, a position which he held until, during the great panic of 1907, he was a member of the board of directors of the bank, up to the time of his death.

Mrs. Owens was married to Miss Lucy Candler, only daughter of Asa O. Candler, niece of Judge John S. Candler and Bishop Warren A. Candler.

Besides his widow, two children survive Mr. Owens—Lucy, eleven years old, and William D. Owens, Jr., three years old. Mr. Owens also survived by his mother, who was at his bedside when he died, three brothers, Mr. S. Owens, Linton Owens and Milton Owens, all of Florida, two sisters, Mrs. D. H. Williams, of Ty Ty, Ga., and Mrs. Wilson Callahan, of Florida.

At noon Monday the doors of the Central Bank and Trust corporation closed out of respect to the memory of Mr. Owens.

FLAMES DESTROY HOME OF MRS. G. B. ADAIR
Former Atlanta Woman Near Death in Incendiary Fire
Near Washington

Atlanta friends and relatives will be shocked to learn of the supposedly incendiary fire which destroyed early Monday morning the magnificent home of Mrs. G. B. Adair, near Washington.

Mrs. Adair, according to accounts to neighbors, was on the first floor when the flames broke out. The flames had consumed the staircase to the ground, and she was in a perilous position. Mrs. Adair, however, was rescued by her son, Green B. Adair, and Spencer Adair, crawled through the back windows and brought the mother to safety.

Following the death of G. B. Adair, the home was sold. The home was moved from Atlanta to Wilkes county, near Washington, eight months ago. They purchased the old station estate, and spent much money in improving and renovating the house.

Dispatches from Washington Monday said that two negroes, recently discovered by the Adairs, were arrested Sunday afternoon and placed in jail.

Called by Death

WILLIAM D. OWENS,

REV. R. J. WILLINGHAM
IS DEAD IN RICHMOND

Apoplexy Fatal to Aged Secretary of Baptist Foreign Mission Board

(By Associated Press.)
—RICHMOND, Va., Dec. 21.—Rev. Robert J. Willingham, D. D., general secretary of the foreign mission board of the Southern Baptist convention, died here Sunday after having been stricken with apoplexy two hours before while on his way home from church services. He was sixty years old.

Dr. Willingham was widely known in church circles throughout the country. He became secretary of the foreign mission board of his church in 1891 and for several years had lived in Richmond. He was educated at the University of Georgia and the Southern Theological seminary at Louisville, Ky.

The minister was born in Deaford District, South Carolina. He is survived by his wife, who was Cornelia Bacon, of Macon, Ga., five sons and four daughters. Dr. Willingham had served as pastor of churches in Tallapoosa, Ga., Chattanooga, Tenn., and Memphis, Tenn.

REV. JOHN S. CALLAWAY IS CALLED BY DEATH

Well-Known Baptist Minister Succumbs at Age of 77 Years

Rev. John Sanders Callaway, for fifty years a minister of the Baptist church, died at the home of John Cox, at Carter's Grove, Ga., Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock. He was seventy-seven years old.

Perhaps no preacher in the state was more generally known and widely loved than Dr. Callaway. He is said to have married more couples and baptized more persons than any other man in Georgia. More than 100 couples in the city of Atlanta alone have been started on their journey together through life with the benediction of Dr. Callaway.

Immediately after the Civil war, throughout which he served as a member of Longstreet's famous brigade, Dr. Callaway entered the Baptist ministry. For several years he was a professor at Mercer university, then situated at Penfield, Ga., his home.

He had been pastor of the Bethesda Baptist church since his ordination fifty years ago. He was also pastor of three other churches, the Penfield Baptist church, the Carter's Grove church and the County Line Baptist church.

He was an uncle of M. L. Brittain, state school commissioner, and of W. H. Brittain, president of the J. M. High company. Surviving him are his wife and eight children: R. M. and W. R. Callaway, of Atlanta; B. H. and J. E. Callaway, Jr., of Bremen, Ga.; Mrs. J. P. Waldron, of Athens, Ga.; Mrs. T. E. Brown, of Bremen, Ga.; Mrs. J. C. Howell, of Penfield, and Mrs. Ben Drake, of Union Point, Ga. He also leaves a number of relatives in LaGrange, Ga.

The funeral will be held from the old Mercer chapel at Penfield, Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. C. A. Owens, of Humboldt, Tenn., will officiate in services in compliance with the expressed wish of Dr. Callaway. Interment will be in the Penfield cemetery.

SWELL CHARITY FUND

Performances at Grand and Forsyth Theaters Prove Wonderful Success

All Atlanta records for benefit shows were surpassed Sunday by the two performances given by the Atlanta Moving Picture Trades Club at the Forsyth and Grand theaters.

More than $100 was obtained through voluntary contributions, according to Joseph L. Marcantelle, chairman of the committee on arrangements. This is said to be more than was ever taken in at any similar charity performance.

All of this money will be applied to giving Christmas cheer to Atlanta's poor and needy. The committee has completed with Associated Charities and the city welfare office to secure a list of needy poor folk, and hundreds will be given food and clothing.

It seemed as though all Atlanta swarmed to the Grand and Forsyth theaters Sunday night. The audience was estimated at 10,000. The rain and the fog there was a continual stream of people passing through the doors of the two theaters, with many more standing in the lobbies waiting for their turn.

And it was worth it. Never were such motion pictures shown in Atlanta before. They were all first-run films and each selected with a view to giving the best the screen world offers. The crowd thoroughly enjoyed all the pictures, not one of which was shown twice.

The vaudeville acts were also of first-class caliber. At the Forsyth, Frank W. Joe Mullin, Leighton Brown, Charles Raymond, Aurelia Howard, William Shale and Charles Johnson put on a bill that was worthy of the biggest "big line."

At the Grand there was another equally as good, with Mrs. Frank Pearson, Terie and King, Jack Lamey, Joe Lombardi, Alex Sater and his sister, Lou and Bates, Kitcher and Browning, the Gullagher company, the O'Neals, the Lench trio, the Harmony True Quartet, and others furnishing the entertainment.

Mr. Marcantelle said Monday that the show was the most successful of its kind ever staged in Atlanta. He wished to extend the heartiest thanks to Hugh Hudson and John Wells for the use of the Forsyth; to Arthur Hyman and Phil Harbison for the Grand; to the Greenwood Theatrical agency and all the vaudeville performers; to the musicians, the ushers, the stage hands and everybody who so willingly contributed to the success of the day.

USEFULNESS AND BEAUTY

At the Grand there was another equally as good, with Mrs. Frank Pearson, Terie and King, Jack Lamey, Joe Lombardi, Alex Sater and his sister, Lou and Bates, Kitcher and Browning, the Gullagher company, the O'Neals, the Lench trio, the Harmony True Quartet, and others furnishing the entertainment.

GERMAN LADS WANT TO FIGHT FOR FATHERLAND

Broke, They Start on Long Hike From Atlanta to New York

Declaring their one desire was to fight and die for "the fatherland," two husky lads—German, every inch of them—strolled into the office of the Atlanta Journal on Saturday night and asked for a bed for the night.

They are Edward Wagner, twenty-four years old, and Fritz Vieghler, twenty-two. Their home is in Lubbock, on the Neustadt bay, in the Baltic region. They are sailors.

Learning in New York shortly after the outbreak of the war, they found themselves unable to return to Germany. All gateways were closed to them. Then Wagner had an idea. He wrote a letter to his father in Lubbock, asking him to send him a passport to New York. He went to the docks and with his friend, Vieghler, secured passage as a sailor. Pretty money, came to them and after questioning them closely, refused to allow them to embark, fearing that they would be taken prisoner by the allies' outposts. Despite the protests of the boys and their willingness to take the chance, they were put ashore.

They are now in New York and are hard to obtain. The boys found a ship to Jacksonville, Fla., and eagerly went to work.

Knowing little of this continent, the boys hoped to find in Jacksonville, Fla., a ship that could take them back to some neutral port from which they could get to Germany.

In Jacksonville a nephew to their ship threatened to delay them. They had no ships could be found playing a transatlantic trade out of Jacksonville.

Delayed but undaunted, the youths started on a walk back to New York. They made the walk from Mazon to Atlanta in less than forty-eight hours, so earnest and eager are they.

Five cents was the total sum of money possessed by the two when they stepped into the police station Saturday night, but that was of little consequence to them. Bigger problems than the price of their next meal awaited them. Their one hope, an ambition was to get back "the fatherland."

"Don't you know you'll likely be killed when you do get there?" asked the police officer, who was of the opinion that the force of the sailor would be wiped from the face of the earth if they were asked.

"We expect to die," replied Fritz, but Germany will not die. She will defeat the world. She cannot be beaten." And in their eyes, blue and clear, shone the goal of the war.

Sunday morning, bright and early, they went out and with the aid of the Journal-New York Herald road signs at their guides, their heels commenced a steady beat and the miles separating them from the south slowly increased.

MRS. MARY E. SPENCER DIES AT AGE OF 84 YEARS

Funeral Service for Pioneer Atlanta Woman Will Be Held Tuesday Afternoon

After a week's illness, Mrs. Mary E. Spencer died Monday morning at the residence of Harry Alexander, 52 Park lane, Ashley Park, at the age of eighty-four years.

Mrs. Spencer was one of Atlanta's pioneer women, having lived here nearly fifty years. She was the widow of Colonel S. B. RIVAL MEXICAN FACTIONS STILL HOLD POSITIONS

General Bliss, From Naco, Ariz., Reports Situation Is Unchanged

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Brigadier General Bliss, at Naco, Arizona, today reported that the rival Mexican factions continued holding their positions. He made no mention of any shots falling in American soil.

American Consul Stillman at Mexico City today transmitted a message sent by Zlayotena, Villa commander at Naco, to Provisional President Gutierrez, stating his intention of moving his forces away from the American border. Saturday, he said, his forces refused to return fire to avoid shooting into American territory.

Word was received today from the Brazilian minister at Mexico City that Gutierrez' chief was considering declaring a general amnesty.

Disorders are feared in Matamoros, where the Gutierrez forces in possession of the city are threatened by an attack from Carranza troops. Secretary Bryan said today he was without advice of reported disorders in Mexico City or Vera Cruz.

DYER INSURANCE CASE SETTLED FOR $22,500

Widow of Herbert L. Dyer Reaches Agreement With Empire Life Company

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) VALDOSTA, Ga., Dec. 21.—In settlement of a $25,000 claim against the Empire Life Insurance company for the $25,000 policy issued to her deceased husband, Herbert L. Dyer, Mrs. Emily Briggs Dyer has been given $22,500 by the company, it is understood.

Mrs. and Mr. Dyer were once both well known in Atlanta, where they formerly lived. Following Mr. Dyer's death last summer, Mrs. Dyer brought suit for $25,000 in the city court of Valdosta against the Empire Life Insurance company. The company contested the claim on the ground that Mr. Dyer had committed suicide. The jury found differently, however, and a verdict for $25,000 was returned for the widow.

The company moved for a new trial; the motion was overruled, the company then filed its bill of exceptions and was about to take the case to the court of appeals when the settlement at $22,500 was agreed upon.

Bryan and Middlebrooks, of Atlanta; Patterson and Copeland and E. K. Wilcox, of Valdosta, represented Mrs. Dyer; Frank A. Hovver, of Atlanta, and Deane and Griffin, of Valdosta, represented the insurance company.

BABY FALLS IN GRATE; SAVED BY YOUNG MAN

Young Son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Lynch Has Narrow Escape

Perry B. Lynch, Jr., two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Perry B. Lynch, toddled too close to a grate fire in the home of his father, 28 Holbrook avenue, Monday morning, and his clothing became ignited.

J. H. Manner, a young man who lives at the Lynch home, was in the room at the time. He tore off his coat and wrapped it around the baby, smothering the blaze.

The little boy was taken to the Grady hospital, where a few slight burns were dressed. Doctors stated that Manner's prompt action probably saved the boy's life.

FREE TEXT BOOKS URGED FOR THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Executive Board of Federation of Trades Adopts Resolution of Approval

Free text books for the pupils in the Atlanta public schools are urged in resolutions adopted Sunday afternoon by the executive board of the Atlanta Federation of Trades and strongly endorsed by the Woman's Study club, through its president, Mrs. A. G. Helmer.

These resolutions will be presented to Mayor Woodward and the general council, and a delegation from the Federation of Trades will call upon Mayor Woodward and request that he use his influence to have council pass the necessary ordinances and provide the necessary appropriation.

It is pointed out in the resolutions adopted by the Federation of Trades that there are many children in Atlanta who are being denied the opportunity of an education because of the fact that their parents are unable to supply them with school books. With free school books it is contended the least hindrance to the opportunity of every child receiving an education will be removed, as free tuition is already provided.

Referring to the free textbook proposition the resolutions, in part, say:

"We believe this will be a distinct advance in the cause of education of all our children and will make our public schools free, indeed, and not in a limited sense.

"Therefore, in the progress of events, we submit that the time has come and now is that free textbooks and supplies should be furnished to the children in our public schools, and inasmuch as your honorable body stands as the spokesman for the people of the city, we ask that some means be provided by which these textbooks and supplies can be furnished free to the school children."

The resolutions were prepared and signed by J. K. Hewitt, president Atlanta Federation of Trades; S. B. Marks, president Georgia Federation of Labor; J. P. Bradford, secretary Atlanta Federation of Trades; Jerome Jones, chairman legislative committee Atlanta Federation of Trades; William Robinson, secretary legislative committee Atlanta Federation of Trades.

PROHIBITION BATTLE TO START MONDAY IN HOUSE

Forces Are Being Lined Up for Struggle on Hobson Resolution

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Representative Hobson, of Alabama, and other supporters of national prohibition were actively at work today lining up their forces for tomorrow's encounter in the house when the rule to take up the Hobson resolution for submission to the states of a constitutional amendment for nationwide prohibition will be voted on. This issue overshadows all other questions before congress during the week.
It was generally believed that the rule would be adopted by a majority vote only if necessary. The rule provides for eight hours of debate after which the resolution is to be voted on. Indications are that the discussion will be spirited. Administration leaders in the house predict that the prohibition resolution will be defeated. A two-thirds vote of the house would be necessary to secure its adoption. In case the resolution is defeated Senator Shepard, of Texas, later on in the senate will make an effort to get action on a similar resolution he introduced at the last session.
It had been planned to vote immediately afterward on a special rule for a woman's suffrage constitutional amendment but administration leaders today predicted there would be no opportunity to take up the question until after the holidays.

AD FINDS $50,000 WORTH OF JEWELS FOR BRIDE

Finder Returns Valuables and Receives Reward of $2,000

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 21.—Fifty thousand dollars worth of jewels lost here recently by a Chicago bride have been returned, the advertised reward of $2,000 has been paid, no questions were asked and the incident is closed, according to an announcement made today by the manager of a hotel where the couple were staying. Their identity remains a secret.

The bride dropped the jewel case as she entered her automobile upon leaving the theater, it was said, and the finder picked it up, read the advertisement and returned it.
The reason why the couple declined to reveal their identity, it was said at the hotel, was that they didn't want to give their relatives an opportunity to scold them for carelessness.

The merger meeting is to take place tomorrow. The General Investment company alleged that officials of the two roads sought to defile the trust of both roads and charged criminal violation of the Sherman anti-trust laws.

LONDON THEATERS WILL OPEN FOR CHRISTMAS

Children Will Not Be Robbed of Holiday Because of War

LONDON, Dec. 21.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—In spite of the gloom which hangs over London at night and the general depression as a result of the war, the more important London theaters will offer their Christmas pantomimes as usual, taking the position that children must not be robbed of their holiday treat because of the war.

"Cinderella," "Jack and the Beanstalk," "Sleeping Beauty" and a number of other favorite fancies of childhood are to be revived at Christmas time with the same brilliancy as in past years.

Hotels which have not attempted to have dancing since the opening of the war have also announced that they will resume the weekly Saturday evening dinner dances in an effort to throw off the gloom which is settling over England.

Mourning is rapidly displacing color in London streets and shop windows are filled with black hats. Belgian and French visitors are nearly all in mourning and few London hostesses are now able to arrange dinners, even very small affairs, without discovering that the war has visited death upon the families of many of their friends.

Harris Riled at Recent Turn in Fistic Circles

Made on Organized Ball

Federals Still Hope to Swing Johnson in Line

Manager of Kjd Williams Asserts That Bantam Champion Is Ready to Meet All Comers - Will Make Weight for Any Title Bout.

Sammy Harris, who looks after the ring interests of Kid Williams, the bantamweight boxing champion, is hot under collar about these attacks in Satiana, whereby his protegee has been accused of ducking tough bouts as well as an inability to make the bantamweight limit, 115 pounds ringside. The recent action of Dominick Tortorch, of New Orleans, in awarding a belt to Frankie Burns after his victory over "Chick" Hayes, symbolic of the championship, especially riles Harris. Following is a letter in which Harris expresses a few of his views and opinions.

New York, Dec. 15, 1914.

Sporting Editor:
 Dear Sir:—In view of the numerous misleading statements as to the attitude of Kid Williams, world's bantam champion, in reference to challengers for the title, will you please grant me enough of your valuable space in which to briefly set forth the facts?

Judging from recent statements by Frankie Burns and Johnny Coulon, they know more about the business affairs of Kid Williams than his manager does.

One assertion persistently made is that Dominick Tortorich, the New Orleans promoter, has offered a $5,000 purse for a bout between Williams and Burns, and that I re-

Permit me to say that Tortorich has not offered me a penny for a bout between Williams and Burns. No offer of any kind has been received from Tortorich, as to a match with Burns, and until I get an offer I will not be able to act on it. I did receive an offer to let Williams box Pete Herman, but that 14 all off, since Herman lost to Butts. Tortorich knows where to reach me, by wire or letter, and if he sends me an offer for a Williams-Burns bout, I certainly will consider it.

The report from New Orleans that Tortorich gave a belt to Burns after the Jersey man had beaten Chick Hayes, needs explanation. What was the belt for? If it was for beating Hayes, then the belt went to the wrong man, for Williams knocked out Hayes some months ago. If Tortorich's belt is symbolic of an alleged title, then the donor is assuredly very presumptuous, for he has no authority to confer any alleged championship belt on anyone. Kid Williams is the undisputed Bantam champion of the world, and a carload of belts will not Much fault is found with me because I insist on adequate compensation for the champion's services. Some of the promoters apparently believe the champion should box at their clubs for what a preliminary boy would get. Let me offer a comparative statement: Coulton got $9,000 for being stopped by Williams in 3 rounds. Was any fault found with Coulton? Not a bit. Therefore, why rail at Williams, far superior as a fighter to Coulton, for wanting the fruits of his victory? All champions from Jack Johnson (who demands and gets $30,000) down to Walsh and Kilbane, ask big money for boxing. Why make an exception in the case of Williams, who has beaten nearly every good bantam in the world? The question of weight also seems to worry some of Williams' challengers. They are afraid the champion cannot inake 116 pounds ringside. Let me say once and for all, that any time a boxer faces Williams in the ring in a championship bout, it will be at 116 pounds ringside. Williams may box limited, no decision bouts at times.

Williams was matched to box Jimmy Murray before a Philadelphia club, Saturday, but the promoter decided Murray was not a fit opponent for the champion and put in another man. This will doubtless give the boxer a chance

The champion will be seen in action Christmas afternoon with Johnny Daly at Pioneer A. C. and any New Yorker's who want to see the greatest fighting machine since the days of Terry McGovern, should not miss the opportunity.

Very truly yours,
SAMMY HARRIS, Manager

In the light of recent actions, this appears to be Manager Mack's view of his own club. Now, what about the Braves and Manager Stallings? Just this: Stallings believes that his club on a pennant and a world's championship because it played better ball than the opposition, and, furthermore, that

A short time ago the Braves' pilot attended a dinner to Manager McGraw in New York. He made a speech, or talk, he would probably call it himself. He said in the course of this talk that the rest of the baseball world did not give his club full credit for its worth. He rather did not understand it. This did not mean to say that anybody felt inclined to belittle the performance of the Braves, but rather that all accepted their victory as one of the things that simply cannot be explained.

In other words, baseball fans the world over have come to rate the Athletics as a championship aggregation based on their record of four or five years' play. They also regard the Braves as occupying a position considerably removed from the Philadelphia team, judging them from the records which they have hung up individually in the last few seasons. If such were really the case, it might have reasonably been expected that next year the Athletics would have come back into their own

But Connie Mack did not believe that his club still carried the same efficiency as a team that it had when it was winning four pennants and three world championships in five years. Else he never would have torn the old machine to pieces. And George Stallings does believe that his team can repeat. Furthermore the Boston skipper knows full that by the time another season has been played out random will have come to hold his club in higher esteem both as a club and individually. Please note also that he has the record of the past season to back him up in his belief. Make no mistake about it. Stallings has numerous star players in his club. If the world has not gotten wise to the fact up to now, it is due to absorb a lot of wisdom along his line before very much longer.

Who would have ever thought that he husky and rather ungainly Mr.

Occasionally they grab a star ball player out of the bushes, so why not a star manager? Comiskey may have made no mistake after all.

resident Gilmore Wires Hurler to Come to Chicago for Conference — Pitcher Has Not Yet Returned Bonus. Feds Will Take Matter to Courts as a Last Resort

CHICAGO, Dec. 21.—Walter Johnson, star pitcher, who announced Saturday he would disregard a Federal league contract he recently signed and remain with the Washington Americans, has not yet advised President Gilmore of the Federal of his decision nor let him see the $6,000 advance salary paid him, was said here yesterday by Gilmore. Gilmore reiterated his belief that Johnson had been wrongfully persuaded by attorneys for the American league that the reserve clause of the Washington club contract would hold him. He sent Johnson a long telegram urging him to come to Chicago at the expense

If it is the opinion of these lawyers that your action was justified," continued the telegram, "it will place you in the proper light before sport-loving people. On the contrary if it is their opinion that your action was not honorable, and you then do not quickly repudiate the new contract which was signed yesterday, you will forever cast on your shoulders a burden of disrepute."

Gilmore said Johnson had complied with the terms of the option clause in his 1936 contract in first offering his services to the Senators.

"When the St. Louis Federals withdrew their offer of $20,000 to Johnson," he continued, "Washington immediately withdrew an offer they were reputed to have made of $15,000."

Gilmore declared unless Johnson came to Chicago in response to his telegram, he would immediately bring suit to prevent the pitching star's serving the Washington club.

CENSUS BUREAU REPORTS

This Compares With 12,927,- 428 Bales Last Year and

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Cotton spinning up to the period ending December 12 made a new record, exceeding that established in 1911, the year of previous record cotton production, by more than 200,000 bales.

That was indicated today in the census bureau's report showing 3,977,189 bales and bales ginned prior to December 13, in the last week of the year. The report also showed that the entire crop had been ginned prior to December 13. Calculating this year's crop on the basis of the 1912 estimate of 4,170,000 bales, it would exceed 1912 production by 140,000 bales. The department's preliminary estimate of the crop placed it at 35,000,000 bales; last year the department's preliminary estimate was 34,500,000 bales, while the final production was 34,150,000 five-hundred-pound bales.

Oklahoma, to December 13, had gained 1,068,548 bales, or more than produced there in any year heretofore.

In Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Texas gains to December 13 were greater than last year's entire production there.

Ginns during the period amounted to 900,982 bales—more than ginned in the same period in any year except 1911.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The seventh cotton ginning report of the season, compiled

From reports of census bureau correspondents and agents throughout the cotton belt and issued at 10 a. m. today, announced that in 1912, the lowest of cotton, counting round as well as square bales, the growth of the first seven months of the year had gained prior to December 13. This compared with 12,927,428 bales, or 92.5 per cent of the entire crop, gained prior to December 13, last year. 12,439,600 bales, or 92.2 per cent in 1912 and 12,770,727 bales, or 85.5 per cent in 1911. The average quantity of cotton gained prior to December 1 in the past four years was 12,458,158 bales or 91.4 per cent of the crop.

NEWLANDS BILL CONFAB AROUSES MUCH INTEREST

President and Members of Cabinet Will Discuss Proposed Commission

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—In congressional circles today the outcome of a conference at the White House tonight between President Wilson, members of his cabinet and Senator Newlands regarding the Newlands proposal for the creation of a commission to control federal activity in waterway improvement, was being awaited with interest. Upon its result depends whether or not the administration shall seek action at this session of congress on the plan for such a commission.

Those who had been invited to discuss with the president the advisability of throwing the influence of the administration behind the proposal included in addition to Mr. Newlands, Secretaries Lane, Redfield, Houston and Garrison. The cabinet members were to outline to the conference the results of an inquiry conducted by them, at the request of the president, into Senator Newlands' plan for abolishing the present method of making river and harbor appropriations. President Wilson had approved the Newlands plan in principle and Chairman Sparksman, of the house rivers and harbors committee, is understood to favor the idea.

It is expected that an effort will be made to secure the adoption of an amendment to the rivers and harbors bill now pending in the house to provide for the creation of the proposed commission. Senator Newlands has announced his intention of insisting upon action when the measure reached the senate.

WHY TAKE CHANCES WITH ACUTE INDIGESTION?

Warning symptoms, keen pains in the upper region of heart, a sensation of tightness and can't get long breath, feel as if breath would stop—food feels like lead in the stomach; stomach tender and sore; weak, smothery feelings. It is a reflection upon one's intelligence to suffer these tortures when Nuxera will bring relief and restore you to health. All druggists, $1.00 bottle. National Laboratory Co., Box 877, Atlanta.

COLD CONTRACTED AT FUNERAL CAUSES DEATH

News reached Atlanta Sunday of the death in Washington of G. T. Bruffey, brother of Edward C. Bruffey, a well known newspaper man of Atlanta. Mr. Bruffey was a resident of Washington and was employed in the government printing office. He was 67 years old.

Surviving him are his wife, one son, his sister, Mrs. Laura Trent, of Lynchburg, Va., and his brother, of Atlanta. Mr. Bruffey's death was the result of a cold which he contracted while attending the funeral of his mother on December 5.

AGREED VERDICT FOR $100 FOR INJURIES

A consent verdict of $100 and costs was granted John Paul Wington, fourteen years old, against A. L. Belle Isle in Judge W. D. Little's branch of the superior court Monday. Wington sued for $100, plus damages for a broken leg, alleged to have been caused by being run over by Belle Isle taxi.

land has specialized in "two-and-a-half" plum pudding, each in its stone jar—some pudding to a soldier. They need but to be stowed in a camp kettle—which for the most part began life as an oil can—and then eaten with what sauce the soldier may find. Ogilvy says there isn't a private at the front who has not been assured of a bit of brandy to set blurring over his sweetest.

"No," said he judicially, "but what it seems a slight waste of good brandy."

Germany seems—as far as the Berlin windows showed—to run to roast geese and sausages. Those windows seem to be particularly adapted to the German digestion. Wounded men convalesce on wurst. Very large, very rich, cakes were also being baked for the delectation of the military tooth. In France dainties seem to be favored for the fighters, together with most excellent pates. The French stay-at-homes may live, day in and day out, on soup and coarse bread, but each French man and French woman has been able to send some delicate to a friend at the front. Nor have the other practical needs of the men been forgotten.

One would think that the exposed Scotch knee is in need of protection. But it is in Berlin that one finds "knie warmers" for sale—a stockinet country which may be pulled on over the middle joint of the leg. Berlin, too, seems to have a fancy for very heavy woolen socks and sleeping helmets of prodigious thickness. France runs to underclothing, perhaps because the variety furnished by the war office is said to be rather more cheap than warm. England specializes in heavy jerseys, and believes in blankets rather than in the sleeping bags which German gift-givers have pinned their faith to.

The police worked on the theory that robbery prompted the crime, but a suicide theory was not abandoned.

GEORGIA CONGRESSMEN FAVOR AMENDED RULE

Explain Action in Changing Vote on Postoffice Appropriation

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—Congressmen Bartlett, Lee, Vinson and Johnson have no apologies for changing their votes on the postoffice appropriation rule. Sixty Democrats in all changed their votes and Chairman Moon of the postoffice committee accused them of being influenced by the railroads. As a matter of fact they opposed the rule because it sought to reduce the salaries of the postmasters and to abolish rural carriers by letting out mail delivery on rural routes to the lowest bidder. When the rule was finally amended on Saturday so as to take care of the postmasters and rural carriers the four Georgia congressmen voted for it.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21. Editor of The Atlanta Journal: Please correct the error in the report from Washington to the effect that I had intored Judge Bartlett for district court judgeship. I did not call to see the president in the interest of Judge Bartlett. I am supporting Joe Pottle, and if the bill passes will then see the president in his behalf. I have not discussed his appointment with the president.
